"ANTI-SEMITISM" EXPOSED! JEWS' PHONY "SECRET WEAPON" IN "COLD WAR", FEAR OF "ANTI-SEMITISM SMEAR" AIDING REDS! The most meaningless, most misunderstood, most misused word, coined by Jews in 1880 for combatting exposure by Christians.

By BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN

Founder in 1950 of the Christian Anti-defamation League.

The Jews phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" is recognized by all leading authorities as the phoniest word in the entire English language. Random House's American Everyday Dictionary defines "phony": "not genuine; counterfeit; fraudulent." The incontestible proof assembled here for the first time reveals the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" is being successfully used today to undermine the security of the nation, to transform our present form of government, and to destroy civilization founded upon Christian principles. Every Christian worthy of that designation should enlist without delay in the crusade to prohibit the use of the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism," regardless who uses it, or why they use it. To use it is to aid and abet the enemies of this country! The data which follows here furnishes incontestible proof how phony "anti-Semitism" is, and the word always to be used in its place.

PHONY SMEAR-WORD DEADLIEST WEAPON IN "COLD WAR" ARSENAL

Victory in the struggle to preserve our present form of government, and civilization founded upon Christian principles, is impossible unless Christians understand the grave danger of the continued use of the Jews phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." That will not be an easy task for Christians. Jews have done such a successful brain-washing job on Christians, that Christians do not now have any suspicion that "anti-Semitism" is nothing but the Jews' phony smear-word and is devoid of any real meaning. Christians little suspect that the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" is the deadliest of all weapons in the arsenal of the dedicated and avowed enemies of Christians. In their self-defense, Christians must leave no stone unturned to hasten the discontinuance of the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism," in both its printed and its spoken versions. This must be accomplished at the very earliest possible moment. Failure to do so is giving aid and comfort to our enemies!

JEWS ENJOY MONOPOLY OF MEDIA FOR BRAIN-WASHING CHRISTIANS

During the past 50 years, Jews have purchased and otherwise acquired effective control throughout the world of the media for shaping public opinion. Jews planned this primarily as defense strategy. The commercial possibilities were always regarded by Jews as a secondary consideration. Control of the media for shaping public opinion throughout the world enabled Jews to brain-wash Christians on any subject to any extent as it best served the interests of Jews. In the United States today, Jews own or enjoy effective control of newspapers, magazines, radio networks, television networks, the motion picture, theatre and entertainment industries, publication of books of every description and all international news services. By means of this exclusive control, Jews in the United States today enjoy an effective monopoly of the media for shaping public opinion. By strict exercise of this monopoly, Jews have been able to prevent Christians in the United States from learning the truth about Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists), secretly masquerading under other less provocative sounding names temporarily if doing so advances their sinister conspiracy. Whenever an informed Christian courageously attempts to reveal publicly the truth about this conspiracy, and the conspirators, Jews promptly proceed to assassinate the character of their intended victim by unrestricted and unrestrained use of the Jews phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Jews have ruthlessly applied their economic, political and social sanctions against Christian victims by resort to their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Christians stupidly shun Christians who have become targets of that pitiless persecution by Jews. Can any attitude be more un-Christian and un-American

CONGRESSMAN CRUCIFIED FOR LIFTING THE LID ON COMMUNISM

In the year 1933 patriotic Congressman J. Hamilton Fish attempted to tell the nation the truth about Marxism (communism) and the Marxists (communists). In fulfilling his obligation under his oath of office, Congressman Fish found it impossible to avoid the use of the word "Jew" in his reports to the nation. At the first mention of the word "Jew," Congressman Fish triggered the nationwide propaganda apparatus of the Jews, and Congressman Fish was thereupon pitilessly pelted by day and by night, from coast to coast, in every media for shaping public opinion, with the Jews phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Jews made no attempt to disprove

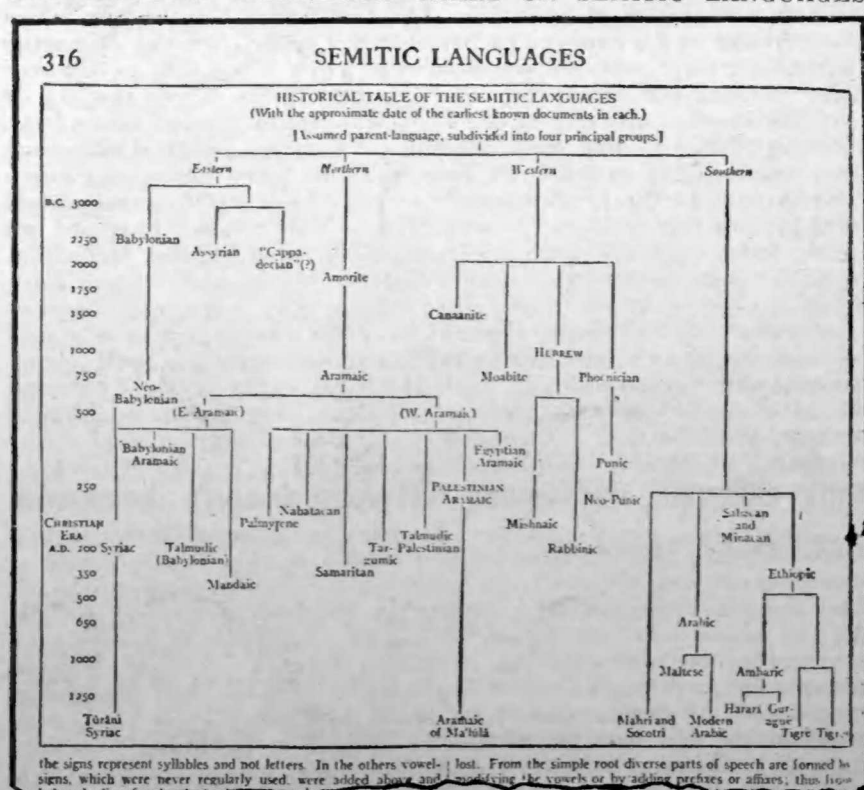

Congressman Fish's statements. It would have been the easiest way to discredit Congressman Fish. But it was impossible for Jews to disprove them. Jews' faces will turn very red today if they read what Congressman Fish stated about them in 1933. Christians should compare what Congressman Fish stated in the printed records of Congressional investigations of Marxism (communism) commencing in 1933, with the printed records of the trials of Marxists (communists) convicted since then of conspiracy to overthrow our government by force and violence, and more recent Congressional investigations of Marxism (communism). If Jews had not assassinated Congressman Fish's political career with their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism," the history of the world since 1933 would make more pleasant reading today, and Christians in the United States might now be able to sleep more soundly at night!

SOLDIER IN CHRIST'S ARMY COURT-MARTIALED IN ENEMY'S CAMP

In 1933 Father Charles Coughlin also endeavored to enlighten the nation on the dangers the world was facing from Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists). Father Coughlin did not have the slightest interest in the religious affiliations or the spiritual beliefs, if they had any, of the Marxist (communist) conspirators. Father Coughlin was solely interested in their Marxist (communist) political, economic and social doctrines and dogmas. When discussing Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) on his nation-wide radio broadcasts, Father Coughlin committed the unpardonable "sin" referring to Jews by that name. But by what other name could Father Coughlin designate the persons who invariably identified themselves publicly as "Jews," except when discussing Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists)? Because

ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA CHART ON SEMITIC LANGUAGES

This historic chart shows the approximate dates of the earliest known written documents in the 43 Semitic languages. Before invention of the first alphabet about 2250 B. C. the 43 Semitic languages were spoken but not written as in all cases of the other languages. The 43 written Semitic languages shown here on this chart were all evolved from the four principal Eastern, Northern, Western, and Southern Semitic parent-language groups. "Hebrew" (i. e. "immigrant") was first applied in 1000 B. C. to that Semitic language spoken by the ancient Canaanites. It was first so styled by invading Egyptian exiles under Joshua in 1350 B. C. "Hebrew" is "sephath Kena'an" ("the lip of Canaan") in the Old Testament. "Hebrew" is derived from Semitic "ibhray" the Semitic equivalent for "immigrant" but did not denote then either a race, a religion or a nation.

Father Coughlin uttered the word "Jews" in his radio broadcasts pressure by Jews forced Father Coughlin off the air. Whether what Father Coughlin stated was true or false had little significance. What Father Coughlin told the nation was never disproved. That would have been the easiest way to silence Father Coughlin. But to the contrary, subsequent events have confirmed Father Coughlin's comments. Silencing Father Coughlin was another demonstration of the effective monopoly exercised by Jews over all media for shaping public opinion. What Father Coughlin had to say in 1933, if then said by him without interference, would have made this a far better world to live in today. Jews sentenced him to silence!

CHRISTLESS CHRISTIANS "TURN THEIR BACK ON" CHRISTIAN HERO

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was another victim of the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Prior to World War II, Colonel Lindbergh returned to this country from a trip to Russia and Germany, where he made an on-the-spot investigation of Marxism (communism) and the Marxist (communist) conspiracy. Colonel Lindbergh reported his views to the nation. In his reports, Colonel Lindbergh found it impossible to avoid using the word "Jew" for the identical reason Father Coughlin could not avoid using it. In retaliation for referring to "Jews" by that name, Colonel Lindbergh was blasted with the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" by day and by night, and from coast to coast, until even Christians "turned their back on him," something even Dean Acheson would not do to Alger Hiss. Jews did not dare to let the public learn what Colonel Lindbergh had to tell them. But Jews never made any attempt to disprove what Colonel Lindbergh stated in his reports to the nation. That would have been impossible. Colonel Lindbergh knew what he was talking about, and the Jews knew that he knew too. If the nation had been permitted by the Jews to learn what Colonel Lindbergh had to report, the rise of Marxism (communism) throughout the world since 1933 might not have been so meteoric, and the United States might never have entered World War II. The Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" scored another victory for Marxist (communist) aggression in their world-wide "cold war."

JEWS WORK HARD TO SABOTAGE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES TEAMS

Congressman Martin B. Dies met the same fate that befell Congressman Fish, Father Coughlin and Colonel Lindbergh, and for the very same reason. Congressman Dies was the first Chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee. Congressman Dies incurred the wrath of the Jews when his committee started breathing too hard, down the necks of the Marxists (communists). Congressman Dies' committee was discovering too many Jews in their investigation of Marxism (communism). Congressman Dies was forced into retirement by the strategy of Jews who feared his further activities would expose too many of their co-religionists. When the full story of that retirement is told, that strategy will reveal itself as a most sinister form of blackmail. Jews have never ceased fighting through their countless tax-deductible quasi-religious organizations and pseudo-religious committees to permanently abolish the Committee on Un-American Activities. The Chairmen of the Committee on Un-American Activities who have succeeded Congressman Dies have been attacked for the identical reason with the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Because the Committee on Un-American Activities' investigations revealed a preponderant number of Jews among Marxist (communist) conspirators, Congressman Thomas, Congressman Wood, Congressman Walter and others have been subjected to sniping with the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." The printed records of these Congressional hearings, and others, emphasize the predominance of Jews in the Marxist (communist) conspiracy in America. The records speak for themselves.

"KISS OF DEATH" FOR SENATOR MCCARTHY BY AN UNHOLY TRINITY

Senator Joseph McCarthy is another illustration of what the Jews do to a loyal and competent public servant when he attempts to investigate Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists), and discovers the large number of Jews against whom he must direct his investigations. Senator McCarthy invited political suicide when he interested himself in the effort made in 1950 by informed patriots to prevent the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense under General Marshall, transferred to Secretaryship to appoint her. The Jews never forgave nor forgot that service to his country by Senator McCarthy. Senator McCarthy signed his own political death-warrant when he sought to discover who ordered the promotion of Peress, and why it was that 34 of the 36 security suspects in the Fort Monmouth scandal were Jews. Senator McCarthy had been marked by Jews for political assassination because his uninhibited investigations were giving too much prominence to the predominance of Jews in Marxist (communist) activities in this country. Senator Jenner and Senator Eastland are faced today with the same problem which faced Senator McCarthy. Will the Jews be able to relegate Senator Jenner and Senator Eastland to the political limbo into which they have cast Senator McCarthy? If the Jews cannot supervise Senator Jenner's and Senator Eastland's activities by threats to otherwise use their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism," will the Jews again arrange through Bernard Baruch to have George Sokolsky, Roy Cohen and Rabbi Schultz give Senator Jenner and Senator Eastland the same "kiss of death" which that most unholy trinity gave to Senator McCarthy?

FIRST CHRISTIAN ANTAGONISM DEVELOPS AGAINST COMMUNISM

Surprising as it will seem, the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" was only coined by them about the year 1880 A. D. The Jews in Europe at that moment were frantically in search of an effective means to harass Christians then energetically exposing the responsibility of Jews for the Marxist (communist) revolutions in Europe. Christians in Europe were commencing to understand the connection between Jews and Marxism (communism). Christians were beginning to exhibit their antagonism toward Jews on that account. Jews coined their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" at that time for the specific purpose of combating Christians engaged in exposing Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists). Jews were striving desperately to discredit the Christians courageously fighting to enlighten Christians on the Marxist (communist) program for world domination. Jews at that time coined their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" as their "secret weapon" of their defense strategy in the Marxist (communist) "cold war" to become rulers of the world by enslaving humanity.

POLISH JEWS ORGANIZE ORIGINAL WORLD-WIDE COMMUNIST PLOT

The effective date of Marxism (communism) as an organized Marxist (communist) campaign for the conquest of the world, is authenticated by the Encyclopedia Britannica and countless other unbiased qualified authorities, as the date of the creation of the Organization for the Emancipation of Labour in 1883, the year in which Karl Marx died. Its leading founder, a Jew named Axelrod, and his Marxist (communist) followers preached the Marxist (communist) doctrine that the essential requisite for the world-wide success of the Marxist (communist) revolutionary effort was the organization of the world's working classes. Axelrod's Organization for the Emancipation of Labour was the first Marxist (communist) organization in Russia. In 1883 Poland was a province of Russia. The Jews in Poland and Lithuania contributed further to the development of Marxism (communism) in Russia when in 1897 they founded the Marxist (communist) organization called the Bund, composed exclusively of Polish Jews. Polish Jews engaged in Marxist (communist) revolutionary activities on a large scale, and their energy made them "the spear-head of the entire Marxist (communist) movement," an historic fact verified by countless unbiased authorities, including the Encyclopedia Britannica. Polish Jews founded "the first party conference" at Minsk in 1898, where the Polish Jews established "the first Marxist (communist) organization," where they elected "the first central committee," and where they published their "historic manifesto." As the country of their birth indicates, Polish Jews organized Marxist (communist) subsidiary organizations throughout the world and became the leaders of these Marxist (communist) organizations in every leading country of the world where to this day they direct all activities of these groups.

SIDNEY HILLMAN ORGANIZES FIRST U. S. A. COMMUNIST PARTY

A little understood historic fact today is that the first Marxist (communist) revolution in Russia occurred in 1905. The Russian government successfully suppressed this first large-scale Marxist (communist) revolution with the limited military forces available at that time. Russia's military forces were engaged in the Pacific in a war with Japan in 1905. It is an absolute rule among Marxist (communist) revolutionaries that Marxist (communist) revolutions must never be started until the military forces of the nation to be destroyed are engaged in a foreign war or are "actively engaged elsewhere." Under leadership of a young rabbi, since then known in the United States by his assumed name Sidney Hillman, the Marxists (communists) unsuccessfully attempted to accomplish in 1905 what they so successfully accomplished in 1917. The second and successful Marxist (communist) revolution in Russia was postponed until 1917, when the military forces of Russia were again "actively engaged elsewhere." In 1917 Russia's total military forces were engaged in the war being waged against Germany, and Russia was being badly defeated by Germany, when the United States entered World War I to snatch victory from defeat for the Allied Powers. When sentenced to life imprisonment in Siberia for his participation in the 1905 Marxist (communist) revolution in Russia, Sidney Hillman fled to England. From England, Sidney Hillman immigrated to the United States where he actively engaged in the "organization of the working classes," and in 1921 founded the Communist Party in the United States. Suppression of the 1905 Marxist (communist) revolution in Russia with military forces was publicized by Jews throughout the world as persecution of Jews by Russia on "religious grounds," the "not genuine; counterfeit; fraudulent" theme of the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." The truth was stated in an editorial appearing in "The Maccabean," on page 250 of its November 1905 issue, under the headline "A Jewish Revolution." The editorial comments, referring to the 1905 Marxist (communist) revolution in Russia, "The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history. It is a Jewish revolution . . . the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's empire." The publication "The Maccabean," published in New York, is recognized by Jews everywhere as the official mouthpiece for Jews throughout the world. Since 1905 Jews have never repudiated that affirmation.

JEWS PROMISE WORLD-WIDE FACSIMILES OF 1917 REVOLUTION

After the successful Marxist (communist) revolution in Russia in 1917, a growing necessity arose for the means to combat Christians who were publicly proving that Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) were everywhere dominated and directed by Jews. That necessity created and accelerated the use by Jews of their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" on a far greater scale than ever. Rising Christian antagonism toward Marxist (communist) subversion mirrored that authentic analysis by "The American Hebrew," a publication of leading Jews in the United States, in its September 20, 1920 issue. In their editorial in that issue "The American Hebrew" commented, "The Bolshevik (Marxist) Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction and by Jewish planning, shall also through the same Jewish mental and physical forces become a reality all over the world." The most noted rabbi in the United States, Rabbi Judah L. Magnes in 1919 stated to a New York audience, "Revolutionists, socialists, bolsheviks (Marxists), majority or minority socialists, under whatever name we may call them, are Jews, and they are to be found in every revolutionary movement as leaders or propagandists." The internationally famous lecturer and traveler Clare Sheridan, in an interview appearing in the "New York World" on December 15, 1923 stated: "The Communists are Jews, and Russia is entirely administered by them."

HISTORY CONFIRMS JEWS' LEADERSHIP IN RUSSIA'S REVOLTS

On March 29, 1919, "The Times" of London commented: "Of the leaders who provide the central machinery for the Bolshevik (Marxist) movement, not less than 75% are Jews. Among the minor officials the number is legion." On April 4, 1919, "The London Jewish Chronicle" commented: "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism (Marxism) itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks (Marxists). The ideals of Bolshevism (Marxism) are consonant with many of the highest ideals of Judaism." In its February-March 1920 issue, "Asia Magazine" comments: "In all the Bolshevik (Marxist) institutions the heads are Jews." Jews formed approximately 5% of the population of Russia in 1917 but filled between 82% and 97% of all places on the committees which governed the Soviet Union when it was created by the Marxist (communist) revolution. On the Central Committee of the Extraordinary Commission and the Council of Commissars which ruled Russia at the time of the assassination of Czar Nicholas and his family, there were 41 Jews among the 62 members. On the Extraordinary Commission of Moscow there were 23 Jews among the 36 members. On the Council of People's Commissars there were 17 Jews among the 22 members. The official Soviet Union press service supplied information that there were 457 Jews among the 556 important officials of the Soviet Union. On the Central Committee of the Bolshevik (Communist) Party there were 9 Jews among the 12 members in 1918 when the governmental power of the Soviet Union was concentrated in that committee. At the head of miscellaneous other political parties at the time, there were 55 Jews among the 65 heads. The names of these Jews are a matter of official public record, and can be supplied upon request for them by interested parties. On April 12, 1919, in the "Communist Kharkov," published in the Soviet Union, M. Cohen comments: "Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian (1917) Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews."

SENATE TOLD NEW YORK JEWS RULERS OF 1917 REVOLUTION

In a written report of the Intelligence Service of the United States Armed Forces in Russia, forwarded to the French Government by the French High Commissioner of his government in Russia, are listed the names of the 25 Marxists (communists) who became the rulers of the Russian people in 1917. Of these 25 Marxists (communists), 24 are Jews. Lenin was the 25th name amongst them. Lenin was not always regarded as a Jew although he was married to a Jew, and spoke only Yiddish at home with members of his immediate family, so it is said. Dr. Chaim Weizmann, the Zionist leader, is quoted in "The Jewish Chronicle" of London, on December 16, 1932 as stating that to his personal knowledge Lenin attended meetings of student Jews thirty-five years earlier when Lenin was a permanent resident in Switzerland. Reverend George A. Simons, Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Petrograd from 1907 to October 6, 1918 made a statement before a Committee of the United States Senate on February 12, 1919 which appears in Appendix B, Volume III, of United States Senate Document No. 62, of the 66th Congress of the United States. Referring to Jews in the Marxist (communist) government in Petrograd, Reverend Simons comments: "In December 1918 . . . under presidency of a man known as Apfelbaum (Zinovieff) . . . out of 388 members, only 16 happened to be real Russians, and all the rest, with the exception of one who is a negro from North America . . . and 265 of these Jews belonging to this Northern Commune government that is sitting in the old Smolny Institute come from the Lower East Side of New York — 265 of them." On September 18, 1918, ten months after addressing his infamous "Balfour Declaration" to Lord Rothschild, the world's most powerful Zionist, Mr. Arthur Balfour, received a report from Sir M. Findlay, from Christiana. In Sir Findlay's report to Mr. Balfour, Great Britain's Foreign Minister, Sir Findlay, quoted from the September 6, 1919 report to him from Mr. M. Oudendyk, Netherlands Minister to Petrograd, as follows: "The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call the attention of the British and all other governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism (Marxism) in Russia at once, the civilization of the whole world will be threatened . . . I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world . . . and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism (Marxism) is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things." Mr. Balfour presented this report to Parliament by Command of His Majesty in April 1919, and issued it also in printed form for 9 pence, (Russia No. 1-1919), of which photostats are available. Can the world today say that it was not warned in time to act?

2,600,000 JEWS OCCUPIED TOP SOVIET UNION GOVERNMENT JOBS

The Jewish Encyclopedia corroborates that in 1917 there were 7,800,000 Jews in Russia out of a total population of 158,000,000. On January 6, 1933, "The Jewish Chronicle" of London states that since 1917 more than one-third of all the 7,800,000 Jews in the Soviet Union have become officials in the government. After President Franklin D. Roosevelt recognized the Soviet Union in 1933, other governments were compelled to do likewise. Of the 17 first ambassadors appointed by the Soviet Union to the world's leading nations, 15 were Jews. The entire delegation of the Soviet Union to the League of Nations were Jews when the Soviet Union became a member in 1935. The delegation was headed by Meyer Genoch Moisevitch Wallach, known also as Maxim Litvinov. At the end of World War I, the Soviet Union was in the hands of the Jews, and became the headquarters for Marxist (communist) supervision and direction of Marxist (communist) revolutionary movements then shaking Europe to its foundations. Hungary came under the power of Bela Kun, a Jew. Germany almost became a Marxist (communist) nation permanently, headed by a Jew. The revolution triumphed in Austria under Bauer, a Jew. Poland, Italy and Switzerland were saved by very slim margins. The international news services upon which newspapers must rely for their foreign news are all either owned or under the effective control of Jews. The reports of Marxist (communist) revolutions in Europe for that reason omitted any reference to the fact leadership was all in the hands of Jews.

JEWS COIN PHONY SMEAR-WORD "ANTI-SEMITISM" ONLY IN 1880

Amazed as Christians may be to learn it now for the first time, it is nevertheless an incontestable fact that the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" did not exist prior to the year 1880 A. D. And equally amazing is the fact that the term "Semitism" did not exist prior to 1850 A. D. Christians do not at first find it easy to adjust their thinking to the modern origin of both these terms. The proof of the modern origin of these two terms is overwhelming. In his memoirs "Erinnerungen," published in Berlin in 1889, the noted authority on that subject, Ludwig Bamberger, referring to 1858 or shortly before, emphasizes that the word "Semitism" had not yet then been "invented," as he termed it. Referring to the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism," the 1904 edition of The Jewish Encyclopedia states: "So far as can be ascertained, the word was first printed in 1880." The Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" actually was first printed in an article by W. Marr, titled "Zwanglose Antisemitische Hefte" in 1880. In the same year Wilhelm Scherer also used the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" in his historic article printed in the "Neue Freie Presse." Referring to the growing use of the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism," the editor of the "Allgemeine Zeitung des Judenthums" stated in July 1882: "This quite recent anti-Semitism is hardly three years old." The 1904 edition of The Jewish Encyclopedia confirms the modern origin of the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" in the following definition: "Anti-Semitism. A modern word expressing antagonism to the political and social equality of the Jews." The Jewish Encyclopedia confirms that "anti-Semitism" is "A modern word." The "antagonism" to which it refers was not Christian antagonism "to the political and social equality of the Jews" but antagonism by Christians toward Jews for their revolutionary Marxist (communist) "political and social" attitudes and activities. The modern origins of "Semitism" and "anti-Semitism" are recognized by every philologist, etymologist, theologian, historian, and archeologist knowing this subject. All Christians should now be informed of these facts. In discussing the growing antagonism toward Jews in Europe and throughout the world for the undeniable known responsibility of Jews for Marxism (communism) and world-wide Marxist (communist) activities, as recently as 1928 the Holy Office of the Vatican in Rome, and His Holiness Pope Pius XI were reluctant to then use the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." In referring to the Judaophobia sweeping Europe then His Holiness Pope Pius XI described this growing antagonism "namely, which nowadays is commonly called 'anti-Semitism'." His Holiness then intelligently qualified use of "anti-Semitism" with his skeptical "so-called," "ANTI-SEMITISM" IS "NOT GENUINE; COUNTERFEIT; FRAUDULENT"

Christians cannot begin to measure the magnitude of the "not genuine; counterfeit; fraudulent" deceptiveness of the Jews phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" without an understanding of the origin and meanings of the terms "Semite," "Semitic" and "Semitism." The term "Semite" is the modern descriptive term created by modern historians with which to identify the ancient legendary lineal descendants of Shem, one of the three sons of Noah. The Scriptures relate that Noah had three sons, named Japheth, Ham and Shem. Theologians, historians and scientists have not yet been able to determine in which millenium Noah and his three sons lived. Their estimates vary roughly from less than 10,000 years ago to more than 100,000 years ago. All opinions agree however that Japheth, Ham and Shem lived in a time many thousands of years prior to the time of Abraham of Bible fame. It is today quite generally accepted by leading authorities that Abraham lived about 1950 B. C. According to legend, Europeans were the lineal descendants of Japheth, Africans were the lineal descendants of Ham, while the lineal descendants of Shem inhabited the approximate one-million square-mile area separating Europe from Africa. Shem's legendary lineal descendants allegedly inhabited the approximate one-million square-mile area extending from the River Nile in Egypt to the Euphrates River which runs through the middle of Syria and Iraq and empties into the Persian Gulf. That approximate one-million square-mile area is today known as the Middle East and then included the territories of modern Palestine, Syria, Saudi-Arabia, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, Yemen and large areas of modern and sovereign Egypt, Turkey, Iran, Abyssinia, Ethiopia and the Sudan.

CHRISTIANS AND MOSLEMS 99 99/100 OF ALL WORLD'S SEMITES

The ancient legendary descendants of Shem for the first time in history were identified as "Shemitic nations" or "Semitic nations" by modern historians in 1781. The peoples of the "Shemitic nations" or "Semitic nations" for the first time in history were identified as "Shemites" or "Semites" by modern historians also about 1781. In the Latin language the word "Shem" took the form "Sem." With the spreading use of the Latin language throughout the Middle East with the expansion of the Roman empire into that area, the Latin term "Sem" rapidly displaced and soon totally replaced the use of the term "Shem" in all its different forms. Historians, theologians and scientists now refer to "Semites" instead of "Shemites," and to "Semitic nations" instead of "Shemitic nations." The terms "Semite" and "Semitic" bore no reference to the races, to the religions or to the nationalities of persons regarded as the lineal descendants of Shem son of Noah, or of "Sem" son of Noah as Shem is today known in history. The terms "Semite" and "Semitic" referred to members of the "Semitic" nations in the sense that they were members of the language-group speaking the 43 "Semitic" languages as their native tongues (see reproduction of Encyclopedia Britannica chart). From the era in which Shem lived in remote ancient times down through the ages, every race known to mankind, every religious sect from phallic-worshippers and human-sacrifice cults to advanced monotheism as revealed to us through Jesus Christ, and all the nations which arose out of nowhere in that area and then disappeared into oblivion in kaleidoscopic fashion, appear on the pages of the history of that part of the world. They were "Semites" or "Semitic nations" to historians, theologians and scientists only in the geographic or linguistic sense of the terms. There was no specific race, there was no particular religious sect or cult, nor was there an individual nation recognized in ancient or modern history as the one and the only "Semitic" race, or "Semitic" religion or "Semitic" nation. The term "Semitism" was coined by modern historians, theologians and scientists to describe the culture and civilization of the races, religions and nations collectively known as "Semites" or the "Semitic" nations. History records the constantly shifting panorama of races, religions and nations in that approximate one-million square-mile area. Their 43 "Semitic" languages was the only characteristic of "Semites" which remained constant and continued the common denominator of the "Semitic" nations through their long history.

JEWS CREATE CONFUSION TO BEWILDER CHRISTIANS ABOUT FACTS

The 43 "Semitic" languages appearing on the chart reproduced here from the Encyclopedia Britannica are all closely related in structure and vocabulary. In only that respect may they be likened to French, Italian and Spanish which are spoken of as the "Romance languages" being they are so closely related in structure and vocabulary. The 43 "Semitic" languages acquired and developed their similarity in structure and vocabulary because they were the native languages of nations which bordered on each other's areas for ages or succeeded each other in the same areas. The 43 "Semitic" languages were spoken in this approximate one-million square-mile area first by the inhabitants of the expansive Arabian peninsula, Mesopotamia, Syria, and Palestine whence they spread to Egypt, Abyssinia, Northern Africa and elsewhere. Although "Semitic" languages were spoken as far back as the pre-historic age in which Shem lived, the earliest written document in existence today in a "Semitic" language was written in 2250 B. C. as indicated on the chart from the Encyclopedia Britannica reproduced here. The 43 written "Semitic" languages now known and their more ancient only-spoken predecessor groups of "Semitic" languages were referred to for the first time in history as "Semitic" languages in 1781 by one of the world's greatest authorities on the subject, Professor August Ludwig Schlosser, of Gottingen University in Germany. At about the same time another noted professor in Gottingen University, Professor Johann Gottfried Einhorn, also used the terms "Shemitic nations" and "Semitic nations" in his classic "Historische-Kritische Einteilung in das Alte Testamente" for the very first time.

LEADING DICTIONARIES ALL CONFIRM ORIGIN PHONY SMEAR-WORD

The world's leading authorities establish beyond the question of any doubt that the terms "Semite," "Semitic" and "Semitism" refer genuinely either to the "Semitic" languages spoken by the "Semitic" nations or to the "Semitic" culture and civilization associated with all peoples speaking the "Semitic" languages. What have the world's leading dictionaries to say on this question? They were not always owned or otherwise effectively controlled by Jews. Webster's Universal Dictionary has long defined "Semite": "One of the descendants of Shem . . . in ancient times including the Babylonians, Assyrians, Aramaeans, Phoenicians and various other people of southwestern Asia." Webster's Universal Dictionary has long defined "Semitic": "Of or pertaining to, or characteristic of, the Semites or the languages spoken by them . . . A Semite . . . A Semitic language . . . The Semitic family of languages." Webster's Universal Dictionary has long defined "Semitism": "Semitic character or qualities; also, a Semitic idiom or expression." Oxford English Dictionary, recognized throughout the world by scholars as the most authentic source for information on the origins and definitions of words from their earliest use, has long defined "Semite": "A person belonging to the race of mankind which includes most of the peoples mentioned in Genesis X as descended from Shem son of Noah . . . Also, a person speaking a Semitic language as his native tongue." Oxford English Dictionary has long defined "Semitic": "Of or pertaining to Semites . . . In linguistic sense: the distinctive epithet of that family of languages . . . A Semite . . . The Semitic family of languages . . . A scientific study of the languages, literature, etc. of Semitic peoples." Oxford English Dictionary has long defined "Semitism": "Attributes characteristic of Semitic peoples. Also, the fact of being a Semite . . . A Semitic word or idiom; also Semitic speech." That should open the window in the minds of Christians and let in a little fresh air on this subject where it is so needed.

NECESSARY THAT JEWS CREATE PHONY SMEAR-WORD "ANTI-SEMITISM"

About the year 1880 the realization dawned upon Jews for the first time that it was ridiculous for Jews to attempt to create for use against Christians the defamatory implication for the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" before Jews succeeded in first creating for the term "Semitism" a new definition which never before had existed for it. Jews realized for the first time that as matters then stood their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" could acquire no defamatory significance as long as the term "Semitism" conveyed to Christians implications based upon existing dictionary definitions for the term "Semitism." Jews schemed how to overcome that obstacle. Jews at that time owned or otherwise effectively controlled publishers of the world's leading dictionaries. That solved the Jews' problem. The leading dictionaries in the United States, and throughout the world, forthwith added to their former definitions for "Semitism" their newly-coined synthetic and spurious definitions for "Semitism" and then made available to them for that purpose by Jews. Jews concocted these synthetic and spurious definitions for "Semitism" as the background essential for creating the defamatory implications Jews were attempting to create for their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Oxford English Dictionary forthwith added to their existing definition for "Semitism" the Jews' synthetic and spurious definition for "Semitism": "In recent use, Jewish ideas or Jewish influence in politics or society." Webster's Universal Dictionary forthwith added to their existing definition for "Semitism" the Jews' synthetic and spurious definition of "Semitism": "A policy or policies, especially political, favorable to Jews; hence, favor to, or predisposition toward, Jews." These were the first steps in the Jews' plan to brain-wash Christians so that the fear of the "anti-Semitism smear" would terrorize Christians into submission to Jews.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" NOW IN DICTIONARIES BY DICTATION OF JEWS

The problem which then presented itself to Jews was the fact that dictionaries did not then contain their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." It was vitally important to Jews that their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" appear in dictionaries. That problem was quickly and easily solved because Jews owned or otherwise effectively controlled the publishers of leading dictionaries. Again successfully using the same methods so satisfactorily used by Jews with their synthetic and spurious definitions for "Semitism," Jews were again thus able to advance their conspiracy towards complete success. Without further ado publishers of leading dictionaries included in future editions for the first time definitions for the newly-coined synthetic and spurious Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" at that time made available to them by Jews for that purpose. These newly-coined synthetic and spurious definitions for the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" were concocted by Jews solely to shame, disgrace, dishonor, humiliate, discredit, degrade, hamper, impoverish or pauperize Christians whom Jews made targets for their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism." Jews' effective monopoly of media for shaping public opinion gives to Jews the capacity to shame, disgrace, dishonor, humiliate, discredit, degrade, hamper, impoverish or pauperize their Christian victims into submission or into oblivion. Jews do not offer much choice to Christians in this respect. Jews quickly put their newly-coined synthetic and spurious phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" energetically to work to silence Christians seeking to enlighten the unsuspecting nation concerning the grave imminent and present threat of Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) to the security of the nation and to preserving our form of government and civilization founded upon Christian principles. Jews are well aware of the incontestible fact that effective investigation by competent agencies of the government or by private organizations will establish beyond question of any doubt that from the very beginning Jews have dominated and directed Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) in the United States and throughout the world. It is shocking that at this very late date there are still so many Christians in the United States who do not yet realize that fact! There is more to worry about in that situation than the possession of hydrogen bombs by a potential enemy with intercontinental bombers to deliver them anyplace in the United States any time they wish to do so.

PHONY "ANTI-SEMITISM" BLASPHEMES CREED OF JESUS CHRIST

Jews concocted their newly-coined synthetic and spurious definitions for their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" with complete disregard and utter contempt for prior-existing authentic dictionary definitions for "Semitism" solely based upon incontestible historic and scientific fact. Jews concocted their newly-coined synthetic and spurious definitions for their phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" with a meaning the extreme opposite of their newly-coined synthetic and spurious definitions for "Semitism." One of these newly-coined synthetic and spurious definitions for the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism" already appears in the most recent editions of Webster's Universal Dictionary. For the first time in the history of the English language "anti-Semitism" now appears in leading dictionaries. Webster's Universal Dictionary now defines the Jews' phony smear-word "anti-Semitism": "Opposition to, hatred of, or agitation against Jews." Could any definition be more absurd and ridiculous in view of prior-existing authentic dictionary definitions for the term "Semitism"? How can that version of "anti-Semitism" have the extreme opposite meaning of the legitimate definition for "Semitism"? The Jews' definition for "anti-Semitism" libels every Christian! Christians should and must regard it as libelous. That "definition" reads exactly as if the Christian-hating character-assassins of B'nai B'rith's ("anti")-Defamation League concocted it with the psychological excrement from the cess-pools of their Talmud-polluted minds and then rushed it by messenger over to the publishers of Webster's Universal Dictionary before their next edition went to press. It is so libelous to imply, infer or insinuate that Christians engage in "opposition to," harbor a "hatred of," or participate in "agitation against" persons of other religious faiths and spiritual beliefs, for that fact alone. That implication, inference or insinuation libels every Christian. Like all loyal citizens of the United States, Christians do engage in "opposition to," do harbor a "hatred of," and do participate in "agitation against" persons of all religious faiths and spiritual beliefs, not excluding Christians, when, as and if impact of political, economic or social attitudes or activities of individuals or groups upon the community or the nation present an imminent and present threat to the security of the nation and to civilization founded upon Christian principles, as the way of life in their community or the nation. Without any exception, history will show that so-called "Jews" were never discriminated against politically, economically or socially on account of their spiritual beliefs. Without any exception, in every instance of so-called "persecution," Jews became the victims of their own political, economic or social impact upon the community or nation. At times and places in history Jews' attitudes and activities were inconsistent and incompatible with established customs and conventions of the communities or nations where they were permanently domiciled or to which they immigrated to settle. It was never an obligation of Christians to diagnose the source of the ideologies which were repugnant to them. In the case of Jews, it may be a fact that Jews' political, economic and social ideologies are the result of religious teaching and training. Christians must be realistic. Christians adjust their attitudes to effects regardless of causes. Christian antagonism toward Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) since the year 1880 is labelled "anti-Semitism" by Jews. Does Christian antagonism to Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) imply antagonism toward Jews? Are they one and the same in the eyes of Jews? Then why not admit it? Otherwise Jews should stop persecuting as "anti-Semites" all Christians who investigate Marxism (communism) and Marxists (communists) who keep digging up Jews, and Jews and more Jews.

RIGHT WORD FOR "ANTI-SEMITISM" NEVER A SECRET TO CLERGY

What are the correct terms for "anti-Semitism," "anti-Semite" and "anti-Semitic"? The Oxford English Dictionary is regarded throughout the world by leading institutions of higher learning as the most authentic source of data on the origins and definitions of words in the English language. The data which follows here is all taken from the most recent edition of the Oxford English Dictionary. The Oxford English Dictionary does not define "anti-Semitism." The reason is obvious. The Oxford English Dictionary offers either "anti-Judaist" or "Judaephobe" as the correct term for "anti-Semite," and either "anti-Judaism" or "Judaephobia" as the correct terms for "anti-Semitism." The Oxford English Dictionary offers "anti-Judaic" as the correct term for "anti-Semitic." Wherever and whenever Jews use "Semitism" they know they should use "Judaism." Wherever and whenever Jews use "Semite" they know they should use "Judaist." Wherever Jews use "Semitic" Jews know they should use "Judaic." It also confounds confusion to refer to Jesus Christ as a "Jew" for He was actually a "Judean." Jesus Christ was thus identified on the Cross. The ancestors of the so-called "Jews" today were neither the race, the religion or the nation which "gave" Jesus Christ to the world. Either Jesus Christ was a "Jew" and there are no "Jews" today or there are "Jews" today and Jesus Christ was not a "Jew." Jesus Christ could only be a "Jew" in the sense that he was a "Judean." In the 18th century the English coined the term "Jew" and adopted it in the place of predecessor words more difficult to pronounce. Jews like to represent themselves as "Jews" and refer to Jesus Christ as a "Jew." Jews believe that "things equal to the same thing are equal to each other" so they masquerade as "Jews" hoping thereby to establish kinship with Jesus Christ.

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE MUST PROHIBIT USE OF JEWS' "SECRET WEAPON"

Every Christian in the United States should communicate with every newspaper, radio and television commentator, religious organization, public official, clergyman, columnist, or any person using the term "anti-Semitism" in written or spoken form and demand that they discontinue the use of that term. Visit them in person, call them on the telephone, write them letters. If they know the correct term compel them to use it. If they do not know the correct term tell it to them. Obtain copies of this issue of Common Sense and distribute them in person and by mail to persons using the term "anti-Semitism" and to others who should also know the truth about the Jews' "secret weapon" in their "cold war" against Christians.

FELIX FRANKFURTER--MOST DANGEROUS MAN EVER TO SIT ON SUPREME COURT!

Sincere Americans old enough to know what the United States was thirty years ago realize that a power which they do not fully understand has taken control of our country and is remaking it to fit the Marxist European pattern. Cunning Marxists, like termites, have reached the most influential spots in our government, National and State. The increasing trend is toward bankruptcy, bloodshed and slavery. Very few feel they are in position or have the courage to speak out and expose the plotters for fear they will be unpopular, or that the enemy will retaliate, causing them to suffer materially.

It is silly to coast along while these Anti-Christian Marxists condition us for concentration camps. The master minds of the invisible government must be exposed. A front-page article in the Chicago Tribune of May 29, 1950, identified three men as the Secret Government of the U. S. — Felix Frankfurter, Herbert Lehman, and Henry Morgenthau Jr.

Frankfurter, at a dinner in 1950, in answer to a question, stated "the real rulers of a government are unknown." Here is a man, one of the main incorporators of the A. C. L. U. who for twenty years was one of the most active in this organization which went to courts and defended communists. He now sits on the Supreme Court.

Felix Frankfurter is to the U. S. what Harold Lasky was to England and Lazar Kaganovich is to the Soviet Union. These three king-pin Jews have placed communists in the governments of their respective countries. Lazar Kaganovich trained and placed hundreds of communists in key spots in the Soviet Union including G. M. Malenkov, N. S. Khrushchev, M. A. Bulganin.

While teaching law at Harvard, Frankfurter had as his secretary a known communist, and turned out many students with bright communist minds. Later when he went to Washington under F. D. R., he packed the government with hundreds of communists, many graduates of the Harvard Law School. One of the bright young men Frankfurter placed was Alger Hiss. He also placed Wyzanski as Federal Judge in Mass. who has lately caused an uproar because of his leniency towards communists and dope peddlers. He placed Attorney General Biddle, Stimpson, as Secretary of War and Knox as Secretary of the Navy. He also placed Dean Acheson as Assistant Secretary of State where Acheson was influential in turning China over to communism. Two other students he took care of were Robert Lovett as Assistant Secretary of War and John J. McCloy as High Commissioner of Germany. A few other proteges were Nathan Witt, Lee Pressman, Jerome Frank & Lauchlin Currie.

Pegler, in his column of July 31, 1948, stated: "A man who served with Felix in one of the bureaus in Washington in the first World War told me not long ago that Felix once said to him and some associates that he envisioned a situation in which a small group of influential men, by audacity and initiative, could become the rulers of the United States by ruling the President."

vict who served a term in a West Virginia penitentiary and a term of six years in the Iowa State Pen. He served these under other names. He was later appointed by Paul G. Hoffman to have charge of the Paris Office of the Economic Cooperation Administration (re-named Marshall Plan) which is still giving away billions of the tax-payers money.

When Alger Hiss sat at the side of the sick and weakened F. D. R., at Yalta, advising him to turn over Poland, East Germany, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, and Manchuria to bloody Stalin, he was under orders of his former teacher, Frankfurter, Justice of the Supreme Court. This job alone may result in the enslavement of the U. S. Just before F. D. R. was elected in 1932, Frankfurter stated that if FDR were elected, the Soviet Union would be recognized by the U. S. Soon after, FDR accepted Maxim Litvinoff's (Finkelstein) promise not to promote communism in the U. S., the Soviet Union was recognized just as it was about to fall apart. Later when Germany was about to conquer the Soviet's and end Communism, Frankfurter, Rabbi Wise, Henry Morgenthau Jr. and many other powerful Jews pressured FDR into bringing war on Germany and again saving Communism.

The following are excerpts from a report compiled by the American Vigilant Intelligence Federation, May 1934.

This is the opening paragraph of a thumb-nail sketch on Felix Frankfurter in the March 1934, number of the "American Magazine", which goes on to say:

"It is said in Washington that you can't go around a corner without running smack into Frankfurter-taught bright young men.

They are the former pupils of the square-jawed, quick-as-a-trigger Doctor of Laws.

"He has been for a long time on very close terms with President Roosevelt. Backed him during his governorship and worked with him during his Presidential campaign. A noted liberal in domestic affairs and referred to as 'slightly left-wing' in the legal school of thought.

"Some time ago he threw himself full-length into the fight for Sacco and Vanzetti. Before that, but with equal fiery interest, he helped the cause of Mooney and Billings, in California. He has a prodigious memory and vitality of intellect that amazes his friends.

"At present he is the George Eastman visiting professor at Oxford, England—but it is whispered in high places that his brain is still working for his friend in the White House."

We have thought best to present the career of FELIX FRANKFURTER as it appears in its public biographical aspect, based upon data furnished by himself to the respective publishers. But to really understand his personality and the political and economic activities that he motivates, we must read between the lines, and find the key in his writings and his comradeships and personal associations.

In passing, let us note that his antecedents and cultural background have been largely international and European. His patronym suggests that his immediate ancestry came from the Judengasse in Frankfurt-am-Main, the Ghetto which produced Amschel Mayer, who founded the banking house of Rothschild. Coming as an immigrant boy to N.Y. at the age of 12, he received his education in the N.Y. schools and finished off in the advance high school of that city, in the College of the City of New York.

The period after the Armistice, found him definitely acting the role of internationalist, representing the Zionist organization before the Peace Conference in Paris, 1919, urging the establishment of a home land for the Jews in Palestine, and "minority representation" in all governments signatory to the Versailles treaty.

The reader well may ask, how a man of foreign birth and cultural background, advocating the principle of "extra-territoriality", and committed to the policy of building up an autonomous homeland for his own race, may be an un-prejudiced champion of American national policies. The answer is plain—he just isn't.

Elbowing his way into the inner circles of government, never by election by citizen suffrages, but always by appointment, through some political barter. FRANKFURTER is a symbol of what we should avoid in choosing our American mouthpieces.

The Industrial Defense Assn., Inc., 7 Water St., Boston, Mass., in a bulletin issued in Nov. 1926, lists a few of the subversive activities with which Felix Frankfurter is associated.

The Supreme Court Has To Be Curbed

In its "Black Monday" decision the Supreme Court was evidently more concerned with world opinion, sociological textbooks and professional agitators than in following the precedents set down by former Supreme Courts and our Founding Fathers. The Court based its decision in part on the testimony of certain "modern authorities on psychology," some of whom are Socialists or Communist sympathizers. Chief Justice Warren, who as governor of California was for socialized medicine, cited as leading source of the Court's findings a book on modern psychology written by a Swedish socialist named Dr. Gunnar Myrdal. In the book, "An American Dilemma," Myrdal freely expresses his contempt for the principles on which the U.S. was founded. Myrdal stated that the Constitution of the U.S. was "impractical and unsuited to modern conditions," and that its adoption was "nearly a plot against the common people." Thus an alien who ridicules the American form of government is cited by the Supreme Court of the U.S. as one of its authorities for its desegregation decision!

During the prohibition monstrosity, millions of Americans voted dry and drank wet. The 18th Amendment failed because it could not be enforced. It couldn't be enforced because a majority of the people didn't really want it enforced. The people voted it in and the people voted it out—a majority of the people in three-fourths of the states. The great majority of the people—including many who piously plead from beneath their halos that all men are created equal—don't practice integration. They just preach it, for others. Many white integration eager-beavers either live in a state where there are a few negroes or are able to buy their own segregation in private schools and clubs and in their cloistered lives.

The People Are Supreme

The Constitution says: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." All rights not specifically granted to the Federal Government are reserved to the states and to the people. And the Constitution doesn't mention education.

Our representative form of government is in danger when either the executive or the judicial branch can re-write the Constitution to suit "the trend of the times" without being checked by the same sovereign states which gave limited power in the first place to the central government. It's up to the Southern States to lead the way in forcing the Supreme Court to again reverse itself. I say again, because less than three years ago the Supreme Court ruled that "separate but equal" was constitutional. Has the Constitution changed, or just the Court? Did the Court interpret the Constitution, or amend it? The integrationists have won two decisions in the present Supreme Court. Segregationists have won many decisions from better, unpacked courts which have not been brain-washed in left-wing ideologies. For 86 years after the 14th Amendment became law the Supreme Court, Federal and state courts, Congress, the presidents, governors and state legislatures all evidently figured that the Constitution gave each state the right to control its own public schools.

Maybe the South's most effective weapon is "interposition" (the left-handed theory that since it takes a three-fourths majority of states to amend the Constitution, that 13 states should be able to prevent the Supreme Court ruling from being carried out). Or, the answer may lie in converting the white public schools of the South into private schools. Force and violence and hate are certainly not the answer. The Constitutional way, the American way, Freedom's way, is for the states which want to integrate to do it. And for those who don't want to, to be free to handle their own domestic affairs. Final power in a free nation belongs to the people.

Where Does It End?

Negroes, according to the second "Black Monday" decision of the Court on March 5, must not be barred on account of race from any tax-supported school of college. Would not a logical succeeding conclusion of the Court be that tax-exempt schools must accept Negroes on the same basis as whites? Most private schools are non-profit, endowed institutions and as such are exempt from most taxes. Or, to put it another way, they are in effect tax-supported. If the Court should rule that private schools and colleges integrate or pay the same taxes profit-making institutions pay, most private schools would have this choice: do it or go broke!

This is just the beginning—unless we find legal ways to stop it. After the pressure groups, do-gooders, hate peddlers, Communists, and unscrupulous politicians integrate all schools and colleges public and private, next assaults will be on businesses, private clubs, fraternities, 4-H clubs, FFA, and Boy Scouts. That leaves the home.

PETITION FOR THE IMPEACHMENT OF Felix Frankfurter

This petition was prepared by the late Henry H. Klein, New York Attorney and publisher, on June 11, 1949.

To the JUDICIARY COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES GENTLEMEN:

I hereby accuse Felix Frankfurter as associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, of pernicious political activity, perversion of Justice and attempted subversion of the Republic and demand his impeachment.

SPECIFICATIONS

1. He wrongfully caused the indictment and prosecution on false charges, of native Americans and others, under Title 18 U. S. Criminal Code. The law was enacted at the request of the heads of the U.S. Army and Navy, to enable these units to prosecute communists who were undermining the morale of our armed forces. Instead of prosecuting these said offenders, said Frankfurter caused the Department of Justice to prosecute native Americans and anti-communists who were exposing the subversive activities of communists.

2. He secured the appointment to high office of many persons of communistic, socialistic and fascistic leanings and affiliations and he guided and advised these persons in their efforts to change our government from a constitutional republic to a communistic, socialistic or corporative (fascistic) state, as an integral part of a world government, in accordance with the Rockefeller-Protocol plan for world domination and control.

3. He served and serves as the spearhead of a movement to change the United States from a prosperous constitutional republic to an impoverished part of a tyrannous and bankrupt world state.

4. As the controlling influence in government since 1932, he is responsible for many laws, directives, orders and rules that operate to oppress and injure the people and for many of the illegal acts committed by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

5. He is largely responsible for the deception and fraud practiced on the people during the year 1944, as to the President's physical and mental condition.

6. As controlling factor in government since 1932, he and his agents created scores of government owned corporations through which they control the prices of commodities and other essential products, against the people.

7. He secured the appointment of hundreds of friends, disciples and followers to key positions in the federal government and created a personal Frankfurter bureaucracy, to the injury of the republic.

8. He is responsible through his disciples and agents for the mal-administration and mis-management of various federal departments, bureaus, agencies and public corporations, to the injury of the people.

9. He is in league with other persons to obliterate our constitutional system of government and economics and to substitute the systems of Great Britain and Russia, or to produce political and economic chaos.

10. He is responsible for the Nuremberg trials on ex post facto charges, in violation of law.

11. He is responsible for many persons in high federal office who were and are members of the American Civil Liberties Union which specialize in defending communists, and other radicals.

12. He aided in gagging Tyler Kent, the young code clerk, who is under legal restraint not to reveal the correspondence between Roosevelt and Churchill disclosing their plan to rule the world.

13. He is responsible for Alger Hiss and for the latter's promotion and protection in the federal service.

14. He is disqualified from serving as Justice in the United States Supreme Court, because of all these said acts and facts, and because he is not able to render impartial justice in matters affecting laws, directives, orders and rules drafted by himself and his agents and put into effect through their efforts and because he does not realize that verbiage in an opinion is not substitute for justice.

15. He damaged the prestige and offended the dignity of the U. S. Supreme Court when he appeared as a voluntary witness at the first trial of Alger Hiss and testified that the defendant was of good character.

For all said reasons, said Frankfurter is not a fit proper or qualified person to serve as Associate Justice in the United States Supreme Court and his removal is hereby demanded.

Respectfully submitted
Henry H. Klein

Brooks "and others prominent in the Free Speech League", as if Brooks and Frankfurter, and possibly Roger Baldwin were in this League.

To this arraignment might be added some other items, viz:

Felix Frankfurter was a member of the International Committee for Political Prisoners; Member of the National Advisory Committee of the Sacco-Vanzetti Defense Committee; Member of Committee on Cultural Relations with Latin America; Speaker for the Communist Passaic, N.J. strikers; Defended Sacco and Vanzetti in an article in "Atlantic Monthly", Mar. 1927, reprinted as a book by Little, Brown & Co.

It will be noted that FELIX FRANKFURTER found his greatest opportunity for subversive activities as secretary and Commission in the Mooney Case. As will be remembered, Tom Mooney, with W. K. Billings, was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in San Quentin Penitentiary for bombing the San Francisco Preparedness Day Parade, July 22, 1916, killing ten and injuring fifty persons. Ever since his incarceration there has been an active agitation among the Communist-Socialist-anarchist groups for his release.

FELIX FRANKFURTER'S conceit and anxiety for publicity prompted him to invite a controversial correspondence with ex-President Theodore Roosevelt. The old Bull Moose ripped the mask from FRANKFURTER'S program, and in a few trenchant paragraphs revealed its sinister mechanism. His letter with FRANKFURTER'S reply was read into the Congressional Record of May 12, 1930. We are constrained to quote therefrom:

December 19, 1917

"My Dear Mr. Frankfurter:

I thank you for your frank letter. I answer it at length because you have taken, and are taking, on behalf of the Administration an attitude which seems to me to be fundamentally that of Trotsky and the other Bolshevik leaders in Russia; an attitude which may be fraught with mischief to this country. Fremont Older and the I. W. W. and the 'direct action' anarchists and apologists for anarchy are never concerned for justice. They are concerned solely in seeking one kind of criminal-escapo justice. The guiding spirits in the movement for the recall of Fickert, cared not a rap whether or not Mooney and Billings were guilty; probably they believed them guilty; all they were concerned with was seeing a rebuke administered to and an evil lesson taught all public officials who might take action against crimes of violence committed by anarchists in the name of some foul and violent 'protest against social conditions'."

"Your report is as thoroughly misleading a document as could be written on the subject. No official, writing in behalf of the President, is, to be excused for failure to know and clearly set forth that the I. W. W. is a criminal organization.

"Here, again, you are engaged in excusing men precisely like the Bolsheviks in Russia, who are murderers and the encouragers of murder, who are traitors to their allies, to democracy, and to civilization, as well as to the U. S., and whose acts are nevertheless apologized for on grounds, my dear Mr. Frankfurter, substantially like those which you allege. In times of danger nothing is more common and nothing more dangerous to the Republic than for men—often ordinarily well-meaning men—to avoid condemning the criminals who are really public enemies, by making their entire assault on the shortcomings of the good citizens who have been the victims or opponents of the criminals.

Sincerely yours
THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Something of the philosophy and methods of reasoning pursued by FELIX FRANKFURTER are revealed in his book "The Case of Sacco and Vanzetti—A Critical Analysis for Lawyers and Laymen", published by Little, Brown & Co., 1927.

FRANKFURTER seems oblivious of the duties that devolve on residence as well as citizenship in America, among those of alien birth. They are eager to accept all the privileges while assuming none of the responsibilities. This is the crux of the entire situation, with regard to our assimilation of those elements of discord.

In his book Frankfurter admits that "Sacco and Vanzetti were notorious Reds. They were associates of leading radicals. They had for some time been on the list of suspects of the Dept. of Justice, and were especially obnoxious because they were draft dodgers. Deportation, they knew, meant not merely expulsion and uprooting from home. Among Vanzetti's radical group in Boston, the arrest of the N. Y. radical Salsedo, and his detention incommunicado by the Dept. of Justice, had been for some weeks a source of great concern. Vanzetti was sent to N. Y. by this group to confer with the Italian Defense Committee having charge of the case of Salsedo and all the other Italian political prisoners." Sacco and Vanzetti were recognized reds.

His championship of the Sacco-Vanzetti Case, gave FRANKFURTER full opportunity to revel in the publicity that his soul seems to crave. Frank A. Goodwin, then head of the Motor Vehicle Dept. of Mass. delivered a speech that was quoted from one end of the nation to the other on "Sacco-Vanzetti and the Red Peril". He made it before the Kiwanis Club of Lawrence, Mass., June 30, 1927 and it was circulated as a 15 page booklet. With documentary evidence to sustain every step of his address, he showed the hook-up between the American Civil Liberties Union and the Communist and Socialist parties, with Sacco-Vanzetti as the pretext, and the overturn of the American form of government as the goal.

He said in part:

"It is an impressive fact that the nearer we get to the scene of this murder, the more convinced are people that these men are guilty. The citizens of Norfolk County know these people are guilty.

Sacco and Vanzetti, after seven reprieves, were finally hung.

"Who is responsible for this national and even international agitation and disturbance over these two unknown criminals? Who pressed the button or pulled the strings that unloosed this deluge of petitions and threats? The answer to the question was not difficult to find, after a brief investigation. The leader of the movement to set these two murderers free is FELIX FRANKFURTER, professor at Harvard College, who in 1917 was rebuked by Theodore Roosevelt for trying to set free Mooney and Billings, the red murderers who blew up and killed and injured many people in a Preparedness Day parade."

Joseph W. Keith, District Attorney of the Southeastern District of Mass. stated on June 28, 1932 (Boston Transcript):

"I then believed and still believe that FRANKFURTER and men of his type are a menace to the country and to the American institutions."

The Passaic Textile strike in 1926, gave FELIX FRANKFURTER additional opportunity for left-wing agitation, reported by Francis Ralston Welsh thus:

"FELIX FRANKFURTER, Professor in the (Harvard) law school, came to Passaic, appearing before Vice Chancellor Bently at Jersey City as local representative of the United Front Committee in fighting an injunction granted by the Court of Chancery against the United Front Committee at the request of Forstmann and Huffman. He also spoke at a mass meeting of Weisbard's followers in the City of Passaic, imploring them to remain on strike till such time as they gained their demands."

The Passaic strike was abetted by the American Civil Liberties Union and its interlocking organizations. Reference has been made to FRANKFURTER'S prominent position in its councils, and his authorship of "The Labor Injunction", the agitator's handbook. He was a member of the National Committee in 1926, along with such known subversive individuals as Jane Addams, Clarence Darrow, Eugene V. Debs, Robert W. Dunn, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, William Z. Foster, Ernst Freund, Norman Hapgood, Arthur Garfield Hayes, Morris Hillquit, John Haynes Holmes, Scott Nearing, Rose Schneiderman, Norman M. Thomas, and Oswald Garrison Villard, among others.

Most of the above-mentioned names are to be found as his fellow-directors on the International Committee for Political Prisoners, the objects for which it stands being sufficient to condemn it in the opinion of every genuine American.

The N. Y. Times, April 17, 1930, quotes Frankfurter as stating: "The Constitution is what the judges say it is". And again quoting the N. Y. Times, April 27, 1930, Frankfurter states: "The Supreme Court is the Constitution."

In a two column article in the "New York Times" of Nov. 13, 1932, entitled "A Notable Decision—the Supreme Court writes a chapter on Man's Rights". FELIX FRANKFURTER reviews the Scottsboro Decision. It will be recalled that the Alabama courts found seven negro youths guilty of rape, and imposed the death sentence. The American Civil Liberties Union capitalized the situation by raising a fund for their defense, and put into execution the strategy employed in the Sacco-Vanzetti and Mooney-Billings cases. Mass-meetings and demonstrations were held by Communist and radical groups throughout the nation, with the intent to stir up race-antagonism that would work in the interest of social upheaval. Funds were provided whereby the case was carried up to the Alabama State Court of Appeals, and eventually to the Supreme Court of the U. S. That distinguished body ruled that there had been certain judicial errors committed in the original trial, and remanded it back to Alabama for a new trial. FRANKFURTER said in part:

"The Scottsboro case announces the doctrine that to every defendant must be assured the minimum conditions for an

PUBLIC ENEMY NO.1

Horatio Alger, American
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

This will introduce, Felix Frankfurter —
PUBLIC ENEMY NUMBER ONE.

Born in Vienna, Austria, Nov. 15 1882, the son of Austro-Jewish revolutionary parents, spent his early life in the seething "GHETTO'S", inspired by MARXIST doctrines and primed in the ART of Jewish deception.

At the age of twelve he was immigrated to America where his latter education was furthered, as a Jewish Revolutionist who does not believe in "THE CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES" for to him this is but a foolish fancy of those gullible, tolerant gentiles who call themselves PATRIOTIC AMERICANS.

After completing his esaurian education in the revolting American manner, he attended the College of the City of New York and then went on to HARVARD, a school to which he was to return at a later date as a professor of law, to indoctrinate hundreds of young lawyers with his MARXIST theories plus "MAKE A NOISE LIKE A LAWYER AND MUDDLE UP THESE ANGLO-SAXON IDEOLOGIES OF MADISON AND JEFFERSON" in true Jacobian fashion.

This MARXIST seed planting, and the orb of time allowed Frankfurter to later harvest a COMMUNIST NETWORK of "JACKS IN OFFICES" and thereby gain control of the ROOSEVELT CABINET, even to the President himself.

Frankfurter's influence today has the magnitude of the "OLD KING" and lets not suffer ourselves to be deceived any longer, ALSO, lets not forget those good friends of COMMUNISM that he openly and ardently protects and supports.

What other Jurist in history ever stepped down from the Bench to defend an ALGER HISS? Alger Hiss the traitor, was a student under Frankfurter at that Communist incubator, HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

ESAU must AWAKEN and see through Jacob, for it was never intended that our CONSTITUTION should extend protection to its enemies and at the same time license them to destroy it.

Our RIGHTS—TO—SEGREGATE—TO DISCRIMINATE — and TO WORK — are our FREEDOM and these are what the WARRENS—FRANKFURTERED Court are destroying, FOR when our options are no longer allowed, FREEDOM CEASES TO EXIST.

RES IPSA LOQUITUR.

Very truly yours,
William A. Jolley

His intimacy with Roosevelt dates back to the Wilson Administration when FRANKFURTER'S work on the War Labor Policies Board brought him in frequent contact with the Navy."

An observer in Washington states:

"A group of men, mostly appointed it is believed by the influence of FELIX FRANKFURTER, according to my informant, meet at pretty regular intervals and discuss their plan or the ultimate overthrow of the Constitution of the United States, and the substitution of an entirely new regime. It is understood, it is agreed among themselves to put nothing on paper but conduct all business verbally and utilize the emergency organizations to spread their propaganda throughout the country. This is the plan:

"The appropriations for housing are giving this group an opportunity to call in professors known to be red in sympathy, to Washington. These men are to be told the general scheme for reconstruction of the United States on this new political basis, and it is understood they are of no practical use toward the development of housing in the U. S., but they are to tell the people who are the beneficiaries of the new housing plan, that the houses which are constructed, are not half as good as they would be if these beneficiaries would give their complete support to the new program. It is said they are expected to ask these people what they think of the new houses, and it is assumed that the answer will be 'Fine'. To which the emissaries are expected to reply; 'Well, not half as good as you should have because there is no reason in the world why you should not have as luxurious accommodations as anyone in the United States. Of course the appeal this makes is expected to bring in hundreds of thousands of people behind the New Dealers."

Patriot warns On Court

Senator James O. Eastland

Below is a small excerpt from a speech by Sen. James O. Eastland, in the U. S. Senate, from which we quote:

Somewhat more than a year ago I pointed out in an address on this floor that the Supreme Court had been indoctrinated and brainwashed by left-wing pressure groups; that individual members of the Court were guilty of grossly improper conduct in accepting awards and emoluments from groups and organizations interested in political litigation before the Court and bent on changing and destroying our American way of life; that such reprehensible conduct placed a question mark by the validity and the integrity of their decisions in cases which these groups were interested, of which the school segregation case is one.

FRANKFURTER-MOST DANGEROUS

ordered and reasoned investigation of the charges against him—a proper and heartening guarantee of fundamental law. The history of liberty, Mr. Justice Brandeis has reminded us, cannot be dissociated from the history of procedural observances. In no sense is the Supreme Court a general tribunal for the correction of criminal errors, such as the Court of Criminal Appeal in England. But the court, though it will continue to act with hesitation, will not suffer, in its own scathing phrase, 'judicial murder'. Here lies perhaps the deepest significance of the case. Thus the judgment of the court transcends the fate of the seven pitiful defendants concerned. It leaves that fate ultimately untouched. Upon the question of guilt or innocence it bears not even remotely. That question remains to be determined in normal course by the constituted tribunals of Alabama."

The N. Y. Herald Tribune of Feb. 2, 1933 quotes FRANKFURTER as stating:

"A good part of our past is dead. To hope for its revival is tragic illusion. New circumstances condition the nation's wealth making; how they are met will determine the national welfare. The road to yesterday's prosperity is largely barred."

The best fortified and most painstaking analysis of the character of FRANK-

FURTER, and his relationship to the personnel and policies of the FDR Administration is given in "THE NEW DEALERS" (Simon & Schuster, N. Y. 1934). The third section of the tenth chapter, entitled "Privy Councillors" (p. 317) states:

"One of our greatest teachers of youth, he also has the tact and ability to teach governors and Presidents. He has a keen mind and there are few men in America who can talk more enticingly. Unlike that other great Jew, Bernard M. Baruch, who, after making a fortune in speculation, has mastered the text-book maxims of old-line economics and aspires to be known as the perpetual advisor to all Presidents of all parties at all times and upon all subjects.

"Unlike Baruch and Brandeis, FELIX is a comparatively young man, about six months younger than Roosevelt, and he has the same youthful zest and keen sense of humor which are hard to reconcile with the fulsome fifties. FELIX, more than any other one person is the legal master-mind of the New Deal, although he is in large part only the transmitter of the apostolic succession of Louise D. Brandeis. Like Brandeis, he cannot watch the game without putting his hands on the board. He is the city-bred as opposed to the country-bred Jew. He is another Brandeis who wears plus-fours instead of the conventional prophets' robe.

PATRIOTS:

It is still possible to save our country from Marxist slavery, but there is only one way in which it can be accomplished. A sufficient number of people must be informed so that they know the facts. We must have Crusaders. If we remain indifferent, uninformed and do not make sacrifices, we will then go down as other countries have, for the enemy remains active.

"If our buildings, our highways, our railroads should be wrecked, we could rebuild them. If our cities should be destroyed, out of the very ruins we could erect newer and greater ones. Even if our armed might should be crushed, we could rear sons who would redeem our power.

But if the blood of our white race should become corrupted and mingled with the blood of Africa, then the present greatness of the United States of America would be destroyed and all hope for the future would be forever gone.

The maintenance of American civilization would be as impossible for a negroid America as would the redemption and restoration of the white man's blood which had been mixed with that of the negro."

INDIFFERENCE ENDANGERS SURVIVAL Hastens Defeat of United States by Soviet Union, and Surrender of Sovereignty to World Government.

By BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN

Founder 1950, International Conference of Christians and Moslems

The day-to-day developments in Palestine, and in the capitals of the principal countries of Europe and Asia, much of which is prevented from ever reaching the attention of the public, verify beyond any question of doubt, the extremely grave menace of many highly explosive situations to the security of the United States at this moment. The most competent and the best informed authorities on this subject, both inside and outside the government, at the present time regard the malicious Zionist-dictated United Nations so-called "recommendation" of 1947, which subsequently resulted in the vicious so-called "partition" of Palestine, as the secret and sinister "trigger" for the unofficial commencement of World War III. The conspirators plan to pull the "trigger," which will thus start World War III, when they feel it best suits their own purpose.

WORLD WAR III NOT INEVITABLE IF NATION CAN BE INFORMED

The many recent indications of the rapid deterioration and disintegration of the Zionist synthetic "tensions" in Palestine, supply these capable observers with inescapable and incontestible evidence that World War III is nearer than "just around the corner," as many unfortunately do not yet realize. The facts which follow here offer unquestionable proof of the imminence of World War III. To avert the occurrence of World War III altogether, only one course of action remains for the United States to follow to achieve that result. If World War III cannot be averted, at least the United States can avoid participation in it by following that same course of action. All worthy citizens should join in prayer that the United States will follow that course of action, and will follow it very soon.

UNITED STATES GUARANTEES TO ZIONISTS VERY DANGEROUS

Unless each and every guarantee given by the United States to the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors now in Palestine is unconditionally revoked immediately, United States armed forces will soon be fighting and dying in Palestine as unnecessarily and as uselessly as they were so unnecessarily and so uselessly fighting and dying recently in Korea. The Zionist-dictated United States foreign policy in Palestine contemplates employment there of United States armed forces to protect the loot at present in the possession of the transplanted-Zionist alien aggressors still in occupation of that invaded area, in violation of international law and all human rights.

ZIONISM AND MARXISM PROMOTED BY SAME RELIGIOUS GROUP

One more fumble now in Washington in the Palestine situation, and the United States will stumble into a so-called "police action" in Palestine in 1956, like the so-called "police action" in Korea in 1950. A so-called "police action" in Palestine will soon reveal itself as the well-planned prologue to World War III. It is important also never to lose sight of the fact that the world-wide net-work of international Zionist conspirators included among its most aggressive leaders all the revolutionist Marxist "founding fathers" of the Soviet Union. These two groups made common cause in the creation of the Soviet Union in 1917 and the conquest of Palestine in 1948. Their common denominator, according to official spokesmen for both groups, is their alleged common religious background, from which they claim to draw their mutual inspiration for their revolutionary political ideologies and activities in world politics, notwithstanding recent propaganda to the contrary now being released in the Zionist "kept press" by the interested parties to mislead the public on this question, as a subtle but futile attempt now to conceal their joint promotion of communism.

FRIENDLESS UNITED STATES FACES SURE DEFEAT IN WORLD WAR III

The hostile and antagonistic attitudes towards the United States by so many of the leading powers in Europe, Asia, Africa and the Middle East, at this time in our history, with their number growing constantly, offer the most alarming indication that World War III will undoubtedly seal the fate of the United States, if this nation participates in it. It is the considered conclusion of those most competent to estimate the extent of this threat that the United States cannot possibly win in a world-wide military contest today against such overwhelming odds, without better friends in strategic areas.

When the smoke of World War III has cleared away, it will be discovered their "we planned it that way" was again the secret and sinister strategy of the same world-wide net-work of international conspirators who so successfully planned, provoked and precipitated World War I in 1914, World War II in 1939, and participation of the United States in both of them. The menacing calamity of approaching World War III can be averted, but if it cannot be averted then at least participation in it by the United States must be avoided. It is not too late to achieve either or both if we act now.

PLAN AFOOT NOW TO PULL UNITED STATES INTO WORLD WAR III

The world-wide net-work of international conspirators solely responsible for planning, provoking and precipitating World War I and World War II are equally responsible for participation of the United States in both these devastating and destructive wars. They have cost the world a minimum of 87,362,000 in human lives and $924,000,000,000 in money. This same world-wide net-work of international conspirators has long been considering the open outbreak of World War III, of course with United States participation in it. The United States is now hopefully spending a minimum of $35,000,000,000 every year attempting to prepare for World War III, and giving $5,000,000,000 away annually to strengthen and arm friends for the future, and it seems we must go on doing so indefinitely on an ever increasing scale, to avert defeat and surrender.

UNITED STATES SURVIVAL REQUIRES EXPOSURE OF CONSPIRATORS

The United States cannot survive the catastrophic consequences of World War III as a leading world power, regardless of whether or not the United States participates in it, unless the United States forthwith renounces the Zionist-dictated United States foreign policy in Palestine which governs all Washington policy-makers. The revocation of the Zionist-dominated United States foreign policy in Palestine must be accompanied simultaneously by all the necessary steps required to completely correct the unjust and unjustified consequences in Palestine which are the outgrowth of the Zionist-dictated United States foreign policy in Palestine since 1947. The leading friendly and unfriendly powers in Europe, Asia, Africa and the Middle East express the sentiment that the United States will deserve defeat in World War III, unless the United States now recognizes her sole responsibility, and takes immediate measures to make reparations for the unwarranted punishment inflicted upon the innocent and defenseless native Palestine population by the malicious United Nations so-called "recommendation" for the vicious so-called "partition" of Palestine in 1948. The leading nations of the civilized world today hold the United States solely responsible for that betrayal of every human right to "self-determination" under "free elections."

CORRUPT POLITICAL LEADERS BETRAYING NATION'S SECURITY

In consideration of fabulous financial benefits and powerful political advantages accruing to corrupt betrayers of public confidence, the prestige and the power of the United States was prostituted in United Nations to commit the most inhuman and unjustified international criminal act in all the recorded history of mankind, on behalf of the world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators. By that betrayal of international morality, the United States "sowed the wind" and must now "reap the whirlwind" in future international relations, unless the United States possesses sufficient character to repent, and exercises the necessary courage to atone for this sanguinary sin, while time still remains in which to do so. What other urge must the United States feel to wash from its hands bloody evidence of the "murder" of an innocent nation.

UNITED STATES SURVIVAL REQUIRES MOSLEM COOPERATION NOW

The extent to which the security of the United States is dependent upon the complete confidence and the gratuitous good-will of the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia will come as somewhat of a shock to the many persons in the United States who have never given any thought to this question. It is of vital importance to the security of the United States that they learn "the facts of life" in this connection before it is too late to be of any help. It is now conceded without reservation or equivocation by the foremost military strategists that the United States cannot possibly emerge the winner in any world conflict today without possessing the complete confidence and the gratuitous good-will of the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia, so vital today to our only defense, "massive retaliation."

Exclusively from the point of view of the successful defense of the United States against aggression by the Soviet Union in any form, the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia occupy territory which is of vital importance to the security and successful defense of the United States. The Moslem nations in Africa include Egypt, Algiers, Morocco, Tunisia, Libya and the Sudan. The Moslem nations in the middle East include Syria, Saudi-Arabia, Turkey, Iraq, the Kingdom of Jordan, the Kingdom of Yemen, and Lebanon it now seems. The Moslem nations in Asia include Iran, Pakistan, Afghanistan, and several dynamic sovereign states in southeast Asia, the 50,000,000 Moslems strategically situated in India, the 30,000,000 Moslems concentrated in a most strategic area in China, and the 72,000,000 Moslems of the island Republic of Indonesia. This broad strategic belt inhabited by 450,000,000 Moslems stretches without interruption across Africa, the Middle East and Asia along the extended and exposed long under-belly of the Soviet Union in Europe and Asia. A study of this "belt" on a geographic globe will emphasize the strategic importance of the area in Africa, the Middle East and Asia occupied by the 450,000,000 Moslem population, until recently this nation's very best friends.

"MASSIVE RETALIATION" DEFENSE DEMANDS MOSLEMS HELP U.S.A.

The strategic importance of the territory occupied by Moslem nations, for United States air-bases from which to launch "massive retaliation" against the Soviet Union, as the only effective defense against Soviet Union aggression, will serve more satisfactorily than any other known factor to discourage aggression by the Soviet Union, if the Soviet Union should consider aggression with the use of atomic and hydrogen bombs. With this strategy in prospect, the United States has already constructed for that purpose four of the most modern air-bases in the world in the Moslem state of Morocco at a cost of $500,000,000 or more. For the same eventuality, the United States has constructed in the Moslem state of Saudi-Arabia the largest and most modern air-base of its kind in the world. United States military strategists are firmly convinced that the first line of defense for the United States against any form of aggression by the Soviet Union against the United States, or anywhere in the world, is the territory in Africa, the Middle East and Asia occupied by the 450,000,000 Moslem population, formerly our best friends.

MOSLEM CONFIDENCE AND GOOD-WILL OUR BEST DEFENSE

The complete confidence and the gratuitous good-will of the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia are vital to the security of the United States for another important consideration. Judging from present indications, the 450,000,000 Moslem population in that strategic area is not "for" the United States because the United States "masterminded" the malicious conspiracy for the vicious so-called "partition" of Palestine. In any possible conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union, the 450,000,000 Moslem population so essential for the security of the United States, may actually line themselves up "against" the United States. That probability at this moment seems quite possible. It is misleading to note with blind credulity the superficial expressions of nominal friendship by a few Moslem governments in that area now enjoying financial so-called "assistance," but actually bribery spent in the hope that the United States can thereby purchase their allegiance with "dollar diplomacy."

ZIONISM ENDED MOSLEM CONFIDENCE AND GOOD-WILL FOR U.S.A.

The Moslems have a proverb in Arabic which says, "The enemy of my enemy is my friend." If the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia decides it is to their best interest to regard the Soviet Union as their "friend", and that trend is gathering momentum each day according to the news from that area, and decides it to their best interest to regard the United States as their "enemy," of which there are signs confirming the possibility of that attitude, United States military bases in Africa, the Middle East and Asia will become worthless and useless to the United States. Sabotage by the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia can transform these military bases and air-fields into heaps of smoldering rubble within a few hours time. The Soviet Union is ready, willing and able to lend every necessary assistance to achieve that result when, as or if so called upon to supply that assistance, in the event of the outbreak of hostilities between the United States and the Soviet Union, thereby depriving the United States of the use of the only strategic air-bases for our "massive retaliation," our only effective defense against certain defeat without creating a great United States air-fleet of 2,000 B52 intercontinental bombers, to be based in the United States. With access to the strategic air-bases in Africa, the Middle East and Asia, our present air-fleet is more effective for "massive retaliation," as our best defense, than the Soviet Union's new intercontinental bombers.

MOSLEM FRIENDSHIP WILL PREVENT SOVIET UNION AGGRESSION

"Massive retaliation" includes use of "guided missiles" and "ballistic missiles." "Guided missiles" must be "guided" by radar to their targets, but "ballistic missiles" are delivered to their targets like shells fired from long-range guns, without being "guided" along the way. "Ballistic missiles" with atomic and hydrogen war-heads can destroy every city in the Soviet Union from bases in Africa, the Middle East and Asia. The Soviet Union fears nothing more. If the Soviet Union is pulverized, communism all over the world will die like the branches of a tree when the tree is cut down. "Intercontinental ballistic missiles" do not yet exist, and they may never come into existence.

MOSLEM CONFIDENCE AND GOOD-WILL OUR VERY BEST DEFENSE

The 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia can easily put armies totalling 45,000,000 men into the field. In World War II the United States put approximately 14,500,000 men into the armed forces, or 10% of the approximate total 150,000,000 population of the United States. As the sincere and loyal allies of the United States, the 450,000,000 Moslem population of Africa, the Middle East and Asia may possibly put 20% of their total population, or 90,000,000 men into their armies. Modern armies of 45,000,000-90,000,000 Moslems along the extended and exposed long under-belly of the Soviet Union will act as the greatest deterrent against aggression by the Soviet Union, and may be the only consideration which will restrain the Soviet Union.

MOSLEM CONFIDENCE AND GOOD-WILL CAN DETER SOVIET UNION

The Soviet Union is realistic enough to fully understand the threat to her existence of the 45,000,000-90,000,000 well-trained Moslem soldiers as allies of the United States, in the event of hostilities, concentrated along the Soviet Union's extended and exposed long under-belly in Europe and Asia. The Soviet Union will give very careful consideration to any form of intercontinental aggression against the United States for fear of inviting invasion of the Soviet Union by Moslem armies of such great size and strength stationed directly along her borders. In any world conflict, a friendly 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia will prove the most decisive factor in victory for the United States in the event of Soviet Union aggression. It is imperative that the complete confidence and the gratuitous good-will of the 450,000,000 Moslem population in that strategic area is now retrieved. The very survival of this nation hinges upon it!

SOVIET UNION SEEKING MILITARY ALLIANCE ALL MOSLEM NATIONS

Since the termination of World War II in 1945, the Soviet Union "has left no stone unturned" to transform the 450,000,000 pro-United States Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia into an anti-United States 450,000,000 Moslem population in that strategic area. The success of the Soviet Union in that respect has been phenomenal. The support the Soviet Union gave to the United States-sponsored malicious United Nations so-called "recommendation" for the vicious so-called "partition" of Palestine was subtle strategy on the part of the Soviet Union, only for the purpose of driving an opening wedge between the United States and the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia, by United States "murder" of a Moslem state. The recent sale of large amounts of military equipment to Moslem nations by the Soviet Union confirms the intention of the Soviet Union since 1945 to win over the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia for their future conflict with the United States. The world knows only a very small fraction of what the Soviet Union has otherwise accomplished in their secret and sinister conspiracy to deprive the United States of use of that strategic area for air bases for "massive retaliation," and other military purposes, and to prevent the addition of this 450,000,000 manpower, and the critical natural resources of that strategic area to the war potential of the United States.

SOVIET UNION PLANS SABOTAGE MOSLEM MILITARY AID TO U.S.A.

The unjust 1948 extermination of the Moslem state of Palestine by the United States is the sole reason why the 450,000,000 Moslem population of Africa, the Middle East and Asia will be found in the camp of the Soviet Union. It will prove a tragic development if it proves to be irrevocable. The Soviet Union does not find it difficult to convince the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia that the rape of Palestine was planned, executed and financed by the world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators under United States direction. The Soviet Union is capitalizing on the predicament in which the United States finds itself for giving "aid and comfort" to the enemies of the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia, and for "aiding and abetting" the plot to wipe a Moslem state off the face of the earth for no other reason except that political leaders in the United States made a "deal" with the world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators to "trade" Palestine for the Zionist votes in the United States.

ZIONISM NOW PLUNGING NATION INTO ANOTHER KOREAN WAR

The mere presence at this time of United States armed forces in Palestine will unquestionably prove more than sufficient under existing tensions there to provoke and precipitate the open outbreak of World War III, and the participation of the United States in it. It is now time that fathers and mothers in the United States, and their sons and daughters, give more serious consideration to the frequent utterances by United States military and civilian leaders eminently qualified to analyze and evaluate this situation realistically. They are constantly warning the nation of this grave danger. These competent authorities on many recent occasions have strongly emphasized their belief that the United States cannot survive the catastrophic consequences of World War III and emerge from it an undefeated, independent and sovereign nation. They assert this is due in a large measure to the present unfavorable international relations of the United States, and to several domestic situations all created for that evil purpose by foreign agents.

ZIONISTS DICTATING NATION'S DISASTROUS FOREIGN POLICIES

The United States will seek for long but in vain to regain the sincere and loyal international cooperation of other nations so essential for continued world-leadership by the United States, until and unless the United States promptly takes effective measures for the restoration of all Palestine to all Palestine's rightful 1947 inhabitants, and for the repossession of all Palestine by all Palestine's lawful owners. The United States cannot escape full responsibility for the criminal act of "master minding" the corrupt conspiracy in United Nations which achieved the malicious and vicious so-called "partition" of Palestine, which so shocks the conscience of the truly honorable nations today, and is undermining the peace of the world.

MOSLEM AREA CONTAINS MANY CRITICAL NATURAL RESOURCES

The complete confidence and gratuitous good-will of the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia is essential to victory because modern war depends upon industrial production for victory, and industrial production ceases when critical raw materials are no longer available. In a war of attrition between two great industrial powers, victory will go to the one which enjoys uninterrupted and unlimited sources of supply for critical raw materials. Without that, victory is impossible. Therein lies the importance to the United States of the natural resources of Africa, the Middle East and Asia. That vital factor in the survival of the United States as an undefeated, independent and sovereign nation cannot be sacrificed for the benefit of the world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators. It is national suicide.

As an illustration, more than 77% of all the world's known oil reserves are situated in a relatively small area of the Middle East, in Moslem countries. The figure 77% may be an understatement. The daily production of oil in the Middle East is more than 4,000,000 barrels. This can be increased to more than 6,000,000 barrels overnight. The world's largest oil refinery has been in Iran for many years, another Moslem country. The large oil refineries in Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Germany and several smaller European countries are supplied with oil from the Middle East. Without the oil production of the Middle East the armies, navies and air forces of the United States and western European powers would soon slow down, and come to a halt for lack of fuel. Oil in sufficient quantities could not be transported from Texas and Venezuela owing to the number of new oil-tankers required, and the danger of Soviet Union submarine warfare with their fleet of 638 all modern "schnorkel" submarines. Denial of access of the United States to the natural resources of Africa, the Middle East and Asia can bring about total collapse of the United States fighting machine. The United States would then drop like a ripe-plum from the tree into the "lap" of the Marxist-Zionist "world government" now "in the works."

PALESTINE'S SOVEREIGN INDEPENDENCE RECOGNIZED IN 1919

Palestine was created a sovereign nation at the same time that Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi-Arabia, Trans-Jordan and Yemen were created sovereign states in 1919. Since 1919, Palestine was and is a sovereign state under international law to the same extent that Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi-Arabia, Trans-Jordan and Yemen are now sovereign states. Palestine and they are equally sovereign, all created under the same circumstances. They were created by the World War I Peace Conference out of the territory of Arabia, which was guaranteed complete independence from Turkey in 1915 for their contribution to the successful outcome of World War I. Then temporary trusteeships were set up to organize governments. These ended under terms of the agreements with one exception. The British temporary trusteeship over Palestine since 1919 was never terminated, but it easily could have been in very few years. But the British temporary trusteeship for Palestine was illegally used for the dishonest "sell out" of Palestine. The Zionist-controlled (Rothschild) British government in London stationed 100,000 British troops in Palestine to force into Palestine sufficient transplanted-Zionists to outnumber the native Palestine population. Behind these 100,000 British bayonets the Zionist-controlled Palestine administration brought into Palestine 650,000 unwanted and unwelcome eastern European Zionists between 1921 and 1948. The 1,350,000 native Palestine population now saw this imminent threat to their sovereignty, and were about to take steps to stop it, when the British slyly slipped the "Palestine Question" to United Nations. Palestine has always had the equal right to exist as a free, independent, and sovereign nation that Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi-Arabia, Trans-Jordan, and Yemen have to exist as free, independent, and sovereign nations. Palestine never obtained its freedom from the British temporary trusteeship because the world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators arranged by their intrigue to keep the British in Palestine, to force into Palestine several million eastern European Zionists against the opposition of the 1,350,000 native Palestine population. The Christian world had no more right to "give" the state of Palestine to the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors in Palestine than to "give" Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi-Arabia, Trans-Jordan, and Yemen to transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors transplanted by them similarly into those countries now.

ZIONISM MISREPRESENTS THEIR "RELIGION" AS BASIS FOR CRIMES

History, theology and anthropology all offer incontestible proof that the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors have some valid historic basis for infiltrating into the State of Texas, and attempting to take it over. History, theology and anthropology offer incontestible proof also that the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors have not the slightest valid basis for their claim to ownership of Palestine. The world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators base their claim to ownership of Palestine upon representations always known by them to be fictitious, false and fraudulent. Historians, theologians and anthropologists in recent years have exposed this deception. The incontestible historic truth is that the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors in Palestine are the direct lineal descendants of a Mongoloid Turco-Finn non-Semitic Asiatic nation known as Khazars. The war-like Khazar nation was driven out of their ancestral homeland in the heart of Asia and into eastern Europe about the 1st century B.C. The Khazar invaders conquered 800,000 square miles in what is today the area in the Soviet Union roughly between the Ural Mountains and Germany, and between the Gulf of Finland and the Black Sea. The Khazar kingdom was conquered and absorbed by the expanding Russian empire in the 10-12th centuries. In the 7th century the pagan Khazar king was converted to the then rapidly disappearing so-called "religion," all based upon the Talmud, and known only in modern times as "Judaism." The new religious belief of the Khazar king became the state religion, and the entire pagan Khazar nation of phallic worshippers adopted Talmudism as their new "religious" practice. The Zionists practice it to this day.

In 1954, Princeton University Press published "The History of the Jewish Khazars," by Professor D. M. Dunlop, Professor of Islamic History, at Cambridge University, in London. This book was also published in England by the Oxford University Press of London. Professor Dunlop, in 263 pages of documented incontestible historic facts, violently explodes the myth that the religious group in eastern Europe, masquerading for 50 years before the world as so-called Zionists, are by the wildest stretch of any informed person's imagination the lineal descendants of the so-called "Chosen People," associated in the minds of Christians with the so-called "Promised Land," or the so-called "remnants of the Lost Ten Tribes." The Zionists have thus misrepresented themselves successfully to the unsuspecting Christian world by deceit. In the New York Public Library there are 387 other books and authentic reference sources in 9 different ancient and modern languages completely corroborating Professor D. M. Dunlop.

ZIONIST CLAIMS TO PALESTINE ALL BASED UPON FRAUDS

The world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators first claimed ownership of Palestine by virtue of the historic fact that they were the Almighty's so-called "Chosen People." That fraud blew up in their faces. They then claimed Palestine as their so-called "Promised Land," promised to them by the Almighty who had defaulted in the performance of His realty deal for 3000 years. That fraud blew up in their faces. They then claimed ownership of Palestine as the "remnants of the Lost Ten Tribes," demanding support by the Christian world for their campaign for "repatriation" to their "ancient homeland." That fraud blew up in their faces. They then claimed ownership of Palestine by virtue of the so-called "Balfour Declaration," a simple letter from Balfour to Lord Rothschild, drafted in the United States by Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis and Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, in which Balfour promises the Zionists "a homeland in Palestine," although England did not own a single grain of sand in Palestine they could honestly "promise" to anyone. That fraud blew up in their faces. They then claimed ownership of Palestine by virtue of the so-called League of Nations "Mandate," an agreement between the former League of Nations and England whereby England was appointed temporary trustee of Palestine in 1921 for the sole purpose of organizing a Palestine government drawn from the native Palestine population as soon as it could then be done, under "free elections," based on the right of all humans to "self-determination," when only 7% of the Palestine population were Zionists. That fraud blew up in their faces. They then claimed ownership of Palestine under the United Nations so-called "recommendation" for the so-called "partition" of Palestine. That fraud blew up in their faces. They now claim ownership of Palestine only because they "won it in a war." The world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators, and the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors in Palestine, must not be surprised if the 450,000,000 Moslem population in Africa, the Middle East and Asia seek to restore their dispossessed 1,000,000 co-religionists in their rightful and ancient homeland, by the same methods employed by the transplanted-Zionists armed alien aggressors who dispossessed them. What is "sauce for the goose" is "sauce for the gander," under the immutable Divine law of retributive justice for all.

WHAT MEANS "JUSTICE" IN PALESTINE IS ALSO JUSTICE IN TEXAS

How will the red-blooded patriots in the State of Texas, and the other 47 of the 48 United States react if the same things happen in the State of Texas in 1956 that happened in Palestine in 1948? Suppose the Soviet Union succeeded between 1926 and 1956 in then illegally transplanting into the State of Texas from Mexico, 2,000,000 Mexican peons over the futile protests of the 6,000,000 native Texas population. Suppose the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican peons are "armed to the teeth" secretly by fraudulent subterfuge with unlimited quantities of the most up-to-date weapons of every type manufactured by the Soviet Union, and by satellite states of the Soviet Union, at absolutely no cost whatsoever to the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican peons. Suppose the unwanted and unwelcome 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican peons organize their own armed force in the State of Texas, the best-equipped of any fighting force in the world of its size. Suppose during this period the 6,000,000 native Texas population is completely disarmed by the State of Texas in collusion with the Soviet Union, with the dynamiting of homes followed by hanging the penalty for a native Texan found in possession of firearms of any description whatsoever for any purpose whatsoever. These were precisely the respective predicaments of the 1,350,000 disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless native Palestine population, and the 650,000 transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors in Palestine when the United States-sponsored Zionist revolution erupted there in 1948.

IS CHRISTIAN GOLDEN RULE ALSO MANUFACTURED FOR EXPORT?

Suppose at the given signal from Moscow in 1956, the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors suddenly appear on the streets of all the cities, towns and villages in the State of Texas, and without provocation of any kind immediately begin to massacre the 6,000,000 disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless native men, women and children of the State of Texas, using for that purpose their unlimited supplies of the most up-to-date tanks, heavy artillery, howitzers, bazookas, heavy machine guns, tommy guns, automatic rifles, flame-throwers, grenades, land mines, dive bombers and four-motored bombers. Suppose the survivors of the 6,000,000 disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless native men, women and children of the State of Texas abandon everything they possess in the world, and flee for their lives across the borders of the State of Texas into the neighboring deserts of Arizona and New Mexico, in preference to being killed off like flies. Suppose every native Texas man, woman and child in several prominent cities in the State of Texas are slaughtered only to impress upon the remaining native population in other areas of the State of Texas the penalty for resistance of any kind. That is precisely what took place in Palestine in 1948 when the United States "passed the word" to the world-wide network of international Zionist conspirators to "turn loose" their 650,000 transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors against the 1,350,000 disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless native Palestine population. This is all history's classic "slaughter of the innocents."

HOW CAN ZIONIST REVOLUTION BECOME A "SOVEREIGN STATE?"

Suppose the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors occupy and take over physical possession of the State of Texas, and the wealth of the State of Texas without paying 1c for it to the lawful owners. Suppose the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors simultaneously "proclaim" their revolution a so-called "sovereign state," calling themselves the "Republic of Alamo," or some similar historic name to mislead the outside world. Suppose that six minutes after the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors publicly "proclaim" their revolution a so-called "sovereign state," six minutes later the Soviet Union officially "recognizes" the so-called "Republic of Alamo" as a "sovereign state," pursuant to a conspiracy entered into by them in advance for that purpose. Suppose this official "recognition" of the "Republic of Alamo" by the Soviet Union automatically transforms the revolution in the State of Texas into a so-called "sovereign state" by operation of international law.

Suppose several satellites of the Soviet Union also promptly extend "recognition" to the so-called "Republic of Alamo," as a "sovereign state," under pressure or threat by the Soviet Union. Suppose all these so-called "recognitions" are then given respectability by the "recognition" of United Nations, by advance secret arrangement.

UNITED NATIONS CHARTER AUTHORIZES "RECOMMENDATIONS" ONLY

Suppose the other 47 of the 48 United States thereupon order their National Guard units to immediately march into the former State of Texas and put down by armed force the revolution of the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors. Suppose by an arrangement made in advance, United Nations forthwith declares the revolution in the State of Texas to be an "international" armed conflict between the United States and the so-called "Republic of Alamo," no longer just a simple revolution, and consequently just a "domestic affair," the concern only of the United States. It is incontestably true, without any reservations, that under its Charter, United Nations is explicitly and categorically forbidden to inject itself into any situation that concerns the "domestic affair" of any nation whatsoever. That specific provision in United Nations Charter today enables France to keep United Nations from injecting itself into the warfare going on in Algiers, which France claims is a "domestic affair," in spite of its "international" character and its implications. Under its Charter, United Nations is authorized, by the members which created that organization, to inject United Nations into situations solely where two or more truly legitimate "sovereign states" are concerned, emphasizing very explicitly not to ever involve United Nations unless "international peace" calls for it.

IN ALL HISTORY REVOLUTIONS THE "DOMESTIC AFFAIR" OF NATIONS

Since the beginning of time, a revolution has been recognized by all nations as the "domestic affair" of the nation concerned, both under international common law and under international written agreements, and as such solely the "domestic affair" of the nation concerned. Since United Nations under its Charter is explicitly and categorically forbidden to inject United Nations into any situation concerning the "domestic affair" of any nation, United Nations cannot inject itself into a situation involving a revolution, until or unless a revolution is officially "recognized" as a so-called "sovereign state" by a leading nation. When or if that occurs, United Nations can thereupon inject itself into a situation which concerns a "domestic" revolution. To now transform this "domestic" revolution in Palestine into an "international" conflict between two "sovereign states," the world-wide net-work of international Zionist conspirators arranged in Washington far in advance of 1948, to have President Truman officially "recognize" the revolution of the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors in Palestine, on behalf of the United States, the instant the revolution was "proclaimed" a "sovereign state" by the revolutionists. That "recognition" by President Truman under international law instantly transformed the "domestic affair" in Palestine, the 1948 revolution by the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors, into an "international affair," an armed conflict between "sovereign states." That "recognition" by President Truman allowed United Nations to inject itself plump into the 1948 revolution going on at that time in Palestine. It was to achieve this that the world-wide net-work of international conspirators squandered freely their countless "tax-exempt" millions of United States dollars so dishonestly.

MOSLEM NATION'S HELP TO PALESTINE AN OBLIGATION IN 1948

Suppose United Nations officially takes the position that "recognition" of the so-called "Republic of Alamo," the former State of Texas, by the Soviet Union, six minutes after it is "proclaimed" a "sovereign state" by the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors, thereby automatically transforms the revolution in the State of Texas, an otherwise "domestic affair," into an "international affair," an armed conflict between two "sovereign states." Suppose United Nations officially takes the position this transformation allows United Nations to inject itself into this "international affair," and United Nations attempts thereupon to assert its authority in the former State of Texas. Suppose the other 47 of the 48 United States refuse to recognize United Nations authority, and order their National Guard units to march into the former State of Texas to put down the revolution there by force, to enable the return of 6,000,000 disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless native Texas men, women and children to their homes and property, to continue to live their lives there in peace and security. The armed forces of Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Trans-Jordan, Saudi-Arabia and Yemen in 1948 were under the same obligation under their League of Arab States mutual defense treaty of 1944, on file with United Nations since 1946, to come to the aid of the disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless men, women and children in Palestine, exactly as the other 47 of the 48 United States claim the right, and owe a debt under the Constitution of the United States, to come to the aid of the disarmed and defenseless, innocent and helpless native men, women and children in the State of Texas, today and forevermore. The justice and the equities in the case of Palestine in 1948 and the State of Texas in 1956 are the same.

CHRISTIAN NATIONS CONSPIRE TO EXTINGUISH A MOSLEM NATION

Suppose United Nations then "imposes" a so-called "cease-fire" in the former State of Texas, demanding a cessation of hostilities between the National Guard units of the other 47 of the 48 United States, and the armed forces of the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors, under the threat of military action by United Nations armed forces and

United Nations economic reprisals. Suppose subsequently, United Nations "arranges" a so-called "armistice" to preserve "international peace" between the United States and the so-called "Republic of Alamo." Suppose at the moment the so-called "Republic of Alamo" is soundly trouncing the National Guard units of the other 47 of the 48 United States for a very good reason. The so-called "Republic of Alamo" has unlimited supplies of the most up-to-date weapons of every type employed in modern warfare, and the National Guard units of the other 47 of the 48 United States are practically without arms of any kind, or ammunition, the Soviet Union having successfully conspired with suppliers of military equipment in the United States to prevent delivery of needed arms and ammunition to the National Guard units, in order to sabotage the military efforts of the National Guard force in the State of Texas. That was precisely the status of the very small and poorly-equipped armies of Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Trans-Jordan, Saudi-Arabia and Yemen in 1948 when the 650,000 transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors were waging war against them in Palestine with hundreds of millions of dollars worth of the most-up-to-date weapons from the arsenals of the leading military powers, and unlimited supplies of ammunition, obtained by them without cost, with huge funds almost all supplied from the United States. Since 1919, international intrigue by the world-wide net-work of the international Zionist conspirators has been able to keep Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi-Arabia, Trans-Jordan and Yemen as poor as possible, and supplied only with the minimum of weapons needed to maintain armed forces sufficient only for police duty. However, in 1948 an endless "flying box-car" merry-go-round shuttled back and forth daily bringing additional plane-loads of the finest weapons in the world to the already superbly equipped army of the 650,000 transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors in Palestine, from the Skoda Works in Czechoslovakia, from Soviet Union arsenals in Kharkov, to say nothing of the many ship-loads illegally smuggled out of the United States daily.

UNITED NATIONS "PEACE" VALIDATES ZIONIST'S MANY CRIMES

Suppose United Nations officially now appoints Ralph Bunche to work out his idea of "peace" in the former State of Texas, between the other 47 of the 48 United States, and the so-called "Republic of Alamo," the former State of Texas. Suppose Ralph Bunche believes in the kind of "peace" which permits the thieves to keep what they have stolen by force to evade attempts to recover the stolen property from the thieves by force. Suppose Ralph Bunche then imposes an official United Nations "peace" upon the belligerents in the former State of Texas whereby the 2,000,000 transplanted-Mexican armed alien aggressors are allowed to remain in occupation of the former State of Texas, and allowed to retain possession of the wealth of the former State of Texas without paying 1c for it to the rightful owners. Suppose Ralph Bunche imposes an official United Nations "peace" upon the former State of Texas which calls upon the other 47 of the 48 United States to "resettle" the exiled 6,000,000 "refugee" native Texas men, women and children in the unsettled areas of the other 47 states. That is precisely the United Nations "peace" which Ralph Bunche enthusiastically imposed upon the belligerents in Palestine in 1948. As a result of the "peace" efforts by Ralph Bunche, Palestine is today still occupied by the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors. Pursuant to the provisions of the same "peace" in Palestine, the transplanted-Zionist armed alien aggressors, without the payment of 1c to the rightful owners, are still in possession of stolen land in Palestine valued at $5,600,000,000 by United Nations, several additional billions in stolen personal property, and several trillions in stolen natural resources, principally oil and chemicals. In gratitude for his contribution in implementing his United Nations so-called "peace," the world-wide net-work of international Zionist conspirators have managed to make Ralph Bunche recipient of more "honorary degrees," "awards," medals, plaques, etc., etc. and other valuable "rewards" than possibly any other individual in the world.

I see I turn I feel RED, WHITE & BLUE

I SEE RED as I vision the precious blood of the countless innocent millions drenching the sacred soil of our dearly beloved United States in World War III, staining it as red as the flag of those who spill it.

I TURN WHITE even at the thought of surrender by the United States to the Soviet Union, defeated by them with atomic and hydrogen bombs made from secrets stolen from us for them by traitors in our government.

I FEEL BLUE as I meditate that this fate may too soon overtake us because the nation is too busy making money and having fun to listen to those who still can tell them how they can save their country from ruin.

Only an informed nation can know how to save itself from destruction.

Send $1., $5., $10., $50., $100. or more and every penny of your gift will be used to send copies of Common Sense to all who should be reading it.

ANALYSIS OF LEFTIST PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT PENDING IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEES.

(Editor's Note:

Those of us who are dealing with such matters as this, realize fully the directive power behind the forces trying to break down our Immigration Laws are the "Jewish" organizations. Every "Jewish" organization and publication, along with the Communist publications, carry on a constant campaign to destroy the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law. Just as Marxists were forced into Germany before the war in an effort to overthrow the German government from the inside. Just so these same forces are flooding our country with Marxists who, upon arrival here, become part of the Communist fronts working for the remaking of our country.)

The campaign to destroy the Immigration and Nationality Act (McCarran-Walter Act) is now under way. The opening blasts are right now being sounded in hearings conducted by the Senate Subcommittee on Immigration and Nationality under the Chairmanship of Senator Harley M. Kilgore (Dem., W. Va.) These hearings are being used as a sounding board for Left-Wing attacks on our immigration system. They will be followed by 1956 election-year legislation designed to appeal to so-called "minority block" and "liberal" votes by extracting the teeth from the McCarran-Walter Act and Communism is the implacable enemy of our country! Dedicated to our annihilation, it moves stealthily, employing all the wiles of a cunning animal. Today it soothes us with talk of peace. Tomorrow it rattles the saber. Always, it moves toward a calculated goal that has been spelled out for all of us to read. Every American must awaken to these realities if our nation is to survive.

By Bob Shuler, Editor, Methodist Challenge, 1801 So. Flower St., Los Angeles California

The national Committee for the Repeal of the McCarran Act is a new and vigorous organization, sponsored or initiated by 30 prominent Americans, among them being four Methodist Bishops, two from the West. While the aims and purposes of this organization may not be described as un-American, yet they are certainly in harmony with the activities of the Communist apparatus in this country.

I do not know and have never read of any Communist who did not want the McCarran Act repealed. Its repeal is a darling ambition of Moscow and tremendous pressure from Communist and Communist front groups is continually being brought to bear on Congress to that end. The repeal of the McCarran Act, known as the McCarran-Walter Immigration and Nationality Act, would be a major victory for international Communism.

This does not mean that the 30 "initiators" are Communists. There is possibly not a card-carrying Communist among them. They are "soft touches" when it comes to star-gazing internationalism. Most of them are Socialists and one-worlders. Some of them are personally sympathetic with the outwardly stated ideals and aims of Communism. Indeed it would pay my readers, if they can lay their hands on the Oct. 1955 number of American Mercury, page 51 and read "Immigration 1956 Issue." This is not only an illuminating article but a warning that all good Americans must sooner or later face.

The immigration problem goes to the very heart of our security as a nation. For instance in my city of Los Angeles we are faced with a most menacing juvenile delinquency contagion. We pick up the morning paper and read of gang murders and even worse. We read the names of those participating in this gangsterism. Not twenty-five per cent of them are American names. Youth crime in my city is largely a question of the foreign element.

Back in the days of prohibition, America became world-famous for racketeering and hoodlumism. The statistics showed that 86% of the gangsters and hoodlums that brought world shame on our nation were foreigners and of immediate foreign extraction. The FBI statistics, when released, place the preponderance of crime upon that part of our citizenship, either born in foreign lands or coming from parents thus born.

It is no secret that European and Asiatic ideals and moral standards are very different from those of America. We are poisoned as a nation with Communism and Socialism, not from American sources. We sent our young men to Europe to fight two world wars and received in return the corruption of American ideals and moral standards as in no other manner and from no other source. Our boys brought back and are bringing today an ideological poison that may doom our civilization.

The advocates of unlimited immigration have a tear-wet appeal that pictures starved children and jobless men and women, often brought to their present predicament by the very evils we seek to

US Recognition Of USSR

Statement by Senator Hatfield
A RELEASE TO MONDAY MORNING PAPERS, NOV. 13, 1933 (Three days before recognition of the Soviet Union)

The following release was given to the newspapers by then Senator H.D. Hatfield of West Virginia, on November 13, 1933, three days before F.D.R., submitting to pressure by Maxim Litvinoff, recognized the Soviet Union. Communism was on the verge of collapse when Roosevelt gave them added strength by this recognition. The reward Senator Hatfield received for supporting American patriotism was his defeat for reelection to the U.S. Senate in the campaign of 1934.

With all due respect to the great Slavic envoy now in our midst, and hoping that Lese Majeste is not yet a crime in the United States, I venture to manifest antagonism toward resuming diplomatic intercourse with Russia. I had hoped the President's inviting of Commissar Litvinoff to the White House was only a red herring drawn across the trail to divert the people's minds, start an argument on Bolshevism and thus conceal the collapse of N.R.A.

It becomes apparent, however, from negotiations of President Roosevelt and Commissar Litvinoff, who have been speaking the same economic language for some time—as evidenced by the similarity between America's N.R.A. and Russia's N.E.P.—that the establishment of a Soviet Embassy in Washington is imminent. That is to be deplored.

This great nation, which proclaims to the world its belief in a supreme being, in the imperishable motto of its coins, in the messages and state papers of its Presidents, other public documents, the acts of Congress, and the oaths of its officers, now admits to its household the Apostles of another religion—for Leninism is a religion that says: "There is no God!"

In recognizing Soviet Russia, we are not only recognizing a government that would destroy our religion, but one which would destroy what remains of our Republic.

Since last March 4, the Russian imprint on the minds of those in control of this nation's destiny has been unmistakable. It was evident when the President from his bedside called for dispatches from Moscow. It was evident in the N.R.A., which is merely an adaptation of Russia's Marxian 5-year plan. It was evident from the Russian conversations in London of professor Moley, who had admirably welcomed Commissar Litvinoff to America. It was evident in the expeditionary voyage of Senator McAdoo.

Those who favor recognition of Russia are supposed to have a great tolerance and breadth of mind. But is that really so? Is our trade with Russia to be financed by the American government? If so, that means displacement of so many Americans from present and future jobs. Are they to pay us with money obtained from exports to other nations? If so, then they displace by so much exports that formerly went into these markets.

When it is considered Russia has an area of 8,000,000 square miles, a climate ranging from the Arctic to nearly torrid; with 167,000,000 regimented population, and with enormous natural resources, unsurpassed by any contiguous area in the world, it can be seen that we would be financing our greatest potential commercial rival. Is that good business?

Metternich, who fought Democracy with an iron hand under a velvet glove, proved to the world that governments cannot conquer an idea. No one advocates the policy of a modern Metternich towards Russia. We can wisely let the experiment proceed, hoping that the Russian people—and ourselves, too—eventually can come back to sanity.

It is stated that recognition involves no approval of the Russian way of life. That is arrant sophistry. Such mental processes descend to the same depths of moral ignominy as was displayed when our government condoned repudiation of the letter of its bonds.

Can a mere paragraph of high-sounding words assure the American people that Moscow does not intend to foment a Red revolution here? The facts of record, as adduced by Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., are to the contrary.

The prospect of an enormous trans-oceanic trade with Russia is dangled before our eyes. Ought we to yield to this kind of blandishment? Should America's morals, or her religion, be put up for sale?

It would appear further that after lending $28,000,000,000 of American money to public and private borrowers in foreign lands, and being confronted with defaults on the greater part of these immense sums, that we had learned our lesson. If private creditors will not lend to Russia, is it any better risk for the government of the United States? With all due respect to Commissar Litvinoff and Senator McAdoo, we cannot forget that the latter in his day was one of the greatest spenders of modern times.

A dole of nearly $1,000,000,000 has been spent, or is being spent in support of NRA. If any further dole be decreed to sustain this tottering edifice, by all means let it be given direct to our suffering people, rather than to Russia.

We have had enough of "Guinea Pig" government in the United States. By that I mean the kind of government that views its citizens as a vast horde of Lilliputians, incapable of managing their own affairs, and whose principle obligation is to toil to support a luxurious bureaucracy. I mean the kind of government that looks upon its citizens as a vast laboratory of Guinea Pigs, on which the experiments of economic theorists may be performed.

We have had enough of Caesarism in America. Not since Louis XIV has the world witnessed such a subservient and sycophantic clique as that which until very recent days applauded through press, radio and movies, the lightest gesture of the White House.

Shall this clique now lead us into financing extinction of what remains of democracy in western civilization? Can we be sure that Russia has stifled a yearning for a warm water port, in quest of which she fought four unsuccessful wars?

Do we want to finance another war, when we have scarcely begun to pay for the last one, that brought the victors (ourselves excluded) $100,000,000,000 booty in seized lands, indemnities, and trade privileges and set up a train of woe that afflicts the world, and particularly the American people to this day?

I am aware that the extinction of democracy might prove palatable to such theorists as professors Moley, Berle, Ezekiel and Tugwell, who might be described as the "Red Cell" of the present Administration, as evidenced by the bills they sponsored and put over during the hysteria of the hundred days—but are the American people ready to say goodbye for ever to the teachings of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and Abe Lincoln?

If, as stated by a high NRA administrator, we have reached the half-way house between Democracy and Socialism, and if, as he states that half-way house is better than the democracy that our forefathers practiced, then, I inquire why not go on to the full Marxian Socialism? The truth is that neither NRA nor NEP has proved able to provide economic security to the individual man. The former rests on prodigious doles. The latter is here pleading for financial sustenance.

I should think it would be wiser at the moment to confine our program to the frontiers of America, beyond which our control ceases. The issue as between Democracy and Communism can no more be compromised than Henry Clay could compose the issues that found their solution at Gettysburg and Appomattox. There is no half-way house.

Those who promised an economic heaven a few months ago have tragically failed to bring us to it. The prospect for an overnight Utopia has vanished. Is it to be wondered at, when the tyrannous bureaucracy called NRA ventures to fix the prices, the days and the hours labor shall toil, and at the same time halves the dollar they formerly got.

Let us not be diverted, if such is the purpose, by an extended debate on Russia. We can well afford to wait until Bolshevism has proved itself better than Democracy.

Israel and World War III

Much is being said about the situation in the Middle East these days with the majority of the reports favoring the "State of Israel". The reason being that the word has been passed down that now is the time for Uncle Sam to adopt the "poor little State of Israel", and since this so-called state has decided to wage war on the Arab countries, setting off World War III, the American people are to get the business.

The situation today (that is, for the brain-washed Goy) the Communist countries are supporting the Arab States and the latter are picking on the defenseless "State of Democracy", therefore, the United States has decided to supply Israel with the means to protect themselves.

The true story, (and the one which no one should believe because then the cat would be let out of the bag and we wouldn't have World War III, and it would naturally follow that this would be bad for our economy, that's ready to fall to pieces, plus the fact that millions of our boys would be deprived of the privilege of dying in Israel) is that the Jews running the State of Israel and the Jews running the Soviet Union have it all arranged where the latter supplies arms to the Arab States, which scare Hades out of America, forcing America to throw billions down the rat hole. At the same time Israel and America become jealous lovers and when the little Israel brat gives the Arabs a shin kick Uncle Sap comes in with both fists swinging. In the meantime, our co-existent pal in the Soviet prepares for the day when Uncle Sap is so spread out all over the place that the only manpower he has at home are the Boy Scouts. When that day comes, Soviet Russia, which hasn't lost a man or fired a rifle shot, will drop everything on the United States including the Ural mountains. What happens from there on is everyone's guess. The sensible people will wish that they were on Boga-Boga island, or better still, playing with the angels.

Now, it isn't fair for Common Sense to make such rash statements about Soviet Russia being run by Jews, particularly, since every newspaper in the land has been giving our poor persecuted brethren such a build up in the past few months. However, for those who have not been entirely brain-washed, we would like to quote from a few of those "honorable persons" in substantiation of our humble opinion; therefore, we quote: from (His Excellency, the Jewish Lord and Master of the Russian Empire) Mr. Lazar M. Kaganovich, First Deputy Premier and Economic Expert, Nov. 6, 1955, Moscow: "Revolutionary ideas know no frontiers, Communism will triumph from within each country and cannot be imposed from without. The Marxist conception of society spread throughout the globe despite the absence of radios, telephones, or airlines at the time of Karl Marx....We do not advise anyone to test our forces, particularly those who have already experienced them.... No one will ever be able to break the close bonds linking the Soviet people with the broad people's masses, with the working class of all countries of the world."

From the Canadian Weekly in an interview with Mr. J. B. Salsberg (Jew), former Labor Progressive Party provincial M.P. of Ontario, Aug. 18, 1955. "Mr. Salsberg told the Vochenblatt that he was impressed by the signs which point to a renewed extension of Jewish cultural and religious endeavors in the Soviet Union since the elimination of the Beria clique. While in Moscow he attended a Yiddish concertin, the comedy-drama theater, one of three concerts given on successive days by Saul Lyubimov, a well known interpreter of Yiddish folk songs.

"The theater was packed to capacity despite the heat and the vacation season. In fact all three concerts were sold out in advance. I met Mr. Lyubimov and learned that on the completion of his Moscow concert he commences a country-wide tour with the same program that will cover among other cities, such centers with large Jewish populations as Minsk, Vitebsk, Kiev, Odessa, Kharkov, etc."

"Four days after the Lyubimov concerts there was scheduled in Moscow another evening of folk songs and reading from Yiddish literature featuring the renowned Yiddish artist of Chernovitz, Sidi Tal."

Mr. Salsberg visited with Rabbi S. Shlifer, chief rabbi of Moscow. The interview continues: "The rabbi informed Mr. Salsberg that a new prayer book for Sabbath and holiday services is now in print, and will be completed before the coming high holidays. 'It will be,' said Rabbi Shlifer, 'a very fine technical job because the appropriate government agencies have made available the finest book paper for this purpose.'

"Interestingly enough," said Mr. Salsberg, "the prayer book will be in nusach s'fard (sephardic text). These prayer books will be made available to all synagogues in the Soviet Union."

"In addition he learned that a rabbinical seminary will be established in conjunction with the great Moscow synagogue for the training of rabbis to meet the needs of the Jewish religious communities in the USSR."

A Call To Action

opening the flood gates to untold numbers in respect of assimilability or desirability.

Unless you and other patriotic people and organizations register STRONG AND CONTINUED demand on Capital Hill for the preservation of the McCarran-Walter Immigration and Nationality Act, this vital bulwark to our internal security will be destroyed—and all in the name of "Democracy, Brotherhood, and Peace."

1. NATIONAL ORIGINS QUOTA SYSTEM

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

The Immigration and Nationality Act carries forward the national origins quota system pursuant to which the annual quota of any quota area is one sixth of one percentum of the number of inhabitants in the continental United States in 1920 attributable by national origin to such quota area, but each quota area has at least a minimum quota of 100. The annual quotas aggregate 154,653. There are no quota limitations on aliens who are natives of independent countries of the Western Hemisphere or who are the child or spouse of a citizen of the United States. There are likewise no numerical limitations on non-immigrant aliens seeking temporary admission (students, visitors, trainees, etc.).

During fiscal year 1954, there were a total of 208,177 immigrants admitted into the United States for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act. Of this number, 94,098 were quota immigrants and 114,079 were nonquota immigrants. These statistics do not include immigrants admitted pursuant to special legislation such as the Refugee Relief Act. During fiscal year 1952 (the last fiscal year prior to the enactment of the Immigration and Nationality Act) there were a total of 186,342 immigrants admitted into the United States for permanent residence. Of this number, 117,051 were quota immigrants and 69,291 were nonquota immigrants. These statistics likewise do not include aliens admitted pursuant to special legislation. It is thus evident that immigration to the United States has increased since the enactment of the Immigration and Nationality Act. This is due principally to the more liberal provisions of the Act pertaining to non quota classes. For example, under the old law only the female spouse of an American citizen was entitled to nonquota status. Under the Immigration and Nationality Act either spouse of an American citizen is entitled to nonquota status.

The year 1920 was the date of the first census immediately prior to the enactment of the national origins quota system, but the ascertainment of the national origin of the population of the United States was made by a special commission of experts who studied the background of each of the many segments of our population. At that time it was ascertained that five sixths of the population of the United States traced its national origin to Northern and Western Europe, one sixth to Southern and Eastern Europe and an infinitesimal number to oriental countries.

(b). Leftist Proposed Amendments

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that the annual quota of any quota area shall be one sixth of one per centum of the number of inhabitants in the continental United States in 1950 attributable by national origin to such quota area. Since the population of the United States has increased tremendously since 1920 (the base year for fixing quotas under the Immigration and Nationality Act), the net effect of the proposal to change the base year to 1950 would be to increase the quotas by at least 85,000 annually.

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that the unused portion of all quotas shall be made available in the next succeeding fiscal year to aliens on waiting lists who are chargeable to any quota which does not exceed 7,000. The net effect of this proposed amendment is to transfer the unused portion of the large quotas for natives of Northern and Western Europe to orientals and to natives of Southern and Eastern Europe. This would emasculate the national origins immigration system which seeks to preserve the basic cultural composition of the United States. The philosophy underlying our national origins quota system is stated by the House Committee on Immigration and Naturalization of the 68th Congress as follows:

"Since it is the axiom of political science that a government not imposed by external force is the visible expression of the ideals, standards, and social viewpoint of the people over which it rules, it is obvious that a change in the character of composition of the population must inevitably result in the evolution of a form of government consonant with the base upon which it rests. If, therefore, the principles of individual liberty, guarded by a constitutional government created on this continent nearly a century and a half ago, is to endure, the basic strain of our population must be maintained and our economic standards preserved."

During fiscal year 1954 there were 60,559 unused quota numbers. These are principally from Northern and Western European countries. By assuring the use of unused quota numbers and by increasing the natural quotas by 85,000, the proposal would thus increase annual quota immigration by more than two and a half times with a total annual immigration (both quota and nonquota) of over 350,000. Other proposals of the Leftist forces are to abolish the national origins quota system entirely and to substitute a politically appointed board to fix quotas for various groups.

2. ORIENTALS

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

The Immigration and Nationality Act establishes quotas for oriental countries in the world. The old law excluded aliens of certain races (principally oriental) entirely. The Immigration and Nationality Act provides, however, that orientals born in non-oriental countries must be chargeable to quotas for orientals.

(b). Leftist Proposed Amendment

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that this limitation be removed from the Immigration and Nationality Act, so that orientals could use the quota of the country in which they are born and if they are born in nonquota countries of the Western Hemisphere, they would be immediately eligible for immigration to the United States without numerical limitations. It is estimated that there are over 600,000 orientals who are natives of nonquota countries of the Western Hemisphere alone. All three major oriental groups in the United States—Chinese-American, Japanese-American, and Philippine American—endorsed the Immigration and Nationality Act as realistic and sound.

3. DEPENDENT COLONIES

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

Under the Immigration and Nationality Act, dependent colonies may not use over 100 quota numbers annually of the mother country.

(b). Leftist Proposed Amendment

It is proposed that this provision be eliminated. Thus, under the proposal the natives of the dependent colonies of Great Britain, with a quota of 65,000, could utilize as much of the quota as would be available.

4. PROCEDURES

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

The Immigration and Nationality Act is grounded on the pronouncement of the Supreme Court that immigration to the United States is a privilege and not a right. Accordingly, the decisions of the American Consul abroad denying visas have not been subject to judicial review only by way of writ of habeas corpus.

(b). Leftists Proposed Amendment

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that a Board of Visa Appeals be established within the Department of State to review consular decisions. Under the Administration Procedures Act the decisions of the Board of Visa Appeals would in turn be subject to court review. It would be virtually impossible for an American Consul abroad to sustain his findings in an American court thousands of miles away. This would be especially true in security cases where the declination is often based upon government reports and in medical cases where the declination is often based upon the findings of medical examiners abroad.

5. SECURITY CASES

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

Under the Immigration and Nationality Act, the Consular Officer, at the time of the application for a visa, and the Attorney General at the time of application for admission, may decline to issue a visa or admit an alien if they find or have reason to believe that the alien seeks to enter the United States to engage in activities which would endanger the welfare, safety or security of the United States.

(b). Leftist proposed Amendment

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that both the Consular Officer and the Attorney General be forced to establish in court the grounds upon which the alien is refused a visa or is excluded. This would either destroy our intelligence system by disclosing government security information or would mean that aliens within the excludable category would not be excluded.

6. ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

It is estimated that there are from 3 to 5 million aliens illegally in the United States. Under the Immigration and Nationality Act, provision is made for the adjustment of status of illegal aliens to that of permanent residents under certain carefully prescribed limitations and subject to Congressional review. Every year between 10,000 and 15,000 such cases are processed.

(b). Leftist Proposed Amendment

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that the Attorney General may, in his discretion, adjust the status of any alien within the United States to that of an alien lawfully admitted to permanent residence, provided he finds that the alien is a person of good moral character, that such relief is not contrary to the best interests of the United States and that the alien is otherwise deserving of relief. On the basis of past experience and the political pressures inherent in such a proposed system, it is clear that the proposal would completely emasculate our deportation system and further the incentive for illegal entry.

7. CRIMINALS

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

The Immigration and Nationality Act exempts from deportation an alien who is deportable for a crime, but who has received a pardon in the United States for the crime.

(b). Leftist proposed Amendment

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that an alien shall not be excluded upon the basis of a crime for which he has received a pardon, irrespective of the place of procurement. Thus, under the Leftist proposal, the admission into the United States of convicted aliens would be at the discretion of the governing authorities in the foreign country. It is also proposed by the Leftist forces that no alien be deported by reason of any conduct occurring more than 10 years prior to the institution of deportation proceedings. It should be noted that it often takes several years to detect and apprehend a criminal alien. In New York City alone some few years ago, there was a backlog of investigations of illegal aliens of approximately 50,000.

8. LOSS OF NATIONALITY

(a). The Immigration and Nationality Act

For generations the laws have provided that naturalized citizens lose their citizenship if they return to the country of their origin and re-establish residence for three years or establish residence for five years in any other country without returning to the United States. The Immigration and Nationality Act contains exceptions in specific cases of hardship.

(b). Leftist Proposed Amendment

It is proposed by the Leftist forces that there be no loss of nationality by residence abroad. Thus, under the Leftist proposal, naturalized citizens would enjoy the protection of the American Flag, social security benefits and the like though they may never return to the United States or perform any of the duties of citizenship.

avoid in America. The displaced person appeal is a sobbing story and none can deny it. So is the recital of plagues and pestilences that have ravished mankind and which we fence away as though the very survival of humanity depended upon it. Why not transport the hundreds of thousands of lepers to our nation? It would even be humanitarian, though criminally foolish, to empty the asylums and prisons of the world and prepare for their inmates in the good old U.S.A.

We have turned our purses upside down and are seeking to finance the world. Some of our dreamers believe in going even further and, at the risk of our ideology and civilization, making our country the dumping ground of the world's unfortunates. If there should not be a back-wash of the destruction of all we hold dear, following such a policy, it might be justified on the ground of altruism. But history is already written. It is not only written in our own country, as a result of the initiation of foreign ideology, but it is written in the entire history of mankind. God hammered relentlessly on the necessity of Israel and Judah protecting themselves from the cheap and false ideologies of neighboring countries. Their idols constituted a most menacing threat. Muddy the stream of civilization or Christianity by turning in the poisonous tributaries of Communism or paganism and the end is disaster. It has always been.

Such reasoning as this, founded upon the realistic facts of human relationships, has caused men like Senator McCarran, whose name is most prominently mentioned with reference to this law, to seek to sanely and in a humanitarian manner build a barrier of law against unlimited entrance of foreign immigrants and ideals into the United States. The "initiation" of what is known as NCRMA or The National Committee for the Repeal of the McCarran Act was brought about by the Communistic and radical forces that are constantly brewing opposition to the American Way of Life.

It is doubtful if the 30 men and women whose names appear on this sponsorship actually weighed the perils as over against the benefits, even to humanity at large, of throwing open our gates to a modified unrestricted entrance of the unfortunates, unfits, misfits and actually dangerous foreign elements that await an open door policy. The United States will fling open her doors at the risk of her very life.

As a Methodist minister for a long life, I deplore the fact that out of the 30 sponsors of the NCRMA 18 were ministers of American churches. That four of them should have been Methodist Bishops is beyond the bounds of explanation.

It has been my contention that the moment America is financially bankrupt, she ceases to be able to help the starved and impoverished world about her. Certainly, the moment she becomes bankrupt in her ideology and moral character, she ceases to be of worth to a less fortunate humanity, whether within her borders or in foreign lands. To assist mankind, she must maintain her ideals, her moral standards, her civilization and her Christianity. She can not do so by opening the gates to the corrupting influences and personalities of the world's less fortunate peoples.

I am the last man on earth to claim that this country has not benefited by the coming to our shores of thousands of foreign peoples who sought asylum and opportunity here. My own people thus came to America. But they also fought in the revolutionary war to set up and maintain on these shores a nation of freedom and law and order. We can not afford to surrender that eternal vigilance by which our invaluable ideals are fortified and caused to perpetuate themselves.

Four Bishops of the Methodist Church may not have meant to do it. They may have been thoughtless. They may not have studied the facts. They may not have read well their own Bible on the rise and fall of the people of their own

The Editor
LOOK MAGAZINE
488 Madison Avenue
New York, 22, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

Quite naturally the editors of LOOK are free to publish their views on "THE POSITION OF THE JEWS IN AMERICA TODAY." But when for years, the Jews have put forth the falsehood that there are 5,500,000 Jews in the United States, while the sum of the Jews scattered over the nation today totals over 13,000,000. The Jews, realizing that millions of Americans disapprove of them as citizens, try to keep their real numbers secret.

The statement that 6,000,000 Jews were slaughtered by Hitler is totally incorrect. At that time there were less than 600,000 Jews in Germany, and many of them left the state when Hitler's policy became known.

As to their patriotism, Washington wrote in his Memoirs that the action of the Jews in manipulating the currency to their advantage during our fight for independence, was more destructive to our cause than the bullets of the enemy. When General Grant learned how the Jews were robbing the people left in the wake of war behind his army, he ordered them out. But even in that day their power in Washington was sufficient to have the order revoked.

The efforts of the Jews to avoid the draft are too well established for discussion. The fact that here and there a Jew rendered conspicuous or even gallant service in a combat unit only serves to bring that situation into clear perspective.

Again, as to their patriotism and love of country, it was not so long ago that Jewish leaders, meeting in Paris, proposed that the Jews over the world be allowed a double allegiance, a primary allegiance to Israeli, and a secondary allegiance, to the country in which they were domiciled at the moment. But this was so raw that it killed itself.

If anyone is really interested in knowing what the Jews are up to in the United States, all he has to do is to read the Budget of the American Jewish Committee, which gives all the details. It shows that with their great tax-free funds, how powerful is their influence as they attempt to destroy the basic principles of our government. But the Jews are frank in admitting their real position. As an example, a Rabbi points with pride to the close affinity between Communism and Judaism. Another states that the Talmud contains the basic principles that still govern the Jews, especially in their dealings with Christians. One Jew sized up the situation in a few words when he said: "We Jews are always the same. We squawk to High Heaven when we think we are being persecuted, but we are the tyrants of the world when we rule."

As for Israeli, it has been the scene of the greatest atrocity in history. No crime throughout the world compares with the cruelty accorded the Arabs in that area. We, a supposedly Christian nation, were the first to acknowledge and approve of the consummation of that unparalleled tragedy. It helped the Administration of that day politically at home; but it established definitely a situation that will lead to World War III.

I read your article in LOOK on position of the Jews in America. In my opinion this is merely a propaganda article-Pro-Jewish and should be labeled as such. You write about anti-semitism but nowhere do you really state WHY.

Christian faith, e'er Jesus was born in Bethlehem. But they have evidently done a serious disservice to Christianity and their nation by signing their names to the initiation of the Communist-inspired NCRMA. It aims at the very life of Christianity and the freedom of mankind.

Why are they disliked? Is it because of their religion? No. It is because of inherent traits. It is not just Christians that dislike them but people in almost all the nations of the whole world. It has been going on for thousands (not hundreds) of years. Their own testament tells how they were driven into captivity and how the Lord brought about their release but it did not change them. In the early part of this century we read about pogroms in Russia in which Jews were killed on the streets. WHY? There were no pogroms against any other race or creed. In Germany Hitler could not contain himself against them. After the war the question came up regarding the hundreds of thousands of Jews who did not want to go back to the towns where they were living before the war and they were classed as displaced persons. The call went out for the nations to absorb them but of all the nations of the world I did not read of one single country that rolled out the red carpet. Large countries like Argentina and Brazil could have taken them all in. Australia, with a population less than that of New York City but with a land area so large that it is called continent, could have taken them all. There are still thousands of square miles of land in these countries that needs settling but how many of them were taken. As a people they are not the farmer or producer type but always try to be the middle man. Not one nation gave them a real welcome. There must be a reason. Why? With the exception of possibly the new State of Israel. America took in more than all the rest put-together. WHY? Because we already had about four million of them and they represented votes to the politicians. We now have more than one half of all the Jews of the whole world.

For centuries the cry was for a homeland and through pressure they finally accomplished it in the State of Israel but what happened? Did they all flock there? Not on your life. Your own statistics show that only about 2,000 out of over five millions went there from America—one half of one percent. Why?

Are the Jews a race, a creed, a religious sect or all three. Just why was the State of Israel set up. Was it right to carve out a nation for one particular religion? Why not states for the other sects? Why Palestine? The Holy Land is just as sacred to Christians and Moslems as it is to Jews.

What about the Jews in America. In the pictures of outstanding Jews you show that of Justice Frankfurter who has been referred to as the top brains of the so-called leftist group of Harvard Lawyers. The people remember the spectacle of Mr. Frankfurter going into court as a character witness for Alger Hiss. It is claimed that Russia has the Atom Bomb because of the secrets stolen from the U.S. and passed on by traitors to Russian agents. Look over the names of those charged with supplying secrets to Russian agents. Rosenberg, Greenglass, Hiss, Coplon, and all the rest. Almost all Jews. What was behind all this? These people were not all poor and ignorant but were all people with good educations and satisfactory income.

There are so many things you fail to mention. Some years ago Spain drove every last one of them out of their country. Why? In the famous trial before Judge Medina in New York most of those on trial were Jews. How come you do not ask questions like these?

There are prejudices against all nationalities, races, and creeds, but none so universal over so many centuries. There must be answers. The way to do away with intolerance is to take stock and eliminate the things that make intolerance. There are a few fine Jews in America but they have to suffer because of the feeling against the large majority. The way to solve this question is for the Jewish leaders to bring these things before their people and try to get them to stop doing the things that make them disliked.

The Weak and Timid

FROM THE DISCOURSE GIVEN BY SAINT PIUS X ON THE OCCASION OF BEAUTIFICATION OF SAINT JOAN OF ARC, Dec. 13, 1908

"In our time more than ever before, the chief strength of the wicked lies in the cowardice and weakness of good men. All the strength of Satan's reign is due to the easy-going weakness of Catholics. Oh, if I might ask the Divine Redeemer, as the prophet Zachary did in spirit: 'What are those wounds in the midst of thy hands? The answer would not be doubtful: 'With these was I wounded in the house of them that loved me.' I was wounded by my friends, who did nothing to defend me, and who, on every occasion, made themselves the accomplices of my adversaries. And this reproach can be levelled at the weak and timid Catholics of all countries."

Treaty Power As Interpreted By The Supreme Court Of U.S.

by HENRY ALLEN

Article six of the Constitution of the United States clearly states that Treaties made with any foreign nations shall become the supreme law of the land. The unfortunate wording of this Article six is as follows:

Article six, paragraph 2. "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

These few innocently written, and simple but venomous words were embodied in a document written by our founding fathers to make it possible for our citizens to live in freedom forever. Those tragic words which, in these latter days, are interpreted by our high Supreme Court in a manner not foreseen by those who framed our Constitution, act as a flood-gate through which those forces, bent upon the destruction of America, now spread their poisonous political filth throughout the land.

Fanatical "One World" or "Super Government" crusaders maintain a powerful lobby of Internationalists within the United Nations Organizations. Well meaning churchmen and educators as well as men and women in high places of honor have been hoodwinked and persuaded to join their program of forcing "World Government" upon our American citizens. These Internationalist rascals who practically control many of the departments of the United Nations Organization, and who now are seeking to invoke the vicious wording of the Article 6 of the Constitution, are determined to apply every trick and device known to secret and dishonest diplomacy for coercing the American people into abdicating their sovereignty, thereby surrendering the control of all our resources and our constitutional right to govern ourselves.

I am not a lawyer and therefore do not possess the learning to compare the concept of the treaty power in the days of Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson or Calhoun. What those gentlemen thought of it makes but little difference. Nor am I disposed to waste time "splitting hairs" with "learned" lawyers who have the ability to twist the meaning of words and to distort phrases for the aid and comfort of those who would barter away our American Life by making a treaty with any foreign nation or nations "the Supreme law of our land."

Even a layman can understand that what we are facing today is the stark necessity for amending the treaty provisions in the Constitution because today we have an administration and a Supreme Court which believe that the treaty power can override the Constitution—in fact the Supreme Court of the United States has given aid

Bernard Baruch, the man behind the men, behind a world wide plan.

Juvenile Killers

A few months ago, four young killers knocked at a door, intent upon robbery. The youngest, a sixteen-year old boy, had furnished a gun, stolen from his adopted father. A young man, whom they did not even know and had never seen, answered the summons to the door. They shot him dead without parley or question. It was cold-blooded and ruthless to the Nth degree. A grand jury immediately indicted the quartet for murder.

Then the courts took charge, high-powered criminal lawyers were engaged and the usual "influences and pressures" were brought to bear. We do not know how much money was involved. At first the Judge of the juvenile court declared the sixteen-year-old boy who furnished the gun unfit for juvenile processing and he was turned over to the adult court for trial. The District Attorney was at first vigorous in demanding severe measures in dealing with so terrible a crime.

Then time ensued. A cooling period was permitted. The result: Judge William B. Neeley assumed jurisdiction and ordered the young criminal to be turned over to the youth authority, where he can be handled in such a manner as that in a short time he can be free upon the public. Judge Neeley defended his ruling on the ground that the young criminal was immature.

Say what you will, such court action as this is largely the cause for the juvenile delinquency of these days. Whatever may happen to the boy, the Judge in question and the District Attorney should be investigated. Some mighty shady things are going on in our courts these days.

Here a young man goes to the door when the bell rings, is shot dead, his dead body pilfered and the boy who furnished the gun and took part in the crime practically turned loose. No wonder we have juvenile delinquency!

Memorabilia

ARITHMETIC FOR BEGINNERS

The betrayal of Poland and of the so-called "Satellites" by the Roosevelt Administration added to the Communist camp, roughly speaking, 50 millions of slaves; if at that time USSR had about 200 millions of population, with this addition the total reached: 200 plus 50 equals 250 millions.

Mr. Truman, following in the steps of his predecessor, and ably assisted by Mr. Acheson and General Marshall, did ten times better: He delivered to the Commies 500 millions of Chinese, (to be closer to the truth we discount by 100 millions Mao's claim of having 600 millions of faithful followers), thus making a new total of: 250 plus 500 equals 750 millions.

To beat this record would be difficult indeed, but, nothing daunted, Mr. Dulles covered about 250,000 air-miles so far, and by courting 15 millions of Moslems, which proves that with diligence and skill one might convert even the staunchest friends into implacable enemies. This operation, when brought to its logical end—military aid to Israel — might increase the number of the Red followers to; 750 plus 300 equals 1,050 millions.

300 millions is a respectable figure but still short of that of Mr. Truman. Dulles however, should not be discouraged. He has a splendid chance to beat Mr. Truman's record, if he faithfully follows his present policy of:

supporting Nehru-another "possible" 300 millions; supporting Soekarno, U-Nu&Co. "possible" 50 millions; supporting anti-"colonialism" in Africa "possible" 200 millions which, if successful, would bring the Red camp up to:

1,050 plus 550 equals 1,600 millions.

We regret to say, that Mr. Dulles' successors will be left with a very slim chance to improve his record due to the lack of available "free" human material; but those future "defenders of the Western Christian Civilization" might have the "honour" of bringing under the Red Banner and Five-Pointed Star the remnants of the human race and thus to complete the difficult task of destroying the magnificent structure which their forefathers built.

AMAZING COINCIDENCE

For thirty years beginning from 1918 and up to 1948, the Soviet Union had been the scene of unprecedented crimes against humanity, committed by a perverted and godless band of maniacs. History recorded their nefarious deeds for the posterity, and we shall not mention them here.

Treaty Powers

and comfort to this arrogation of power and, confirms it in the language which follows:

The treaty making power is an extraordinary power liable to abuse. Treaties make international law and also they make domestic law. Under our Constitution treaties become the supreme law of the land. THEY ARE, INDEED, MORE SUPREME THAN ORDINARY LAWS, for congressional laws are invalid if they do not conform to the Constitution—whereas, treaty laws can override the Constitution, away from the States and give them to the Federal Government or to SOME INTERNATIONAL BODY, and they can cut across the rights given the people by the Constitutional Bill of Rights."

There you have it—for those who are not too mentally lazy to read something besides the sports news or the scandals in the motion picture colony of Hollywood—the Supreme Court tells you that here is a power vested in the President and a few Senators which can override the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and every State constitution...Worst of all this absolute power can, in many cases, be exercised by the President alone without any confirmation by the Senate. IT CAN BE DONE IN SECRET, and no man may know about it for many years. That is called the doctrine of Executive Agreement.

At the time the Constitution was written, there was no United Nations. Neither were there Presidents whose word could not be trusted, or who used trickery to circumvent the provisions of our Constitution and properly constituted laws.

No one could foresee the trickery invented by Franklin Delano Roosevelt under the name of "Executive Agreement" whereby this President carried through, single-handedly, certain treaties with other Nations without ratification from the Senate, but actually, as in the case of Yalta and Teharan, negotiated secret treaties with disastrous provisions and consequences unrevealed either to our people or to their representatives in Congress.

Nor in those early days was there a President like Harry Solomon Truman who plunged this nation into its third most expensive, and most cruel war by evading the Constitution under the pretense that the war in Korea was a "police action" in behalf of the United Nations, under whose charter we are bound as signatories to that treaty.

Since Woodrow Wilson's administration, with the possible exception of the Hoover administration, this nation has been plagued with the persistent presence, in the White House, of a clique of Internationalists whose identity and objectives are well known to those who have studied and followed the trend of the Government over the past 40 years. This has often been referred to as the "Invisible Government" and over the years past has been consistently dominated by Bernard Baruch, who, during the years of World War One, boasted that he had more power than the President of the United States. Most of the members of the Eisenhower "palace guard" appointees are enthusiastic advocates for "World Super-Government". This pressure group which masterminds most of the Eisenhower policies is composed of such personalities as Max Rabb, Assistant President; Isador Martin, Liaison man between the White House and Congress; C. D. Jackson (Jacobson), Eisenhower's Military adviser; Lewis L. Strauss, Chairman of Atomic Commission; Arthur F. Burns, Economic Adviser and liaison man between Baruch and Sherman Adams; Sherman Adams, Assistant President; and, the recently appointed Meyer Kestenbaum.

These men, these close advisers to President Eisenhower, are all violently opposed to the Bricker Amendment of the present Treaty Law in Article 6 of the Constitution.

Sherman Adams consults with White House liaison man Max Rabb, Jew. Along with Rabb, Jack Martin, Jew, keeps the Presidential branch aimed at the ultimate Jewish goal—World Government.

Yet the Eisenhower Administration is against it and has fought it with every possible pressure. It has been howled down by the Communist Daily Worker, the New York Herald-Tribune, and the Washington Post, and jeered at by the "One World Government fanatics who infest the United Nations Organization; but, more than all, the betrayal, of Senator Bricker and his patriotic colleagues in the Senate, by those who could read, but would not—by those Statesmen who might have acted but did not—and most of all by those millions of apathetic, indifferent Americans, whose liberties the Bricker Amendment proposes to preserve—yet who will probably refrain, shamefully from DEMANDING the passage of the Bricker Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, when it comes before the Senate for reconsideration as Congress convenes in 1956.

The Constitution clearly says:

(The President) shall have power, BY and WITH the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties,—provided two thirds of the Senators present concur.

Here we have the check and balance on the President's power which the writers of the Constitution intended. This was the article in the Constitution which, fortunately, kept us out of the League of Nations; because, after prolonged debate, deliberations, and hearings, the Senate of the United States refused to give the required concurrence. A natural question, therefore, would be—what has happened in these latter days to make it necessary to amend the treaty provisions of the Constitution?

The answer to that question should not be difficult, especially for those who have followed political trends over the last 10 or 20 years. Some ten years have passed since the United Nations Organization was conceived in secrecy at Dumbarton Oaks—followed by the creation of its twin headed dishonest monstrosity, the World Bank, spawned by the Bretton Woods conspiracy.

...The real intent of these organizations, born of treason and intrigue, has been most deliberately hidden; until now, they stand revealed in their deceptions and falsehoods as full grown traitors in our midst whose real objective from the beginning has been to create a superstate—a one world government, by destroying all other governments.

As the treason plot unfolds, it reveals a conspiracy conducted by these internationalists who are entrenched as a majority in the United Nations Organizations, for the diabolical purpose of maneuvering the United States Government to consent to its own destruction. They have found that the opportunity for carrying out this foul plan lies in taking advantage of a vulnerable clause (article 6) in our Constitution, by which this consent can be obtained through the instrumentality of a United Nations covenant-treaty, which, if ratified, would nullify all rights guaranteed to American citizens under their Constitution. For the ratification of a treaty—thereby making it the "supreme law of the land"—all that is required is a vote in its favor by two thirds of the Senators present in the Senate chamber at any given time...For example, on June 13, 1952, three treaties were ratified, with only two Senators present in the Senate Chamber.

Another answer to the question of why the necessity for amending the treaty provisions in the Constitution at this time is, that we must face the fact that the Eisenhower administration, in Washington believes it can, and should override the Constitution and cut across the rights of the States and the people and, fortified by the interpretation of our contemporary United States Supreme Court, is proceeding to act in accordance with that belief.

In 1952, American citizens voted to end this Super-Government, One World Government of the United Nations mischief.....In electing Dwight D. Eisenhower to the Presidency they thought they had done it..... It was a COMMAND from the people to return us to freedom from the entangling alliances, the falsehoods, the betrayals, and the calculated plots fastened upon us by the United Nations empire during the two preceding administrations....We thought we were voting for the Republican platform which contains this plank:

"We (the Republican Party) shall see to it that NO TREATY or AGREEMENT with other Countries shall deprive our citizens of the rights guaranteed them under the Constitution."

The impudent determination of our President to defeat the Bricker Amendment has always seemed mysterious. Why should a President insist on his continued right to negotiate agreements without the knowledge and consent of the Senate and our elected representatives—especially when those agreements would supersede our domestic laws?

Today in 1956 what was once the proud Nation of the United States, finds itself a member of the treasonous United Nations Organization. It finds itself committed to the NATO and PATO and other treaties; and, because John Foster Dulles and his traitorous predecessor, Dean Acheson have so worded these treaties that our Government has become the mere tool of the United Nations Organization to such an extent that we must now go, "hat in hand" to the "One World Government" United Nation Organization, for permission to make any move or to take any action, regardless of its importance to the security and defense of the American people.

What secret Executive Agreements and Treaties does Mr. Dulles have in his mind and what instructions from Bernard Baruch and the International Bankers does he take with him to obediently carry out in Geneva?

It has been said that "the United States is the only place on earth where an individual can force his government to respect his rights"....In this land which I, and many of us once knew, we were living under a Constitution which had created what was intended to be an indestructible union of indestructible States....The Civil War was fought to prove that the Union was indestructible—and, until the advent of the Roosevelt administration, with its treason cult, had fastened upon us the plague of the United Nations Organization. Americans were living in this country, during those years when liberty and rights of men were not in danger, but, the treaty power as now interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States has changed all of that.

Today, in this year of 1956, we have come to the twilight of our National honor and Independence;

For we are suddenly made aware that the treaty power, as now interpreted by the Supreme Court can, and did, take away the Constitutional rights of our soldiers accused of crime in foreign lands, and that they were turned over by the United States Army for trial by foreign courts.

You may perhaps recall the press dispatches not long ago which told about Richard T. Keefe and Tony Scaletti, both G.I.'s in France, who stole a taxi-cab while drunk, and drove it to Paris.....Stealing a taxi-cab anywhere is a crime and should be punished. Prior to the existence of the

Arthur F. Burns (Jew)

NATO treaty, however, these two United States soldiers should have been tried by a United States military court and punished in accordance with American ideas of justice—their constitutional rights would have been protected; but the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) contains an article called the "Status of Forces Agreement." This article was recently translated into law by the Senate and signed by President Eisenhower, and under this treaty law they were surrendered to a French court for trial. They were sentenced to 5 years solitary confinement in French prison cells 4 feet wide by 7 and one half feet long. According to press dispatches, the U. S. Army has cancelled basic allowance for Dick Keefe's wife with two children, and the French government refuses this unfortunate woman any communication with her husband. There are hundreds of these cases which are reported every 6 months to the Pentagon.....No person is allowed to read these cases—not even a member of the soldier's family, or a United States Senator—they are TOP SECRET.

To carry out this treasonous program for forcing "One World Government on the American people, organizations like the "United World Federalists Inc." and the "World Association of Parliamentarians" working with the power and influence of the United Nations Organization, have prepared some 200 treaties, a number of which are earmarked for special preference.

These pending treaties are being held in abeyance for submission to Congress by the United Nations "One World super government" organizations, when a sufficiently socialistic and internationalist-minded President and Senate will be ready to sponsor and ratify them. Here are some representative examples of what will happen if these vicious treaties should be ratified by the Senate, or secretly by "Executive Agreement".

1. The U. N. Covenant of Human Rights; under its terms, free speech, free press and assembly will be "subject to certain penalties, liabilities, and restrictions"....It will supplant the Bill of Rights in our Constitution.

2. Judges in American Courts will be forced to make their decisions to conform with United Nations dictated principles. This has already been demonstrated in California in the recent FUJI case, when a California court overrode the State law on the grounds that it conflicted with the United Nations Covenant-treaty.

3. American soldiers will be part of a military pool. They will be obligated to fight under United Nations generals, against whatever enemy the United Nations may designate, even though that enemy is the United States.

4. To set aside United States immigration laws so that every one in the world may have the right to enter this country. This would make it easy for fifth column spies and saboteurs to increase the swarms already housed in that "Tower of Babel" otherwise known as the United Nations Organization. Under this provision we can expect the arrival of multitudes of the weak, the depraved, and the criminal.

5. The Genocide Pact. On page 196 of the United Nations Bulletin for March 1954, appears the announcement that the United States has signed this atrocious Genocide Treaty. If this is true, it becomes one of the most tragic mis-deeds in all the history of our Government.

The Genocide Pact provides for the "trial and punishment" of anyone accused of causing physical or mental harm to any member or members of a "minority", group or race"...What constitutes "mental harm" is not defined—but you can be arrested, taken to any place in the world and tried without a jury, for having committed it. This Genocide Treaty is retroactive—you can be tried for offenses committed 20 years ago.....There appears to be NO Record that the Senate has yet ratified this vicious treaty—consequently, if what the U.N. Bulletin states is true, it must have been ratified by secret "Executive Agreement". Can this be the reason why the White House has so violently fought to defeat the Bricker Amendment?

This array of treason poses a real and immediate danger for the usurpation and overthrow of our powers and rights under the Constitution. It should be fought with all the intensity and fierceness that an invading army would be fought. The problem NOW is to bring to the attention of the apathetic, indifferent, American people, this present danger to their liberty, their government and their security... This is a most difficult problem, since no press, radio, television, or other means of publicizing the truth is available to those who would save the sovereignty of our United States from destruction. Only the "invisible government" represented by the "palace guard" in the White House has full access to the great public mediums of information.

What have these treaties done to us? What will other treaties of like nature, do in the future? Every syllable of every treaty— every syllable of every Executive and individuals raised their voices in condemnation of the Red butchers, but, strange to say, the very sensitive and tender soul of Judaism, which so violently reacts to every kind of real or imaginary social injustice—as, for instance, it did in the Rosenbergs' case—was all this time not visibly disturbed by those Communist atrocities: no mass demonstrations, no protests, no threats to boycott the USSR.....as was done with Germany.

This placid and, should we say, benevolent attitude of the International Jewry toward the Soviet Communism lasted until 1948 when, suddenly, something happened and the "American Jewish League Against Communism, Inc." sprang into being with the aim: "To expose the persecution of Jews in the Soviet Union;" and, "To emphasize the opposition of Judaism to Communism;"—and that is after thirty years of the reign of Communism in Russia and other countries.

But since the year 1948 was not marked by any extraordinary purges, genocides, or mass deportation of the Soviet citizens to the slave camps, such somewhat belated expression of antagonism of a group of Jews toward the Moscow rulers would look quite incomprehensible and mysterious, unless, once more, the Khokhlov's interview published by the U.S. News & World Report, Jan. 21, 1955—to which we had the chance to refer previously—would not shed the light on this event. Khokhlov says, and we quote: "In 1948 Zhdanov and some other people began struggle against Jews."

A remarkable coincidence indeed: in 1948 the Soviet nationalistic-minded leaders found out that the Zionists are dangerous to the Soviet State and shall be purged, and in the same 1948 some of the more far-sighted Jews suddenly discovered after 30 years that the ideals of Marxist-Jews and Communism do not quite agree with each other after all, and that some Jews should oppose the Soviet version of Communism!

Could this be because the Jews are trying to take the "heat" off themselves? Are they playing safe in working both sides of the street?

I Have Been Warned

"I have been warned by many that an out-spoken course, even if it be solely of truth, will bring down upon my head ruthless retaliation—that efforts will be made to destroy public faith in the integrity of my views—not by force of just argument but by the application of the false methods of propaganda.

"I am told, in effect, I must follow blindly the leaders—keep silent or take the bitter consequences."

Gen. Douglas MacArthur
Boston, Mass., July 25, 1951

Agreement is now the internal law of every state in the land. Congress does not have to act—the state legislatures do not have to act. The Constitution has been overridden, not amended. With treaty power, as now interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States there is no place on earth where the individual can force his government to respect his rights.

Again and again I urge every American citizen to write and continue to write Congressmen and Senators, whether or not they represent the district you live in.

Wake Up And Win

"Conservatives, Wake Up and Win" is the challenging summons from Frank C. Hanighen of Human Events. He reports the plan of action used by experienced politicians; "The winning candidate seldom gets over 55-60% of the vote. Out of 100 eligible voters, 40 will stay at home. If the winner gets 60%, he has 36 votes. In the primary, about half will vote, or eighteen. If there are only two candidates, the winner may get 10, the loser, 8. Hence 2 votes out of the 36 determines the winner in the fall, your next congressman. Thus by organizing 2% of the voters, you can go far in controlling the election. Convictions and determination decide elections far more than numbers. Agree, then, on four or five principles that you believe in and will fight for. Let the candidates know YOU WILL VOTE ONLY FOR THE ONE WHO STANDS FOR WHAT YOU STAND FOR, and you can re-write history."

Use the same procedure in selecting delegates to the coming national political conventions. If you can't get satisfactory committals, bring out your own candidate.

An Open Letter

An open letter to the President of the United States:

Sir, we who have signed this letter are all high school students. Some of us are eligible for the draft, the rest of us will be in a very short time. We have decided to write you as there are two matters on which we are concerned and wish to bring to your attention.

Our first concern is this country's foreign policy. We feel that America has not received the change you promised in 1952, that we are still following the beaten path of appeasement.

Each of us being proud of our country, we have no complaints about serving in the armed forces to protect our country from aggressors. We are ready to fight for the United States, Sir, but we can find no enthusiasm for fighting under the flag of the United Nations.

We cannot understand why we should be proud of a United Nations that graciously allowed us to supply 90 per cent of the U.N. troops in Korea, and then forced the resignation of one of our greatest generals and pressured us into accepting a cease fire.

We feel that either you win a war or lose it, and that therefore, for the first time in American history, we had lost a major war.

We can't help but wonder about the plight of our soldiers in Red China...will we be the next to serve time in their dungeons while Washington is talking of another Big Four conference?

We are waiting for the day when you tell Russia, "Advance no farther...."

The Time To Fight

In his eulogy of General Washington in 1832, Daniel Webster closed with the words quoted below. Today, 123 years later, when so many of our leaders lack the guts and character to oppose enemies within our gates and their un-American schemes, we must revive the militant spirit of Colonial days remembering—"There is a time for all things, a time to preach and a time to pray; AND THERE IS A TIME TO FIGHT AND THAT TIME HAS NOW COME." Yes, we must fight again TODAY or lose our freedom. TOMORROW may be definitely too late.

"Other misfortunes may be borne, or their effects overcome. If disastrous wars should sweep our commerce from the ocean, another generation may renew it; if it exhaust our treasury, future industry may replace it; if it desolate and lay waste our fields, still under a new cultivation, they will grow green again, and ripen to future harvests.

"It were but a trifle even if the walls of yonder Capital were to crumble, if its lofty pillars should fall, and its gorgeous decorations be all covered by the dust of the valley. All these may be rebuilt.

"But who shall reconstruct the fabric of demolished government?

"Who shall rear again the well-proportioned columns of Constitutional liberty?

"Who shall frame together the skillful architecture which unites national sovereignty with State Rights, individual security, and Public prosperity?

"No, if these columns fall, they will be raised not again. Like the Coliseum and the Parthenon, they will be destined to a mournful and melancholy immortality. Bitterer tears, however, will flow over them than were ever shed over the monuments of Roman or Grecian art; for they will be the monuments of a more glorious edifice than Greece or Rome ever saw, the edifice of Constitutional American liberty!"

During January 1949, I enclosed copies of the above statement in my daily correspondence hoping it might even in a very small way help stem the tide in our drift to the left and to our doom.

I SEE RED as I vision the precious blood of the countless innocent millions drenching the sacred soil of our dearly beloved United States in World War III, staining it as red as the flag of those who spill it.

I TURN WHITE even at the thought of surrender by the United States to the Soviet Union, defeated by them with atomic and hydrogen bombs made from secrets stolen from us for them by traitors in our government.

I FEEL BLUE as I meditate that this fate may too soon overtake us because the nation is too busy making money and having fun to listen to those who still can tell them how they can save their country from ruin.

Only an informed nation can know how to save itself from destruction.

American Jewish Congress Strikes At Heart Of Common Sense - - -

On March 31, 1955, at the end of an eight-day trial in Superior Court in Newark, N.J., during which the jury was not allowed to see hundreds of documented papers of evidence, Rabbi Prinz V.P. of the World Jewish Congress, V.P. and member of the Exec. Committee of the A. J. C., and now President of the New Jersey A. J. C., was awarded a judgment of $30,000 against Conde McGinley, editor of Common Sense. The suit was promoted and directed by the Commission on Law and Social Action of the

To bring new readers up-to-date, Rabbi Prinz, of the American Jewish Congress, sued the editor, Conde McGinley, for $250,000 for making the allegedly libelous statement: "Red Rabbi Dr. Joachim Prinz of Newark, who, not unlike Albert Einstein, was expelled from Germany for revolutionary communistic activities, is the Vice President of the American Jewish Congress." Since Mr. McGinley was not permitted to present his evidence to the jury in the trial, we will present it in COMMON SENSE, and let the public decide.

By his own admission, Rabbi Prinz was brought into this country at the invitation of Rabbi Stephen Wise who founded the Zionist movement in this country, the American Jewish Congress, the Free Synagogue, the Jewish Institute of Religion, the World Jewish Congress and many other movements. The red record of the late Stephen Wise is known even to the most naive, but for the record we cite here some of his communist and communist-front citations:

RABBI STEPHEN S. WISE—[Deceased] was President of the American Jewish Congress; [Free Synagogue, New York] American Friends of Spanish Democracy, Member, Medical Bureau, Sponsor, Medical Bureau, [Manhattan Chapter

American Jewish Congress.

The trial was intended to be the final knock-out blow to Common Sense, and, indirectly, to all those informed patriotic Christians who dare occupy the front lines in this battle to expose the Marxist world plot. Jerome Eisenberg, attorney for Rabbi Prinz, stated in his charge to the jury that he wanted "a stiff judgment, not only to stop McGinley, but also a hundred other McGinley's."

The American Jewish Congress is the aggressive Zionist organization which forces its members into key spots in government, such as their Vice President, Simon Sobeloff, as Solicitor General, who is the real power in the Justice Department.

Attorneys representing Rabbi Prinz were: Will Maslow, Chief Council of AJC, Philip Baum, also of the New York office of AJC, and Jerome Eisenberg who at the time was Chairman of the Commission on Law and Social Action, all Jews.

During the ten years Mr. McGinley has been exposing un-American forces and protecting himself against vicious attacks of the A. J. C. and others, he spent every dollar he had. The A. J. C. not content, is now engaged in trying to destroy the new corporation, Christian Educational Association, of which Mr. McGinley is an officer at no salary. The AJC assumes that any anti-Communist movement Mr. McGinley is connected with during his remaining years is his personal property and they intend to destroy it. Rabbi Prinz and his Zionist group have had subpoenas issued for twelve who are connected with the Christian Educational Assn., or have no connection whatever with the C. E. A. or Mr. McGinley, to be brought before a Jewish Judge, Murray Simon, and questioned by Master in Superior Court, Robert Leff, (Jewish) and depositions taken by a Jewish firm. So far only seven have been questioned.

This is the first of several articles giving the full picture of the Prinz vs. McGinley case, which was not allowed to be brought out in a so-called court of Justice. Look for subsequent issues and save them for future reference.

Adlai Stevenson receives A.J.C. award, as Rabbi Prinz looks on, at the 19th Annual Hanukkah Breakfast in Chicago, where Prinz made keynote address. Stevenson's record and Prinz's activities are obviously aimed at one and the same goal, which is Zionist World Government.

Throughout the trial, Rabbi Prinz denied any active part in German political life. His only "sin" and the reason he was expelled from Germany (according to his testimony) was for religious reasons only, and specifically for making a statement in defense of Jesus Christ from the pulpit!

According to a Newark News clipping, September 7, 1939, Rabbi Prinz was a leader of German Zionism, and congratulated particularly "for his active participation in the Zionist movement in Germany" by Rabbi Silberfeld. At his installation as Rabbi in the U. S. at which Rabbi Wise presided, Rabbi Wise predicted that Rabbi Prinz would become one of the greatest leaders of American Jewry. A Newark News clipping of September 14, 1939 states: "Dr. Prinz was rabbi in Berlin in 1926. He was expelled from Germany in 1937, because of addresses ATTACKING THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT" (emphasis ours). According to the November 26, 1937, New York Herald, Rabbi Prinz stated he fled from Germany October 1936, after he had been ordered to report to the police for anti-Nazi teachings. The San Antonio Express, March 17, 1938, had this

The Mystery Of Jewish Power - -

By Kenneth Goff

There was launched in ancient Babylon 2500 years ago, the most powerful secret organization the world has ever known. Like a serpent, it has crawled down the corridors of the centuries, and continues to be today the dominating force among the nations. Jesus called its leaders, in His day, a "generation of vipers."

But such an organization does exist and must be destroyed! America and the rest of the world will be delivered from its grasp, only when the truth becomes known. The task of enlightening the masses of people is rendered difficult by the control which the organization wields over governments, international finance and channels of public information.

From the days of Moses until the war with Babylon, the main religion of Israel, both in the ten Northern and two Southern tribes, was monotheistic belief in Jehovah God and observance of the Mosaic Law. The twelve tribes first had Tabernacle worship, and later the Temple rituals which looked forward to the coming of the world's Redeemer.

When the Southern tribes of Benjamin and Judah antagonized Babylon, in defiance of Jeremiah's instructions, a change took place. King Zedekiah held a rendezvous with the prophet and privately admitted, "I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans."

Jewish pressure on the court resulted in Jeremiah's persecution and the Babylonian captivity. While in Babylon, Jewish leaders had ample time to go into the Country's libraries and study the black magic and sorcery that had come down from the days of Cain.

They blended the black arts with the Law of Moses and evolved the Talmudic system, which has remained embedded in international Jewry to the present hour.

The Jews entered Babylon with priests, Temple worship and the book of Moses. They came out with rabbis, synagogues and the Talmud.

The Talmud is the bible of Judaism. The Old Testament is used for window dressing purposes. Chief Rabbi Hertz, states in the front of the Babylonian Talmud:

"During the exile, Israel found itself. It not only rediscovered the Torah and made it the rule of life, but under its influence, new religious institutions such as the synagogue, congregational worship without priests or ritual."

Arsene Darmester, who has been long recognized in Jewish circles as an authority on the Talmud, has this to say:

"Nothing, indeed, can equal the importance of the Talmud...The daily study of the Talmud, which among Jews began with the age of ten to end with life itself, necessarily was a severe gymnastic exercise for the mind, thanks to which it acquired incomparable subtlety and acumen...The study of Judaism is that of the Talmud, as the study of the Talmud is that of Judaism. ...Thus became possible the strange phenomenon, unique in history, I believe, of a people dispersed to the four corners of the earth, yet one, of a nation without a land, yet living. The miracle was accomplished by a book, the Talmud."

It is the Talmud, and nothing else, that binds international Jewry into a solid body. Darmester generalizes when he refers to the Satanic document as a "book." In reality it encompasses 63 large volumes, containing the accumulated writings of rabbis from Babylon to the fifth century A.D.

Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer says: "The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of ancient rabbis. It was edited five centuries after the birth of Jesus. It is a compendium of law and lore. It is the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law, and it is the textbook used in the training of rabbis."

While in Babylon, the Jewish leaders propounded the theory that they were a chosen people, a God race, to which all other peoples were inferior. The idea of complete control of mankind through world government developed from this seed thought.

Talmudic leaders in the day of Christ decided first to accept Him, thinking He would lead a rebellion and give them world dominion. He killed the movement in the morning and they turned against Him.

To accomplish their end, those who framed the Babylonian plan established an occult organization known as the Kehillah, and sometimes called Kahal, which means "Community Assembly of Government," and took the snake as a symbol. These black magicians decided to conquer the world through serpent-like slyness.

Kenneth Goff

The head represented those who had been initiated into the plans of Jewish administration, while the body of the snake symbolized the Jewish people. The administration was to be kept secret, even from the masses of Jews. As the snake would penetrate the hearts of nations, it could be expected to devour everything in the way.

There was a depth of meaning to the words of Christ addressed to the Talmudists of His day: "O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." And: "Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how shall ye escape the damnation of hell?"

The ability of the Talmudic power to penetrate and gain control over governments was noted in the Wilson, Roosevelt and Truman administrations—which, incidentally, resulted in two world wars, and the rise of anti-Christ Zionism and Communism. The impact of the criminal code embodied in the Talmud, comes home to every American fireside, a fact to which our people are, for the most part, oblivious.

These writings of the rabbis contain the filthiest rot ever put into human language. For instance, Jesus is described as a bastard, conceived during menstruation, when Mary had sexual intercourse with a demon. (And bear in mind that every living rabbi occupies the office he holds in the system, for having devoted years of his life to a study of the Talmud.) When Jewish leaders accused our Lord of being the son of a depraved woman, He retaliated by saying: "Ye are of your father the devil."

This is only a sample of the Talmud's sewage. Imagine a "religious" code devoting pages and lewd details to explaining the right of a rabbi to cohabit with a three-year old baby girl.

No other "religious" teaching has ever underwritten or subscribed to lying, cheating and murder (of other races) as tenets of its faith. No other "religious" teaching has become so racist that it regards the rest of mankind as being on the level of beasts.

Little wonder that our Lord defied the Talmudists and called them "whited sepulchres full of dead men's bones," to their faces!

The book contains thousands of superstitions, such as carrying pulverized manure from a white dog around the neck for certain cures. If one eats fish, he must not be bled on the following day. If he has been bled he must not eat fish on the following day. On the third day both would be dangerous. After blood letting a man must not, on the same day, drink milk, eat cheese, onions or vegetables. If a man, however, has eaten these things, he should mix a quart measure of vinegar and a quart measure of wine and drink the concoction. It is a sacred requirement that one must spit if the name of Christ be mentioned.

The contents of the Talmud explains why the Jews are strange, different and odd. Their minds have been for centuries warped, by a demoniac code. Their egos have been inflated into a state of self-hypnosis, causing them to believe that they are in some mysterious way especially "chosen."

The Talmud demoralizes everything it touches. Before this occult power gained the upper hand in our part of the world, American thought was basically Christian. But when Jews carried their Talmudic doctrines into the field of literature and art, there began a rapid decline.

The serpent is today crawling in every department of our national existence. It is no accident that Christian patriots, particularly the opponents of Communism, are systematically smeared and maligned by press and radio. It is no accident that millions of Americans sit night after night, and watch Jewish "entertainers" put on filthy, suggestive and disgusting programs.

Radio and TV are Talmudically controlled. Most of the actors are Jews, but Gentiles who perform, must use scripts prepared, for most part, by Jewish writers.

(Anyone who doubts that our air waves are under Talmudic domination, only needs to investigate the radio scandal of Wichita, Kansas where Dr. Gerald B. Winrod has tried 18 years to purchase time for definitely Christian broadcasts on local stations. Managers tell him the B'nai B'rith Jewry has forbidden him the right of speaking, despite the fact that he has offered to submit his scripts a month ahead of time for examination.)

The B'nai B'rith Fraternal Lodge for Jews only was organized in 1843. It operates at international levels, in all countries. In 1913 the B'nai B'rith added to its many sided organization, one known now as the Anti-Defamation League. This outfit is richly endowed and heavily staffed, with tentacles reaching throughout the United States.

Its professed aim is to combat racial and religious intolerance. In actual practice, it has consistently directed attacks upon known opponents of Communism, using smearing, vilification, misrepresentation and character assassination as chief weapons. Just why any race should be permitted to operate a Getapo in the United States, is not clear.

The Anti-Defamation League is a police agency, which seems in some respects, to even surpass the F.B.I. Only three or four members of the House and Senate have ever dared resist its power. It admits maintaining a force of 2000 expert investigators in cities across the continent, and thousands of other helpers.

They keep files, listing the names and containing the records of every man and woman in whom, for any cause the Jews might have the least interest. The organization has been correctly branded an invisible government.

To give an example: It often happens when I travel about the Country speaking against Communism that, upon reaching a city, I find a group of Jewish businessmen, and usually a rabbi and liberal preacher, have called on the Pastor sponsoring the meeting.

With them they bring the same stale trash out of Anti-Defamation League files, charging me as being anti-Catholic, anti-labor, anti-negro and anti several other things. Other speakers have the same experiences. The local auspices sometimes become frightened and intimidated.

I have actually faced reports taking me back to the age of 10, so thorough is Anti-Defamation League sleuthing. They even tell about the time when, as a boy, I tied wire around an outhouse near the railroad track on a Halloween night, and the midnight freight smashed it to bits. These reports contain my school record, and many things about my private life and that of my family. They tell how I have been arrested for "criminal activities" (neglecting to explain that those activities consisted of fighting Communists). This record against me is known to be in the files of Anti-Defamation League offices in more than 1200 American cities.

From these centers there goes forth millions of pieces of deceptive literature a year, packed with falsehoods, half-truths and Talmudic propaganda. I am listing some of the books this Gestapo has prepared. On the surface, they appear to have been written by different authors, but it is not difficult to trace them to their common source:

"Under Cover," by John Roy Carlson, "How Secure these Rights," by Weintraub, "The Nazis Go Underground," by Riess, "The Time Bomb," by Pillar, "A Measure of Freedom," by Forester, "The Trouble Makers," by Forester and Epstein. The latest of these books is "Apostles of Discord," by Ralph Lord Roy.

Such books are widely publicized on the radio and through the press. Millions of Americans have been deceived. But if someone should write the true story of the Anti-Defamation League, he would be attacked as an anti-Semite and smeared from Dan to Beer-sheba.

The power of the Gestapo is so great that it was able to seize control of the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1954, when Congressman Velde of Illinois was chairman. It is reported in Washington that they succeeded in getting "something" on him.

The time came when Committee reports had to be cleared with the Anti-Defamation League, before being released. We were treated to the spectacle of a powerful Congressional Committee becoming a Talmudic tool.

It was a slick operation when the Anti-Defamation League began taking over government groups, clothed with the responsibility of investigating and wiping out Communist organizations. I have watched, with abiding interest, the unfoldment of the scheme.

In 1947, I was visited by State Senator Ben Gettleman of Wisconsin and asked to accompany him to talk with the editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel, a Hearst publication. He said the editor wished to see me before I appeared before the State Legislature to advocate a bill requiring professors to sign the Loyalty Oath.

I found the editor to be a Jew. He told me that the Anti-Defamation League and various Jewish leaders were looking for someone like me, a former Communist, to dramatize before the public and make a national hero. He said they had studied several who had left the Party, but found no one with the fluent speech and crusading spirit that I possessed. He said Louis Budenz had some of the qualities desired, but they were afraid to use him because he was a Catholic, under the direction of the Church. Being a Protestant, I would be more free.

The editor told me if I would sign a statement which he had prepared, condemning Communism and Fascism together, declaring Fascism to be the greater menace, it would appear in every newspaper the next day, and from there on I would become the most publicized fighter against Communism in the nation. They would prepare books for me to assure handsome royalties. I would never again have a financial worry as long as I lived.

I read the statement. It said I agreed with Pope Pius the eleventh that "spiritually we (Christians) are Semites." I would have to attack Major Robert H. Williams, Dr. Harvey Springer, Dr. Geraff B. Winrod and scores of other stalwart Christian patriots, as being dangerous to the American way of life.

I refused to sign, and from that day to this, I have been under attack by the Anti-Defamation League.

Unfortunately, comparatively few Christians, loyal Bible-believing Christians, understand the true nature of the opposition that works against them. Everything possible should be done to enlighten them.

Talmudic Jewry supports financially, and in other ways, left-wing causes that promise to denature and devitalize true Christian effort. Here is a clear-cut illustration:

I have before me a 280-page volume containing the 1953 annual report of the American Jewish Committee, prepared for its members. No matter the fortuitous circumstances under which this enlightening item came into my possession, it is at hand.

If Christian people of the United States could read pages 95 to 112 inclusive, they would understand many things for which there is no other explanation. Ten branches or departments of the American Jewish Committee are named and their areas of operation defined, with an explanation of what each is doing in infiltrating the Protestant and Catholic church life of America. The record of results being achieved and methods used for covering their steps, is frightening.

Concern is expressed over, "A Fundamentalist reaction as evidenced by the spread of revivalism, the shift of the National Council of Churches towards expansion of the Fundamentalist churches whose following, in some cases, has swelled more than 100% over the past decade."

According to this report, the denomination most responsive to Jewish infiltration, at the present time, is Methodism. The schemes used for boring into church groups, both Protestant and Catholic, reflects "incomparable subtlety and acumen."

Talmudic Jewry is directly responsible for the racial strife which is so rapidly developing in our Country. Their program includes stirring the Negro population on the theory that disturbances of this kind help the Jews.

They are directly responsible for the FEPC bill, the Genocide Treaty and numerous other un-American proposals. Inter-marriage between other races is advocated in their propaganda, but not for themselves. A surprisingly large number of Negroes are coming to understand what is happening and do not propose to be made the goat!

When the Jewish motivation of the old Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America became known, the chameleon changed its colors and the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. was born.

Intimate collaboration between Jewry and the National Council is a well-known fact. There exists no barriers to infiltration. The Jews have been given a free hand. Talmudic teachings are being planted in Sunday School literature, daily vacation Bible School programs, Church papers, denominational Colleges, theological Seminaries and other areas. Infiltration has been reduced to a science.

February 25, 1955 was designated by the National Council as a "World Day of Prayer." From its headquarters in New York City, posters measuring 11 x 17 inches in size and gorgeously printed, were sent to Churches throughout the Country for public display.

On the left side, reaching to the top, there appeared the figure of a BLACK CHRIST—a perfect figure of our Lord, except that He was portrayed as a Negro.

On the right side and lower, there appeared the face of a white woman, eyes lifted in adoration, fixed upon the black figure.

It probably never occurred to the vast majority of Church goers seeing this placard that here was Talmudic propaganda in the raw—the product of a well organized and powerfully financed "inter-racial" program.

We are not surprised to learn of devoted Negro Christians protesting against this innovation. They know that the Lord Jesus Christ was not a black man on the human side, and resent the misrepresentation. But they know also that they are as precious in His sight as any other members of Adam's race, when He is accepted as Lord and Saviour.

Talmudists in the United States have, during recent years, waged a war against singing Christmas carols in our schools. They publicly advocate observing Hannukah during the holiday season, including the lighting of their candles. They oppose Bible reading in school rooms. They object to having Gideon Bibles placed in hotels.

They are now releasing films to our schools for free service, such as "Sing A Song of Freedom" and "Boundary Line," and others which attack Anglo-Saxons and call for mongrelizing of our race. In some places they have even gone so far as to pass out colored and Chinese dolls to create impressions in the minds of little white girls that their future babies may be of a color different from themselves.

We are being treated to a spectacle of audacity here in the Denver area. During the last school year, an expensively produced Annual with spiral binding, was distributed by the Talmudists through the local Parent-Teacher Association, in cooperation with the Denver public school system, called "Appointments, Memoranda and Reminders."

Forty-three holidays are listed, including the following, of Jewish origin:

Race Relations Day, Brotherhood Week, Purim, First Day of Passover, Second Day of Passover, Last Day of Passover, First Day of Shabuoth, Second Day of Shabuoth, Fast of Ab, First Day of Rosh Hashana, Second Day of Rosh Hashana, Yom Kippur, First Day of Succoth, Second Day of Succoth, Shemini Atzereth, Simhat Torah, United Nations Day and Hannukkah.

This subject is so big and far-reaching in import that I feel, that only the outer fringe has been touched. In closing, let me appeal to Christian readers everywhere to make the problem a subject of prayer, because help from a supernatural source will be required, if this Satanically-motivated crime against humanity is ever broken.

to say: "In 1936 Dr. Prinz RESIGNED HIS PULPIT TO DEVOTE HIMSELF TO POLITICS, and was immediately forced to leave Germany" (emphasis ours). It further stated he had joined the Zionist movement in 1917, and that in the University of Breslau rabbinical seminary, he was the editor of a POLITICAL Jewish publication. This clipping clearly indicates Prinz had been a Zionist for 35 years and that he had edited a POLITICAL Jewish paper. Most important of all this indicates that at the time he was expelled from Germany, he was more of a political figure to the regime than the religious figure he claimed. He was also on the editorial board of the Judische Rundschau with Max Nussbaum, later President of the American Jewish Congress' Southern California branch, and following is the red record of Rabbi Nussbaum:

RABBI MAX NUSSBAUM— [Cal. Pres. Pacific Coast, American Jewish Congress, Chairman, American Zionist Council, L.A.] American Jewish Congress-Southern Calif. Branch 1948, President; American Youths for Democracy (Young Communist League), Sponsor, Salute to Young American Dinner, LA Sponsor, also 2nd anniversary AYD-Welcome Home Joe dinner—gave award to Frank Sinatra, LA; China Conference Arrangements Committee; Citizens Committee to Aid Locked Out Hearst Employees, Sponsor; Down-town Forum (Communist), Speaker; Jewish Black Book Committee of LA Chairman, Rally, Presentation of Black Book, Same, Speaker.

Rabbi Prinz has continued his political activities from the day he landed in America and continues them to this date. Prinz arrived in New York Aug. 1, 1937, to tour the U.S. for the United Palestine Appeal (New York Times, Aug. 2, 1937). On Sept. 1, 1937 (N. Y. Times, Oct. 21, 1937) he was co-speaker with Rabbi Stephen Wise who, according to Ben Gitlow, former head of the Communist Party, in testimony before the Un-American Activities Committee "carried out the instructions of the Communist Party". He warned Congress against belittling anti-Semitic movement (N. Y. Times, Nov. 28, 1937). Prinz urged the New England Conference of the A.J.C. to boycott Germany and attacked Father Coughlin as a reflection of Goebbels (Boston Post, Feb. 6, 1939). According to the Newark News, Sept. 7, 1939, Rabbi Prinz, "under the Hitler regime, was spokesman of German Jewry, negotiating with the secret police on behalf of his people. He was a leader of German Zionism, but due to ATTACKS ON THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT IN SPEECHES AND SERMONS HE WAS EXPELLED FROM GERMANY IN 1937. Called to America by Rabbi Wise, Dr. Prinz has spent two years lecturing..." (emphasis ours). "Dr. Prinz said he negotiated with Dr. Goebbels and the Nazi Government officials. It was the only time a Jew did so, he declared. ... To his amazement, he said, the government representatives received the idea favorably, granted the Jews' demand... Then the secret police intervened, deprived Dr. Prinz of his citizenship..." (Newark News, Oct. 14, 1939).

Rabbi Prinz assailed Lindbergh for his speech at Des Moines, Thursday, in which the flyer contended Jews are warmongering. Dr. Prinz said the Jewish people are innocent of war agitation and castigated Lindbergh as 'an anti-Semite and pretender to a possible future Fascist American leadership' (Nwk. News, Sept. 13, 1941). This alien, Talmudic Zionist Rabbi, who came to this country at the express invitation of Rabbi Wise, one of the "ministers who carried out the instructions of the Communist Party..." dares to attack a great Christian American hero, Lindbergh!!!

Dr. Prinz called for the formation of a Jewish Army from Palestine to fight against Fascism (Nwk. News, Feb. 7, 1942). In talking before a Zionist group, his subject was "Zionism, Nationalism and Liberalism" (Nwk. News, March 13, 1942). Before a Hadassah group, Rabbi Prinz stressed that Zionism is not a charitable movement for refugees from anti-Semitism; "Zionism is identical with the organized Jewish people... Zionism is the Jewish people on its way home". (Nwk. News, June 17, 1942). On Sept. 12, 1942, in the Nwk. News: Rabbi Prinz stated: "In the underground movement of occupied France, Jews play an important role..."

On April 17, 1943 (Nwk. News), Rabbi Prinz asked for "interpretation of the death of Christ in a new light". Rabbi Prinz publicly criticized the purchase of sixty copies of "Red Channels" (a publication listing the communist-front records of entertainers) by the School Superintendent, which publication he characterized as "unreliable information" (Nwk. News, Sept. 20, 1950). Prinz is on record in favor of F.E.P.C. (Nwk. News, June 15, 1947); mercy killings (Nwk. News, Jan. 21, 1950). He asked leniency for the Rosenbergs who were electrocuted as traitors (Nwk. News, Jan. 17, 1953) but termed the life sentence of Ilse Koch "a light sentence for her crime" (Nwk. News, Sept. 28, 1948). Rabbi Prinz was a friend of the late Dr. Albert Einstein who has a record of over 50 communist and communist-front citations.

More recently he objected to city employees taking loyalty oaths (Nwk. Star-Ledger, June 3, 1955) and even more recently (N.Y. Herald Tribune, Jan. 23, 1956) Prinz is listed along with communists, communist-fronters and do-gooders, as a signer of a telegram to the Senate demanding "appropriate action immediately" against Sen. J. O. Eastland of Mississippi. On Dec. 22, 1955, in the Jewish Sentinel (Chicago) Prinz was pictured as keynote speaker at presentation of an American Jewish Congress award to Adlai Stevenson for Adlai's "furtherance of constitutional principles". Prinz spoke, saying the U. S. government "must in all decency assume the responsibility for the preservation of Israel." This award has a dual significance: Prinz as the spokesman and member of the Executive of the A.J.C. obviously is in complete accord with Stevenson's principles, such as they are, and is uncaring of his disreputable record which was thoroughly exposed during the last presidential campaign. Prinz, a Zionist Jew, has never faltered in his determination to extoll, praise and work for Israel; yet he comes to this country and subverts traditional and sacred practices such as bible reading in our schools (reference Nwk. News, Oct. 4, 1953). And this is the Rabbi who, under oath, testified that he was expelled from Germany for making a speech defending the name of Jesus Christ!!!

From around 1948 (N.Y. Times, July 7, 1948) Prinz was a member of the Executive Comm. of the World Jewish Congress to at least Jan. 28, 1955 (London Jewish Chronicle). His importance as an alien Zionist Jew and figurehead of the Talmudic world conspiracy had never been realized until recently when we found he is one of the most powerful Zionists in the world.

From the above, it can hardly be doubted that Rabbi Joachim Prinz was a major POLITICAL figure in both Germany and America and not just an innocent Rabbi "defending Jesus Christ from the pulpit". As to the color of his complexion...???

JEWISH "CASUALTIES" PRINZ STYLE

Taken from various articles of the Newark News - all made by Rabbi Prinz.

Sept. 13, 1942 - "During the last three years the Jewish people have lost 9,000,000 men, women and children..."

Nov. 11, 1942 - "The Jewish population in Germany has been reduced from 600,000 to 65,000." (But, Rabbi, what about those 6,000,000 Jews Hitler "killed"?)

Nov. 30, 1942 - "Use of poison gas solved this problem and in the last two months the Jewish population of Europe has decreased 2,000,000."

Feb. 8, 1943 - "The Jews have suffered the loss of over 3,000,000 people so far."

May 6, 1945 - "We can do nothing for the 5,000,000 Jews who have died under Nazi savagery."

AMERICAN DISCUSSION LEAGUE

On Jan. 26-28, 1940, The American Discussion League held its first national convention in Community Center, New York. Its theme was "The Revitalization of Representative Democracy." (From original program).

Rabbi Israel (12 front) Goldstein

At this convention Rabbi Prinz spoke on "Is there a solution to the Jewish Problem?" John Haynes Holmes, identified by Ben Gitlow as "carrying out the instructions of the Communist Party" was Chairman.

Running down the list of names of the speakers and chairmen on the program, we find that almost two-thirds of the individuals listed have Communist or Communist-front records totaling FOUR HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THREE CITATIONS, and this record is based on the most casual check of the Communist Party front sources such as Appendix IX. The most notorious Communist-fronters included Julia Church Kolar (an officer of the League—17 citations), Clyde R. Miller (25 citations), John Haynes Holmes (19), Rabbi Israel Goldstein (12), Dorothy Kenyon (50), Francis J. McConnell (70), Leroy E. Bowman (22), Norman Thomas (15), Mary E. Wooley (52), Elmer Brown (18), John A. Lapp (20), Arthur Garfield Hays (25), and Robert Minor, listed in the program as "ACTIVE IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY". Minor for years was General Secretary of the Communist Party. Rabbi Prinz, expelled from Germany, was the speaker, and it was he who sued Conde McGinley for calling him a "red Rabbi".

Jewish 'Anti-Communism'

by George Pickney

A timely expose of events leading up to and the people behind world Communism, JEWISH 'ANTI-COMMUNISM' is a well-documented, authoritative account of the important role played by the upper echelons of Jewry to further the Marxist plan. Read what the Jews themselves say.

The author traces the development of this anti-Christian movement from its inception, through its activity in various European countries, to the present day spy-rings in the United States.

Why has the menace of Communism become stronger and spread over a large part of the globe? What can be done to effectively combat this threat to Christianity? Only the knowledge of what Communism really is can provide the basis for effective opposition.

RABBI PRINZ AND EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The reader should keep in mind that Common Sense has a letter head of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, which bears the name of Rabbi Joachim Prinz as sponsor.

The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, "One of the most ferociously-active organizations giving aid and comfort to the Communist cause in the U.S.—since its inception in 1951, (it) has had a hand in defending or promoting nearly every agency or individual caught in acts of subversion...One of the first to charge the ECLC as a 'Red Front' was the American Committee for Cultural Freedom, a case of the near left attacking the far left. The committee specifically cited Clark Foreman, director of the ECLC, and a majority of its executives as long-time collaborators with Communist dominated organizations. Foreman was labeled a Communist Party member by Louis Budenz..." (N.Y. Journal American, 9/10/55, "The Red Letter" by Leon Racht.) The ECLC "implements Communist Party policy" (Brooklyn Tablet, 6/25/55); the ECLC is "about as independent of the Communist Party as the Teachers Union", a Communist organization in N.Y.. (See Tablet, 5/14/55, page 20) "The American Committee for Cultural Freedom...accused the ECLC of being a 'Communist front.'" (N. Y. Times 1/20/53).

The Daily Worker (11/25/54, p. 8) carried a story on the Braden State Sedition Case in Kentucky, and quoted from the Bill of Particulars presented by the Commonwealth of Kentucky to the Court. The Bill was filed by the Commonwealth on Nov. 13th, and cited the "Communist Party, USA," and various "Communist-front organizations." Among those listed was "the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee."

The American Mercury (May 1953, "Communism and the Colleges", by J.B. Matthews, on p. 118) characterized the ECLC as "Among the more important units of the Communist-front apparatus operating at the present time on a national scale." The American Mercury (June 1954, "Einstein", by J.B. Matthews, p. 25) stated that the ECLC was "organized by and for Communists." In the Sept. 1954 issue, pp.39-40, the ECLC is listed as one of the "Headquarters of Subversion" (by J.B. Matthews).

On May 18, 1955, the N. J. associates of the ECLC held a mass meeting in the Essex House, Newark, to oppose the Walter Committee's local investigation. That meeting was booked openly in the name of James Imbrie (of "warm personal regards," from Prinz).

Simultaneously and not just coincidentally with the ECLC's attack on Walter, the N. J. Communist Party stated "Demand that they (Walter Committee) investigate real subversive activities and organizations...the anti-Semitic hate sheet Common Sense..." (Daily Worker, May 10, 1955, pg. 5). Thus the official Communist Party line was laid down, and each and every Jew and non-Jew who attacks Common Sense as subversive

CAREY McWILLIAMS

Carey McWilliams was a member of the initial executive committee of the ECLC (1951) and strangely enough was chairman of the Emergency Civil Liberties Conference in Calif. 1941, (a Communist-front, see Calif. Un-American Activities Committee, 1948, p. 233) McWilliams was identified as a member of the Communist Party by Rena Vale (1943 Report of Calif. Un-American Activities Committee, 11/23/42, p.149) and by Louis Budenz (Cox Committee on Tax-Exempt Foundations, 12/23/52, p. 722). He is listed as a member of the National Advisory Board of the Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress, which is the agency of the A.J.C. which conducted the suit against Conde McWilliams.

McWilliams has an astounding Communist-front record: 67 citations are listed on pp. 59-60 of the 8th California Senate Investigating Committee on Education Report (See also section under CP affiliations of American Jewish Congress). He has 50 listings alone in Appendix IX (before 1944) and over 75 in the Reece Report p. 337). And with this record he is the darling of the American Jewish Congress, Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, the NAACP, the Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Committee.

ECLC—AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

We first took notice of the ECLC when we noted that the Daily Worker (1/20/53, p. 2) and the Daily Peoples' World (1/22/53, p. 2) had carried lists of sponsors of its Bill of Rights Conference (cited by Reece Committee). We saw in that list of sponsors the names of Rabbi Joachim

Prinz, James Imbrie, Albert Einstein, and Rabbi Ira Eisenstein (also connected with the A.J. Congress). Carey McWilliams and Walter White (NAACP) were listed among forum speakers.

We learned that the ECLC had listed James Imbrie as Sec. - Treas. (10-8-51 see ECLC release by Paul Lehmann, Jan. 1953) and that "until January 1952, the committee office had been in the home of James Imbrie."

James Imbrie's Communist-front record follows: Appendix IX, p. 264: National Citizens PAC; p. 1624: Testimonial Dinner for Ferdinand C. Smith. House Un-American Activ. Comm.: Sponsor-Nat'l Comm. To Defeat Mundt Bill (See Report on Nat'l Comm. to Defeat Mundt Bill 12-7-50, p.11); and (from Report on Communist 'Peace' Offensive) p. 129. Sponsor - Stockholm Peace Appeal; Initial Spons. of American Peace Crusade, Feb. 1951 (p.135); Signer of Call-Peace Pilgrimage, Washington D.C., 3-15-51 (p.137); Sponsor of Mid-Century Conference Peace, 5-29-50, Chicago (p.149).

Most significantly, the A.J. Congress filed a brief in IMBRIE VS. MARSH attacking the N.J. "Loyalty Oath" law for public candidates. (CLSA Bulletin, September — October, 49 page 2.)

Imbrie was a "leader of the Communist Party-controlled Progressive Party, served on its nomination committee...in 1948 and ran for U.S. Senate in N.J. on the Party's ticket last year. He was on the Special Progressive Party committee in 1952, on Board of Directors of the Progressive Citizens of America, member of Citizens Committee for Wallace, sponsor of Bill of Rights Conference for Defense of the 11 convicted CP leaders, has spoken for Citizens Emergency Defense Conf...to defend all the CP leaders being prosecuted for conspiracy." (See Counterattack, 1-23-53 p.2) During his campaign for the Senate, he spoke at Montclair N. J. at a rally with Paul Robeson and William Gailmore.

On 10-28-47 (See Daily Worker, 10-29 47 p.7) Frank Kingdon started his campaign for nomination to the U.S. Senate (N.J.). He spoke with Paul Robeson in Jersey City. The Catholic War Veterans and the American Legion picketed the rally. The Worker stated: "James Imbrie, state chairman of the PCA-AFFILIATED Independent Citizens League, which SPONSORED THE RALLY... characterized it as 'an American answer to Trenton.'" He was referring to a violently attacked rally the previous Sunday night, at which GERHARDT EISLER SPOKE.

The Sunday Worker (11/9/47, p. 7) carried a story of a Newark City Commission meeting where the American Veterans Committee, the ACLU, the CIO, the Newark CIO Council, the N. J. COMMUNIST PARTY and the INDEPENDENT CITIZENS LEAGUE, "Joined in protest against police terror." (Referring to the 'lack' of police protection for the Eisler, Kingdon, and Robeson rallies.) The Worker then quoted trustees of the ICL (see D. W. 10/28/47) and statements made public in the joint protest. We quote from the Sunday Worker (11/9/47): "Dean Christian Gauss...Rabbi Abraham Holtzberg of Har Sinai; Dr. James E. Granger...RABBI JOACHIM PRINZ; James Imbrie, retired banker and chairman of the N.J. ICL: 'We believe the City Commissioners have dangerously compromised and curtailed our democratic and constitutional rights of freedom of speech.'" Further: "Frank Kingdon, (said) 'It is evident that free speech no longer exists in Newark' (where the Communist Party, the American Veterans Committee and the Civil Rights Congress, have had contracts for meeting halls revoked)."

This bilge quoted above from Imbrie and Prinz and Kingdon and the context in which it was made speaks for itself, and it provides a background for a proper understanding of the part Prinz played in the ECLC's Bill of Rights Conference, his reasons for sponsoring it, and his defense of his actions at the trial.

Rabbi Prinz had entered into the trial's exhibits two letters which he allegedly wrote on the dates indicated on the letters. The judge accepted them as exhibits 17 and 18; he accepted them as bona fide. It is our right to believe they were not bonafide and that they could have been written the day before the trial started so far as we know. Who could prove otherwise? No corroborating witness was forthcoming to swear they were mailed and received on the dates indicated. Only Prinz's 'word' was given!

But even assuming they WERE authentic, they are very revealing indeed. Here they are: Dated Feb. 18, 1953, addressed to Mr. James Imbrie, Lawrenceville N. J., "It was AT YOUR SUGGESTION that I served as a sponsor on the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. After giving due consideration to the matter I would like to withdraw my name from the Committee. I HOPE it will be eliminated from lists which will appear in the future. WITH WARM PERSONAL REGARDS, I am Yours, Dr. Joachim Prinz, JP:EN" (Emphasis supplied)

Please notice that there is no mention of the dread word "Communist-front" as applying to the ECLC; that he has "hope" his name will be eliminated; and that he gives his "warm personal regards" to the Communist-fronter Imbrie, at whose "suggestion" he sponsored the ECLC conference.

The next letter was dated Feb. 25, 1953, and addressed to Clark Foreman: "I see that my name is still listed among the sponsors on the Conference on the Bill of Rights. I have informed Mr. James Imbrie that I want my name removed from the list. I would APPRECIATE it if you WERE KIND enough to do so. Very sincerely yours, Dr. Prinz. JP:EN" (Emphasis supplied)

This gentle letter to a man identified as a Communist Party member made no mention of the dread word "Communist-front."

Now examine the chronology of the Conference listings, which we were not allowed to explore in open court:

On Jan. 16, 1953, telegrams were sent to 8 sponsors and 8 speakers of the Conference by Geo. S. Counts, of the ACCF, asking their withdrawal from the ECLC as a "Communist-front."

On Jan. 19th two of the sponsors publicly withdrew. On Jan. 20th the Daily Worker shows Joachim Prinz as a sponsor. On Jan. 23rd, "Counterattack" shows that two more sponsors withdrew.

On Jan. 30th the N. Y. Times shows in an advertisement of the Conference, a list of the sponsors, including the name of Prinz, but the names of those who had withdrawn were missing from the list. Similarly a letter-head dated 2/19/53 showed Prinz' name, but the four who withdrew were replaced with others.

Finally, the May issue of "Rights" (Vol. 1, No. 1 of ECLC) shows the same sponsor list, but without the names of those who withdrew. Prinz' name was still listed. It would certainly appear that Mr. Imbrie and Mr. Foreman had singled out Prinz for "special" treatment. They acceded at once to the requests of the four who publicly withdrew, but NOT to Rabbi Prinz' "letters."

After receiving Rabbi Joachim Prinz's "warm personal regards" we cannot understand why Mr. Imbrie failed to make certain Foreman kept Prinz' name out of the MAY ISSUE of RIGHTS' sponsor list—over two months later!!!

To further confuse the issue, Prinz, during pre-trial hearings, referred to a man who "called" him from the Princeton Theological Seminary to sponsor the Conference. Yet in open court it turned out to be James Imbrie. The only man in Princeton in ECLC was Paul Lehman, who defended the ECLC vigorously. Neither he, nor nine-tenths of the other sponsors withdrew, nor were they "all right" as Prinz said, giving his reason for sponsoring the Conference. Prinz also referred to Sidney Hook as having warned him of the nature of the ECLC (possibly by telegram). Hook, a member of the ACCF, was also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Institute of Jewish Affairs of the American Jewish Congress, and has three Communist-front listings in Appendix IX. Yet George Counts, NOT Hook, sent the telegrams. Why such a long delay from Jan. 16th to Feb. 18th? And finally why has it been impossible to find any public reference anywhere of Prinz' "withdrawal" from the ECLC, (other than at the Prinz vs McGinley trial over two years later).

It seems strange indeed, because the N. Y. Times (2/1/53) carried a story of the Conference, in which it stated "In the audience was EARL BROWDER...Mrs. RAISSA IRENE BERKMAN BROWDER was there with her husband. Also at the meeting was Simon W. Gerson, chairman of the Communist Party's state legislative bureau."

Does it not seem logical that Prinz should have run like a scared rabbit from a conference so important that it drew Browder, his wife, and Simon Gerson? They certainly did not think it was a Boy Scout meeting. Their presence was made plain when (as the Daily Worker reported, 2/2/53) "Bursts of applause from the conference greeted a request that bail for the 13 convicted leaders be granted. Simon W. Gerson, acquitted Communist defendant, urged the conference to intervene on behalf of bail for the 13."

AMERICANS FOR TRADITIONAL LIBERTIES REVEALED AS FRONT FOR NAACP

The Americans for Traditional Liberties has recently released an Open Letter and an Appeal, both of which carried the name of Joachim Prinz, (details later).

Our investigation of this organization reveals that the ATL is a FRONT FOR THE NAACP. It is a dummy organization, purporting to be an independent group, when actually it is a creature of the NAACP.

The office of the ATL is listed as room 238, 40 East 40th St., New York, and is an unoccupied, nearly bare room with a desk, chair and telephone (Mu 4-5645). It is hardly ever occupied, mail is picked up periodically. It is rental space in a larger office (room 230-50).

Examinations of the listings of names and telephone numbers of persons renting office space in the name of ATL (room 238) reveals the vital information that Miss Ella Baker is listed as the individual to be contacted on official business for the ATL. Two telephone numbers are listed there—one, Audubon 6-2608, which is the 'phone number of the New York branch of the NAACP, 165 W. 131st St., and the other is her home telephone, Audubon 3-6527. The main office of the NAACP in New York, lists Miss Baker as an employee at the N.Y. NAACP.

Thus the conspiracy is revealed—the NAACP is caught using the same tactic which the Communist Party has used successfully for years. So the ATL IS A FRONT FOR THE NAACP AND THE NAACP IS REALLY A FRONT FOR THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS.

The Tablet, a Catholic weekly, published in Brooklyn, in its October 1, 1955 issue, attacked the "Open Letter to the American People" stating that "83 endorse statement urging adoption of stands sought by Communist Party—'Daily Worker' declares plea is most eloquent that it has ever seen."

The name of Dr. Joachim Prinz, Temple B'nai Abraham, Newark, is listed among the signers of the 'Open Letter'. Our readers will recall that Rabbi Prinz "won" a libel suit against Conde McGinley for calling him a "red Rabbi".

The Tablet, under Francis Carroll's by-line, further stated: "The campaign to end the exposure and prosecution of Communists in the U. S. took a new form this week when an 'Open Letter to the American People'...signed by 83 'notables'...was released by Americans for Traditional Liberties, 40 E. 40th St. Previous recent phases of the campaign have been an appeal to President Eisenhower to take a 'second look' at the Smith Act, an appeal in behalf of Communist leader Steve Nelson, and their appeal for Communist official Marion Bachrach, and two weeks ago, a brief signed by 360 'notables'."

"The Communist Daily Worker, featured the statement and praised it editorially: 'We have yet to see a more powerful indictment of the condition of civil liberty in our nation today, or a more eloquent plea for a return to the Bill of Rights, than the Open Letter to the American People, issued over the week-end by 83 prominent Americans.'"

"The editorial cited as examples of the 'condition of civil liberty' the dismissal of Communist teachers, the firing of hundreds of other city employees on security grounds, the use of loyalty oaths. The Open Letter itself was merely a rewording of themes and slogans reiterated over and over again in the Daily Worker."

The National Guardian, Communist weekly, in its Oct. 3, 1955, issue followed the Daily Worker's praise with its own plaudits, characterizing the Americans for Traditional Liberties as a "significant new group". It called the Open Letter a "ringing restatement of American liberties (which) listed nine evils, which must be excised from the body politic..." The National Guardian reprinted the full list of signers, inclusive of the name of Joachim Prinz. The article continued: "By twos, by tens, by hundreds, our citizenry is signing up for the climactic fight for traditional American liberties. Are you doing all you can to add to this list? WHY NOT SHOW THE NAMES ABOVE TO THE PEOPLE OF EMINENCE IN YOUR COMMUNITY WHO HAVE NOT ACTED? WE FEEL SURE THAT AMERICANS FOR TRADITIONAL LIBERTIES WILL BE GLAD TO HEAR FROM THEM, and that the Hennings Committee (Senate Office Building, Washington D. C.) will be duly impressed with a note of concurrence, (copy to your local newspaper) -- the Guardian".

The emphasis above has been added to point up the astounding fact that this Communist paper has openly appealed to its readers to join this list and to show it to leaders in their communities, and it has stated that the Guardian feels sure the ATL will be glad to hear from the Guardian's readers. This marks a new turn in the Communist party line, for during the past two years or so, the Communist Party has been wary about publishing lists or advising people to join such lists as they publicize. And Rabbi Prinz is listed as one of the signers!

A detailed listing of the total Communist-front citations of signers of the Open Letter would run into hundreds, since almost without exception the signers have Communist-front records. Some of those signers who have the most notorious records are: Roger Baldwin, Marc Blitzstein, Rev. Henry Hitt Crane, Dr. Israel Goldstein, Prof. Horace M.

Kallen, R. Morss Lovett, Guy Emery Shieler, Goodwin Watson. We might add that it is also signed by Philip M. Klutznick, President, B'nai B'rith, Dr. Norman B. Salit, former President, Synagogue Council of America, and Arthur B. Spingarn, President of the NAACP.

APPEAL TO SENATE AGAINST JAMES O. EASTLAND

The Americans for Traditional Liberties released the text of identical telegrams sent from New York City on Jan. 22, 1956, calling upon the U. S. Senate to "take appropriate action immediately" against Sen. James O. Eastland.

We leave it to our readers to decide against whom the Senate should take "action," in view of the foregoing expose' of the NAACP as the organization behind the ATL, skulking in the background, trying to avoid the pitiless publicity we are throwing on its machinations.

We note that the list of 37 signers again includes the name of Joachim Prinz, and also again Rabbi Israel Goldstein, National President of the American Jewish Congress.

Since the NAACP is tax-exempt, it would seem to us that an investigation by the Eastland subcommittee on Internal Security would be in order, to determine if funds of the NAACP are being used to pay the upkeep of the ATL, which is engaging in an activity perilously close to legislative lobbying, and which is certainly exerting outright pressure against a Senator of the United States, in an attempt to sway him from his duty as a Senator and a citizen in his fight against subversion, and against the Jewish planned decision of the Supreme Court for enforced segregation. The example we have given is only a sample of the type of activity which would be revealed, if the Southern Senators instigated an investigation of the NAACP. Also it is to be noted that the American Jewish Congress is represented on this particular list by two of its major officers.

Some of the other names carried on both the Open Letter and the Appeal, are those of Rev. Henry Hitt Crane, Dr. Norman Salit, Arthur B. Spingarn (JEWISH President of the NAACP). Other well-known Communist-front signers are John Mackay, Elmer Davis, John C. Bennet, Stanley Isaacs, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Robert McIver (associated with AJC), Reinhold Niebuhr, Guy Emery Shieler, Rex Stout, Paul Tillich, and Roy Wilkins (Exec. Secy. of the NAACP).

Most conclusive of all, in view of our revelation that the ATL is a dummy of the NAACP, is the inclusion in the signers' list

Arthur Spingarn is a man with many affiliations, some which tie in directly with the American Jewish Congress and others with National Communist Fronts.

Mental Health--Now Siberia, U.S.A.

CONCENTRATION CAMP IN ALASKA TO IMPRISON ALL WHO OPPOSE THE MARXIST PLOT

An Editorial republished by permission from the SANTA ANA REGISTER Santa Ana, Calif. — of January 24, 1956

Merely saying that "it can't happen here," simply isn't good enough for we have been given one demonstration after another that it CAN happen here — whether the here is Orange County, California or the entire nation.

Specifically, we are talking about all of the various mental health bills that are, for some mysterious reason, being pushed down the throats of the American people from every angle.

More specifically, we are talking about House Resolution 6376 which is not something that can't happen but something that has happened. And what happened was that H.R. 6376 has won, by voice vote, the House of Representatives and is now being studied by the Senate.

Since time is growing short on this vicious measure, which is a good pattern for most of the rest of the mental health bills including the 44 different bills that have been introduced in the California legislature, we want to review it a little in the hope that readers will be moved to write or wire Senators Thomas Kuchel and William Knowland and let them know their viewpoint on the matter.

The story was briefly told in an Associated Press dispatch of Jan. 18 which said: "The House today approved by voice vote a $12,500,000 mental health program for Alaska.

"It passed and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing the federal government to give the Territory $6,500,000 for construction of a mental hospital and other facilities, and $6,000,000 over a 10-year period to provide an integrated mental health program."

That's all the news dispatch said. But there is more, much much more that ought to be said about this Alaska bill.

Under the terms of the bill, a fair question to ask would be this:

"Is it the purpose of H. R. 6376 to establish a concentration camp for political prisoners under the guise of care and treatment of mental cases?"

The answer, based on a study of the bill, indicates that it is entirely within the realm of possibility that we may be establishing in Alaska our own version of the Siberia slave camps run by the Russian government.

And don't get the idea that, simply because this was designed for Alaska that you, right here in Orange County, couldn't be sent there.

Listen to this:

The governor of Alaska, appointed by the President of the United States, is granted under the bill power to enter into reciprocal contracts and agreements with any state which includes the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the territories and possessions. Through these agreements any state governor and the governor of Alaska may "provide for the care and treatment of mentally ill residents of Alaska by such state and for the care and treatment of mentally ill residents of such state by Alaska, each on a reimbursement basis."

And it is within the power of the governor as to where any mental patient will be hospitalized and he has the right to make transfers at any time that he sees fit!

It doesn't take a giant mentality to see that under this set up it can be brought home right here to Orange County.

Under the terms of the bill it is proposed to grant one million acres of U. S. land to the Territory of Alaska "for the hospitalization and care of the mentally ill in Alaska." One million acres is roughly a little more than 1,562 square miles. The state of Rhode Island has a land area of 1,058 square miles and a population of 791,896. Alaska's area is 586,400 square miles with a population of 128,643. The total of Alaska's mental cases over the years averages 345 patients. By comparison with Rhode Island's area and population figures you can see the possible number of buildings and persons one million acres or 1,562 square miles could contain.

A mentally ill person is defined as "an individual having a psychiatric or other disease which substantially impairs his mental health. . . ." This is such a broad definition as to include anything from dandruff, headaches, toothaches, or fallen arches.

Commitment of the "proposed patient" (propose: to nominate for membership in a group) may be in a number of ways. It may be upon the "written application of an interested party;" or it may be by "any health welfare, or police officer who has reason to believe that an individual is mentally ill." Without a written authorization he may "take the individual into custody, apply to a designated hospital for his admission and transport him thereto."

Judicial proceedings for commitment will be held under the direction of a United States Commissioner who may omit notifying the prisoner of such a hearing and said prisoner need not be present at the hearing. In fact, the Commissioner may exclude anyone from the hearing and the Commissioner need not be bound by the rules of evidence.

The Commissioner may make commitment for an indeterminate period or for six months. Although the patient may communicate with persons in or out of the hospital, this privilege is at the discretion of the head of the hospital!

Originally H. R. 6376 contained Sec. 128 (p. 31) which related to punishment for wilfully conspiring to cause the unwarranted hospitalization of any individual. This Sec. 128 has been stricken from the amended bill now in the House for passage!

According to House of Representatives Report No. 1399, the mentally ill from Alaska are presently cared for in a private sanitarium in Portland, Oregon, through a contract from the Dept. of Interior.

This legislation, say its opponents, will place every resident of the United States at the mercy of the whims and fancies of any person with whom they might have a disagreement, causing a charge of "mental illness" to be placed against them, with immediate deportation to Siberia, U.S.A.

"Power is in tearing human minds to pieces and putting them together again in new shapes of your own choosing." From "1984" a novel by George Orwell).

The House of Representatives has passed the bill which is now before the U.S. Senate. Every American who is opposed to Communist rule in America should write their U.S. Senators at Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C. and demand this insane proposal be killed at once.

JUST A THOUGHT

I was always under the impression that you and I as citizens elected a Congress. How is it that we need Two? The one we elect, and the one the Jews have, (American Jewish Congress) to put pressure on our elected Representatives? Hmmm?

of Russell P. Crawford, President of the New York Branch of the NAACP, the very office from which Ella Baker operates. So with Spingarn, Wilkins and Crawford, we have a complete roster—the three top officials in the NAACP.

Suggestive of even a wider conspiracy than we have uncovered, is the treatment accorded the ATL by the Jewish Daily Worker, (1/24/56, page 1) which carried a banner headline on the ATL's attack on Sen. Eastland, yet named only two of the signers, dropping one man's last name in the process, and most telling of all, called the ATL a "citizen's group, known for Traditional Liberties". By obscuring the name, the Daily Worker evidently hopes to protect the ATL from exposure. The New York Post, Jewish organ added only three more names to the Daily Worker's list. Nor did the National Guardian carry the full list, (1/30/56, p. 2) although it did carry Israel Goldstein's name!

The Brooklyn Tablet (1/28/56,) referred to the attack against Sen. Eastland in this language, "notables' AGAIN BACK PARTY LINE ON SEN. EASTLAND. Others Get Behind Communist Program to Stop Inquiry into Red Infiltration."

The article, (again by Francis Carroll) went on to state that "The theme of the identical telegrams was the same as that being reiterated by the Communist Party organ, the Daily Worker, namely, destroy the effectiveness of Sen. Eastland's investigation of Communist infiltration, by attacking him personally....Twenty-two of the 37 signers of the telegrams were among the 83 'notables' who wrote the Open Letter...Three of the signers....sponsored an appeal to.... Eisenhower for Christmas amnesty to Communist leaders...The Daily Worker editorially praised the 37." And Rabbi Prinz was among the signers of this attack against Sen. Eastland.

A FEDERAL JUDGESHIP ?.....OH NO !

President Eisenhower has sent to the Senate the nomination of Sobeloff, to sit in the Court of Appeals for the Fourth Judicial Circuit, which includes Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North and South Carolina.

The Jews are setting up the machine to force de-segregation on an unwilling people.

Our readers are urged to write to their U. S. Senators and demand they stop the appointment of this Marxist Aiding Jew.

KENNETH GOFF - DIRECTOR

ENGLEWOOD, COLO.
P. O. BOX 116

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
3425 SOUTH BROADWAY
ENGLEWOOD, COLO.

Dear fellow American:

A few months ago it was my privilege to visit in the East and speak under the auspices of our mutual friend, Conde McGinley.

I sometimes wonder if we who are so far removed from the city of New York are conscious of the fact of the important work that this great man of God is doing in the defense of our nation, and of Christian civilization. Most of us in the midwest and in the far west of our nation cannot visualize a city like New York, with millions of Jews -- so many that there is a greater concentration of them into one small area than ever at any time in the history of the world. Not even in the days of Babylonian captivity were so many of them gathered in one particular place.

Banned together as they are in the metropolitan district of New York and New Jersey in their organizations, they wield a tremendous power over both our own government and that of the United Nations. The United Nations is in New York, and from there to Washington, D. C. is only a few hours by train. Truly the city of New York has become a modern Babylon. Few men who are willing to sacrifice their lives for the cause and who are not afraid to die, have dared to venture in this area and speak openly against these evil forces. Yet, this is one of the most important fronts in our battle to preserve the republic.

I know it thrills my heart, and it should do the same to every Christian patriot, to know that we have a man like Conde McGinley and a paper like COMMON SENSE with courage enough to hold the fort for us in this most important area. Truly, one can say when we go through this great Babylonian center of our nation and all-world Jewry, that we are in enemy territory and walking in the 'valley of the shadow of death'. Yet, we find in this very abyss of hell, wide distribution of COMMON SENSE with its fearless articles of exposure of our nation's enemies. For years now, Conde McGinley and his staff of courageous workers have been carrying on this dangerous task. They have been tried, beat up and even bombed, yet they will not yield one inch to the enemy. This courageous group of loyal Americans, I personally believe, have held back the flood-tide of these millions of alien-minded Jews from sweeping our land, and even have caused these millions to tremble with a knowledge that there were men and women who could not be broken by fear, and who had the conviction that one with God was a majority.

It is easy for patriots to be brave when they live in comfort and luxury, but when you have to live in your office building and sleep next to your press to protect it, it is a different matter. Yet, this is being done by Conde McGinley and his brave crew of workers.

While I visited with them, I could appreciate more fully the feeling of the Master when it said: "He walked not in Jewry, for the Jews sought to kill him." I could understand more clearly what life must have been for that small band of Christians 1900 years ago, who held forth in Jerusalem. I wish it were possible for everyone receiving this letter to see this national shrine -- the publishing house of COMMON SENSE and to pay them a visit, but I know that this would be a great burden for the majority of the readers, but there is something that can be done by each of you which would make the task much lighter for Conde McGinley and his patriotic band. We, who do not have to sleep with guns by our beds, like minute men, alert every night, can well afford, even if it means a small sacrifice, to making a generous contribution to COMMON SENSE.

Let us help get this paper distributed where it is needed the most. Let us help to lift the financial burden from the backs of these loyal patriots, that they can do more and greater things for the cause; for, after all, they are fighting our fight out of proportion to their ability. Let them know they are not alone and that we are behind them in our prayers and contributions.

This battle will not be won by dollars alone; it calls for sacrificial gifts of $100's, $50's, $25's and $10's; and let me assure you that every cent will be used for the advancement of the cause.

I have never met a more conscientious group of individuals who make a dollar go so far, and who would rather take food from their own mouths and sleep under uncomfortable conditions that the message could be gotten out. Daily, I am conscious of the fact that they are going without, so that you and I may have a free nation in which to dwell.

I hope and pray that those of you who receive this letter will not just read it and toss it aside, but that after a great deal of prayerful thought you will consider it a note and a cry from one who has just visited the battlefield of the conflict of the ages and has seen unsung heroes standing in the gap, trying to hold back the enemies of our nation and of our Lord.

Let us act today that they may receive the support that is needed to carry on this Crusade to a triumphant conclusion. Send your contributions to Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey, and have a part in this great cause.

May God's richest blessing be yours, I remain

Sincerely yours for Christ and America, and suffer the loss of his own soul? Or what exchange shall a man give for his soul? For the Son of a man shall come in the glory of His Father, with His Angels, and then He will render to every man according to his works.

Kenneth Goff

A.J. Congress, Tax Exempt, Acting As Political Machine

Slavery

(Just Around the Corner)

On the invitation of the President, Wendell Willkie was authorized to visit our allies during World War II. In a bomber, with guides and interpreters, he toured the Near East, the Mediterranean, and Europe. Opportunity was given him to see everything of interest. He interviewed not only high Government officials and army commanders, but soldiers, workers and peasants as well. His report, frankly written, is most instructive. In Russia he was given complete freedom to go as he pleased and talk with individuals high and low. He had two long talks with Stalin. One night his party was housed on the banks of the Volga, in the summer home of a highly successful Russian whose activities extended over a large area. Americans today should be deeply interested in just what happened to this Russian and millions of others when the Bolsheviks took over. As Willkie sat on a bench overlooking the River, he recorded—

"I thought of the pre-1917 shipbuilder who had built the resthouse behind me as a summer home. I had been told that he had been a power in the land, a tight-fisted ship-owner and grain merchant who had prospered in the commerce of the Volga when the town had been called Samara, and been liquidated when it was called Kuibishev, for the Samaran revolutionist who devised the first Five-Year Plan. The house had stayed, a little less shabby than its neighbors, because the Red Army had found it useful.

"I could see, it seemed to me, the entire generation of men and women who had been destroyed, the families that had been scattered, the loyalties that had been broken, the thousands who had died from war and assassination and starvation, in the name of the revolution.

"The true story of that period will probably never be told in detail. For except for those who escaped to other lands, and they were relatively few, practically the whole upper middle classes of Russia have been completely exterminated. And Russians today find the story a heroic achievement. I had not realized before coming to Russia to what extent that is true."

WHY SUPPORT THIS MAN

EDWARD G. ROBINSON

Edward G. Robinson (Emanuel Goldenberg) was born in Bucharest, Rumania. He belongs to the following Communist-Fronts:

(1) American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born; (2) American Committee for Yugoslav Relief; (3) American Russian Institute; (4) Supporter of American Youth for Democracy; (5) China Conference Arrangements Committee; (6) Civil Rights Congress; (7) Committee for the First Amendment; (8) Hollywood Democratic Committee; (9) HICCASP; (10) Independent Citizens Committee of Arts, Sciences and Professions; (11) Progressive Citizens of America; (12) Russian War Relief, Inc. Robinson who is, naturally, Jewish, blasted both J. Edgar Hoover and Senator Jack Tenney for citing him as a Red. Ever so often he runs to Washington and gives voluntary testimony that he is not a Communist.

This Communist-fronter is now starring in the movie "Hell on Frisco Bay" and appearing on Broadway in the play "Middle of the Night".

The Impudence Of The Anti-Christ

The B'nai B'rith Messenger, published in Los Angeles, is one of the ten outstanding Jewish papers of the Nation. On its editorial page for June 17, 1955, which is page 26, believe it or not, it carries the following words:

"There must be a re-writing of the Christ story for Christians which will for all time eradicate the myth that the Jews killed Christ."

The Christ story has already been written. It is the New Testament. Just when will the Jews re-write the New Testament?

What Israel ship left the Brooklyn Bay on Friday afternoon, December 23rd, 1955, about five o'clock, loaded with American arms and ammunition?

The following excerpts are from Progress and Prospect, a report on the American Jewish Congress, submitted by the Executive Director to the Biennial National Convention, Nov. 17-19, 1951:

Page 19—"The Congress has devoted considerable effort to an attempt to secure American ratification for the Genocide Convention. Congress chapters—have sought to gain the support of leading Senators and Congressmen. The presentation on behalf of the AJC by Shad Polier and JOACHIM PRINZ, before the Subcommittee of Senate Foreign Relations Committee early in 1950 were—most effective."

Page 20—"Early in 1950, as a result of AJC's effort, a resolution was introduced in the Senate by Senator's Gillette, Ives, Lehman, Hendrickson, Pepper, Chavez, Kilgore and Douglas, and in the House—by 11 Congressmen, calling for an investigation—of neo-Nazism."

Page 25—"We urged the repeal of the McCarran-Wood Act—condemn(ed) the McCarran, Mundt, Ferguson and Wood bills".

Page 27—"In New York, New Jersey and Michigan, Congress filed briefs amicus in test cases challenging—loyalty oaths—In three States—Ill., Mass., and Pa., AJC led—State campaigns, some of them successful, against the creation of "little Un-American Activities Committees".

Page 36—"In New Jersey the repeated vilification of Jews, by Conde McGinley's COMMON SENSE have led to widespread demands for a state group libel law; and a measure drafted by CLSA (Commission on Law and Social Action) is now under study by responsible groups in the State."

Page 38—"An appeal is being taken from a decision of the N. J. Court, upholding a law providing for reading from the Bible and the recital of the Lord's prayer in the public schools."

And from Program Notes and Leads, April—Aug. 1952:

Page 19—"The AJC is the only Jewish organization which has taken a public position against the appointment of an Ambassador to the Vatican."

Page 20—"The AJC works closely with the NAACP and other groups to pass laws which protect everyone and to intervene in court cases which set important precedents."

THE READER SHOULD BEAR IN MIND THAT THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS IS A TAX DEDUCTIBLE ORGANIZATION CARRYING ON THIS PROGRAM, FINANCED WITH THE TAX-PAYERS MONEY!

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER"

From "Confidential" documents of the American Jewish Congress, we can prove that one of Rabbi Prinz' denials—that he was ever associated with known Communist Party members and functionaries—apparently is contradicted by the Executive Minutes of the Joint Meeting of the Executive and Administrative Committees of the American Jewish Congress, Oct. 28, 1948, in the Hotel Pennsylvania, which show that Joachim Prinz presided over this meeting, (a typical example) at which Albert Khan, notorious Communist, and most recently, publisher of Harvey Matusow's book, offered a resolution as a representative of a national affiliate to the Executive Committee of the Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order.

Among others listed as present (and therefore participating) at this meeting were: June Gordon, Sam Pevsner, Stephen S. Wise, and Max Steinberg. Taking Steinberg's record first, we find that he is listed in Appendix IX of the Un-American Activities Committee as (p. 604) sponsor of the Celebration of 15 years of Biro-Bidjan, a Jewish Communist colony in the Soviet Union, (p. 852) COMMUNIST PARTY ORGANIZATION, Secretary N.Y. District—Daily Worker, Aug. 9, 1935, page 5, (p. 1129) National Board Member of the Jewish People's Committee, (p. 1138) Executive Committee of the Morning Freiheit Association, (p. 1153) Sponsor of the Tallentine Jubilee Committee, (p. 1358) District Representative of Section 20 of the COMMUNIST PARTY OF NEW YORK, (p. 1451) Editor of "Jewish Voice", published by the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF JEWISH COMMUNISTS, at 35 E. 12th St., New York—(from issue of March-April 1941). Max Steinberg was the American Jewish Labor Council representative to the Executive and Administrative Committees (See Confidential list of officers and representatives to the Executive and Administrative Committees dated 12/14/48 and 1/11/49).

Are we to assume that Joachim Prinz, the most outstanding Rabbi in Germany during Hitler's regime, the self-extolled administrative expert of the A.J.C., representative of the World Jewish Congress on high level policy trips, such as one he made throughout South America, DID NOT KNOW that this Communist Executive is a member of the American Jewish Communist Politburo, openly identified as such in the Daily Worker and other sources? It is utterly ridiculous to assume that Rabbi Prinz could be so stupid and uninformed. As an associate of Steinberg in the AJC meetings, he never publicly, as far as we can determine, spoke out against him.

As to Communist-front organizations affiliated with the American Jewish Congress, we find The Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order and the American Jewish Labor Council.

The JPFO was part of the International Workers Order, cited as a Communist-front in the Un-American Activities Committee's Guide to Subversive Organizations, page 66, as of Jan. 3, 1939, as an organization which "mobilizes for the revolution in the United States." The JPFO, because of its extreme importance as a Communist organ, even outside of its role as a part of the IWO, was RETROACTIVELY cited as a Communist-Front on Sept. 11, 1950. This organization was a national affiliate of the American Jewish Congress, of which Rabbi Prinz was Vice President.

The American Jewish Labor Council was cited on page 18, April 27, 1949, in the Guide by the Attorney General. This organization was also a national affiliate of the American Jewish Congress.

The Moscow Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee, an outright Communist Stalinist organ, has praised the World Jewish Congress of which the American Jewish Congress is an affiliate. Rabbi Joachim Prinz is Vice President in charge of World Affairs of the World Jewish Congress.

"The Miracle"

The American Jewish Congress, of which Rabbi Prinz is Vice President, won its appeal

Gerhardt Eisler, Communist Jew

Gerhardt Eisler was defended by James Imbrie who received "warm personal regards" from Rabbi Joachim Prinz.

to the U. S. Supreme Court to annul the banning of the picture "The Miracle" in New York, which was made by Rosselini, who fathered a child by Ingrid Bergman while she was married to another man. The Miracle depicts the Virgin Mary as an idiot girl who has relations with a soldier she thinks is St. Joseph, and the illegitimate child is Jesus, that is THE MIRACLE. This picture was Jewish conceived, written, produced and distributed. The AJC fought to keep it from being banned, because it represented the most filthy, blasphemous attack on the Christian religion ever attempted by Talmudic Jews.

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

The American Jewish Congress has one terrible vulnerability, a weakness which it does not want widely revealed, a weakness which by its very nature is one which the AJC cannot overcome, without completely destroying the very purpose for its existence—to harass and destroy any opposition to its continuing subversion of Christianity. We are, of course, referring to the American Jewish Congress tax-exemption status as an eleemosynary organization (educational membership corporation). Without this tax-exemption which the AJC and American Jewish Committee, B'nai B'rith, Anti Defamation League, etc. all enjoy, these Jewish terroristic organizations could not possibly operate as freely as they do. The terrible irony of this lies in the fact that the Christians are paying for the vicious, depraved, subverted, Talmudic "legal" and illegal pressures of the AJC against their own selves!!

According to law, the American Jewish Congress should be educational, NOT LEGISLATIVE. However, it has boldly disregarded the law concerning legal tax-exemption activities, because it has depended on such Jews as Simon E. Sobeloff, a Vice President of the AJC and member of the national Advisory Board of the Commission for Law and Social Action, the legal and legislative arm of the AJC, who at the very same time has been Solicitor General of the United States!! With this ally and others, the AJC has considered itself to be above the law, and moreover it has been!

But it is also quite true that when a Jew is caught red-handed murdering a Christian (even though the Talmud absolves him of any guilt for so doing) he sometimes has to pay the penalty, being considered expendable by the other Jews, who know that an occasional Jewish culprit must be punished in order to keep their own collective guilt hidden from public gaze (witness the Rosenbergs).

On that theory, we are appealing to every reader of Common Sense to immediately contact his local Congressman and Senators by letter, wire or telephone, or the individuals or organizations which in many cases "own" or have influence with these Congressmen and Senators, and specifically to contact in the same manner the members of the Senate Committee on Finance (see list) to make certain that Senate Bill 2844 is brought out of committee to the floor of the Senate for a vote.

S. 2844 was introduced in the Senate on Jan. 5th, 1956, by Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. It is described by Sen. Thurmond on p. 77 of the Con. Record for that date, as "a bill which would DENY TAX-EXEMPT STATUS UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954, to ANY organization which ENGAGES IN THE PROMOTION OF LITIGATION TO WHICH it is NOT A PARTY. This bill would also affect the tax status of contributions made to such organizations by individuals or other organizations. Donors would not be allowed to deduct such gifts in listing deductions on their income-tax returns.....It would.....apply to 35,000 organizations currently enjoying tax-exempt status....Passage of this bill will be a positive step....to prevent unfair discrimination in favor of certain organizations.

"Allowing any organization to spend thousands and millions of tax-free dollars to PROMOTE LAW SUITS TO WHICH SUCH AN ORGANIZATION IS NOT A PARTY IS CERTAINLY NOT FAIR TO THE GOVERNMENT OR OTHER TAX-PAYERS. (emphasis ours)

"I also hope that the Internal Revenue Service will keep a closer watch on all tax-exempt organizations to make certain the privilege of tax-exemption is not being abused in any manner. Mr. Rose, Under Secretary of the Treasury Department, testified...last year that the status of certain organizations was being reviewed." The bill was referred to the COMMITTEE ON FINANCE. The members of which are: Senators Harry Byrd (Chairman), Va., Walter George, Ga., Rob't. Kerr, Okla., J. Allen Frear, Del., Russell Long, La., Geo. Smathers, Fla., Lyndon Johnson, Tex., Alben Barkley, Ky., Eugene Millikin, Colo., Edw. Martin, Pa., John Williams, Del., Ralph Flanders, Vt., Geo. Malone, Nev., Frank Carlson, Kans., Wallace Bennett, Utah.

It is obvious from the authorship and from an examination of the wording of the bill, that it is explicitly aimed at the NAACP and National Urban League (a completely worthy objective), rather than the AJ Congress, nevertheless, by its nature it would also bar the AJ Congress, AJ Committee, ADL, etc., from promiscuous litigation, which in turn would curtail their legislative pressure on government officials.

The existing law is quite sufficient, IF ENFORCED, to wipe these organizations out of existence and must be used if such bills as S. 2844 fail to get out of committee, or to pass the Senate, or to survive a Presidential veto. In the meantime however, there IS SUCH A BILL and it should be supported as a lifeline to save this country from the ever tightening strangle-hold of the Jewish hierarchy, which is plotting the total enslavement of Christians.

The American Jewish Congress has publicly sneered at the AJ Committee, ADL, etc., for their EDUCATIONAL activities, gathering of dossiers on all persons of eminence, position, or patriotism, and their subsequent fear of using that MATERIAL. The AJC, Militant and Zionist, prefers to SMASH the enemy and will use any and all dirty tactics available to it. And, since we know from the AJ Committee's own private reports that it is frightened silly of losing its tax-exemption, HOW MUCH MORE VULNERABLE IS THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS!

The passage of this Bill, S 2844 would be a death blow to the NAACP and the Marxist Controlled Supreme Court ruling on segregation and as such of vital importance to the ordinary citizens in the South. It would seriously affect hundreds of COMMUNIST organizations, such as the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD. IT WOULD PUT MONEY BACK IN THE POCKETS OF EVERY INDIVIDUAL IN THIS COUNTRY. The ONLY PERSON who could possibly be against it would be a JEW, a Communist, a Socialist, or a brainwashed dupe. WRITE, TELEPHONE, OR WIRE NOW! WHIP THE COMMUNISTS AND JEWISH TERRORISTS AT THEIR OWN GAME. An avalanche of thousands of communications will work! PASS S. 2844!

As our Republic drifts to the left under the ever-increasing control of un-Americans whose activities are directed from abroad, how long will we have to wait before millions of us are liquidated and our possessions seized by a communist dictatorship? Would it not be wise for real Christian Americans to read the evidence, and take drastic action now? The enemy is using every means to breed our manpower down and to mongrelize our race. We say that in our Republic unfortunate conditions can be corrected by the vote. That was true from the date of the birth of the Republic up to the coming of the 20th Century. What we must realize today is that as we breed our manpower down, the character of the individual vote goes down in the same proportion.

Where is there a case in history where a nation permitted an organized enemy to live within its gates, enjoying all the rights and privileges of that nation, at the same time planning its destruction with tax-free funds? Rome was destroyed by enemies from without, not from within. The Indians fought to the limit of their strength as they were driven west. Up to the present time, we in America are taking this oncoming defeat lying down, without firing a shot. There is one thing certain—we will fully deserve the fate that awaits us.

The Baruch Of Latvia

To Common Sense:

Two Khazar Jews in the Latvian parliament, conspired with their kin, Kaganovich in the Kremlin. One was Dubin, the Baruch of Latvia, spokesman for the Jewish big business, such as the exporters of lumber, the Latvian "green gold" in the hands of the Jews bp 90%; The other was Nurok, the Lehman of Latvia, spokesman for the rest of the Jews that produced not, but bought and sold Latvian produce by 90%. These two Jewish groups, knowing that they have never had it so good, and that it is too good to last, were looking forward to the day when the Russians will take over Latvia, and they, the Jews, will go over to Russia.

Consequently the Jews, when the Red army invaded Latvia, showering abuse on the Latvian police, received the Communists with joy. Then came the Russian NKVD, and established headquarters in Riga, headed by Jews, Shustin, Citron, Goldfine and others—saddists all. They went to work with all their savagery. In that year the chambers of torture in Riga, operated by Jewish commissars, put to death 1,246 men and 109 women, Latvians all, whom the Jews had previously listed for liquidation. Altogether that year, 34,250 Latvian nationals were either deported or murdered, including 1,877 school children and 1,188 children under six.

Meantime Nurok, the Lehman of Latvia, is enjoying life today as the member of Knesset, or Israeli parliament. What became of Dubin, the Baruch of Latvia, it would be best to ask Baruch himself.

The late Rabbi Stephen Wise

The following is an excerpt from a speech made by Rabbi S. S. Wise, on the occasion of the celebration of the Russian revolution. The New York Times, (3/24/17, carried the article from which we quote: "I cannot forget that I am a member and a teacher of a race of which half has lived in the domain of the Czar and as a Jew, I believe that of all the achievements of my people, none has been nobler than that part the sons and daughters of Israel have taken in the great movement which has culminated in the free Russia."

An Arab "Refugee" Writes To The U.N.

Jewish aggression and many atrocities have driven some 950,000 Arabs from their homes and fields. They have taken refuge in the neighboring Arab countries, where very little is to be had.

American money and Jewish power is responsible for the desperation of thousands of Arabs and Christians in the desert today. The more the Jews destroy, the more aid they ask for.

P. O. Box 44
Jerusalem, (Jordan)
24th January 1956

Mr. Dag Hammarskjöld
Secretary General of U.N.
Sir;

Though I am addressing you in my name, I do not doubt a moment that I am expressing the views and belief of Arabs in general and of every Palestinian Arab in particular, Moslem and Christian alike.

I belong to no party and owe allegiance to no one except to my Country and people. I will not use preambles and avant propos, and will go straight to the point, in short clear submissions and plain words.

No peace Mr. Secretary General, can be anticipated in this part of the world, as there can be no peace in the Middle East as long as Justice does not prevail and as long as MIGHT persists to be RIGHT.

The Palestinian Arabs, ask no favors and want no charity. No amount of dollars and no schemes can make them forget their homeland and desist from their natural, just and legal right to their possessions and the enjoyment of their private property, as words of sympathy lead us nowhere.

What we want is that the United Nations should implement their own resolutions and honor their own pledges. We want men of good will to right the wrong done the Arabs, we want our appeals for Justice not to fall on deaf ears. What we ask is that the United Nations should refrain from backing criminals, to secure their theft of Palestine, as it must be remembered that Israel exists only by virtue of power politics and continues to exist only because it is able to manipulate the machinery of the United Nations.

It is Israel who pleads for peace; it is Israel who has the greatest desire for peace. Yes, it is Israel who wants protection for the territory they have stolen and approval of crimes committed against Arabs. It is Israel who wants protection of looted property and ravaged land of Palestine. It is the robber, the murderer who wants to sit down with the victim, and settle things amicably, by keeping the loot and enjoying what is not his.

Do you really, Mr. Secretary General, expect the Arabs to fall into this trap and enter into a pact with the thief, the robber and the murderer...surrendering their rights and their property?

Will you, and will members of the United Nations for once visualize a group of gangsters, thieves and assassins invading your own homes, farms, offices, shops, taking away all your belongings, looting, destroying, murdering those most dear to you, then settling down in your place as if it has always been their own. Then imagine someone in authority stating that the thieves and the murderers have come to stay, and that you are prevented to make any effort or take steps to recover your own things, and throw out the criminal intruder from

Summons To Militant American Manhood

(Only Truth, Justice and Honor Can Set Us Free)

To One Hundred sixty-two Million American Freemen:

Now is the time to lend every possible financial and other support to a selfless PRO-American Crusade with no racket to serve, or complex to nurse—(1) One that is consecrating directly to campaign expenses, every dollar received; (2) That knows the great peril the nation is facing, and the real remedy therefor; (3) That has demonstrated capacity to face facts in the raw, without fear or favor; (4) That is attacking the Cancerous Cause instead of its radiating Symptoms, and by a policy such as has results; (5) That has concrete practical constructive plans which, adequately financed, properly focused and boldly executed, cannot fail to overthrow an alien-admitted resistance, and restore representative Constitutional Government; (6) Whose crusade contemplates EXACT JUSTICE for Gentile and Jew.

Why longer dally with a danger that may at any time flame into civil war? Let us strike now like men, with the full patriotic power of never-defeated America, at the diabolical CAUSE of MARXISM and its ballyhooing dupes and racketeering rats.

WARN your national and state representatives that their BLIND submission to secret sinister influences, in direct violation of their oaths to "preserve, protect and defend" American liberties, is now DRIVING the middle-class majority toward a defensive anti-minority.

If you can't afford to contribute cash, be a Paul Revere and personally broadcast the deadly peril—by spoken and written word.

The evangelical fervor of aroused American public opinion, in an invincible self-preservation crusade, will liberate the subsidized "great power of the press" and smash this "Cross of Gold."

Are Americans to be Slaves or Masters in their own House?

THE NEED FOR MEN

God give us men! A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men whom the lust of office does not kill; Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinions and a will; Men who have honor; Men who will not lie; Men who can stand before a demagogue and damn his treacherous flatteries without winking; tall Men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog in public duty and in private thinking.

Alien Minorities And Mongrelization

By Marilyn R. Allen

All informed loyal Americans know that the American Constitution, with its Bill of Rights, guarantees all the civil rights necessary or desirable for everybody. "Civil Rights" as promoted by the Organized Minorities Coalition, means ABOLISHING Constitutional rights for the majority whites, and substituting preferential racial legislation for these powerful Organized Minorities.

An Arab Writes

your own house. How would you feel about it Mr. Secretary General?

How would you feel when you see the criminal aggressor enjoying your own home, looking at you from your own window, relaxing in the shade of your garden, gathering the fruit of your trees, sitting behind your desk, sleeping in your bed? How would you feel when you find him to be in possession of sentimental relics, and most dear things to your heart, while you are left in the open, deprived of everything, living on charity and probably starving? How would you feel when, after being robbed from everything, the thief shouts loud to all who want to hear him "Let's shake hands and keep the peace and forget all about it, now that I have all that is yours"?

These are questions we want you to discuss with your own conscience and to answer to your own self.

This hypothetical suggestion Mr. Secretary General, clearly states the case of the Palestine Arab, now labelled REFUGEE, dispossessed of his home, his land and everything he possessed.

The Western Powers who have created the Israeli State, at the expense of innocent Arab victims, seem to believe that one million or two of these Zionist gangsters gathered from various parts of the globe, allied to every underground center, and polluted with destructive doctrines, they seem to believe that these gangsters planted in Palestine are a greater safeguard than the legal and rightful Arab owners of the Country and adjoining Arab States. Therefore the Arabs, who were faithful allies and the most staunch supporters of the West, and would have remained so, were antagonized, cheated and betrayed, as if the Western Powers have forgotten that the friendship of both the Arab and Islamic World are of first importance to them and essential to world stability.

Therefore we earnestly ask the United Nations not to lure themselves in vain hopes. We will not sell our Country for any amount of dollars or other aids and it should be realized that real peace in the Middle East cannot be achieved until there is a JUST and EQUITABLE solution of the Palestine Question, until the Palestine Arabs are given the RIGHTS that are most certainly theirs... their Country, their properties, their homes.

Truly Yours

Rabbi Prinz Urges Support Of "Fifth Amendment" Teachers

Jews Above Law ?

The highly reputable national magazine "Leslie's Weekly Illustrated" in its Oct. 29, 1896 issue (p. 282) in an article "To Down the Jew", revealed that the Jewish control of courts and all legal proceedings in this country was so prevalent even then that it is a wonder the American Jewish Congress had to resort to the farce which was perpetrated in the New Jersey courts, under the guise of "justice." We quote from Rector Ahlwardt's statement in Leslie's:

"The whole Jewish organization is essentially an INTERNATIONAL one...New York is the New Jerusalem itself...there is no LAW that can reach the Jew. Israel forms a State, within a State, and is practically above the law...I refer you to the records of all the...trials in the city for the past ten years...I mean political influence, straw bail, BRIBERY OF OFFICIALS, subornation, of perjured testimony..."

Albert Einstein

The late Albert Einstein, friend of Rabbi Prinz, forced to leave Germany in the drive on Communism, belonged to more than 50 Communist fronts. Advised all his friends to take the "Fifth Amendment."

The fourth of a series of articles exposing the activities of the American Jewish Congress and Rabbi Prinz. For the information of new readers, Rabbi Prinz was awarded a judgement of $30,000 in a suit brought by him against Conde McGinley, for calling him "a red rabbi who not unlike Albert Einstein, was expelled from Germany, for his revolutionary, Communistic activities". Since Mr. McGinley was not permitted to present his evidence to the jury, we are doing so in Common Sense, insofar as is possible. However, we will not at this time cover the Communist-front and Communist records of some two hundred officers, past officers and active members of the American Jewish Congress, for which we have documentary evidence. There is also other information we are omitting at this time for good reason. Those who would like a file of the American Jewish Congress and Rabbi Prinz, should keep the full set of our issues for reference.

World Jewish Congress

Quite often pro-Jewish individuals deny the existence of a Jewish conspiracy of a political nature, claiming that the Jews are merely taking aggressive action to protect themselves as a minority.

If this is so, then how do they explain the OVERT action referred to in the following "CONFIDENTIAL" Memo from the World Jewish Congress office, in Washington, D.C., dated Dec. 20, 1946, from Dr. C. Irving Dwork, to Petegorsky, Maslow, and Kubowitski:

"In today's New York Times, and other newspapers, there appeared a summary of a statement by President Truman, expressing his dissatisfaction with the government's handling of immigration of DP's.

"I am certain that to a considerable degree this message is due to the CONTINUOUS PRESSURE WE HAVE EXERTED ON THE WHITE HOUSE, THE VISA DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE and other divisions of the Department of State, as well as various Senators and Congressmen.

I do not believe that the sincerity of the President in this matter is open to question. I expect to SEE DAVE NILES early next week and shall inform you further."

In other words, the WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS FORCED the President to issue a public message of interest to the Jews and the VICIOUS CHRISTIAN HATING JEW, DAVID NEYHUS (Niles) is named as the secret intermediary and inside informant of Dwork, of the World Jewish Congress. Rabbi Joachim Prinz, as Vice President of the World Jewish Congress, certainly had access to this memo. Did he reveal these actions as part of a continuing conspiracy? Of course not! Niles of course is now dead, but the conspiracy continues with other Jews in the White House, such as Philleo Nash, Maxwell Rabb, and Isaac Jack Martin.

An example of how Senators are used as willing and pliant tools, is given in another letter dated Dec. 19, 1946, from the American Jewish Congress.

"With regard to our telephone conversation of yesterday, I would like to stress the fact that SENATOR JAMES MEAD has virtually put himself at our disposal and ...he should be USED in connection with the campaign for the increased immigration of DP's. If there is no large affair in New York, might I suggest that he be used as a big gun in the A.J.C. campaign here in Washington."

This is how a U.S. Senator represents the constituents of his State! For those who do not realize the duality of the American Jewish Congress and the World Jewish Congress, the following excerpt should be enlightening: "We have been able to concentrate...effectively on the political work of the W.J.C. We have been able considerably to increase our financial support for the political budget of the W.J.C...Some of our major divisions have several times during the past year, intervened with representatives of foreign governments in their communities, in support of important political submissions of the W.J.C." (See p. 8, Report—Executive Dir. 3/31-4/5, 48.)

The reader should bear in mind that this Zionist organization is Tax deductible—(a Zionist pressure group using the tax payers money to break down this country for Marxist rule.)

Three Newark, N. J. teachers who invoked the Fifth Amendment, (Lowenstein, Laba, and Zimmerman) before the Un-American Activities Committee and were suspended and brought to trial by the Newark Board of Education, were also supported by the Communist Party. The Daily Worker (June 24, 1955, pg. 4) stated: "One prominent Jewish clergyman, RABBI PRINZ, of B'nai Abraham Synagogue, urged support of the teachers. Rabbi Prinz (in a sermon to 1500 people) said that help should be given to the teachers, and he lashed out at proposals for a city witch hunt among city employees. Circulation of "security" questionnaires by the city will put "A PREMIUM ON CONFORMITY" Rabbi Prinz declared. People will be afraid to express any view that seems to be in disagreement with accepted policy. Genuine and valuable civic activity will be deterred. Employees will be afraid to join or work in any organization, for fear in the future it may be listed as SUBVERSIVE" Rabbi Prinz declared." (end of DAILY WORKER quotation.) Emphasis supplied.

Do you recognize these stereotype, moth-eaten cliches, which have been mouthed by the left-wing enemies of the Un-American Activities Committee since it was formed?

Why is it the Daily Worker, OFFICIAL COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, always favors Rabbi Prinz and the activities of the American Jewish Congress?

IS COMMUNISM JEWISH?

A clear and unequivocal declaration of the AJC's attitude towards Jews, the USSR, and Communism, was made by Max Bressler, President of the Chicago Division of the AJC, in the Jewish Sentinel, Chicago, (4/26/45. pp. 15 and 19) in an article "No Jewish Isolationism" which consisted of excerpts from his speech for the Jewish Council for Russian War Relief in Chicago, 3/18/45.

IS COMMUNISM JEWISH?

"Let us always remember and repeat for the benefit of those who choose conveniently to forget—the JEWS OF THE WORLD ARE ETERNALLY INDEBTED TO THE USSR...I refer, of course to that bright chapter in human history, that was written 27 years ago in the land that gave birth to many of us...It is also well to remember always, the GREAT contribution that the USSR has made to the progress of humanity, evidenced by the ESTABLISHED STATUS of the JEW in the Soviet Union...Aid to the USSR...carries with it very deep and profound political implications...Those who with-hold the hand of friendship to the heroic People of the Soviet Union...are committing a crime against OUR PEOPLE... There is no room for Jewish isolationism... I suggest to these cynics to study the activities of the Jewish ANTI-FACIST COMMITTEE OF THE SOVIET UNION, and the JEWISH COUNCIL IN MOSCOW...of the PART THAT THESE AGENCIES PLAYED IN LOCATING DP's. I would remind them of the way in which both of these agencies have COOPERATED WITH THE WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS...I suggest, also, to those one-track minds to study the work of the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee, in collaborating with the Jewish Agency of Palestine, the World Jewish Congress, and the WRITERS AND ARTISTS COMMITTEE OF N.Y....in preparation of...the 'Black Book of Hitlerism'."

The Jewish Agency of Palestine is an aggressive Zionist group. The Writers and Artists Committee, the "Black Book", the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee of the Soviet Union, the Jewish Council of Moscow, have all been cited as outright Communist, or in the case of the Soviet organizations, automatically known to be 100% Communist. Only one other organization is named in this cooperating group—THE WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS.

By what twisted and perverted Talmudic logic could even a Jew lawyer consider this speech an anything other than a plea for Communism—Jewish style?

The A.J.C., refusing to sign a statement by the B'nai B'rith against Nazi attacks on Jews as Bolsheviks, made this statement in their Congress Bulletin, Nov. 1, 1935, pg. 3:

"Hitlerism is a racial war of the Hitler Aryans against Jews as non-Aryans or Semites...We are Hebrews. We are Semites. We are non-Aryans...We are prouder than ever of our Jewishness, of our Hebraism, of our Semitism...Assimilation denies the supreme reality of the Jewish race...We of the American Jewish Congress accept the racialism of the Jews...as an unalterable truth...This document...suggests that the American Jews...have not the right...to accept Communism as a political theory, or a party platform...The authors...of this document apparently feel that they are compelled by the pressure of public opinion at this moment, to say that they, or all of us Jews are not Communists...IT IS ABOMINABLE TO ASSUME, AS THIS DOCUMENT DOES, THAT TO BE A COMMUNIST IS A CRIME, OR THAT COMMUNISM IS ILLEGAL, (emphasis ours), and that if Jews should happen to be Communist, they should deserve much...that has happened to them in Nazi Germany..."

For the readers information, 95% of the Jews are not Semites, nor are they Hebrews; they are Asiatic Khazars, and not one of their ancestors ever set foot in the Holy Land.

FRIENDS OF THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

An example of the tremendous power of the American Jewish Congress, and its most notorious leader, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, was illustrated by the list of sponsors of its 70th Birthday Tribute to Wise, co-sponsored by the Zionist Organization of America, on March 16, 1944. The list included Albert Einstein, Louis Finklestein (Jewish Theological Seminary—center of

David Niles (Neyhus)

The late David Niles, (Neyhus) look-out man in the White House under Roosevelt and Truman. It was through Niles that Zionist pressure was brought on Truman, to recognize Israel.

Talmudic filth,) Fiorella LaGuardia, Herbert Lehman, Reinhold Niebuhr, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver (whose synagogue in Cleveland features horns on the brow of Moses). Greetings were printed in the official program from Henry A. Wallace and from the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee in the USSR (Moscow) which stated: "We greatly value your work...to muster the Jews in the U.S.A. in the struggle against Fascism."—and expression of the most intimate solidarity between the official Jewish spokesmen of the USSR, and the self-appointed official spokesmen of the Jews in the U.S.A.

Guests at the Tribute included the perennial Communist-fronter, Stanley A. Isaacs (who hired Si Gerson as an assistant), Rubin Saltzman (19 citations in Appendix IX, Manager of the Jewish Communist organ, Morning Freiheit—see New Order, March 1938, pg. 16; member of Communist Party, see Daily Worker Sept. 6, 1937, p. 2; also General Secretary of IWO 1930), George Starr (Officer of Jewish Peoples Fraternal Organization, 4 citations in Appendix IX; member of the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party since 1919—see Appendix IX) and Al Kahn (President of JPFO 1947-48; member Editors Board Jewish Life, published by Morning Freiheit; contributing editor to New Masses, Communist publication; also see Matusow Testimony released by Internal Security Subcommittee).

For Communist-front citations of Rabbis Finklestein, Silver, and Wise, see Common Sense issue No. 222 "Rabbi's on the Red Front". Einstein, LaGuardia, Lehman and Niebuhr all have front records of far more than average length.

C.S.L.A.—LEGAL ARM OF A. J. C.

The Commission for Law and Social Action, the legal arm of the American Jewish Congress, in Dec. 1955, sent letters to teachers in New York City, with a questionnaire five pages long requesting the teacher-informer to, among other things state whether or not his school had Christmas plays centering around the Birth of Christ, whether there were Nativity symbols such as the Cross, etc., whether "Silent Night" or other Carols were sung, or whether the name of Jesus Christ was mentioned.

The Brooklyn Tablet (Dec. 17, 1955) pointed out that this indorsement of the "informer" role was in contrast to Rabbi Israel Goldstein's earlier stand against the questioning of teacher Communists, on their associates in the Communist Party. Rabbi Goldstein, who is President of the AJC, has at least 12 Communist-front citations.

This example of subversion of American traditions is typical of the hypocrisy and gall of the Jews in the AJC. The reader should bear in mind that this Zionist organization is tax deductible—a Zionist pressure group using the taxpayers money to break down this country for Marxist rule.

Civil Rights Groups Honor Eisenberg

The following is a heading from a Newark News clipping, dated Nov. 12, 1953:

"Civil Rights Groups to Honor Eisenberg...Retired Superior Court Judge, John O. Bigelow, will be the principal speaker..." Eisenberg was attorney for Rabbi Prinz. During Nov. 1955, Mayor Carlin of Newark, designated a week as "American Jewish Congress week".

Consider the difficulty of winning any suit in the Superior Court with the head Rabbi of Newark, where the Jews control politics. The Rabbi stated during the hearings, that there were 90,000 Jews in Essex County.

JEROME EISENBERG Lawyer for Rabbi Prinz

Now for a moment, let us divert our thoughts to Rabbi Prinz' principal lawyer, Jerome Eisenberg, also counsel for the American Jewish Congress, and N.J. Chairman of Commission on Law and Social Action, who led the fight against Conde McGinley.

When the N.Y. Board of Education wanted to make Communist teachers reveal the names of their co-party members, the Communist Teacher's Union fought the Board. The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, Americans for Democratic Action, B'nai B'rith, and the American Jewish Congress, supported the Teachers Union in this action. (See Brooklyn Tablet, 5/14/55).

Now we look in the National Republic for Aug. 1954, in an article by Felix Wittmer, and see that "In the fall of 1949... campaign against me was highlighted by threats relative to my anti-Communist platform appearances and by letters which SUGGESTED POSSIBLE LAW SUITS. On Sept. 24th, I read two such letters, one was from EISENBERG and SPICER, a Newark, N.J. law firm, REPRESENTING A NEWARK HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER whose COMMUNIST line, pro-Wallace, editorials in the publication of the Teachers Union, I had publicly criticized...I dismissed all such correspondence as the usual INTIMIDATION BY THE LEFT-WING CLIQUE." (emphasis supplied)

Again, in the Newark Star Ledger, May 11, 1955, there is a story about a meeting of the Newark Teachers Union (closed to the public) called a week prior to the appearance of the Un-American Activities Committee in Newark. Members of the Union discussed the constitutional rights of witnesses called before the Committee.

"With an estimated 200 teachers in the audience, R. Joseph Bruder, president of the N.T.U., and JEROME EISENBERG, counsel for the State Federation of Teacher's, answered questions in an informal discussion of the problem..." "a teacher's query: Assuming that anyone did not want to disclose any association with other people—did not want to be an informer—what would be the procedure? EISENBERG replied that the proper procedure would be to PLEAD THE FIFTH AMENDMENT." (Emphasis supplied)

Tolerance-Jewish Style

At a convention at the Hotel Waldorf Astoria, of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, Meier Steinbrink, New York State Supreme Court Justice, who also held the job as the legal head and New York Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, stated at the close of the Convention:

"Under American law an offender who has served his sentence, meted out by the courts is considered as having paid for his offense. This is not our idea. ANYBODY WHO HAS OFFENDED OR HARMED THE JEWISH CAUSE, IS NEVER TO BE FORGIVEN, AND WE (The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith) shall employ the MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AT OUR DISPOSAL to see to it that such an enemy of the Jewish cause shall never regain his previously held position, or social standing."

A.J.C. Cited As Communist-Front!

The Tenney Committee on Un-American Activities, (Calif.) issued its 1948 Report on Communist-fronts, (March 25, 1948) in which is found listed on pp. 145-49, the citation against the American Jewish Congress. Here are some excerpts from that citation:

"Resolutions adopted by this convention of the American Jewish Congress, (Southern California Regional Convention, Los Angeles, 2/7-8/48) indicates the organization's adherence to the Communist Party line. The convention went on record against loyalty checks for federal and government employees, and called for abolition of the Thomas...and Tenney...committees, investigating un-American Activities.

"Dr. Stephen S. Wise is the National President of the A.J.C. He has a long record of Communist-front affiliations...Dr. Max Nussbaum is the President of the Pacific Coast Region... The notorious Communist-fellow traveler, Carey McWilliams, spoke under the auspices of the A.J.C...The mailing lists of Communist-fronts in Southern California, taken from a master list, in the possession of the Communist Party, include the above list of Chapter chairman of the American Jewish Congress..."

There follows a long breakdown of Wise's Communist-front record, Judge Ben Rosenthal's, Rabbi Max Nussbaum's, and many others. Of interest is the fact Miss Marguerite R. Weiss, legislative chairman of the Women's Division of the A.J.C., "Declared that the goal of the A.J.C. was that of a POLITICAL ACTION GROUP to fight 'anti-racial attitudes'". Here is a blatant declaration of the A.J.C.'s criminal contempt for the law, as stated in its own Executive order, as cited earlier. Miss Nita Blackwell, former secretary of the NAACP also spoke, and Milton S. Tyre of the National Lawyers Guild, stated that such committees (Tenney and Thomas') were the 'Jews' greatest threat."

GOVERNMENT CITATIONS AGAINST AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

In the California Senate investigating Committee on Education's Eighth Report, (1951) on pg. 59, we find the following important and little known statement:

"Carey McWilliams has been affiliated with the following Communist-front organizations: American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (AH); American Committee for Spanish Freedom (A); AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS, (C) (1948, pp. 145 and 149)..." The letters A,H, and C, stand for the Attorney Generals list, House Un-American Activities Committee, California Un-American Activities Committee.

Every Dollar Will Help!

Using the $30,000 judgement as an excuse, and in an effort to break down the Christian Educational Association, Of which Conde McGinley is a non-paid officer, on Jan. 27th, your editor was asked, among many other questions, if he had a burial plot—wonder if Rabbi Prinz would like to have that also?—in addition to the $1,000 remembrance in the will of a patriotic friend, left to Conde McGinley?

The trial of Prinz vs. McGinley, which dragged over two years, cost the defense over $15,000, several thousand dollars of which is yet unpaid. Mr. McGinley had three excellent lawyers representing him. These lawyers deserve to be paid. Additional legal expense is being incurred daily. Please help to keep us in this fight, so that we might help your editor who is doing such a valiant job for you as well as his country.

JEWISH EXILE LECTURES HERE

"Future of European Jewry"
To Be Address Topic

Dr. Joachim Prinz, German-Jewish leader who was forced to leave Germany because of his defense of Jewish rights under the Nazi regime, will discuss

Dr. Joachim Prinz

"The Future of European Jewry" in a Jewish Open Forum lecture at 8 p. m. Sunday at the Hebrew Community Center, Main Avenue and Quincy Street.

Dr. Prinz is known as the leading spokesman for the Jews of Germany having made the first public reply to Nazi allegations against the Jews in his now-famous book, "Wir Juden" (We Jews). In July, 1933, Dr. Prinz, who at that time was a young rabbi in Berlin, was seized by the storm troopers during an address.

In 1936 Dr. Prinz resigned his pulpit to devote himself to politics and was immediately forced to leave Germany. The lecturer was born in Upper Silesia of merchant parents. He joined the Zionist movement in Germany in 1917. He received a Ph.D. degree from the University of Breslau when only 21 years old and while a student at the university and in the rabbinical seminary there was editor of a political Jewish publication.

When he became rabbi in the Berlin synagogue, Dr. Prinz became the first German rabbi to discuss current topics from the pulpit.

Dr. Prinz is speaking under the auspices of the cultural committee of the Agudas Achim Synagogue which is composed of Rabbi David Tamarkin, chairman; William Alter, M. B. Freed, B. F. Harris, I. Lewin, Dr. L. J. Manhoff, Sam Nevelow, Dr. A. M. Schorr, Jacob Schmidt and M. A. Sinkin.

San Antonio Express
March 17, 1938

In hearings, Rabbi Prinz, stated under oath that he was forced to leave Germany because he made a speech in the defense of Jesus Christ—NOT FOR POLITICAL REASONS.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The following is one of many letters we have received from our readers. The writer is now discharged from the U. S. Army.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I have been reading your newspaper for over three years now, and as I finish reading it I pass it on to others. I am a former member of the Armed Forces, and have just returned from Germany. The German people, especially those who fought in Russia, are sure indoctrinating our troops concerning the Jews.

Now that I am back in the States, I can see more clearly the hand of the Jew, he is agitating in the South and trying to divide our people and condition our country for Communism. All over the country the Zionists are crying for poor Israel, after pushing the Arabs out of their rightful homes. With the help of the United Nations (We in the Army call it the USELESS NATIONS) and of course political pressure in the U.S.

The other day we read in the paper the headline, "Arabs accused of anti-Semitic action in the U.S." It seems the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith says that the Arab Diplomats are trying to stir up Anti-Semitism, so as to stop American sympathy for Israel. Then they had the gall to say that the Jewish employees who were dismissed at Fort Monmouth, during Sen. McCarthy's investigation, were dismissed solely because they were Jewish. Such a bare-faced lie as this, coming from the ADL, just proves what you print. Everyone knows the Army investigated the dismissal of these employees (at the instistance of the ADL) and found each and every one guilty as all hell! The fact that 90% of them were Jews, again proves that you are more than right when you say that Communism is Jewish.

As for the ADL blaming the Arab Diplomats for stirring up anti-Semitism, they are way off base and liars. Every service-man I have talked to has the same idea, mainly that they will not fight for Israel.

They will go to the stockade first, or over the hill. Here in America there must be at least a few million Jews with guts enough to want to enlist in the Israeli Army. I'm for letting them go and fight their own war. And if they fight like we saw them in the last war, in our Army (in the office), the Arabs have nothing to worry about.

The Jews are wrong and the world knows it, in spite of all their propaganda. The sooner the Arabs wipe Israel out, the better for the whole world.

Enclosed are the names of ten of my buddies and their money to cover the subscription charge of your wonderful paper. Please send them some back issues also. I am closing with wishes that our good Lord will keep you in this fight for Christianity a long long while.

WE ARE FOR STATES RIGHTS, WE OPPOSE CENTRALIZED INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

Who Is The Enemy?

MEMORABILIA

A most remarkable letter of General Stratemeyer addressed to Mr. H. Schultz, Chairman of the ADL, was published in the November issue of Common Sense. In this letter the distinguished General makes a reference to Mr. Beaty's book "The Iron Curtain Over America" and says, that only after reading it he understood "what was going on back in The United States" when he himself was fighting for his Country. This candid statement proves once more the value of Mr. Beaty's work and the tragic ignorance of even the best-informed Americans, about the hidden springs which often activate the policies of many modern governments.

General Stratemeyer vigorously denies that he is anti-Semitic, in which "crime", apparently, he was accused by Mr. Schultz, I firmly believe, that the General is really not an anti-Semite in the sense meant by Mr. Schultz, and that the last named, knows this perfectly well, but uses this "Anti-Semitic Smear" with a definite purpose to discredit General Stratemeyer and to confuse the issue. But it is also quite clear that General Stratemeyer is "anti" something, and this "anti" attitude is greatly resented by Mr. Schultz & Co.

It is certain that many honest patriots like General Stratemeyer fully realize now, the existence and might of this Enemy, whom Mr. Beaty rather vaguely, calls "Khazars", and Common Sense calls "Jews", "American Communists" or "Invisible Government"; and the Enemy himself, very adroitly, fixes to all those, who dimly guess the source of danger and try to oppose it, the much-feared label of "anti-Semitism," and thus most effectively paralyzes their actions, because, to many people—and to the so-called "intellectuals" especially—there is nothing more odious than the crime of racial hatred.

To every true Christian, the idea of hating a whole race or an individual who belongs to that race only because he was born such seems to be, quite logically, immoral and repulsive, and contradictory to all Christian teachings. And more often one can hear such an argument: "How could I be an anti-Semite when I knew so many Jews who were better in all respects than any gentiles whom I met so far? Dr. so-and-so, who is a 100% Semite, saved my life; and Mr. so-and-so, who is also a Jew, is my best friend and helped me more than once when I was in need. No, don't count on me if you wish to fight against the Jewish race."

Due to such reasoning and fear of the anti-Semitic smear a quite large section of the American population remains passive in this struggle to the great delight and satisfaction of those who work for the final collapse of what we call "The Christian Western Civilization". If it is nearly impossible to fight an unknown Enemy, it is still more difficult to fight him effectively, when he substitutes a dummy for himself and this dummy absorbs most of the blows which should otherwise hit this Enemy. In this particular case, "Semitism" is both the dummy and the shield behind which the Enemy hides.

For the sake of those who still do not understand what is going on around them, and those who understand, but do not DARE to tell the truth openly, let us disclose the real name of this Enemy against whom we are fighting. He is, most certainly, neither your doctor, "Jew" Rosenberg, nor my baker, "Khazar" Rosenblum,—as Mr. Schultz implies, when he calls such men like General Stratemeyer "anti-Semites",—nor even Mr. Schultz himself, but this Enemy is the spiritual force which Mr. Schultz represents and which might be called MILITANT JUDAISM.

The recent blatant and shameless "HELP ISRAEL" campaign in the States brought at last to the full light the incredible might of this Dark Force, the existence of which nobody can now deny. As every child understands, it is vital for America to have the Moslem States on their side in the present global struggle; it is clear also, that the interests of Israel and those of America are, in this moment of history, diametrically opposite; and that by helping Israel, America digs her own grave. But does the MILITANT JUDAISM care about it? Of course not.

As an illustration how this MILITANT JUDAISM works, let us cite a short item taken from an article published recently in one of the American magazines:

"Never before has a propaganda campaign in behalf of a foreign government been planned and carried out more blatantly and cynically, with blaze of limelight and to the fanfare of publicity, than the present wave of hysteria now being worked up among American Jews." Does the reader think that this quotation is taken from Common Sense, or from other similar "anti-Semitic" journal? Far from it! The most amazing fact is that this sentence was written by a Jew, Zukerman, and published by a Jewish Newsletter. (See TIME, Nov. 28, 1955). And Mr. Zukerman, most definitely, should know what he is talking about. True to form, the Jews of Mr. Schultz's orientation, did not fail to call this unfortunate journalist an "anti-Semitic Jew", thus placing him, so-to-speak, in the same brackets with General Stratemeyer!

This case of fratricidal feud, shows better than anything else what we mean by telling all those who fight MILITANT JUDAISM in all its ugly manifestations, cannot be called "anti-Semites", and also how indiscriminately this label is affixed to those who dare to oppose this Dark Force.

If only recently it was considered not only proper, but obligatory to every American citizen to be a hater of German and Japanese "Militarism", and now all are called to fight Russian "Imperialism", which does not mean, of course, that every individual German, Japanese, or Russian, is our foe and should be hated, why then, is it such a deadly sin and a crime to oppose the MILITANT JUDAISM, which, as we have seen from the above quotation, is also opposed by the best and more far-sighted members of the Jewish race itself?

And if even some of the Jews can do it, why we, the Christians of all denominations and the Moslems as well, against whom the destructive force of MILITANT JUDAISM is directed, are denied the right to defend ourselves, and are threatened with dire consequences if we dare to open our mouth?

No, Mr. Schultz, we are, most definitely, not "anti-Semites" which term, as General Stratemeyer pointed out in his letter, is a sheer absurdity, especially under present circumstances, when all of us are on the side of the wronged Arabian States, populated by REAL SEMITES, whom you ROBBED of their land and property. But we were, we are, and we shall be the sworn enemies of the spirit of MILITANT JUDAISM, which leads our world to destruction, and against this spirit we have the full moral right to fight....

Friday deadline set on city loyalty oaths

City Business Administrator John S. Flockhart yesterday set next Friday as a deadline for some 7,000 city employees to sign loyalty oaths and fill out questionnaires concerning subversive organizations.

Flockhart said all city department heads had been notified the City Council had formally adopted a resolution calling for the loyalty oath and answers to the questionnaires.

Members of the council and Mayor Carlin also will be required to sign the oaths and questionnaires before a notary public or lawyer.

ORGANIZATIONS CHECKED

Besides a loyalty oath and questionnaire, each city employee received a list of 300 organizations branded subversive by U. S. Attorney General Brownell.

City employees are being asked whether they are or have been connected with the Communist Party or any of the organizations on Brownell's list.

The completed oaths and questionnaires, according to Flockhart, will be submitted to City Personnel Officer Samuel B. Finkelstein for processing.

ANSWERS WILL DECIDE

Whether or not City Council will bring up its tabled resolution calling for an investigation into subversion among city employees will depend on the answers submitted.

Meanwhile, the New Jersey Region of the American Jewish Congress urged the City Council to "reconsider and repeal" its resolution requiring loyalty questionnaires.

Through its president, Rabbi Joachim Prinz, the organization advised the council "there is no reason to believe that there is any real problem of security in the Newark city government. If there were, circulation of the questionnaires would accomplish nothing...."

IMPARTIAL POLICY

At the same time the Essex County Council, Jewish War Veterans, announced it is maintaining a policy of "complete impartiality" with respect to the three teachers suspended by the Board of Education after they pleaded the Fifth Amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee. The veterans' group reaffirmed its "confidence in the fairness of the American system of justice" and said it sincerely hopes and believes the teachers will receive a fair hearing June 7.

FIVE CENTS

Our Drift Toward World Government!

by SENATOR WILLIAM E. JENNER (R. Ind.)

Before the patriotic rally of FOR AMERICA held at Carnegie Hall, New York, N. Y., February 22, 1956

When the War of Independence was won, General Washington resigned his commission, bade his officers farewell, and retired to private life at Mt. Vernon. Like the Roman General Cincinnatus, who returned to his plow, Washington left a standard of devotion to the Republic which has been held high by American military men ever since.

Washington was soon called back to public service in the new government of the United States. He saw in civil life the same danger of too much power in a few hands.

Washington announced his decision not to accept a third term in words which have become immortal. In his farewell Address to the American people, he gave his political ideals for the new nation, especially in the most hazardous of all decisions, its relation with other countries.

For over a hundred and twenty-five years our people followed the testament George Washington left us. We grew strong and prosperous with each passing year.

We Have Surrendered Our Independence Abroad

Today we have turned away from Washington's advice. We are deeply enmeshed in entangling alliances. We have quit our own, to stand on foreign ground. We have surrendered the decisions of life and death for our country, to officials who do not need to ask our approval, and to alien councils where the opinions and needs of other nations carry more weight than ours.

This change was not made by amending our Constitution. It was made chiefly by our foreign policy agencies, in the executive branch, under the court interpretations of treaty law and executive agreements. You remember, Mr. Dulles testified in 1953 that the State Department had already entered into 10,000 executive agreements under the North Atlantic Pact alone. How many agreements have been made by now, under all our pacts, we can not guess.

We Have Surrendered The Sovereignty of The People

First let us review, briefly, the machinery of government under which we enjoyed our great freedom and progress. The Constitution set up a national agency to carry out a few responsibilities, mostly those dealing with other countries. Executive authority was limited to legally established duties, and the laws were made by elected representatives answerable to the sovereign people.

Under our Constitution the American people were masters in their own house. Government officials could be removed from office, if necessary, by the following election day. When everything was going well, people were indifferent to election contests. But when the national security was involved, the American people could act, promptly and decisively, without asking anyone's leave. Our government was no taller than the people, and the sky above us was open and clear.

That is what we mean by Constitutional liberty. But that is not the governmental machinery we have today. We have kept the old forms, but we have superimposed new Prinz Refuses To Answer Questions On Talmud!

In filing suit against Conde McGinley, Rabbi Prinz accused Mr. McGinley of attacking him because he was a religious leader. However, when Mr. McGinley's lawyers tried to establish what his religion was, the Judge ruled out completely and entirely any and all reference to his religion. Therefore, Mr. McGinley could not prove to the jury that the TALMUD reeks with anti-Christian filth.

Mr McGinley's attorneys had the complete Soncino edition of the Talmud in court, with top authority ready for proof. Rabbi Prinz acknowledged the Talmud as his guide.

During pre-trial examinations some of the most searching questions were asked of Rabbi Prinz by the attorneys of Conde McGinley (Sept. and Nov. 1954.) The American Jewish Congress were determined the deadly truth revealed in these pre-trial questions would never see the light of day, and worked diligently to make certain they would never be asked before a jury and in the public gaze. If these questions were answered truthfully, Rabbi Prinz would have had no suit. You will see from their nature that Prinz placed himself in an awkward position indeed, when he refused to answer. Before a Congressional Committee, the method of refusing would be by use of the Fifth Amendment.

A few questions directed to Rabbi Prinz while he was under oath:

4-Q What is the position of Judaism with respect to Christianity?

6-Q Isn't it true the Talmud teaches a doctrine of racial superiority—that the Jew is superior to the non-Jew?

7-Q Isn't it true that anti-gentilism is an inherent part of the Judaistic philosophy?

8-Q As a matter of fact, the American

A.J.C. - No Pressure Group ?

The following are excerpts of a letter from Mr. Ray Gill, publisher of the Dover Advance newspaper, one of the eleven printers forced to discontinue printing Common Sense, due to Jewish pressure.

Dover, New Jersey,
September 22, 1949

Dear Mr. McGinley;

Today Mr. B.M. Berla, local attorney, called on me and stated that he represented the Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress, Newark office. He stated that they had traced the printing of Common Sense to us. He demanded that we quit printing for you. I told him that I personally, went over all the material and thought it was a thoroughly American paper.

Jewish Congress is FINANCING this suit against Mr. McGinley, isn't it?

9-Q ----the expenses of this litigation---- are BEING PAID BY THE A. J. C., are they not? (see issue 248 for details about Senate Bill 2844, which you should support to prevent such anti-Christian persecution from happening again.)

11-Q Mr. Baum----is he one of your attorneys? (Baum is an American Jewish Congress lawyer from the Commission for Law and Social Action.)

41-Q Do you recall that Dr. Stephen S. Wise in 1935, in May stated: "Some call it Marxism, I call it Judaism"?

42-Q Isn't it a fact that Zionism----has been socialistic?

47-Q ----are you familiar with----folio 67a of the Book of Sanhedrin----which portrays Jesus Christ as an "ignoble seducer"?

50-Q ----are you aware that in----the Jewish Encyclopedia the Virgin Mary was (called) an adulteress?

51-Q ----are you familiar with portions-- --which declare Jesus to have been a bastard?

53-Q ----are you familiar with that portion of the Soncino Babylonian Talmud which states that Jesus Christ committed bestiality?

59-Q Are you familiar with that portion-- --which states the rule forbidding adultery with a neighbor's wife EXCLUDES the wife of a heathen or non-Jew?

63-Q Isn't it a fact that numerous practices----condemned----as criminal are condoned and, in fact, advocated by the Babylonian Talmud?

65-Q----are you familiar with the portion --which states that unnatural intercourse is excluded from the ban upon violating one's neighbor's daughter?

69-Q—are you familiar with that portion—which condones—pederasty?

75-Q—are you familiar with that portion—which permits a woman—to have intercourse with a beast?

77-Q—are you familiar with that portion—which permits a person to have intercourse with a dead relative?—

79-Q. Would you say that a man could be a Red and still be a Jewish Rabbi?

82-Q—what do you mean when you say that Jesus was a Jew? (Evidently the Rabbis have their own definition—not for publication.)

Many questions have been omitted because of the unprintable filth of the Talmud, the book which Rabbi Kertzer stated was "the textbook used in training of Rabbis." (Look Magazine June 17, 1952).

Rabbi Prinz also refused to answer a series of questions as to his associates—Stephen Wise, Israel (12 Front) Goldstein, Horace M. Kallen, etc.—their Communist affiliations, fronts, etc.—which he refused to answer, because if answered truthfully, he would have been incriminating himself. He also refused to answer if he knew what was meant by swearing on the Bible in court, about the Kol Nidre, and many more questions about the Talmud, which is the greatest compilation of sadism, smut and sexuality on record.

After Rabbi Prinz refused to answer these questions, the attorneys for Mr. McGinley filed for the order to compel answers and waited for the American Jewish Congress' rejoinder to the court. The AJC's brief in the face of the truth cited the Talmud as meriting "brilliant appreciation of the moral values"! Knowing Eisenberg, Baum and Prinz, we were not surprised that this was their idea of moral values!!!

Nevertheless, the attorneys then filed an answer to the court and produced photocopies of the most filthy passages in the Talmud, as incontrovertible proof of the right to ask the questions, which Prinz called "malicious". In the original complaint, Prinz had called himself a "religious" leader, thus "opening the door" to inquire into his "religion". Prinz insisted on identifying himself with the entire Jewish people; McGinley defended himself alone.

Judge Ewart refused to permit any reference to Rabbi Prinz' religion, the Talmud, or his associates. Mr. McGinley's attorneys had documented evidence connecting more than 200 officers, former officers and active members of the American Jewish Congress with Communist or Communist-front activities, but Judge Ewart ruled out any citations of the Un-American Activities Committee, and refused to accept the Attorney General's list of Communist-fronts.

Bear in mind that Rabbi Prinz was Vice President and Chairman of the Executive Board of the American Jewish Congress, Will Maslow, Chief Counsel for the A. J. C., Jerome Eisenberg, attorney and Chairman of the C. S. L. A. of the A. J. C., and Phillip Baum, attorney from the N. Y. office of the A. J. C. were the attorneys representing Rabbi Prinz against Mr. McGinley.

SAMUEL SILVERMAN

Samuel Silverman, Chairman Independent Democrats, pictured here, stated in the court room he was a good friend of Judge Howard Ewart for thirty years, and proved it by going up to the bench and talking to him. Among other things discussed, Silverman was seen riding home with Judge Howard Ewart during the Prinz vs. McGinley trial. Wonder if they talked about the Judge's brother, John?

BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN

Lecturer and student of World Affairs

During the past ten years Common Sense has published a number of Mr. Freedman's scholarly articles, including eight complete issues. While Mr. Freedman has never held any financial interest in Common Sense, he did in the early years render substantial financial help. During the last three years this fine patriot has been unable to assist us financially, but in making available his vast store of knowledge gained from research, he renders an even more valuable service. Mr. Freedman is available for speaking before large or small groups without charge.

AJC Lawyer Takes 5th Amendment

Joseph B. Robison, staff counsel of the CLSA, took the 5th Amendment when questioned by the Walter Committee last Feb. 21st, 1956. He had been named by Herbert Fuchs as a Communist Party member. (See Walter Committee's Annual Report for 1955, pg. 6)

The American Jewish Congress immediately leaped to Robison's defense. The N. Y. TIMES (2/22/56, pg. 4) carried the AJC's statement: "We are satisfied that Mr. Robison—has whole-heartedly and without any reservation whatsoever fully subscribed to the constitution of the AJC and its program—"

For once we agree with the AJC. Since Robison is staff counsel of the CLSA he is certainly the lawyer who would logically have supervised the over-all strategy of the AJC's suit against Conde McGinley, using Rabbi Prinz as a legal front.

We now understand why Robison, identified Communist Party member, did not openly participate in the Prinz trial. Prinz' AJC associate, Robison, had to be kept out of sight.

Fuchs also identified a Leah Robison as a Communist Party member. Presumably she is a close relative of Joseph Robison.

Joseph Robison and Phillip Baum have handled brief after brief of the CLSA, an example being the amicus curiae brief in a Texas case, Sweatt vs. Painter.

This particular brief lists Prinz as chairman of the Administrative Committee, Simon Sobeloff as a V.P. and member of the National Advisory Board of the CLSA. It also included Red, Louis Adamic (dec.) and identified Communist Party members D. Angus Cameron, (a notorious Communist) Thomas I. Emerson, and Carey McWilliams. Other notorious Communist-fronters on this board include Hubert Delaney, Abe Fortas, Frank P. Graham, Freda Kirchway, Joseph Lash, Max Lerner, Thurgood Marshall of the NAACP, Michael Straight, etc., etc.

WINDOW DRESSING?

The reader should keep in mind that Rabbi Prinz now has a judgment of $30,000 against Conde McGinley, awarded to him because the jury was not permitted to see all of the real and most convincing evidence. Rabbi Prinz at the time was active V. P. of the American Jewish Congress, V. P. of the World Jewish Congress and President of the N. J. American Jewish Congress. It was at the invitation of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise that Rabbi Prinz came to this country, by his own testimony, and while in Germany he edited a political paper with Dr. Max Nussbaum.

The very red records of both Rabbi Wise and Dr. Nussbaum, have been covered in previous issues of Common Sense, yet Rabbi Prinz stated under oath that the reason he was expelled from Germany was for "defending Jesus Christ from the pulpit."

On the second day of the trial, a certain party in the court room struck up a conversation with Benjamin Freedman, a total stranger to him and stated: "We got this S. O. B. (meaning McGinley) in the bag." In other words, was the trial just window dressing?

Now read this clipping from the Newark News, three months after the trial. We can not at this time tell you ALL WE KNOW, but anyone should be able to put this jig-saw puzzle together.

John J. Ewart Becomes Ocean County's Second Full-Time Judge

Special to Newark News.

TOMS RIVER—John J. Ewart, a 60-year-old Toms River lawyer, yesterday was sworn to a five-year term as Ocean County's second judge, with his brother, Superior Court Judge Howard Ewart, officiating.

Ewart, a Democrat, was praised for his ability and character by members of the judiciary and the bar in an hour-long ceremony in the main courtroom. Superior Court Judge Frederick W. Hall, assignment judge, said it was probably the first time in New Jersey history that a judge was sworn by a brother who was a judge.

Ewart, who will receive $16,000 annually, resigned this week from the Dover Township Committee, a position he had held for more than 12 years. He was born on a farm near Hightstown, Sept. 29, 1894, and was educated at Princeton University.

On the bench for the ceremony were the Ewart brothers, Hall and County Judge Albert S. Larabee. More than 100 persons attended, including Thomas A. Mathis, veteran county GOP boss and his son, State Sen. W. Steelman Mathis, who confirmed Ewart's selection by Gov. Meyner. It is the first time in the 105-year history of the county that ocean has had two full-time judges. The new appointment was made because of the growth of the county and the increase in litigation.

Former county judges attending were Harry E. Newman of Lakewood, Maja Leon Berry, Russell G. Conover and Percy Camp, all of Toms River. Henry Wiley, president of the Ocean County Lawyers Club, and Robert F. Novins, president of the County Bar Assn., congratulated the new judge for their groups.

We have given you a series of five issues dealing with the American Jewish Congress, the most aggressive, Anti-Christian Zionist group and Rabbi Prinz. Now we ask you: if a thing walks like a duck, quacks like a duck, looks like a duck and associates with ducks—isn't it reasonable to assume it is a duck? Those readers who would like a reference file of the American Jewish Congress and the activities of Rabbi Prinz, may purchase this set of five issues for 25¢.

After reading this series, if anyone even so much as thinks Rabbi Prinz and the A. J. C. are red, they are nothing but anti-Semites, Fascists, bigots, hatemongers, rabble-rousers, anti-Negro, anti-Catholic, anti-Protestant, and anti-Jewish, in fact, anti the whole human race!!!

COMMUNIST-SOCIALIST PROPAGANDA IN AMERICAN SCHOOLS

Drift Toward World Govt.

layers of government on top of them. It is time the American people looked clearly at the new governmental machinery which has grown up above and around our Constitutional system.

NATO Is a Little United Nations

Let us look for example at our European defense system or NATO. I am not going to talk about NATO's accomplishments in organizing military defense for the West. General Gruenther recently admitted that we still do not have enough military power in Western Europe to hold back a Soviet attack, though England, France, Germany and the other nations of Western Europe raised millions of fighting forces, in World War I, and again in World War II.

I have never believed in the concept of regional defense. The Soviet forces are disposed by one grand strategy. Why should we divide our forces? It is folly. I have never believed the Soviet leaders intended to attack Europe. They have won most of Asia without large-scale war. They do not want to take over a Western Europe reduced to ruins by bombing. I even question whether we have not lost more, militarily, by allying ourselves with the colonial nations of Europe than we gained by NATO's armed forces. When five divisions of NATO troops appear in French Africa, to fight against Arabs who are asking for liberty, we lose military strength from Morocco to Pakistan. How much have the Communists gained in Asia, because we are allied with the European colonial powers? For all the billions we have spent on NATO, I see no proof that we are militarily stronger than we were seven or eight years ago.

But NATO is also political machinery. How much is it a threat to liberty here at home?

The Two Faces of the United Nations

You are gradually beginning to see that the United Nations government has two faces. The benevolent face is sometimes called the "Town-Meeting of the World." There, we are told, the nations of the world sit down together, and their spokesmen get ulcers instead of starting wars. The other face of the United Nations is the world sovereignty which is being put together by bits and pieces, through the U.N. Secretariat, the international civil service, the various councils, the affiliated agencies, and the voluntary agencies which revolve as satellites about the U.N. sun.

You are gradually learning by what skillful moves we are being led to accept U.N. policies instead of American policies on foreign affairs, finance, education, medical care, labor and social welfare. You are beginning to see how deeply we have enmeshed our foreign relations, our economy, our political system, our schools, even our churches, with policies made somewhere far above the American government. You know how decisions made high up in the firmament may, by treaty or executive agreement, bind our Supreme Court judges in deciding a case about a private cemetery in Iowa. We face the threat that treaties planned somewhere above our own government may put an end to the rights guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. We have already deprived our servicemen in foreign countries of their Constitutional protection against arbitrary imprisonment.

We are just beginning to realize that the U. N. constitutes a threat to our Constitution and our liberties at home, as great as its threat to our independence as a nation in foreign affairs.

The Two Faces of NATO

Do you know the governing machinery set up in NATO? and how it fits, or supercedes, our Constitution?

You will understand what is happening if you remember that NATO is a small U.N. set up to do everything U.N. does, but for one region only. Like U.N., NATO has two faces. Its familiar face is represented by the military commanders of the western nations, under the chairmanship of American Generals, like Eisenhower or Ridgeway or Gruenther, sitting down to plan a joint strategy for defense of the West. The second face of NATO is like the U.N.'s super-government. Its task is to help manufacture the "parts" of a world government, and condition the member nations quietly to give up their familiar independence and their unique political ideals. Thus the governmental machinery of the super-state grows stronger and stronger.

The United Nations is a cover-up for spies. Let's get the U. S. out of the U. N. and the U. N. out of the U. S.

NATO is much more than a military alliance. Lord Ismay, the Secretary General, says, the Treaty makes it crystal clear "that the member countries believe they belong to a community of nations within which co-operation should be developed, not for defense, but in all fields." We now have political, economic, welfare and propaganda organs in NATO, above our government and our Constitution. This super-government operates far above the Supreme Commander, who, for show purposes, is an American. It operates far above the American fighting men in Europe whom President Truman made part of NATO's "integrated military forces." You were told at the time that the Supreme Commander wore two hats, one for European forces, one for American, but did you know both hats were under NATO? But such a political community, with governmental organs, is a sovereignty, a super-national sovereignty.

NATO has a permanent executive and an international staff. It has a legislative body. But they do not represent you or me. They represent our executive branch only. Your State Department chooses people who speak for foreign policy in NATO. They report to the State Department. The defense Department and the Treasury choose some, but do not forget the State Department empire rules our spokesmen overseas. If you and I do not like our foreign policies, we the people, may vote one party out of office and another party in, but the vast machinery of NATO is in fact changed not at all.

We can not even find out what is going on. A five year report on NATO was compiled in Nov. 1954. When a few days ago, I asked for later information, I was told it was classified. That means—for executive agencies only.

NATO government agencies "recommend" the proper expenditures for western defense, and the share of each member nation therein. They recommend policies on taxes, inflation, arms production, and economics. What the recommendations are, we in Congress do not know. They are classified.

That is not all. The NATO super government is very much interested in labor, especially the movement of immigrants from country to country. It has recommended that governments "facilitate labor mobility between their countries." It praised President Eisenhower and the Congress for admitting 209,000 immigrants in addition to quotas, as a means of strengthening the Atlantic Community. The One Worlders believe nations have no right to decide who may be admitted or denied admittance to their country.

NATO is concerned with rules granting work permits to foreigners. It is interested in uniform social security for member countries.

NATO has a special consultant studying the best way for NATO to encourage "cultural cooperation" between countries. In the old days, Americans carried on cultural cooperation by buying a steamship ticket to Europe when they had enough money, or reading magazines like National Geographic, if they did not have much money. But in this epoch of cultural spoon-feeding, we must have a horde of international agencies working for "cultural cooperation." Then we have a committee of NATO set up to find how NATO can get in the act by finding if there are any gaps in this supervision—and filling them!

NATO is making surveys to find out if you are interested in NATO, and if not, why not. It has its film programs, its tours for journalists, its Caravan of Peace, its NATO "newsletter" and its NATO "West Point" for training and indoctrination of the armed forces.

Politically NATO shows the means by which the One World super-state is being "assembled" from above through the U.N. and horizontally in NATO, SEATO, and the Organization of American States, which has replaced the Pan American Union and put the Monroe Doctrine firmly under the United Nations.

I do not say for a moment that the Generals and Admirals who are assigned to NATO take a part in this carefully planned campaign to make us part of One World government by regional compacts. Quite the contrary. They are probably kept so busy they have no time to learn about it.

But some people—probably only a few people—in our government do know about it, because they planned it that way.

Only Congress Can Stop World Government

Do you seriously believe that, if another Korean war broke out, we the people, or the people's representatives in Congress, would be allowed by NATO or SEATO or U.N. to decide on a truly American policy to protect ourselves?

Let me ask you this. Do you like world government? Do you wish to lose forever the power of the American people and their Congress to choose our destiny as a nation?

Do you like this governmental superstructure above your Constitution, above your Congress, your President, and your courts, controlling your fighting men, your economic life, your immigration, and your cultural cooperation with other nations, through thousands of agreements we never see? Do you really want global social welfare programs in place of the American Bill of Rights?

The People Must Fight For a Nationalist Congress

If you don't like this drift to world government, just remember one thing. You will have to stop. It will not stop of itself. You will have to do something.

First let me tell you how not to end World Government. In 1954, out of 100 million eligible voters, 58 million stayed at home. Probably the great majority of those who stayed home were Constitutionalists. But I say to you that those Americans who stay home on Election Day, because they do not like the nominees, are helping internationalism. They are the best friends the One Worlders have.

What then? You know no President can solve this problem. Every president since 1933 has been the captive of the governmental elite. The Supreme Court will not do anything. The only political power left in

Why Change Names ?

(The cancerous growth of aliases.)

Why does the straightforward, sportsman-like, candid, hardhitting American continue to accept and tolerate—or in fact allow, the continued use of aliases instead of people's square names?

Only in the most justifiable cases of difficulty of pronunciation should people be allowed to change their names. To trade, own property, hold official positions in our government and armed services, meet people socially, marry, contract, or exercise all the ordinary acts and functions of a free and civilized society, they should use the names of their birth and official registry at birth.

For what honest purpose is a deceptive name assumed and acted under? Isn't a fraudulent name as deceitful and dishonest as a deceptive credit rating or a fraudulent bank statement, or willful misinformation on a pertinent fact in a business deal?

Isn't a deceptive name primarily designed to hide or conceal something, either about the person employing it, or their record, origin, or background? Isn't it employed willfully with the design to make the person appear what he is not?

Is there basically any difference in ethics or dishonesty, between a person moving about among his fellow men, under a false name, and a ship sailing under false colors; or a soldier wearing civilian clothes behind the enemy lines at time of war?

Why this increasing wholesale change of names? Who is doing it? For what reason? Do we as a nation and a citizenry benefit by its continuance and its growth?

We never hear of a McNulty, a MacPherson, an Archbald, a La Prade, a Hohenloe, a Giovanni, a Hernandez, or a Ben Ali Hamud ever changing their names—or for that matter, a Matsui, a Chib Lee, or a Romulo. And what's so hard to pronounce about Cohen, Ginsberg or Levy?

RABBI VERIFIES TALMUD

Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer in the article "WHAT IS A JEW" in Look Magazine issue dated June 17th, 1952, stated the following:

The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of the ancient Rabbis. It is the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law and it is the textbook used in the training of Rabbis.

"The TORAH and the TALMUD are the root of the spiritual development of JUDAISM."

The TALMUD is for the Jew the leader of his daily life. The TALMUD thus contains a mighty power of supporting the people of Israel. The TALMUD is essential for the existence of JUDAISM."

B'nai B'rith Messenger, Los Angeles, California. May 3, 1940.

100 RED SCHOOLS DISCOVERED

Newspapers of March 2, 1956 announce an amazing disclosure that there are operating in the U. S. 100 Communist schools for children. These were set up by the Communist-front, International Workers Order Inc., which has been disbanded by the government. The government filed in the Philadelphia District court a series of actions to seize assets of the schools and so-called cultural clubs. Similar suits were filed in New York, Newark, N. J., and Connecticut. These court papers claim that some of the schools were operated, guided and supervised by the Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order of the I. W. O., Inc.

Common Sense has confidential documents of the American Jewish Congress, showing that Rabbi Prinz, while Chairman of the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Congress, on Oct. 28, 1938, in the Hotel Pennsylvania, presided over a meeting at which Albert Kahn, Communist, and publisher of Harvey Matusow's Communist book, offered a resolution as a representative of a National Affiliate to the Executive Committee of the JEWISH PEOPLES FRATERNAL ORDER.

Drift Toward World Govt.

this country which could stop the drift to world government is the Congress.

The reason is simple. You, the people, can get any kind of a Congress you decide to work for.

If you do nothing, Congress will become increasingly a rubber-stamp for one world-ism. If you want an American Congress, you can get it.

You will have to tell your political leaders in both parties to nominate, for Congress, only those who will put America first. They will pay attention to you, if they think you mean business.

Don't tell me you don't know who your political leaders are. Find out. If you pay no attention to them, why should they pay attention to you?

Political party leaders, by controlling nominations, have power over who will draft your sons, how much of your money will be squandered by the welfare state, whether your country is going to remain free. The left-wingers, the Communists and the One-Worlders, know who are the party leaders. How much time is it worth to you to find out who they are?

Tell some one in your party you want no one nominated for Congress who does not put America first. Tell them internationalism, globalism, and one world-ism must go. Tell them you, the people, are going to stand watch, every day of the year, to make sure they put none but Constitution-ists on guard in Congress.

If you do your part, the Star-Spangled Banner, instead of waving over a province in a One World Government, will once again proudly wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave.

The most revealing book on the Talmud is THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY by Elizabeth Dilling, in two parts. Every student of Communism should have these books, worth ten times the price.

On September 26, 1949, Mr. Gill wrote again to Mr. McGinley, and excerpts of this letter follow:

Mr. Berla called again today and made a second visit. When you and I talked after I received the demand, I never dreamed I'd run out on any situation like this without some fight. However, after discussing this situation with the family, we have no alternative but to retire as your printer.

FIVE CENTS

NAACP Leaders And Their Communist-Front Citations!

Since the Supreme Court Decision on segregation has focused attention on the NAACP, and they have been exposed time and again as a Communist-front, at each important public meeting they cleverly state they must be careful to screen out any Communist influence. Then, why not start with themselves? All the important officers in the NAACP we know of, have been tied up with Communism for years. When the Communists are put in a corner they take the "Fifth Amendment" or "don't remember" or like Alger Hiss, in an effort to deceive the public, sued Whittaker Chambers for calling him a Communist. Major Jordan's Diary shows conclusive evidence that Sen. Herbert Lehman is a powerful man in the world Communist movement and certainly he is the most powerful man behind the NAACP.

The Marxist-controlled NAACP agitators hand-pick Negroes to force into schools of the South as an opening wedge to break down segregation. The Autherine Lucy case was an outstanding example of this type agitation, and anyone who has studied the NAACP and its questionable leaders should see right through their scheme. The master-minds in New York are directing this attack on segregation, fully realizing it is going to bring trouble between White and Black—that is why it is brought about. Few people realize this is only part of the plan to condition our country for Communism.

Part of the globe in which half the population of the world exists, has already been broken down and Marxist rule set up. All kinds of deception was used to bring this about, camouflaged with high-sounding purposes. Now these master-minds are bringing pressure on Washington to send troops into the South. Are they trying to bring about a revolution to coincide with the outbreak of war in the Middle-East, when our sons will be called on to shed their blood in Palestine to again protect the Jews. Jews of the South may join the Citizen's Councils, but every Jewish organization and publication is backing the fight against segregation. If Jewish influence were withdrawn from the de-segregation movement, it would die a sudden death.

Careful research has been done on the NAACP and the activities of each of its prominent leaders and this publication brings out the facts, regardless of where the chips may fall. With this information, it is hoped the subject of integration will be approached with a better knowledge of who controls the NAACP and the purposes behind it, and indirectly the Supreme Court.

A Negro Deplores The Segregation Decision

Miss Hurston is a distinguished novelist and playwright, graduate of Barnard College. The following comments by Zora Neale Hurston, noted Negro author, appeared in a letter which she wrote to the Sentinel, of Orlando Florida.

I PROMISED GOD and some other responsible characters, including a bench of bishops, that I was not going to part my lips concerning the United States Supreme Court decision on ending segregation in the public schools of the South. But since a lot of time has passed and no one seems to touch on what to me appears to be the most important point in the hassle, I break my silence just this once. Consider me as just thinking out loud.

The whole matter revolves around the self-respect of my people. How much satisfaction can I get from a court order for somebody to associate with me who does not wish to be near them? The American Indian has never been spoken of as a minority and chiefly because there is no whine in the Indian. Certainly he fought, and valiantly for his lands, and rightfully so, but it is inconceivable of an Indian to seek forcible association with anyone. His well-known pride and self-respect would save him from that. I take the Indian position.

NOW A GREAT CLAMOR will arise in certain quarters, that I seek to deny the Negro children of the South their rights, and therefore I am one of those "handkerchief-head niggers" who bow low before the white man and sell out my own people, out of cowardice. However, an analytical glance will show that is not the case.

If there are not adequate Negro schools in Florida, and there is some residual, some inherent and unchangeable quality in white schools, impossible to duplicate anywhere else, then I am the first to insist that Negro children of Florida be allowed to share this boon. But if there are adequate Negro schools, and prepared instructors and instructions, then there is nothing different except the presence of white people.

For this reason, I regard the ruling of the United States Supreme Court as insulting, rather than honoring my race. Since the days of the never-to-be-sufficiently-deplored Reconstruction, there has been current the belief that there is no greater delight to Negroes than physical association with whites. The doctrine of the white mare. Those familiar with the habits of mules are aware that any mule, if not restrained, will automatically follow a white mare. Dishonest mule-traders made money out of this knowledge in the old days.

LEAD A WHITE MARE along a country road and slyly open the gate and the mules in the lot would run out and follow this mare. This ruling being conceived and brought forth in a sly political medium with eyes on '56, and brought forth in the same spirit and for the same purpose, it is clear that they have taken the old notion to heart and acted upon it. It is a cunning opening of the barnyard gate with the white mare ambling past. We are expected to hasten pell-mell after her.

It is most astonishing that this should be tried just when the nation is exerting itself, to shake off the evils of Communist penetration. It is to be recalled that Moscow, being made aware of this folk belief, made it the main plank in their campaign to win the American Negro from the 1920's on. It was the come-on stuff. Join the party and get yourself a white wife or husband. To supply the expected demand, the party had scraped up this-and-that off of park benches and skid rows, and held them in stock for us. The highest types of Negroes were held to be just panting to get hold of one of these objects. Seeing how flat that program fell, it is astonishing that it would be so soon revived. Politics does indeed make strange bedfellows.

BUT THE SOUTH had better beware in another direction. While it is being frantic over the segregation ruling, it had better keep its eyes open for more important things. One instance of government by fiat has been rained down its throat. It is possible that the end of segregation is not here and never meant to be here at present, but the attention of the South directed on what was calculated to keep us busy, while more ominous things were brought to pass. The stubborn South and the Midwest, kept this nation from being dragged farther to the left than it was during the New Deal.

But what if it is contemplated to do away with the two-party system and arrive at government by administrative decree? No questions allowed and no information given out from the administrative department? We could get more rulings on the same subject and more far-reaching any day. It pays to weigh every saying and action, however trivial, as indicating a trend.

In the ruling on segregation, the unsuspecting nation might have witnessed a trial balloon. A relatively safe one, since it is sectional and on a matter not likely to arouse other sections of the nation to the support of the South. If it goes off fairly well, a precedent has been established. Government by fiat can replace the Constitution. You don't have to credit me with too much intelligence and penetration, just so you watch carefully and think.

MEANWHILE, PERSONALLY, I am not delighted. I am not persuaded and elevated by the white mare technique. Negro schools in the State are in very good shape and on the improve. We are fortunate in having Dr. D. E. Williams as head and driving force of Negro instruction. Dr. Williams is relentless in his drive to improve both physical equipment and teacher quality. He has accomplished wonders in the 20 years past and it is to be expected that he will double that in the future.

It is well known that I have no sympathy nor respect for the "tragedy of color" school of thought among us, whose fountain-head is the pressure group concerned in this court ruling. I can see no tragedy in being too dark to be invited to a white school social affair. The Supreme Court would have pleased me more if they had concerned themselves about enforcing the compulsory education provisions for Negroes in the South, as is done for white children. The next 10 years would be better spent in appointing truant officers and looking after conditions in the homes from which the children come. Use to the limit what we already have.

Them's my sentiments and I am sticking by them. Growth from within. Ethical and cultural desegregation. It is a contradiction in terms to scream race pride and equality, while at the same time spurning Negro teachers and self-association. That old white mare business can go racking on down the road for all I care.

All Quiet On The Emmett Till Front

The LIFE MAGAZINE, issue October 3rd, 1955 wept tears over Emmett Till as an innocent son of World War I soldier, Louis Till, who gave his life in defense of his Country.

This young Negro, Emmett Till, came down to Mississippi from Chicago, threw his arms around a young married woman and made indecent proposals. He forgot he was not in Chicago and after having been given a number of chances to repent by the husband and brother-in-law of the insulted young wife, it is believed that Till was killed.

When Senator James O. Eastland produced the Army records of Emmett Till's father, Louis, it showed that he did not give his life for his Country. He was hung in Italy for kidnapping three Italian girls, Miss Zenchi, Miss Lucretzia and Miss Mari. He choked Miss Zenchi to death with his bare hands after repeatedly raping all three.

This occurred in Civitavecchia, Italy, June 27, 1944.

Congratulations To Virginia

"The people of Virginia are in revolt against the Constitution of the United States." So declaim supporters of the celebrated Segregation Decision.

The number of those who cannot read is exceeded by the number of those who can read, but refuse to do so. Some of these are sincerely devoted to the Fifth Amendment, but refuse to read the highly important Tenth Amendment:

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

This is plain enough, and the action of the voters of Virginia is just as clear. By a vote of approximately two to one, the sovereign citizens of one of the original Thirteen Colonies, a State known as the mother of Presidents, took the first step looking toward "return of the Constitution to the people."

Persons able and willing to read, know that the Constitution was drafted, enacted and put into effect, by "We, the People." In recent decades a packed Supreme Court has seized the Constitution, taking it away from the people, and pretending that it says what it does not say, never was intended to say.

The people of Virginia can read. They read the Constitution, read it carefully. Nowhere could they find any language which gives power and authority to the federal government to take over supervision of the public schools.

The Virginians concluded, quite rationally, that since the Constitution does not give authority over the schools to the federal government, conduct of their schools must belong to them, despite the ruling of the Supreme Court.

In its decision in the matter of segregation in the schools, the Supreme Court ad-

Thank God that most good Negro people see through him and the false NAACP. This phony prayer deal was a complete flop.

Dr. Ralph Bunche

This report intends to prove, without a shadow of a doubt, that Dr. Ralph Bunche for a number of years had expressed himself in writings, speeches, and organizational activity in a manner which paralleled the communist line in its major aspects. Further evidence is hereby presented to prove his expressions were of such a nature that they could only have been arrived at as a result of his going through a thorough indoctrination in communist methods and techniques. It will also be shown that his affiliations and activities were such as to fill the requirements necessary for a top level operative for the Kremlin apparatus.

It also presents authentic documentation to substantiate the following summation of Dr. Bunche's record of activities paralleling the communist line throughout the years which is so consistent that it seems impossible to interpret it as accidental:—

1. Travels in Africa, which coincided with the Kremlin's planting of agents in that part of the world, in order to lay the basis for racial explosions of the future. Bunche wrote from there (Journal of Negro Education) denouncing "Imperialist Capitalism" and advocated the elimination of the current social order in the mother countries. The fruits of the Kremlin infiltration in Africa can be seen today in the bloody Mau-Mau

2. Wrote a pamphlet which advocated a communistic program in respect to the Negro question and advocated class war throughout the world asking the non-white peoples to look to the Soviet Union for inspiration and leadership. (1936)

3. Wrote a clearly communistic line in respect to education. He voiced the red line that "American education" is "goose step education". And that "Capitalism own the colleges and universities by right of purchase". Bunche denounced "red riders", and "oath clauses". He complained that "in America...."we are living in an economy of capitalism and our educational system consistently harmonizes with the dominant capitalistic pattern". (1936)

4. Bunche was praised in the official theoretical red organ, THE COMMUNIST, published for upper echelon communists and supporters. One of the top communists, A. W. Berry, praised Bunche for "approaching the Marxist viewpoint" and "that Bunche realized the significance of the class struggle". Berry then described Bunche as an "active friend and supporter" of the working class, which in the communist aesopian manner means a friend of the Soviets, since they claim exclusive franchise as representing the "working class". (1937)

5. Contributed an article to the RACE MAGAZINE whereby he repeated the "class" position on the race question and considered those who called the National Negro Congress as "dominated by reds" and as "biased individuals". This magazine in its opening issue prominently announced that they are working for "a social upheaval which will plow up our institutions to their very roots and substitute a socialist order for the present capitalist imperialist order". (1936)

Actually the evidence of communistic writings and communistic organizational activity by Ralph Bunche is greater overall than the combined evidence that government agencies had when they first began to get interested in red activities of Alger Hiss, Remington, Harry Dexter White and the Rosenbergs. Bunche's communistic utterances and connections are there as a public printed record and it is a great puzzle as to why our Government officials have not taken appropriate action. Instead it seems, that there is an effort to hush up the entire matter.

It is impossible for a person accidentally to coincide in his own personal independent views so as to match the communist line in all of its major features. It is quite possible that one may accidentally coincide in viewpoint with some one part of the communist program, but, in respect to the overall line it is a mathematical impossibility for anyone to independently match the total red line in its various ramifications. Such impossibility is further compounded if the language used is strictly Marxist-Leninist.

This highly accurate report on Ralph Bunche consists of 49 pages and was prepared after careful research by Alliance, Incorporated—Archibald Roosevelt, President. Obviously space will not permit us to publish the entire report which covers excerpts from many writings in Communist publications by Ralph Bunche, who has been maneuvered into high positions by Marxist forces.

mitted that it had deserted the Constitution and all legal precedent and procedure. Instead, it depended upon the maudlinisms of so-called experts in sociology, as authority for pretending that the federal government has power over conduct of public schools, established by the States and local governments within the States, and financed by the tax-payers of the States. When the records of these "sociologists" were examined, it was shown that they are top-notch Communist-liners.

The Virginians are not revolting against the Constitution. They are seeking relief from efforts to deny them the rights which are guaranteed by the Constitution. They are trying to return those protections of the people for the benefit of themselves and the citizens of all the other States. If they do not succeed, all our liberties will be continually in danger.

Lincoln Quoted

In a debate with Stephen Douglas at Charleston, Illinois, September 18, 1858, Abraham Lincoln expressed his views on the racial question.

"I am not nor never have been in favour of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races! I am not nor ever have been in favour of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people. I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races which I believe will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality; and inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the position of the inferior and superior, and I am, as much as any other man, in favour of having the superior position assigned to the white race."

Fluoridation---Is It A Benefit Or Menace To Public Health?

During the progress of our country in the past 30 years, no type of tyranny seems too brazen or fantastic for certain of our federal, state and city legislators. Among these appear the champions of fluoridation, who constantly ignore the guarantees of our Constitution and the rights of the individual citizen to life, liberty and happiness.

Even the most ardent advocates of fluoridation admit that it will benefit no one except children between the ages of 6 and 11. Just how much water can this age group drink? And how much of the taxpayer's money is wasted on the equipment for this rat poison? Wouldn't it be far more sensible for those few who want fluorine to go to the drug store and buy it?

They are determined to force every man, woman and child to drink water mixed with rat poison, a poison called fluorine. This fluoridated water would be used for every purpose; bathing, washing your car, clothes washing, sprinkling the lawn, as well as cooking. As pioneers who are supposedly dedicated to the task of saving the teeth of our children, they fail to tell you of the many other more dangerous aspects of this deadly rat poison...WHY?

The health of an individual depends upon himself as well as his doctor. He advises and treats you as an individual, and not as a herd of cattle. This deadly poison in our drinking water reduces us to the level of cattle who have no choice.

One fluorine expert says there is no danger of drinking fluoridated water, as long as the individual takes no more than seven glasses a day. What if you drink more than seven glasses? Does he guarantee you will not become injured? Also, what of a mother breast feeding an infant? She has been drinking fluorinated water, what effects will that have on the infant?

Do these fluoridation zealots ever tell you there are low spots in your incoming water lines and small quantities of this fluorine accumulate in the low areas becoming very dangerous? Do they tell you that any excess build-up of pressure will force this accumulated fluorine into your drinking fountains and someone will get an "overdose"?

These and many many other questions are unsatisfactorily answered by the "experts."

Above you see an actual photograph of a man placing fluorine in the water supply of some unsuspecting community. Fluorine is such a deadly poison that it would be fatal to come in contact with it. There is a plan to put it in your drinking water, if it is not already there. Are you aware of this? If not, you had better investigate and do something about it immediately.

Promoters Of Fluoridation Very Deceptive!

Promoters of fluoridation made a so-called report on a ten year experiment with fluoridated water in Newburgh, New York, compared with Kingston, New York, where the water was not fluoridated.

This report was made in Oct. 1954, giving the number of pupils in schools in both Cities. This report also led the reader to believe that the Newburgh children aged 6-9 experienced 57% less tooth decay than the children of Kingston.

The reader will get an idea of just how far the Fluoridation promoters will go in deception, by reading the report by Dr. C. T. Betts, of Toledo, Ohio.

"The ten year period of examination for the effects of fluoridated city water is over. Newburgh has 930 decayed teeth and 521 under treatment more than the city of Kingston, New York. 339 more pupils were inspected at Kingston than at Newburgh. The fluoridators of the nation have been announcing the reduction of cavities has been 57% in these pilot cities. The New York report shows children's increase of damaged or destroyed teeth about thirty three and one third per cent over Kingston. Fluoridation should be stopped at once as the most vicious murder program ever known to man."

OPEN LETTER TO PROCTOR & GAMBLE

Mr. Neil H. McElroy, President
Proctor & Gamble Co.
Cincinnati 1, Ohio

Dear Mr. McElroy:

This is in reply to a 3 page March 26th letter from Mr. J.E. Burke of your Public Relations Dept. Enclose address by George Racey Jordan, Major USAF (ret.), executive director of American Coalition (over 100 patriotic societies), made Feb. 17, 1956, at Hotel Statler, Wash. D.C. to Thirtieth Women's Patriotic Conference on National Defense. In view of ignorance admitted by Messrs Holliday and Burke, on subject of "Fluoridation of Water," urge all of you to read Major Jordan's expose.

Answering Mr. Burke's letter. Again, you accept so-called statistics from those guilty of misrepresentation. As Major Jordan proves, whole basis for so-called comparisons between children's dental conditions at Newburgh and Kingston, N.Y. is on a foundation of sand. True, the first few years of contact by fluorine with enamel produces what appears to be a hardened condition. Hence the March 1956 Journal of American Dental Assn. report on 10 years studies, claiming a reduction of 58% in decay at Newburgh, (fluoridated water) versus Kingston, (not fluoridated), bases that report on children between the ages of 6 and 9.

Dr. Forst's Report is based on condition of all school children's teeth, with 62% at Newburgh having dental troubles, compared with only 42% at un-fluoridated Kingston. That fact is reflected by a number of dentists found in those two cities. What can be expected after 20 or 30 years or more of consuming fluoridated water, is illustrated by survey of University of Arizona at St. David, of all persons teeth there. Water contains naturally only 9/10th of one part per million, (contrasted with allegedly safe concentration of one to one and one half ppm. of sodium fluoride, which is 80 times more toxic than calcium fluoride at St. David, found naturally in many communities thru-out U.S.A.) Yet, from age 24 onwards, 50% of St. Davidians wear plates!

Mr. Burke says you conducted no water fluoridation experiments at Cincinnati, but the voters of your city learned enough about the false claims being made by the promoters of fluoridation, to vote it out! Since your city fathers had wasted about $30,000 to try to foist fluoridation upon your fellow citizens, and your Company and its personnel as big taxpayers living in Cincinnati must have been aware of at least some of the facts, I am surprised at your willingness to accept at face value the so-called scientific data submitted by those with an axe to grind.

Consult Report of the House Congressional Committee of 1952, which, incidentally, after hearing the best that the administration officials and scientists could offer, warned communities to go slow about fluoridating water supplies, because, said "authorities" (?) left unanswered so many questions affecting health not only of children but of

The Fallacy Of Fluoridation

By Rev. William C. McGrath, SFM, PA

Reprinted with permission from The Scarborough Mission, Toronto, Canada, April 1956.

1. The Claims of its Proponents are Faulty

The fluoridation cause was given great impetus through circulation of a story that in Deaf Smith County, Texas there was "a town without a toothache" where dental decay among children was virtually unknown. We did not hear much about the fact that Sodium Fluoride, the poisonous commercial waste product injected into water supplies, is 85 times as toxic as the Calcium Fluoride found naturally in the water of this and other towns (Indus. and Engineering Chemistry, July '34, p. 791) nor about the statement of Dr. G.W. Heard, one-time lone dentist of this wonder town, to the effect that he had been widely misquoted. There are now three dentists—working overtime—in "the town without a toothache" and some wag has suggested that it will soon be "a town without a tooth." (Capsule News, Wash., D.C., Feb. 4, '56.) One ppm (part per million) is supposedly the safe dosage, yet Dr. Waldbott, FACP, FACA, FAAA of Detroit, states that "according to dental research authorities, mottling of the tooth occurs at 0.7 ppm, and a mottled tooth is a poisoned tooth. Therefore, how can the concentration of 1 ppm be called 'safe'?"

2. It is Causing and Aggravating Disease, Especially in Adults

1. "Sodium Fluoride is a general protoplasmic poison." 2. "It is toxic to nerves." 3. "Damaging to the brain and nerve cells." 4. "Creates a high incidence of bone fractures." 5. "Affects the thyroid gland and damages the liver." (Taken from 59 similar quotations from physicians, dentists and scientists, 83rd Congress Hearings on H. R. 2341, "A bill to protect the public health from the dangers of fluorination of water." May 25 to 27, 1954, pages 232-233.) (Names in the public record.) ... "Considering the infinitesimal amount of Fluoride added to drinking water and its reaction upon tooth enamel, the hardest structure of the human anatomy, we wonder what must be its reaction upon the less dense structures of the body." (N.Y. Dentist who requests anonymity.) ... "A most disconcerting fact is the death of a young Texan soldier from drinking Fluoride-containing water as reported by Drs. Linsman and Murray. It is interesting to observe how this established fact is being side-stepped." (Nat. Fluoridation News, 2930 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, June, '55.) ... "Another well substantiated case, severe brain damage, convulsions from drinking Saginaw water. STOP. Thorough investigation including exploratory brain surgery. STOP. Patient continued to eliminate 4 mgs. daily of retained fluorine two months after fluoridation discontinued." (Telegram to the American Medical Ass'n. from Dr. Waldbott Jan. 10, '55.) ... "In June, 1953, Mrs. F. Zwerling came to my office with a very distressing dermatitis of the whole body, a badly cracked and swollen tongue, painfully inflamed inner cheeks and deep cracks at either corner of the mouth. When remedies prescribed failed to relieve, she discontinued drinking the city water and in a few days the mouth conditions were healed. The natural conclusion was that perhaps discontinuing bathing in the city water might relieve the general dermatitis. This proved to be true. You can imagine the plight of this woman as she is deprived entirely of the city water." (Letter of Dr. A. R. Gould, 291 Geary St., San Francisco, to City Water Dept. May 5, '53.)

I do not have to "imagine the plight of several families who have written to tell me that they are obliged to buy pure water at an average cost of $250 a year (one woman for a family of 17) because of outbreaks of mouth rash, dermatitis, stiffness of joints, which disappeared completely after changing to pure water and re-appeared when they went back to the fluoridated city supply, "just to make sure."

GRAND RAPIDS...NEWBURGH.

VITAL STATISTICS

The City-County Health Dept. has been allotted $5000 in Federal funds to learn why death rate from major diseases is higher in Grand Rapids than throughout Michigan." (Grand Rapids Herald, July 28, '55.) Grand Rapids was fluoridated in 1945... "LOCAL HEART DEATHS TOP U. S." (Heading in Newburgh News, Jan. 27, '54) The article says: "The heart deaths in Newburgh in the year were equal to a rate of 882 deaths per 100,000 population. This was more than the rate for the nation as a whole, 507 per 100,000." (This was perilously close to double the rate for the entire nation.) Nearly two years later—Dec. 28, 1955—we read in the same paper: "According to the American Heart Association, the United States has the highest death rate from heart attacks and strokes of any country in the world... Data—just released by the Federal Government reveals that in Newburgh, heart disease is the greatest single threat to human life."

The Methods of Compelling Fluoridation are Un-American

"In what I had still considered a free America, the platform of the Seattle District Dental Society was denied to me to speak against fluoridation. We heard speeches for fluoridation at every regular meeting from Dec., 1951 through March, 1952." (A. B. MacWhinnie, D.M.D., Oral Hygiene, Jan., '53.)

"It is a dangerous situation when professional organizations and scientific publications deny the right of expression to any one who holds a view contrary to the one prevailing among the majority." (E. J. Ryan, D.D.S., Editor, Oral Hygiene Dec., '53.) "Truth will out, as even those who maintain the 'Iron Curtain' are discovering. It is to be hoped that a minimum of harm will have been done before the 'Fluorine Curtain' has been torn down and the truth given fully to the profession and the public." (J. E. Waters, D.D.S., Dental Survey, Vol. 29, No. 11, Nov., '53.)

The Fluorine Curtain has been partly torn down. The minutes of a meeting that were "not for distribution" have leaked out. The meeting was held in Washington, D. C. June 6 to 9, '51, attended by Dental Health Officers from 38 States. Here, from the Congressional Hearings, are excerpts from the "instructions" given that distinguished gathering by Dr. Frank Bull of Madison, Wisconsin. 1. "If you can, keep fluoridation from going to a referendum." 2. "We have told the public it works, so we cannot go back." (I doubt if I have ever read a more sinister statement this side of the Iron Curtain.) 3. "When we are having the press in don't have anybody on the program who is going to oppose us." 4. "When they get through adding up the percentages of decay that we can reduce by such methods we end up in a minus. When they take us at our own word they make awful liars out of us." (H. R. 2341, pps. 180 to 182. "Excerpts from original transcript of above meeting" by Mrs. A. Robinson, Seattle.)

Fluoridation is Morally Unjustifiable

(A) "As long as, in the judgment of competent authorities, there is solid reason for fearing that fluoridation may have serious, harmful and widely prevalent long term effects, it would be wrong to impose it on the general population. (Msgr. Thos. J. Riley, The Boston Pilot, Jan. 24, 1953.) Competent authorities, as quoted, have shown not only that fluoridation may have, but does have such effects. Therefore, simply applying the sound theological principle enunciated above, it follows that it is "wrong to impose it on the general population."

(B) "Even if the majority of the citizens want it used they may not impose their will on others by having the public supply of water fluoridated, unless it is morally certain that ultimately fluoridation will be more beneficial to people as a whole than if it were not used." (Rev. Francis J.

Connell, CSSR., STD., LLD., Dean of school of Theology, Catholic University, Washington, D.C. Statement released expressly for this article.)

The only thing certain about fluoridation is that it is forcing many unwilling people to imbibe a cumulative protoplasmic poison. It is far from being morally certain that it will—ever—confer any benefits on anybody. Therefore, again applying the theological principle invoked in this eminent theologian, "they may not impose their will on others." May not, without being guilty of conduct that is morally reprehensible. (Emphasis Author's throughout this article)

Note: (More than 500 cities to date have refused to accept fluoridation and 38 have thrown it out after it had been started. "Fluoridation of New Brunswick water supplies was ruled illegal by the Appeal Division of the New Brunswick Supreme Court today." (Toronto Globe and Mail, Dec. 16, 1955) If you wish to keep posted on the devious ways of the fluoridators, we strongly advise a subscription to National Fluoridation News, 2930 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit 2, Mich. Published six to ten times a year, $3.50 yearly, group subscriptions (5 or more) $1.50 apiece. We also suggest that you send for a copy of the Congressional Hearings story, (H. R. 2341) 124 pages, available at cost (25 cents) from: Lee Foundation, 2023 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

Warns Of Fluoridation Danger

Portland, Maine, Feb. 8, 1956

A top New York City water supply official declared today that "people are bound to get hurt" in cities where water is fluoridated.

Benjamin C. Nesin, director of laboratories for the Department of Water supply, Gas and Electricity, assailed fluoridation in a speech prepared for delivery before the Maine Water Utilities Assn.

* Calling fluoride a "known poisonous substance," Mr. Nesin said flatly:

"There can be no question of the hazards involved in fluoridation, and any idea of maintaining a public health flirtation with it is nothing more than so much macabre pseudo-scientific sophistry."

Mr. Nesin hammered at four major points in his address:

1. Data submitted by those favoring fluoridation, to prove its safety are unreliable and belied by scientific and medical evidence.

2. Claims for fluoridation's role in control of tooth decay are "questionable."

3. Public water supply is neither a "suitable nor efficient vehicle for administering fluoride."

4. Safer, more economical alternate methods are available.

According to Mr. Nesin, it is possible for persons living in an area with water supply fluoridated at the recommended level of 1 ppm, to acquire chronic fluorosis, a fluoride poisoning which is essentially fatal. He pointed out that water intake of individuals may vary as much as 20 to 1.

"When water is fluoridated, a penalty is imposed on the above average water drinker," Mr. Nesin said.

He accused pro-fluoridation forces of failing to recognize pathological symptoms in persons covered by their statistical studies of fluoridated areas and warned that the danger of tooth mottling has been minimized.

"If New York City undertook fluoridation, at least 35,000 cases of fluoride mottling (tooth disfiguration) would arise each year fluoridation would be in effect," he said.

adults. You will find that Dr. A.L. Miller, formerly representing U.S. Public Health Service in Nebraska, (dean of Congressmen from Nebr.) who had been inveigled to sponsor the Bill that fluoridated Washington's water supply, has publicly regretted that action, and testified he had been "misled" by those officials.

Having done research work on the Talmud, I am well aware of the reason why certain products carry the circled "U" (Union of Orthodox Rabbis) or the letter "K" (Kosher). I note that at least six of your Company's well-known products—Tide, Cheer, Oxydol, Dreft, Joy and Spic & Span—all carry the circled "U", indicating that such products have received blessing by Jewish Rabbis and are recommended to your Jewish customers. Yet, despite the tremendous investment you are making in full-page color ads in leading magazines, and in mailing sample tubes of Crest to householders thruout the U.S.A, I fail to find that the Rabbis have blessed Crest. Does this mean that only non-Jews are to run the risk of poisoning, by using Crest?

Under "Directions for using Crest tooth paste", you warn adult users to "be sure to rinse the mouth thoroughly after brushing." This is additional warning to that given parents that "Children under six should not use Crest." Your "Instructions" state: "Consult your dentist about CREST if your local water supply contains fluoride." No qualification, so Mr. Burke is in error when he says that warning "refers also to children under 6 and is aimed specifically at the areas where there is an excessive amount of naturally-occurring fluoride in the water." Many cities (not just a few) have fluoride in their water supplies, so where would your market be to sell CREST, if that "Instructions" were literally followed?

The margin between safety and danger must be mighty slim, when fluoridation (of water supplies) proponents claim there is no danger when drinking water contains up to one and one half parts per million. Yet you must consider that the deadly fluorine poison in Crest is so potent that users must be sure not to get a drop into their stomachs. Also, are you by such instructions trying to avoid lawsuits that might result from harm done to users of Crest?

Dr. Holliday did not explain how the swallowing of Crest would "stain" the outside of tooth enamel. If the little fluoride swallowed after going thru the cleansing processes of the body, then goes into the blood-stream and works its way from the inside of the tooth, thru the enamel to "stain" the outside of the tooth, how in God's Name can anyone, doctor or layman, pretend that applying that same poison directly to the enamel, the gums and the tender surfaces of the mouth can do "good" and not "harm"? No wonder "Instructions" warn "rinse the mouth thoroughly after brushing."

It is well-known that women do most of retail buying. You will find that women have been the deciding factor in the defeat (and/or kicking out) of fluoridation at over 500 cities and towns with over 40,000,000 population. They are learning more and more every day about the TRUTH regarding fluorine in its various disguises. Witness this important Thirtieth Women's Patriotic Conference on National Defense, addressed by Major Jordan on "Fluoridation of Water" on Feb. 17, 1956. This same organization representing many thousands of intelligent patriotic women thruout the U.S.A, passed a Resolution condemning fluoridation last year! Witness the delegation of 50 women representing 35 organizations (such as Chicago and Cook County Federation of Women's Clubs, property improvement, health, patriotic and religious organizations) who, on April 4, 1956, decided to take court action in an attempt to prevent fluoridation of Chicago and its 51 suburb water supplies. Did you know that court actions have stopped fluoridation very recently at Ontario, New Brunswick and Toronto? Did you know that retailers are already returning shipments of CREST because local water supplies contain even a trace of fluoride? Did you know that Doctors are warning their patients against CREST? Do you think for one moment that the women of America will fall for CREST Toothpaste?

Isn't it about time that an investigation be made into the increasingly widespread forcing of fluorides (no anti-dote) into the bloodstreams of the American people? It is acknowledged that fluorine is a cumulative poison in the body, that harms all organs of the body, including making the brain impotent. There is a conspiracy against our Republic, and it is functioning in almost any and every channel you can think of.

I cannot conceive that you would knowingly be a party to, nor allow your great Company to be a vehicle for, a conspiracy against the people of the United States.

Noted Medical Men Petition Governor

The Honorable G. Mennen Williams

Governor of Michigan

Lansing, Michigan

Dear Sir:

Whereas, the addition of flourine to drinking water is being vigorously promoted by the Michigan State Health Department and

Whereas, the evidence presented to physicians and dentists as proof of the benefits is highly contradictory and unconvincing and

Whereas, there is abundant and incontrovertible documentary evidence of harm resulting from fluoridated water and

Whereas, what is being called the "safe" concentration of this cumulative poison is likely to result in considerable damage to a large portion of the population in years to come, because there are vast differences between individuals in tolerance to drugs and

Whereas, fluorine can be administered efficiently and economically to individuals who are convinced of its benefits and

Whereas, no man has the right to force another to partake of a dangerous drug against his will and

Whereas, there are proven cases of poisoning, especially in Highland Park and Saginaw, after only three years of fluoridation,

We, the undersigned, therefore, as members of the recognized national, state, and local societies of our respective professions, physicians and dentists practicing in the State of Michigan, herewith protest against the relentless promotional activities of the Michigan State Health Department, and petition the Governor to call a halt to the persistent promotional effort of the Michigan State Health Department on the local medical, dental and lay groups in the State of Michigan, until such time as they can present incontrovertible proof of its harmlessness to the general membership of our respective societies.

Village Fluoridated Without Knowledge!

The village of Tuckahoe, N. Y. was shocked recently to discover that its water supply has been fluoridated for the past four and one half years.

The N. Y. Times of March 14, 1956, reporting on this, stated: "Mayor Milton A. Gibbons, said investigation showed that 'without the knowledge or consent' of the residents the New Rochelle Water Company had been injecting fluoride into the water since October, 1951."

The Tuckahoe Village Board voted unanimously to file an injunction suit in the Supreme Court against the water company in order to prevent further fluoridation of the water received by the town.

This is a perfect example of the tactics frequently employed by the fluoridators.

Are you sure that your water has not been fluoridated ???

Fluorine--A Deadly Poison ?

(The following quotes were compiled by Mrs. Glenna R. Post, of Grove City, Pa. and prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that many Doctors, Dentists, and Scientists all over the nation are against this deadly rat poison called fluorine being added to our drinking water supply. — Ed.)

Dr. Benjamin Neslin, director of laboratories for the New York City Dept. of Water Supply, quoted in an editorial, "Slow on Fluoridation," in the N. Y. Mirror, April 25, 1955: "Never in the history of water supply has a substance so toxic in nature, with such a high degree of physiological potency, and associated with so much adverse evidence affecting public health, been seriously considered for introduction into the public water supply."

S. L. Zimmerman, D.D.S., Ardmore, Pa., president of the Pennsylvania Pure Water Association, in The Pennsylvania Odd Fellow, Oct. 1955: "Sodium fluoride is a metallic, inorganic, protoplasmic poison, and no human power can change it. Inorganic means that it does not belong in the human body. It is not the lack of fluorine in teeth that causes dental caries. It has been found that there were more dental caries in areas where sodium fluoride was placed in the water (Newburgh, N. Y.) than other areas (Kingston, N. Y.) where there was none. I add the voice of opposition to the increasing clamor of protest against this dastardly plot to poison the city drinking water supply."

Frederick B. Exner, M.D., Seattle, Wash. testifying before the Florida Board of Health: "No physician in his right mind ever gives a patient a potent drug, with such a narrow margin of safety, and says, 'Take as much as you like; you are sure to get the right amount.' Yet that is exactly what we are doing when we put fluoride in the public water supply... You have been promised that it will not harm either your children or you, and that it will make your teeth less apt to decay. Both promises are false. In fact, fluorides, as drugs, have been discarded as being too dangerous when given in effective doses."

George A. Swendiman, D.D.S., Grand Forks, N. D., in "The Argument Against Fluoridating City Water," Oral Hygiene, Sept. 1951: "We know that fluorides are extremely corrosive and are used in etching glass. Fluorides also are used as a highly potent rat poison. Now these uses may sound like splendid qualifications for a regular diet in the view of the dental association, but...I do not crave rat poison, even well diluted. How do I know this poison will not have a cumulative effect? Suppose this diluted rat poison gradually ruins my kidneys and thus sends me to my grave? Will it be any comfort to me if my dental association says, 'He died with perfect teeth'? As an American citizen, I crave to be treated neither as a rat, nor as a guinea pig... Operation Dental caries may prove a success, but Operation Vital Organs may fail."

Charles Eliot Perkins, Wash. D. C., scientist and author, in a letter to the Lee Foundation of Nutritional Research, October 2, 1954: "The REAL purpose behind water fluoridation is NOT to benefit children's teeth. Repeated doses of infinitesimal amounts of fluorine will, in time, gradually reduce the individual's power to resist domination by slowly poisoning and narcotizing certain brain tissue, and make him submissive to the will of those who wish to govern him. I say this with all the earnestness and sincerity of a scientist who has spent nearly twenty years' research into the chemistry, biochemistry, physiology and pathology of fluorine—any person who drinks artificially fluoridated water for a period of one year or more will never again be the same person, mentally or physically."

Major General Howard McC. Snyder, personal physician to the President, in a letter to Mrs. B. E. Doyle, St. Johnsbury, Vt., March 21, 1955, answering her inquiry whether the Eisenhowers drink Washington's fluoridated (without opportunity for a referendum) water: "I keep abreast of the discussions regarding the fluoridation of city water supplies. Until this discussion is settled, I am employing conservative methods in advising the President and Mrs. Eisenhower regarding the water they drink."

Benjamin H. Freedman Sues A.D.L. For $500,000 Damages

New York—Benjamin Freedman has brought suit in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, against the Anti-Defamation League, B'nai B'rith, American Jewish Committee and their officers, based upon libelous statements made in the A. D. L.'s "CROSS CURRENTS" and for conspiracy. Defendants in this suit include Doubleday & Company as publishers, and Bretano's Inc. as distributors of the A. D. L.'s publication "CROSS CURRENTS". Summons and complaint have been served upon these corporations and approximately 30 officers and managing agents of the above corporations. This action was brought by Mr. Freedman in an effort to expose the methods employed by the American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, and the B'nai B'rith, to destroy anyone who attempts to expose the criminal nature of their operations.

The A. D. L. is recognized as the "Jewish Gestapo" by those who are informed on the Marxist technique for obtaining world control. These groups openly boast of more than 2,000 paid full-time agents who spy upon Christians and Christian organizations. The A. D. L. is feared by men in public life. The A. D. L. has a record in their files of the personal lives of thousands of men in public life, whom they blackmail into submission by threats of exposure.

The American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, and the B'nai B'rith Fraternal Order, control the votes of the Jews. This vote is concentrated in five key States and enables this group to control 28% of the electoral votes by which they control the election of the President of the United States. They supply both political parties with a large part of their financial contributions. Since 1932, these groups have always maintained their "spy" in the White House. David Niles (Neyhus) acted in this capacity to F. D. R. and Harry Truman, Maxwell Rabb (Rabinowitz) fills this position at the present time. Rabb has charge of "minority" affairs and is Secretary of the Cabinet, arranging what matters shall be discussed at Cabinet meetings. Rabb thus serves as the "pipe-line" by which information is passed both ways on matters affecting the security of the United States. The principal contacts in the White House are the agents placed there by the A. D. L.

Mr. Freedman is not the only one smeared in "CROSS CURRENTS". The following are a few of the patriots who are also smeared because they dare to challenge the conspirators who are seeking to obtain world control by dominating the government of the United States:

Kenneth Goff, Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, Merwin K. Hart, Conde McGinley, Edgar W. Waybright Sr., Admiral John G. Crommelin U.S.N. (Ret.) Major Robert H. Williams, former Senator Jack B. Tenney, Senator Joseph McCarthy, Verne P. Kaub, W. L. Foster, Lt. General P. A. Del Valle U.S.M.C. (Ret.) Aldrich Blake, Austin F. Hancock, Clarence E. Manion, Robert Donner, Major Geo. Racey Jordan, Robert M. Harris, Grace L. H. Brosseau, Corinne Griffith, Frederick

BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN (Patriot)

G. Cartright, Congressman B. Carroll Reece.

If you have been libeled in "CROSS CURRENTS" as Mr. Freedman has been, maybe you are one of those who, we understand is bringing suit against the A. D. L. and the book stores or newspapers promoting this vicious smear book.

Following we publish excerpts from Mr. Freedman's 20-page complaint.

It is alleged:

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION FOR COMPENSATORY DAMAGES

Upon information and belief that certain of the above named defendants are residents of Westchester County, State of New York, including defendants Barney Balaban, Herbert H. Lehman, Leon Lowenstein, Thomas R. Burns, Kenneth D. McCormick and Ralph Samuel.

That the defendants Arnold Foster and Benjamin R. Epstein wrote and participated in the publication and circulation of a certain book entitled "Cross Currents" (copyrighted by the Anti-defamation League of B'nai B'rith 1956, and printed by Doubleday & Company, Inc.) during the year 1956.

Upon information and belief that defendant Doubleday & Company, Inc. is a New York corporation; that Doubleday & Company, Inc. printed and published the aforesaid book at the request of certain of the other defendants.

Upon information and belief that the aforesaid defendant, Doubleday & Company Inc. demanded and received from certain of the other defendants an indemnity agreement and/or surety bond indemnifying Doubleday & Company, Inc. against any damage sustained by reason of actions brought for alleged libelous matters contained in said book.

Upon information and belief that defendant Brentano's Inc. is a New York corporation; that defendant Brentano's Inc. operates retail stores in the City of New York and elsewhere for the sale of books to the public; and that during the year 1956 defendant Brentano's Inc. participated in the sale and promotion of the aforesaid book to the general public.

That plaintiff herein had for 30 years prior to 1946 engaged in business successfully in the State of New York, and in other states of the United States and in foreign countries, and at all times enjoyed a good reputation, had a good name and good credit, until the defendant The American Jewish Committee and certain other defendants, and others acting on their behalf, instituted a program for persecution of plaintiff solely for the reason plaintiff had expressed in public print his personal views as an American citizen upon the Middle East situation notably the situation created by American Zionist pretensions regarding Palestine; that plaintiff's views differed on that subject from the views of the defendant The American Jewish Committee and certain other defendants; that as a consequence since May 1946 certain of the defendants herein, activated by malice, have wrongfully and maliciously conspired to destroy plaintiff's reputation, good name and earning power in business.

That in said publicity released by certain defendants herein plaintiff was characterized among other things of a like nature as an "anti-Semite", as a "hate-monger", as a "disgrace to his race", as a "traitor to the nation", as a "Benedict Arold", as an "Arab

A Rabbi--Man Of God?

"The Reflex", Jewish Magazine, Nov. 1927, wherein it was stated:

"The modern American Rabbi is a man of the world. He knows and cherishes the power of money, and is adept in matters of finance, mortgages and loans. In the changing currents of American life, he follows with the stream. His sermons are pale exhortations of a soothing Judaism, which demands nothing and obligates no one. The American Jew is not only thoroughly rationalized, but de-theologized as well."

Perlzweig lets the Cat out at Glasgow

The Jew M. Perlzweig, an official of the World Jewish Congress, is reported in the 'Jewish Chronicle' (16th Dec: 1949) to have recently stated in an address at Glasgow: "It was the World Jewish Congress which had secured the holding of the Nuremburg trials at which it had provided expert advice and much valuable evidence: it was the World Jewish Congress that had such lines of Communication throughout the War, extending even into the German Foreign Office, that they received information long before either the British Secret Service or the American Intelligence did." This quotation appears in a letter from a Jew E. L. Mendel who thought it inadvisable for Perlzweig to speak so openly. The speech of Perlzweig was made on 27th Nov. at Langside Halls.

propagandist", as an "unregistered foreign agent", and by other characterizations designed to disgrace, dishonor, degrade, shame, humiliate, impoverish, pauperize and ruin plaintiff; that after the first expression by plaintiff in public print in May 1946 as aforesaid defendant The American Jewish Committee sent its General Counsel, George Minzer by name, to the home of plaintiff to deliver its ultimatum to plaintiff; that George Minzer on that occasion remained at home of plaintiff for four hours threatening plaintiff with "retaliation" by defendant The American Jewish Committee and others unless plaintiff agreed to cease and desist from ever again expressing in public print plaintiff's attitude concerning the pretensions of Zionists with regard to Palestine; that pursuant to defendant The American Jewish Committee's threat of "retaliation" defendant American Jewish Committee secretly circulated large quantities of an anonymous document concerning plaintiff in which statements libelous to plaintiff appeared; that plaintiff thereupon commenced legal action against defendant The American Jewish Committee and its officers; that defendant in said action The American Jewish Committee forthwith retracted certain libelous statements over the signature of its president, the Hon. Joseph M. Proskauer; that plaintiff herein thereupon discontinued said action, details of which are included in the court records in the libel action entitled Benjamin H. Freedman vs. The American Jewish Committee et al. (United States District Court for the Southern District of New York).

That the associated and affiliated organizations, or persons acting on behalf of said certain defendants, invaded the private club rooms of the Rockland County Republican Club in Spring Valley, New York, where the Rockland County Republican Club was about to hold its regular meeting, said invaders, wearing the uniforms of the United States Army with the added insignia of the Jewish War Veterans affixed to their over-seas caps; that said invaders of the private premises of the Rockland County Republican Club were present in large numbers and threatened several hundred members in the clubrooms with force and violence unless they immediately left the premises; that the Chief of Police was unable to prevent the expulsion of said several hundred members from the private club-rooms; that plaintiff was the invited speaker for the occasion; that plaintiff was invited to address the Rockland County Republican Club on the Middle East situation; that said Jewish War Veterans announced they would not allow "anti-Semitism in Rockland County" and pronounced plaintiff an "anti-Semite"; that said Jewish War Veterans threatened plaintiff with force and violence if plaintiff attempted to address the Rockland County Republican Club on that occasion; that the building in which the Rockland County Republican Club meeting was being held was completely surrounded by Jewish War Veterans; that hundreds of members of the Rockland County Republican Club were denied admission to the building with threats of force and violence; that newspapers in the area fully reported this occurrence from accounts by reporters who were present; that the matter was reported to the Department of Justice but no action was ever taken against said invaders for violation of the civil rights of plaintiff, the Rockland County Republican Club and members thereof.

That pursuant to the purpose, policy and program of certain defendants herein for the pitiless persecution of plaintiff as set forth herein, and otherwise, plaintiff has been characterized for a period of 10 years, among other things, a person unworthy of association with others for no reason except plaintiff's expressions in public print enlightening the general public upon historic, scientific and theological facts with direct bearing upon the pretensions of American Zionists concerning Palestine, and its implications upon the security of the United

The Anti-Defamation League... Many Things To Many People

One person asks how it is possible for people to support the ADL? The next cannot understand how it is possible for anyone to see anything bad in the ADL.

To some the ADL is a constructive organization always working to explain and present facts, all that the way of each of us will be made better. They see it as a means of communication that will help people understand each other better, so that people can live and work together in a more friendly manner. The ADL tells these people of nasty attacks being made on people because of their race and religion; how they use posters, cartoons and other media to make people more acceptable to one another; how they need funds to operate and how so many 'big names' support their good work. After all, what kind of people could be in favor of 'defamation' anyway? These people, those who see this part of the ADL are its supporters.

Others know, some know from personal experience, other actions of the ADL. They know how the ADL must dig up, or even create nasty situations in order to raise funds. They know the power of its smear and boycott techniques. They know how this smear has been applied to accomplish various ends, including the destruction or elimination of those who fight Communism, Satanism, Zionism, etc. They know about the ADL's unprincipled policies. They know the hypocrisy with which it uses respectable association as a camouflage.

There are a few others who see the ADL as the all-powerful means by which Jews cannot be considered as individuals on their own merits. The ADL protects the worst in Jewry, behind the accomplishments of the best in Jewry. The ADL even prevents an individual Jew from expressing his opinions about the short comings of fellow Jews. It has often applied its power to stop anyone from talking against any policy, political or other, once a definite position had to be taken by the major Jewish organization.

The facts? Well, like most organizations, it is clear that the ADL does do some valuable and constructive work, even if it is only for public relations purposes. All may be summed up as publicity and educational programs that stress the individuality of Man: "Each person should be taken on his or her own merits"; "Each person is an individual before God". This is scriptural. This is the 'front' that the ADL tries to present to the public (and they have succeeded).

The rest of the facts are not so obvious to the public. The use of defamation, entrapment and blackmail—these are the tools—in-trade of the ADL. The use of goon-squads and undercover snoopers (techniques usually associated by the ADL with anti-semitic dictatorships) are the 'Storm Troopers' who do the dirty work of the ADL. But these are only the minor abuses practiced on fellow Americans—minor in comparison only.

The worst is the "Kiss of Judas" that is given to any Jew who would deviate from the ADL 'line'. Yes, the ADL has convinced most Americans that basically all Jews are alike—that there is no such thing as a desirable Jew or an undesirable Jew. All Jews are defamed whenever anyone points in a derogatory manner to any individual Jew. Good and bad Germans, good and bad Russians, obviously; but good and bad Jews, that is different. Ludicrous you say, of course, but for years most people have accepted it, even if after severe prodding, but they have accepted it.

There are many Jews who realize all of this and not only would they, never contribute to the ADL, but they are active in explaining to their co-religionists the dangers in the ADL activities—but so very powerful and safe from attack is the ADL, that it just slides along bigger and fatter than ever. Even the 'thought control' agencies of the Communists were never as effective as the ADL.

The ADL is self-perpetuating, because as long as it works there will be categorical anti-semitism. As long as there is categorical anti-semitism, most Jews will experience it from time to time. As long as Jews feel anti-semitism, they will support the ADL, ad infinitum.

The Protocols In A Nutshell!

There has recently appeared a private letter of "Karl Marx" (Mordecai), "Israel, Son Passe, Son Avenir" ("Israel, Its Past, Its Future"), revealing this Jew "Father of Socialism's" true aim.

This all-revealing letter was published by the eminent Dutch scholar and historian, H. de Vries de Hockelingen (Paris, 1937), and should be enough to convince all Doubting Thomases that "socialism" is nothing else but the old Jewish scheme for world-power; that it is nothing in itself separate from Jewishness; that it has no intrinsic content or logic or meaning at all beyond the Jewish mind; that it is not the result of, nor a "reflex from" economic conditions; is not the "economic interpretation of history" but is the Jewish plot against Gentile history. (Here follows Marx's letter.)

"In this new organization of humanity" (i.e., "Communism"), writes Karl Marx to Baruch Levi, "the sons of Israel, spread over the surface of the globe, will become everywhere without opposition the directing element, especially if they succeed in imposing upon the working classes the FIRM CONTROL OF SOME AMONGST THEM. The governments of the nations forming this universal republic will all pass without effort into Jewish hands under cover of the Victory of the Proletariat. Private property will then be suppressed by the rulers of the Jewish race, who will everywhere control the public funds. Thus will be realized the promise of the TALMUD, that when the time of the Messiah will arrive the JEWS WILL POSSESS THE GOODS OF THE EARTH."

Read the PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION. Don't take our word for it—read for yourself the secret minutes of the Jews and you will see how this Satanic plot is taking place BEFORE YOUR VERY EYES.

Libel Suits Will Silence Patriots

Rabbi Samuel Horowitz—

The following article printed in The Jewish Spectator of April, 1939, by Rabbi Samuel Horowitz:

"In the days of the 'Dearborn Independent' American Jewry sent forth Aaron Sapiro, who sued the editor for libel, and thereby brought about Ford's apology.

"Since then the world has undergone the 1929 depression, which produced widespread discontent, and witnessed the tremendous development of the power of radio, now at the disposal of anti-Semitic demagogues who thrive on discontent, to wit: Father Coughlin.

"Hence, with the danger of anti-Semitism far greater today, the need for another Sapiro is more urgent.

"One reason for the failure to silence Coughlin is the resigned feeling of helplessness and futility, on the part of Jewish leaders. Their argument is that, as a citizen, Coughlin has the right of free speech. But they fail to see the difference between free speech and libel. Coughlin is a dangerous demagogue and a vicious wolf in sheep's clothing.

"There is no way of keeping him off the radio directly. And we cannot expect his hierarchy to unfrock him, because, as an individual citizen, he has a right to free speech.

"There is only one effective and legal means of SILENCING him—to sue him for libel. Coughlin has libeled the Jews. When a demagogue repeats his slanderous lies and ignores the truth, he is guilty of deliberate libel. Hence, all who have been libeled by him have a perfect right to sue him for libel. Thus BY SUING HIM FOR LIBEL for millions of dollars, ENOUGH TO CAUSE HIS BANKRUPTCY, would prove the most effective means of SILENCING him."

Daily Worker Jew Owned?

The seizure of the Daily Worker, official communist paper in New York, on March 28, 1956, makes the following high lights of interest to those who are sufficiently interested to understand who is behind Communism. On August 28, 1923, Gregory Zinoviev (Radomeselky) Jew, head of the Comintern in the Soviet Union, cabled Charles E. Ruthenberg (Jew), executive secretary of the Worker's Party in Chicago, that the most important task for American workers was to establish a militant Daily. Zinoviev, immediately sent thirty-five thousand dollars to start the DAILY WORKER.

When Internal Revenue men raided the Daily Worker, it developed that Allen Max is Managing Editor, Max Gordon, City Editor, John Gates (Israel Reigenstrief) Editor in Chief.

The Attorneys who represented the Daily Worker, are Harry Sacher, John J. Abt and Newman Levy. All of these, including the Daily Worker's Officers are Jews, and several have just been released from the penitentiary after serving terms, having been convicted of trying to overthrow the United States Government by force and violence.

The Officers released a statement to the effect that during the publication of this Communist paper since 1923, they had used five million dollars and it was agreed between government and Daily Worker attorneys, that the present assets of the Daily Worker was valued at twenty-five hundred dollars. The daily circulation of this paper is now 11,000 and the Sunday circulation is 25,000.

This is not a healthy report as these Jews have used up, in big salaries, five million dollars in contributions, in addition to money received from subscriptions.

The Daily Worker arranged with the government to pay twenty-five hundred dollars and have the levy removed. Grace Hutchins, a non-Jewish woman was the sucker who put up the twenty-five hundred.

The above outlined record is quite a contrast with the record of COMMON SENSE which has been operating on peanuts for ten years, the Editor drawing no salary whatever and now has approximately eight times the readers of the DAILY WORKER.

The Revenue men could not attach the printing press as it belongs to the MORN-ING FREIHEIT, a Yiddish language Communist paper. The Daily Worker and the Jewish Freiheit occupy the same quarters.

Keep This Man In Our Fight!

Conde McGinley will shortly be compelled to cease publication of Common Sense for lack of sufficient funds to continue operations. That is the situation at this moment. It must not be permitted to happen. Generous friends and loyal subscribers will not allow this to take place when they consider the consequences. If Conde McGinley is compelled to cease publication of Common Sense it will prove a serious blow to the chances of victory in the struggle to preserve civilization. It will mark the beginning of the end. It will be a sad day for countless unborn generations.

It is impossible for Common Sense to continue without a little financial support from each of its many loyal friends throughout the nation. This is the hour of decision for Common Sense. But the decision rests entirely with its friends. Furthermore, there is no time for delay. If Conde McGinley is forced to cease publication for the want of a few dollars today, Common Sense will never again be published. That conclusion is based on hard facts.

Common Sense has been published for over ten years as a losing venture. Common Sense was never intended as a money-making enterprise, and would serve no purpose if it were operated to earn a profit. During the past ten years millions of copies of Common Sense were distributed, many to persons who were not subscribers. The cost was enormous, but it has proved its worth. It has educated millions of Christians existing in a fool's paradise.

Conde McGinley supplies subscribers with 24 issues for the $1.00 annual subscription price. Common Sense carries no advertising. These 24 issues cost more than the $1.00 subscription price. That must be obvious to anyone. He realized the necessity of placing Common Sense in the hands of persons who were at the mercy of their real enemies.

Millions of copies were circulated to community leaders throughout the nation in all walks of life. That campaign awakened a sleeping nation to its danger. That campaign must continue without interruption. Common Sense is growing so rapidly with a non-profitable venture that it must be subsidized.

Conde McGinley cannot carry on any longer without a little more financial assistance from generous patriots. The need is more pressing than it is advisable to state here. But a response to this appeal can save the day if it is made at once. If you can only afford to send $1.00 your generosity will mean more than a larger amount sent by another who can afford more. Those who can afford to send more will do so.

CONDE MCGINLEY

Conde McGinley is fighting your fight for you. It is a duty you owe to yourself to finance Common Sense as much as you can. If any friends can afford to send $20.00 or $50.00 or $100 they owe it to themselves as well as to their families to send it.

Conde McGinley retired from business 11 years ago to devote his money and his life to fight the enemies of this nation and our civilization. Every dollar he had in the world he spent educating this nation to its dangers. Conde McGinley has never drawn one cent salary in 10 years. He sleeps in his office, and labors no less than 16 hours every day of the year. The nation should not "turn their back on him" if they are wise.

Every step in publishing Common Sense requires cash, except the services of Conde McGinley. Newsprint must be paid for in cash. Postage is also a cash item.

Twenty-six persons are necessary to keep Common Sense afloat. They operate the press, lineotype machine, folders, insert and address envelopes. Most are part-time voluntary workers. Money is needed to mail free copies to people who need to know the facts the so-called free press dares not print under penalty of losing their advertisers.

With enough help from generous patriots Common Sense can be placed in the hands of every community leader in the United States. Unless they learn the suppressed facts this nation will not long be the "land of the free" though once "land of the brave".

Common Sense has many enemies who wish to stop its publication, and use every vile trick to destroy it. These enemies know the only way they can silence Common Sense is to cut off its source of revenue. Conde McGinley's enemies spread the story I am very rich and I alone supply Common Sense with all the money it needs. That is done to discourage others from contributing to Common Sense. I am neither tremendously wealthy, nor do I subsidize Common Sense with all the funds it requires to make up its deficits. I only regret that I am not now able to do what I was once able to do.

I manage to help Common Sense every week of my life. Some weeks it may be only a few dollars. Some weeks more. But I give every dollar I can spare above my modest living expenses. I do not ask whether it is a "tax deductible" transaction. Common Sense would have passed away long ago if Conde McGinley depended upon the wealthy men who make contributions only to "tax deductible" organizations. Common Sense has been kept in this fight by the modest contributions of the rank-and-file of this nation, with the exception of a few great patriots who have been magnificent friends.

This is not an appeal for charity. This is an appeal to your common sense. Common Sense is fighting your fight for you. Conde McGinley is dedicating his life to the labor of fighting your fight for you. It is to your interest to keep Conde McGinley and Common Sense in this fight. Your conscience and your common sense must tell you that you cannot afford to let this patriotic paper cease publication for so little from so many.

I personally give until it hurts. But it is a nice hurt. Try it and find out for yourself. Obey that impulse. Fold $1.00 or as much as you can afford today into an envelope and put it into the mail before you get into bed tonight. You will sleep better. Do not let the enemies of Common Sense close it up. Do not believe rumors that are circulated for that purpose by your enemies.

There is no man or no cause in the United States today more deserving of your generous financial sacrifice now than Conde McGinley. This nation owes a greater debt to him than millions of dollars can repay. He asks nothing for himself. But he does ask you to back him up. Can we afford to abandon him?

I have paid for this space in order to give this message to you. Send your contribution to the Christian Educational Assn., Union, New Jersey.

Faithfully,

Benjamin H. Freedman

FELIX FRANKFURTER--MOST DANGEROUS MAN EVER TO SIT ON SUPREME COURT!

Sincere Americans old enough to know what the United States was thirty years ago realize that a power which they do not fully understand has taken control of our country and is remaking it to fit the Marxist European pattern. Cunning Marxists, like termites, have reached the most influential spots in our government, National and State. The increasing trend is toward bankruptcy, bloodshed and slavery. Very few feel they are in position or have the courage to speak out and expose the plotters for fear they will be unpopular, or that the enemy will retaliate, causing them to suffer materially.

It is silly to coast along while these Anti-Christian Marxists condition us for concentration camps. The master minds of the invisible government must be exposed. A front page article in the Chicago Tribune of May 29, 1950, identified three men as the Secret Government of the U. S. — Felix Frankfurter, Herbert Lehman, and Henry Morgenthau Jr.

Frankfurter, at a dinner in 1950, in answer to a question, stated "the real rulers of a government are unknown." Here is a man, one of the main incorporators of the A. C. L. U. who for twenty years was one of the most active in this organization which went to courts and defended communists. He now sits on the Supreme Court.

Felix Frankfurter is to the U. S. what Harold Lasky was to England and Lazar Kaganovich is to the Soviet Union. These three king-pin Jews have placed communists in the governments of their respective countries. Lazar Kaganovich trained and placed hundreds of communists in key spots in the Soviet Union including G. M. Malenkov, N. S. Khrushchev, M. A. Bulganin.

While teaching law at Harvard, Frankfurter had as his secretary a known communist, and turned out many students with bright communist minds. Later when he went to Washington under F. D. R., he packed the government with hundreds of communists, many graduates of the Harvard Law School. Some of the bright young men that Frankfurter placed are Alger Hiss, Charles Wyzanski as Federal Judge in Mass. who has lately caused an uproar because of his leniency towards communists and dope peddlers. He placed Attorney General Biddle, Stimpson, as Secretary of War and Knox as Secretary of the Navy. He also placed Dean Acheson as Assistant Secretary of State where Acheson was influential in turning China over to communism. Two other students he took care of were Robert Lovett as Assistant Secretary of War and John J. McCloy as High Commissioner of Germany. A few other proteges were Nathan Witt, Lee Pressman and Jerome Frank.

Pegler, in his column of July 31, 1948, stated: "A man who served with Felix in one of the bureaus in Washington in the first World War told me not long ago that Felix once said to him and some associates that he envisioned a situation in which a small group of influential men, by audacity and initiative, could become the rulers of the United States by ruling the President."

Frankfurter's brother, Otto, is an ex-convict who served a term in a West Virginia penitentiary and a term of six years in the Iowa State Pen. He served these under other names. He was later appointed by Paul G. Hoffman to have charge of the Paris Office of the Economic Cooperation Administration (re-named Marshall Plan) which is still giving away billions of the tax-payers money.

When Alger Hiss sat at the side of the sick and weakened F. D. R., at Yalta, advising him to turn over Poland, East Germany, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, and Manchuria to bloody Stalin, he was under orders of his former teacher, Frankfurter, Justice of the Supreme Court. This job alone may result in the enslavement of the U. S. Just before F. D. R. was elected in 1932, Frankfurter stated that if FDR were elected, the Soviet Union would be recognized by the U. S. Soon after, FDR accepted Maxim Litvinoff's (Finkelstein) promise not to promote communism in the U. S., the Soviet Union was recognized just as it was about to fall apart. Later when Germany was about to conquer the Soviet's and end Communism, Frankfurter, Rabbi Wise, Henry Morgenthau Jr. and many other powerful Jews pressured FDR into bringing war on Germany and again saving Communism.

The following are excerpts from a report compiled by the American Vigilant Intelligence Federation, May 1934.

This is the opening paragraph of a thumb-nail sketch on Felix Frankfurter in the March 1934, number of the "American Magazine", which goes on to say:

"It is said in Washington that you can't go around a corner without running smack into Frankfurter-taught bright young men.

They are the former pupils of the square-jawed, quick-as-a-trigger Doctor of Laws.

"He has been for a long time on very close terms with President Roosevelt. Backed him during his governorship and worked with him during his Presidential campaign. A noted liberal in domestic affairs and referred to as 'slightly left-wing' in the legal school of thought.

"Some time ago he threw himself full-length into the fight for Sacco and Venzetti. Before that, but with equal fiery interest, he helped the cause of Mooney and Billings, in California. He has a prodigious memory and vitality of intellect that amazes his friends.

"At present he is the George Eastman visiting professor at Oxford, England—but it is whispered in high places that his brain is still working for his friend in the White House."

We have thought best to present the career of FELIX FRANKFURTER as it appears in its public biographical aspect, based upon data furnished by himself to the respective publishers. But to really understand his personality and the political and economic activities that he motivates, we must read between the lines, and find the key in his writings and his comradeships and personal associations.

In passing, let us note that his antecedents and cultural background have been largely international and European. His patronym suggests that his immediate ancestry came from the Judengasse in Frankfurt-am-Main, the Ghetto which produced Amschel Mayer, who founded the banking house of Rothschild. Coming as an immigrant boy to N.Y. at the age of 12, he received his education in the N.Y. schools and finished off in the advance high school of that city, in the College of the City of New York.

The period after the Armistice, found him definitely acting the role of internationalist, representing the Zionist organization before the Peace Conference in Paris, 1919, urging the establishment of a home land for the Jews in Palestine, and "minority representation" in all governments signatory to the Versailles treaty.

The reader well may ask, how a man of foreign birth and cultural background, advocating the principle of "extra-territoriality", and committed to the policy of building up an autonomous homeland for his own race, may be an un-prejudiced champion of American national policies. The answer is plain—he just isn't.

Elbowing his way into the inner circles of government, never by election by citizen suffrages, but always by appointment, through some political barter. FRANKFURTER is a symbol of what we should avoid in choosing our American mouthpieces.

The Industrial Defense Asso., Inc., 7 Water St., Boston, Mass., in a bulletin issued in Nov. 1926, lists a few of the subversive activities with which Felix Frankfurter is associated.

The Supreme Court Has To Be Curbed

By

TOM ANDERSON

Reprinted from Farm and Ranch Magazine

In its "Black Monday" decision the Supreme Court was evidently more concerned with world opinion, sociological textbooks and professional agitators than in following the precedents set down by former Supreme Courts and our Founding Fathers. The Court based its decision in part on the testimony of certain "modern authorities on psychology," some of whom are Socialists or Communist sympathizers. Chief Justice Warren, who as governor of California was for socialized medicine, cited as leading source of the Court's findings a book on modern psychology written by a Swedish socialist named Dr. Gunnar Myrdal. In the book, "An American Dilemma," Myrdal freely expresses his contempt for the principles on which the U. S. was founded. Myrdal stated that the Constitution of the U. S. was "impractical and unsuited to modern conditions," and that its adoption was "nearly a plot against the common people." Thus an alien who ridicules the American form of government is cited by the Supreme Court of the U. S. as one of its authorities for its desegregation decision!

During the prohibition monstrosity, millions of Americans voted dry and drank wet. The 18th Amendment failed because it could not be enforced. It couldn't be enforced because a majority of the people didn't really want it enforced. The people voted it in and the people voted it out—a majority of the people in three-fourths of the states. The great majority of the people—including many who piously plead from beneath their halos that all men are created equal—don't practice integration. They just preach it, for others. Many white integration eager-beavers either live in a state where there are a few negroes or are able to buy their own segregation in private schools and clubs and in their cloistered lives.

The People Are Supreme

The Constitution says: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." All rights not specifically granted to the Federal Government are reserved to the states and to the people. And the Constitution doesn't mention education.

Our representative form of government is in danger when either the executive or the judicial branch can re-write the Constitution to suit "the trend of the times" without being checked by the same sovereign states which gave limited power in the first place to the central government. It's up to the Southern States to lead the way in forcing the Supreme Court to again reverse itself. I say again, because less than three years ago the Supreme Court ruled that "separate but equal" was constitutional. Has the Constitution changed, or just the Court? Did the Court interpret the Constitution, or amend it? The integrationists have won two decisions in the present Supreme Court. Segregationists have won many decisions from better, unpacked courts which have not been brain-washed in left-wing ideologies. For 86 years after the 14th Amendment became law the Supreme Court, Federal and state courts, Congress, the presidents, governors and state legislatures all evidently figured that the Constitution gave each state the right to control its own public schools.

Maybe the South's most effective weapon is "interposition" (the left-handed theory that since it takes a three-fourths majority of states to amend the Constitution, that 13 states should be able to prevent the Supreme Court ruling from being carried out). Or, the answer may lie in converting the white public schools of the South into private schools. Force and violence and hate are certainly not the answer. The Constitutional way, the American way, Freedom's way, is for the states which want to integrate to do it. And for those who don't want to, to be free to handle their own domestic affairs. Final power in a free nation belongs to the people.

Where Does It End?

Negroes, according to the second "Black Monday" decision of the Court on March 5, must not be barred on account of race from any tax-supported school of college. Would not a logical succeeding conclusion of the Court be that tax-exempt schools must accept Negroes on the same basis as whites? Most private schools are non-profit, endowed institutions and as such are exempt from most taxes. Or, to put it another way, they are in effect tax-supported. If the Court should rule that private schools and colleges integrate or pay the same taxes profit-making institutions pay, most private schools would have this choice: do it or go broke!

This is just the beginning—unless we find legal ways to stop it. After the pressure groups, do-gooders, hate peddlers, Communists, and unscrupulous politicians integrate all schools and colleges public and private, next assaults will be on businesses, private clubs, fraternities, 4-H clubs, FFA, and Boy Scouts. That leaves the home.

PETITION FOR THE IMPEACHMENT OF Felix Frankfurter

This petition was prepared by the late Henry H. Klein, New York Attorney and publisher, on June 11, 1949.

To the JUDICIARY COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES GENTLEMEN:

I hereby accuse Felix Frankfurter as associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, of pernicious political activity, perversion of Justice and attempted subversion of the Republic and demand his impeachment.

SPECIFICATIONS

1. He wrongfully caused the indictment and prosecution on false charges, of native Americans and others, under Title 18 U. S. Criminal Code. The law was enacted at the request of the heads of the U. S. Army and Navy, to enable these units to prosecute communists who were undermining the morale of our armed forces. Instead of prosecuting these said offenders, said Frankfurter caused the Department of Justice to prosecute native Americans and anti-communists who were exposing the subversive activities of communists.
2. He secured the appointment to high office of many persons of communistic, socialistic and fascistic leanings and affiliations and he guided and advised these persons in their efforts to change our government from a constitutional republic to a communistic, socialistic or corporative (fascistic) state, as an integral part of a world government, in accordance with the Rockefeller-Protocol plan for world domination and control.
3. He served and serves as the spearhead of a movement to change the United States from a prosperous constitutional republic to an impoverished part of a tyrannous and bankrupt world state.
4. As the controlling influence in government since 1932, he is responsible for many laws, directives, orders and rules that operate to oppress and injure the people and for many of the illegal acts committed by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.
5. He is largely responsible for the deception and fraud practiced on the people during the year 1944, as to the President's physical and mental condition.
6. As controlling factor in government since 1932, he and his agents created scores of government owned corporations through which they control the prices of commodities and other essential products, against the people.

7. He secured the appointment of hundreds of friends, disciples and followers to key positions in the federal government and created a personal Frankfurter bureaucracy, to the injury of the republic.

8. He is responsible through his disciples and agents for the mal-administration and mis-management of various federal departments, bureaus, agencies and public corporations, to the injury of the people.

9. He is in league with other persons to obliterate our constitutional system of government and economics and to substitute the systems of Great Britain and Russia, or to produce political and economic chaos.

10. He is responsible for the Nuremberg trials on ex post facto charges, in violation of law.

11. He is responsible for many persons in high federal office who were and are members of the American Civil Liberties Union which specialize in defending communists, and other radicals.

12. He aided in gagging Tyler Kent, the young code clerk, who is under legal restraint not to reveal the correspondence between Roosevelt and Churchill disclosing their plan to rule the world.

13. He is responsible for Alger Hiss and for the latter's promotion and protection in the federal service.

14. He is disqualified from serving as Justice in the United States Supreme Court, because of all these said acts and facts, and because he is not able to render impartial justice in matters affecting laws, directives, orders and rules drafted by himself and his agents and put into effect through their efforts and because he does not realize that verbiage in an opinion is not substitute for justice.

15. He damaged the prestige and offended the dignity of the U. S. Supreme Court when he appeared as a voluntary witness at the first trial of Alger Hiss and testified that the defendant was of good character.

For all said reasons, said Frankfurter is not a fit proper or qualified person to serve as Associate Justice in the United States Supreme Court and his removal is hereby demanded.

Respectfully submitted
Henry H. Klein

styled National Popular Government League gotten up in the interests of Louis F. Post and the Communist-anarchist crowd, who are trying to overthrow our government. Member of the National Committee of the Civil Liberties Union; Member of Citizen's Comm. under whose auspices a free speech meeting was held; Member of National Popular Government League; Member of General Administrative Council of American Association for Labor Legislation—1925; Member of National Committee of Foreign Policy Association; Shown up in Blanton's article—Congressional Record of Jan. 4, 1926; Endorsed the American Committee for Relief of Russian Children; Denounced by ex-President Theodore Roosevelt for his I. W. W. report; Is one of the Labor Education Bureau crowd under James H. Maurer; The "Boston Post" of Feb. 11, 1926, speaks of Frankfurter, Lawrence G. Brooks "and others prominent in the Free Speech League", as if Brooks and Frankfurter, and possibly Roger Baldwin were in this League.

To this arraignment might be added some other items, viz:

Felix Frankfurter was a member of the International Committee for Political Prisoners; Member of the National Advisory Committee of the Sacco-Vanzetti Defense Committee; Member of Committee on Cultural Relations with Latin America; Speaker for the Communist Passaic, N.J. strikers; Defended Sacco and Vanzetti in an article in "Atlantic Monthly", Mar. 1927, reprinted as a book by Little, Brown & Co.

It will be noted that FELIX FRANKFURTER found his greatest opportunity for subversive activities as secretary and Commission in the Mooney Case. As will be remembered, Tom Mooney, with W. K. Billings, was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in San Quentin Penitentiary for bombing the San Francisco Preparedness Day Parade, July 22, 1916, killing ten and injuring fifty persons. Ever since his incarceration there has been an active agitation among the Communist-Socialist-anarchist groups for his release.

FELIX FRANKFURTER'S conceit and anxiety for publicity prompted him to invite a controversial correspondence with ex-President Theodore Roosevelt. The old Bull Moose ripped the mask from FRANKFURTER'S program, and in a few trenchant paragraphs revealed its sinister mechanism. His letter with FRANKFURTER'S reply was read into the Congressional Record of May 12, 1930. We are constrained to quote therefrom:

December 19, 1917

"My Dear Mr. Frankfurter:

I thank you for your frank letter. I answer it at length because you have taken, and are taking, on behalf of the Administration an attitude which seems to me to be fundamentally that of Trotsky and the other Bolshevik leaders in Russia; an attitude which may be fraught with mischief to this country. Fremont Older and the I. W. W. and the 'direct action' anarchists and apologists for anarchy are never concerned for justice. They are concerned solely in seeking one kind of criminal-escapo justice. The guiding spirits in the movement for the recall of Fickert, cared not a rap whether or not Mooney and Billings were guilty; probably they believed them guilty; all they were concerned with was seeing a rebuke administered to and an evil lesson taught all public officials who might take action against crimes of violence committed by anarchists in the name of some foul and violent 'protest against social conditions'."

"Your report is as thoroughly misleading a document as could be written on the subject. No official, writing in behalf of the President, is, to be excused for failure to know and clearly set forth that the I. W. W. is a criminal organization.

"Here, again, you are engaged in excusing men precisely like the Bolsheviks in Russia, who are murderers and the encouragers of murder, who are traitors to their allies, to democracy, and to civilization, as well as to the U. S., and whose acts are

nevertheless apologized for on grounds, my dear Mr. Frankfurter, substantially like those which you allege. In times of danger nothing is more common and nothing more dangerous to the Republic than for men—often ordinarily well-meaning men—to avoid condemning the criminals who are really public enemies, by making their entire assault on the shortcomings of the good citizens who have been the victims or opponents of the criminals.

Sincerely yours
THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Something of the philosophy and methods of reasoning pursued by FELIX FRANKFURTER are revealed in his book "The Case of Sacco and Vanzetti—A Critical Analysis for Lawyers and Laymen", published by Little, Brown & Co., 1927.

FRANKFURTER seems oblivious of the duties that devolve on residence as well as citizenship in America, among those of alien birth. They are eager to accept all the privileges while assuming none of the responsibilities. This is the crux of the entire situation, with regard to our assimilation of those elements of discord.

In his book Frankfurter admits that "Sacco and Vanzetti were notorious Reds. They were associates of leading radicals. They had for some time been on the list of suspects of the Dept. of Justice, and were especially obnoxious because they were draft dodgers. Deportation, they knew, meant not merely expulsion and uprooting from home. Among Vanzetti's radical group in Boston, the arrest of the N. Y. radical Salsedo, and his detention incommunicado by the Dept. of Justice, had been for some weeks a source of great concern. Vanzetti was sent to N. Y. by this group to confer with the Italian Defense Committee having charge of the case of Salsedo and all the other Italian political prisoners." Sacco and Vanzetti were recognized reds.

His championship of the Sacco-Vanzetti Case, gave FRANKFURTER full opportunity to revel in the publicity that his soul seems to crave. Frank A. Goodwin, then head of the Motor Vehicle Dept. of Mass. delivered a speech that was quoted from one end of the nation to the other on "Sacco-Vanzetti and the Red Peril". He made it before the Kiwanis Club of Lawrence, Mass., June 30, 1927 and it was circulated as a 15 page booklet. With documentary evidence to sustain every step of his address, he showed the hook-up between the American Civil Liberties Union and the Communist and Socialist parties, with Sacco-Vanzetti as the pretext, and the overturn of the American form of government as the goal.

He said in part:

"It is an impressive fact that the nearer we get to the scene of this murder, the more convinced are people that these men are guilty. The citizens of Norfolk County know these people are guilty.

Sacco and Vanzetti, after seven reprieves, were finally hung.

"Who is responsible for this national and even international agitation and disturbance over these two unknown criminals? Who pressed the button or pulled the strings that unloosed this deluge of petitions and threats? The answer to the question was not difficult to find, after a brief investigation. The leader of the movement to set these two murderers free is FELIX FRANKFURTER, professor at Harvard College, who in 1917 was rebuked by Theodore Roosevelt for trying to set free Mooney and Billings, the red murderers who blew up and killed and injured many people in a Preparedness Day parade."

Joseph W. Keith, District Attorney of the Southeastern District of Mass. stated on June 28, 1932 (Boston Transcript):

"I then believed and still believe that FRANKFURTER and men of his type are a menace to the country and to the American institutions."

The Passaic Textile strike in 1926, gave FELIX FRANKFURTER additional opportunity for left-wing agitation, reported by Francis Ralston Welsh thus:

"FELIX FRANKFURTER, Professor in the (Harvard) law school, came to Passaic, appearing before Vice Chancellor Bently at Jersey City as local representative of the United Front Committee in fighting an injunction granted by the Court of Chancery against the United Front Committee at the request of Forstmann and Huffman. He also spoke at a mass meeting of Weisbard's followers in the City of Passaic, imploring them to remain on strike till such time as they gained their demands."

The Passaic strike was abetted by the American Civil Liberties Union and its interlocking organizations. Reference has been made to FRANKFURTER'S prominent position in its councils, and his authorship of "The Labor Injunction", the agitator's handbook. He was a member of the National Committee in 1926, along with such known subversive individuals as Jane Addams, Clarence Darrow, Eugene V. Debs, Robert W. Dunn, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, William Z. Foster, Ernst Freund, Norman Hapgood, Arthur Garfield Hayes, Morris Hillquit, John Haynes Holmes, Scott Nearing, Rose Schneiderman, Norman M. Thomas, and Oswald Garrison Villard, among others.

Most of the above-mentioned names are to be found as his fellow-directors on the International Committee for Political Prisoners, the objects for which it stands being sufficient to condemn it in the opinion of every genuine American.

The N. Y. Times, April 17, 1930, quotes Frankfurter as stating: "The Constitution is what the judges say it is". And again quoting the N. Y. Times, April 27, 1930, Frankfurter states: "The Supreme Court is the Constitution."

In a two column article in the "New York Times" of Nov. 13, 1932, entitled "A Notable Decision—the Supreme Court writes a chapter on Man's Rights". FELIX FRANKFURTER reviews the Scottsboro Decision. It will be recalled that the Alabama courts found seven negro youths guilty of rape, and imposed the death sentence. The American Civil Liberties Union capitalized the situation by raising a fund for their defense, and put into execution the strategy employed in the Sacco-Vanzetti and Mooney-Billings cases. Mass-meetings and demonstrations were held by Communist and radical groups throughout the nation, with the intent to stir up race-antagonism that would work in the interest of social upheaval. Funds were provided whereby the case was carried up to the Alabama State Court of Appeals, and eventually to the Supreme Court of the U. S. That distinguished body ruled that there had been certain judicial errors committed in the original trial, and remanded it back to Alabama for a new trial. FRANKFURTER said in part:

"The Scottsboro case announces the doctrine that to every defendant must be assured the minimum conditions for an

PUBLIC ENEMY NO.1

Horatio Alger, American
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

This will introduce, Felix Frankfurter —
PUBLIC ENEMY NUMBER ONE.

Born in Vienna, Austria, Nov. 15 1882, the son of Austro-Jewish revolutionary parents, spent his early life in the seething "GHETTO'S", inspired by MARXIST doctrines and primed in the ART of Jewish deception.

At the age of twelve he was immigrated to America where his latter education was furthered, as a Jewish Revolutionist who does not believe in "THE CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES" for to him this is but a foolish fancy of those gullible, tolerant gentiles who call themselves
PATRIOTIC AMERICANS.

After completing his esaurian education in the revolting American manner, he attended the College of the City of New York and then went on to HARVARD, a school to which he was to return at a later date as a professor of law, to indoctrinate hundreds of young lawyers with his MARXIST theories plus "MAKE A NOISE LIKE A LAWYER AND MUDDLE UP THESE ANGLO-SAXON IDEOLOGIES OF MADI-SON AND JEFFERSON" in true Jacobian fashion.

This MARXIST seed planting, and the orb of time allowed Frankfurter to later harvest a COMMUNIST NETWORK of
"JACKS IN OFFICES" and thereby gain control of the ROOSEVELT CABINET, even to the President himself.

Frankfurter's influence today has the magnitude of the "OLD KING" and lets not suffer ourselves to be deceived any longer,
ALSO, lets not forget those good friends of COMMUNISM that he openly and ardently protects and supports.

What other Jurist in history ever stepped down from the Bench to defend an ALGER HISS? Alger Hiss the traitor, was a student under Frankfurter at that Communist incubator, HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

ESAU must AWAKEN and see through Jacob, for it was never intended that our CONSTITUTION should extend protection to its enemies and at the same time license them to destroy it.

Our RIGHTS—TO—SEGREGATE—TO DISCRIMINATE — and TO WORK — are our FREEDOM and these are what the WARRENS—FRANKFURTERED Court are destroying, FOR when our options are no longer allowed, FREEDOM CEASES TO EXIST.

RES IPSA LOQUITUR.

Very truly yours,
William A. Jolley

His intimacy with Roosevelt dates back to the Wilson Administration when FRANK-FURTER'S work on the War Labor Policies Board brought him in frequent contact with the Navy."

An observer in Washington states:

"A group of men, mostly appointed it is believed by the influence of FELIX FRANK-FURTER, according to my informant, meet at pretty regular intervals and discuss their plan or the ultimate overthrow of the Constitution of the United States, and the substitution of an entirely new regime. It is understood, it is agreed among themselves to put nothing on paper but conduct all business verbally and utilize the emergency organizations to spread their propaganda throughout the country. This is the plan:

"The appropriations for housing are giving this group an opportunity to call in professors known to be red in sympathy, to Washington. These men are to be told the general scheme for reconstruction of the United States on this new political basis, and it is understood they are of no practical use toward the development of housing in the U. S., but they are to tell the people who are the beneficiaries of the new housing plan, that the houses which are constructed, are not half as good as they would be if these beneficiaries would give their complete support to the new program. It is said they are expected to ask these people what they think of the new houses, and it is assumed that the answer will be 'Fine'. To which the emissaries are expected to reply; 'Well, not half as good as you should have because there is no reason in the world why you should not have as luxurious accomodations as anyone in the United States. Of course the appeal this makes is expected to bring in hundreds of thousands of people behind the New Dealers."

Patriot warns On Court

Senator James O. Eastland

Below is a small excerpt from a speech by Sen. James O. Eastland, in the U. S.
Senate, from which we quote:

Somewhat more than a year ago I pointed out in an address on this floor that the Supreme Court had been indoctrinated and brainwashed by left-wing pressure groups; that individual members of the Court were guilty of grossly improper conduct in accepting awards and emoluments from groups and organizations interested in political litigation before the Court and bent on changing and destroying our American way of life; that such reprehensible conduct placed a question mark by the validity and the integrity of their decisions in cases which these groups were interested, of which the school segregation case is one.

PATRIOTS:

It is still possible to save our country from Marxist slavery, but there is only one way in which it can be accomplished. A sufficient number of people must be informed so that they know the facts. We must have Crusaders. If we remain indifferent, uninformed and do not make sacrifices, we will then go down as other countries have, for the enemy remains active.

them. If our cities should be destroyed, out of the very ruins we could erect newer and greater ones. Even if our armed might should be crushed, we could rear sons who would redeem our power.

But if the blood of our white race should become corrupted and mingled with the ordered and reasoned investigation of the charges against him—a proper and heartening guarantee of fundamental law. The history of liberty, Mr. Justice Brandeis has reminded us, cannot be dissociated from the history of procedural observances. In no sense is the Supreme Court a general tribunal for the correction of criminal errors, such as the Court of Criminal Appeal in England. But the court, though it will continue to act with hesitation, will not suffer, in its own scathing phrase, 'judicial murder'.

Here lies perhaps the deepest significance of the case. Thus the judgment of the court transcends the fate of the seven pitiful defendants concerned. It leaves that fate ultimately untouched. Upon the question of guilt or innocence it bears not even remotely.
That question remains to be determined in normal course by the constituted tribunals of Alabama."

The N. Y. Herald Tribune of Feb. 2, 1933 quotes FRANKFURTER as stating:

"A good part of our past is dead. To hope for its revival is tragic illusion. New circumstances condition the nation's wealth making; how they are met will determine the national welfare. The road to yesterday's prosperity is largely barred."

The best fortified and most painstaking analysis of the character of FRANK-

FURTER, and his relationship to the personnel and policies of the FDR Administration is given in "THE NEW DEALERS"
(Simon & Schuster, N. Y. 1934). The third section of the tenth chapter, entitled "Privy Councillors" (p. 317) states:

"One of our greatest teachers of youth, he also has the tact and ability to teach governors and Presidents. He has a keen mind and there are few men in America who can talk more enticingly. Unlike that other great Jew, Bernard M. Baruch, who, after making a fortune in speculation, has mastered the text-book maxims of old-line economics and aspires to be known as the perpetual advisor to all Presidents of all parties at all times and upon all subjects.

"Unlike Baruch and Brandeis, FELIX is a comparatively young man, about six months younger than Roosevelt, and he has the same youthful zest and keen sense of humor which are hard to reconcile with the fulsome fifties. FELIX, more than any other one person is the legal master-mind of the New Deal, although he is in large part only the transmitter of the apostolic succession of Louise D. Brandeis. Like Brandeis, he cannot watch the game without putting his hands on the board. He is the city-bred as opposed to the country-bred Jew. He is another Brandeis who wears plus-fours instead of the conventional prophets' robe.

LET'S GET RID OF THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX!

THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX IS AN IMMORAL LAW BREEDING DISHONESTY IN GOVERNMENT AND IN THE CITIZEN. IT IS CONTRARY TO THE BILL OF RIGHTS AND NULLIFIES THE FOURTH, FIFTH AND TENTH AMENDMENTS. THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX IS A CONFISCATORY LAW AND EACH YEAR IT PROGRESSIVELY SEIZES MORE OF YOUR PROPERTY AND EARNINGS.

by

Corinne Griffith

I am one of many millions upon millions of tax-paying citizens who has become fed up with the money changers in Washington, D.C.

I have studied this situation, discussed it with many honest, intelligent hard-core business men and economists, listened to their views on the subject; and by their sound reasoning and logic, I have been brought to the solid conviction that the root of all our evils is the 16th Amendment to our Constitution—the Federal Income Tax.

The money the 16th Amendment allows the Federal Government to take from us is the most unimportant evil of this whole un-moral, immoral Income Tax Law. Altho it is wrecking us financially, far more evil is the police power it holds over our heads, the dictatorship it is so rapidly spawning in Washington, D.C., and the destruction of our States' Rights form of Government.

Our first American Revolution (the 1776 one, the Revolution which created the United States) was brought about, as we all know, by the insistence of England on taxing the American Colonists to pay for the expenses of quartering defense troops in the Colonies, and to pay the expenses of royal Governors the Americans had no voice in selecting. But the Americans of those early days had some intestinal fortitude—they rallied against unfair taxation. They believed the monies taxed from the Colonists should be spent by the Colonists, themselves.

They were sure they could defend themselves and so demonstrated. When the revolution was over and a success, the 13 Colonies formed a Union of Independent Governments, or Sovereign States, or a United States, and adopted a Constitution (tailor-made for such Americans as you and me, by such Americans as Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Franklin, Adams, Monroe)—a Constitution which upheld the sovereignty of these individual states, and specified and limited meticulously, the power and control of a Central or Federal Government over these Sovereign States, or Individual Governments.

Because each State is in itself a Sovereign State or individual Government, with powerful individual rights within its borders—different from the other States that comprise our Union—this form of Government is known as our States' Rights form of Government.

Under our original Constitution (or States' Rights form of Government) the individual state collected the taxes, other than those specified by the Constitution, and spent the money of its citizens. Then, if one didn't like the way his state was taxing him, he could always move to another state. This created a healthy competition between the States for low taxation.

The Federal Government collected its excise (better known as sales taxes), imports, etc., but it had no authority to levy a direct tax on earnings, savings or inheritances of the citizens of the Sovereign States, or Governments of the Union.

Some good citizens seem to think the Federal Income Tax Law is part of our original Constitution. So just to refresh your thinking: The first Federal Income Tax Law was passed by an Act of Congress in 1862. And repealed by an Act of Congress in 1872.

Corinne Griffith

Honorary President of the Organization to Repeal Federal Income Taxes Inc.

A second Federal Income Tax Law was passed by Congress in 1894 and that same year—1894—the Supreme Court declared the Federal Income Tax Law unconstitutional!

So, if anyone should tell you the Federal Income Tax Law can't be repealed, just for their edification, tell them that the Federal Income Tax Law has already been Repealed by the Congress of the United States once. And has already been declared unconstitutional by our Supreme Court.

It was our forefathers who built this glorious nation spreading from ocean to ocean. It was they who covered it with railroads, towns, factories, farms, libraries, schools and municipal parks. They had the capital to do all this because they could keep their savings and inheritances. The Federal Government didn't have a thing to do with it.

The peddler invested and re-invested his savings until the original pack on his back became a department store. The blacksmith became a carriage maker, his son an automobile manufacturer. And the ferry boat captain a builder of steamships. And that's how we grew and prospered for 137 years to become the strongest nation in the world under our States' Rights form of government, the greatest heritage of freedom ever to fall to a people in history.

But, a second revolution took place in 1913, when Mr. Cordell Hull's Federal Income Tax bill became the 16th Amendment to our Constitution, a feat of which Mr. Hull was very proud, as you may read in his book on the subject.

The 16th Amendment was not heralded as a revolution and only a few realized it would come to that. But, the fact is, as events have proved, that when the Federal Government got the unlimited power to confiscate or tax the earnings, savings and inheritances of the citizens of the individual Sovereign States, it was put in the position to confiscate the Sovereignty of these States, and that, under our States' Rights form of Government, is revolutionary.

Here is the 16th Amendment to our Constitution—the Federal Income Tax Law: "The Congress shall have the power to levy and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration."

And that's all there is. Because of the way in which this Amendment is written, because there is neither definition nor limitation to this 16th Amendment, the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee in Washington, must, according to the so-called needs of our country, write this law anew each year, with the result that this original Federal Income Tax Law of 31 words has now become a law of over 400,000 words.

LEGALIZED THEFT

To come to the point, the Federal Income Tax is legalized theft. It declares you have no right to enjoy your earnings, savings or inheritance. The Federal Government says it has a first claim on everything you earn, no matter how you earn it. And what you have left is graciously and considerably allowed you.

In fact, whether you earn your money, or come by it by stealing, gambling, racketeering, or any of the unethical, illicit ways in which certain ladies and gentlemen come by their money, the Federal Government says you are second. It must get its share of the loot first.

I don't know how you were raised, but I came up the "Hard Way." I never had the privilege of going to college. My father passed on when I was very young. So, I was never sent to school after I was thirteen years old. I'm an eighth grade graduate. I earned my first dollar when I was fifteen years old. I had the choice of either working or starving. I have earned my living ever since and I'm still earning it.

It's been a good living. I've never had to resort to government handouts. And because of my experience, I believe every man and woman should have the privilege of earning his or her own living and keeping what they earn, without being robbed of honest wages. And that's what we are being robbed of today, by Federal Income Taxes.

The personal Federal Income Tax for last year, paid by individuals (that has nothing to do with corporations or state laws) was approximately 33 billions of dollars. A breakdown of the tax collection for last year, shows, according to the Treasury Report, that the lowest income tax group, those making from $1200 to $20,000 a year, paid 70% or 23 billions of the 33 billions of dollars collected by the Federal Government, and the three highest groups, those from $20,000 a year up (including the millionaires and the multi-millionaires) paid only 30% or 10 billions of the 33 billions collected by the Federal Government.

So you see, this original Federal Income Tax Law, which started out as a "soak the rich" measure, now falls most heavily on those least able to bear the burden.

WASTE AND MORE WASTE!

In discussing the Repeal of the Federal Income Tax we are constantly being asked: "How can we run the Federal Government without the Federal Income Tax?"

Those who ask this question assume that all Federal activities are essential.

England's famous Prime Minister, Mr. William Gladstone, said, "I believe an income tax does more than any other tax to demoralize and corrupt the people."

I am the last person in the world to hold anything but the very highest regard for most of our Senators and Representatives. But this federalization of our earnings, savings and inheritances—these unnecessary billions upon billions of dollars we keep funneling into Washington has created a condition among Congressmen that is Fantasia. There are times when I almost believe Walt Disney is running the Congress.

For example: A Senator from North Carolina will vote for a bill for 100 million dollars for metals for the Senator from Utah, if the Senator from Utah will agree to support the North Carolinian's bill for 100 millions of dollars for peanuts. As a matter of fact, the Federal Government over a period of nine years, has lost 118 millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money supporting the price of peanuts.

An Administration Advisor (one of the palace guard) will spend millions of the taxpayers money trying to re-elect a Senator, if he, the Senator, for example, Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan, will vote against a law such as the Bricker Amendment.

The Bricker Amendment lost by one vote, as we all know, and Senator Homer Ferguson cast that one vote which beat the Bricker Amendment, altho Senator Homer Ferguson was co-sponsor of the Bricker Amendment with Senator Bricker when the bill was first introduced.

However, in spite of the money from your taxes and mine which the palace guard spent to re-elect Senator Ferguson, he was defeated. But the pay-off came the other day when a small squib in the morning paper stated:

Senator Homer Ferguson has been appointed to the Court of Military Appeals at a salary of $25,000 a year until he is 82.

And for the favor Senator Watkins, of Utah, gave the Administration advisors as leader of the "Censure" movement, which resulted in condemnation of Senator McCarthy, there was included in the Presidential budget message to Congress, a request for 365 millions of dollars for land in the Central Utah Project. (Which is part of the Colorado River Project. $1,600,000,000, April 21st, 1955). The Federal Government is proposing to pay out of your taxes and mine, 365 million, or as high as $5000 an acre, to put water on land in Senator Watkins' State of Utah that isn't worth $50 an acre. This is the highest cost for water per acre the world has ever known.

(Los Angeles Times, June 9th, 1955). One of the sub-Committee members, Representative Hosmer (Rep.) California said, in a statement, the project would cost 16 times more than the assessed value of all farm lands and farm buildings in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. "Congress might as well appropriate money to grow bananas on Pikes Peak."

WASHINGTON—March 15, 1956—INS—The Senate approved tonight $1,200,000,000 for soil bank payments to farmers for taking their land out of cultivation.

George Rothwell Brown, in speaking of Harry Hopkins (the author of that famous bon mot: "We'll tax and tax and spend and spend and elect and elect"), says: "Hopkins had at his disposal billions of the tax-payers' money and became the greatest spendthrift of all times. Elections were bought with handouts from the Federal Treasury."

Truman spent, in 7 years, as much money as all Presidents from George Washington up to and including Franklin Roosevelt. It doesn't matter whether we have a Republican or a Democrat in the White House. The spending and waste-fullness will go on growing bigger and bigger, just so long as you and I continue to pour these billions upon billions of unnecessary dollars into Washington, D. C.

LOS ANGELES TIMES—May 19, 1955 During the fiscal year 1954, California received $365,678,000 in Federal grants-in-aid. But the Federal Government took from my state of California $5,356,962,000. In other words, for every dollar in aid California got from the Federal Government, the tax-payers gave to the Federal Government $15.00.

New Jersey sent to the Federal Government between 3 and 4 dollars for every dollar for grants-in-aid. New Jersey got back from the Federal Government. And who paid it? You and I, the middle class.

T. Coleman Andrews
Former Commissioner of Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Federal Housing

Here's one reason why housing should not be federalized.

WASHINGTON—June 29th AP—Clyde L. Powell, tagged with a police record of six arrests in as many years, refused to tell Senate investigators anything about his handling of $6,500,000,000 of government-insured housing loans.

F.B.I. reports introduced showed that Powell in a criminal record dating back 38 years, had been arrested eight times for larceny, embezzlement and passing bogus checks.

Surely this isn't how you and I intend that our hard earned money should be spent by the Federal Government.

IS TALK CHEAP AT THE U. N. ?

Incidentally, we have now spent over $700,000,000 for the United Nations so-called "debating society"—just for discussions in the United Nations headquarters in New York. And I've always been told "talk is cheap."

The United States pays one-third of all expenses of the United Nations, altho there are seventy-six nations belonging to the United Nations.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — March 3, 1954 INS — The United States lost its fight in the United Nations, today, for an immediate showdown on the question of writing into United Nations treaties provisions guaranteeing the right of individual property ownership and barring arbitrary seizures.

The 18-nation human rights Commission voted over United States and Turkey opposition to shelve indefinitely all discussion of property rights.

"What has this to do with the Federal Income Tax?" you may ask. My point is that we, you and I, are being taxed for one-third of the expenses of United Nations, and yet this same United Nations has refused to allow the United States the privilege of even discussing whether or not the United States can guarantee, to her own tax-paying citizens, the right to keep their own properties.

REDISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH ?

We think "IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE?" A quote from an article written for the Atlantic Monthly in May, 1943, by Dr. James B. Conant, former President of Harvard, who is now our Ambassador to West Germany.

In his article entitled, "Wanted — American Radicals", Dr. Conant advocates, among other things (and this is taken from sworn testimony of Flynn) quote: "Government confiscation of all property once a generation." Unquote.

"Creeping socialists recruited from among the American intelligentsia have been used with great effectiveness to further their efforts to take over the United States."

This charge was made before the Senate Internal Security sub-Committee by J. Anthony Panuch, Deputy Asst. Sec. of State under former Secy. of State, James F. Byrnes.

"The goal of this ideology," Mr. Panuch said, "may fairly be described as a socialized America in a world commonwealth of Socialistic states dedicated to peace through collective security, political, economic, and social reform, and the redistribution of wealth on a global basis."

Here are three such cases of "redistribution of wealth on a global basis." (This is part of the Hoover Report that was not published).

"When the French were hard put at Dien-bien-fu, we gave them just under one billion dollars in cash to tide them over their crisis. And what do you think the French did? They surrendered almost immediately, called off the war, kept the billion dollars, and we never got a dime back."

Just the other day it became known that Denmark was having trouble with her budget. We gave her 100 million dollars so that her budget could be balanced.

"We wanted to get Anthony Eden elected prime minister and as a gesture of friendship to his candidacy we gave the British 200 million dollars so they could lower income taxes before their election."

While, over here — listen to what is taking place over here:

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE — February 11, 1956. The government seized the $20,000 home of Arthur F. Schilling, 44, a butcher, at 4036 Argyle St., as security for $6,073.66 in back taxes. A sign on the building reads: "This building seized by the Internal Revenue Service for nonpayment of taxes."

"Delbert F. Luippold, acting Chicago Internal revenue director, said the government would advertise the home for sale is Schilling doesn't pay." Luippold also said, "seizures of commercial and industrial buildings for back withholding taxes have been common." Such seizures are by agency action without court order.

Prior to 1913 it was necessary to have a search warrant by court order before anyone could search your home or place of business.

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS — April 20th, 1956 — Revenue agents raided 17 branch laundries operated by two firms here yesterday and seized $5,700 from the safes and cash registers of the Blue Banner Laundry, Incorporated, and Washington Laundry, Incorporated, for back taxes of $12,000. District Revenue Director, C. E. Fox, said 7 trucks belonging to the two firms were seized and are to be sold at public auction.

DEBTOR'S PRISON FOR YOU

And now let me point out the worst evil of this entire Federal Income Tax Law. Which is this: If we, you and I, citizens of the United States, fail, for any reason whatever, to pay our Federal Income Tax—we can be sent to jail.

Here are only a few such cases. There are many, many of them.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30th, 1952 — AP — A 55-year old woman, Mrs. Irene B. Whetstone was committed to jail. Mrs. Whetstone refused to pay $1,400 of her taxes because she contends the United States Constitution does not require payments of taxes to support foreign governments.

If Mrs. Whetstone is right, and our Constitution, as you know, provides that we shall not be taxed to support Foreign Governments, then Mrs. Whetstone should not be put in jail. If Mrs. Whetstone is wrong, and we can, now, be taxed to support Foreign Governments—then, we have no Constitution.

"I would rather commit my own self to jail," said Federal Judge J. Sam Perry, who conducted the case, "but I have no alternative."

For the sake of argument, say the woman refused to pay her income tax. Let them sue her, attach her bank account, take her property as they took Mr. Schilling's home, but don't let the Federal Government put a 55-year-old woman in jail for $1,400.

In Seattle, Washington, Judge George Boldt, fined Amador A. Seigas $10,000 plus five years in prison.

James J. Moran of Brooklyn, N. Y., former first deputy Fire Commissioner, was accused of tax evasion and his sentence by Judge Robert A. Inch, was a fine of $22,500 and 2 years in jail.

So this 16th Amendment, the Federal Income Tax, has brought us back to the days of the Debtor's Prison.

That is unless, of course, you happen to be some very special person. I would like to quote from an article by Mr. T. Coleman Andrews, written in the American Weekly of April 22nd, 1956.

Mr. Andrews was appointed by President Eisenhower as Chief of the Federal Internal Revenue Bureau when President Eisenhower first took office in 1953. In November of 1955, Mr. Andrews resigned as Head of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

In his article entitled, "LET'S ABOLISH THE INCOME TAX", Mr. Andrews said, "a certain Representative in Congress, when he found himself confronted by a substantial proposed deficiency assessment from which there was no other escape, got himself relieved by a bill applying only to his particular case. And established something of a record for the passage of a bill pertaining to revenue by putting it through the House and Senate in the remarkable space of 4 days, including a Saturday and a Sunday. What's even more remarkable, this bill went through the House without the customary hearing by the House Ways and Means Committee. The record indicates that it was considered by the Senate Finance Committee. Because of the private nature of it, it became, when signed, a 'private law.'"

"Believe it or not, that happened only last year, and it came as near to making suckers out of all the rest of us as any piece of tax legislation Congress has ever enacted. No need of trying, folks; ordinary citizens just can't get relief."

This Representative has been identified as Representative Clarence Cannon (D) of Missouri. His Republican friend, also of Missouri, Rep. Curtis, introduced this "Private Bill". What makes this almost unbelievable is that Rep. Cannon is Chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the House of Representatives—the committee that passes on the spending of all money by the Federal Government.

It's bad enough to find that one member of the United States Congress has used his position to ease the burden of his personal taxes, while we pay through the nose. But what of those other members of the United States Congress who voted for private bill No. 490 without raising one voice of protest?

You can find this bill on Senate Calendar No. 1294. It was passed in August, 1955, but the bill reads: "This bill is effective with respect to taxable years beginning after 1949."

Surely you can't close your eyes to the fact that a law which permits this sort of thing is evil and must be repealed.

BILLIONS FOR DEFENSE (?)

And now the $64,000 question: "How can we finance our defense program without the Federal Income Tax?" We've been sold a bill of goods on defense, and very briefly I am going to show you how your tax money and mine is being squandered on everything and anything but defense.

WASHINGTON, May 18th, 1955 INS — The Senate Investigating sub-Committee found that a Chicago man who had neither a plant nor a payroll got a Government contract for nearly 7,000,000 sailor hats.

Our Congress was very surprised (Jan. 17th, 1955) when Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia offered arms to the Burma Government, a Soviet Satellite nation, with which to fight Thailand. What military arms we have sent to Tito is, of course, a military secret. But, since World War Two, we have sent in dollars and cents—in addition to our arms—nearly $800,000,000 or a total of over a billion dollars.

This aid, sent to Tito at the instigation of our Central Intelligence Agency, sounds harmless enough—except that the United States happens to be backing Thailand in her fight against Burma. In other words, you and I, the tax-payers of the United States, are financing both sides of this war between Thailand and Burma. Is that type of squandering of our tax money for the defense of the United States?

A man named "Offie" an official testifying before General Mark Clark's committee investigating the Central Intelligence Agency—said the C. I. A. had put a lot of our tax money into a political machine of the garment workers (David Dubinsky) in European politics.

Besides financing both sides of the Burma-Thailand fight, and putting the Federal Government into the European Garment Workers Labor Organization, we have, thru your taxes and mine, put the Federal Government (according to the report of a House Committee on Government operations) into the rope manufacturing business.

And try to realize how many less men would be drafted if those who are already drafted were free to do the job for which they were drafted—the defense of our country.

But instead they are working for the Federal Government (in competition with private business) in the tug and barge operating business, alcoholic beverages, scrap iron and steel, box making, metal heat treating, printing, warehousing, power facilities, tire recapping, paint manufacturing, and saw mills. The Federal Government is in the coffee grinding business, and now owns and operates 162 ice-cream factories, all under the guise—or disguise—of defense.

The personal Federal Income Tax for 1954, the last figures given by the Treasury, was 33 billions of dollars. The Federal Government that same year lost in business competition with private enterprise, 34 billions of dollars. So, every last dollar of money we worked and sweated and sent to the Federal Government for that year went down the drain.

For seven and a half years, we have been sending one million dollars a month, plus 50 million we sent in March, 1956—that is 140 millions of dollars to the King of Cambodia for him and his 32 wives. And nobody is going to tell me that is for defense of the United States.

WASHINGTON POST April 21, 1956, U P — The Navy's $265-million investment in the original F3H "Demon" fighter plane must be written off as a "total loss," the Senate Preparedness sub-Committee said yesterday. Eight of the planes were wrecked, 14 of the airframes have engines but cannot be used for regular flights, and 38 will never fly at all the report said. Four pilots were killed.

The sub-Committee said the Navy claims to have learned a lesson from this incident.

Let the 265 millions go down the drain. But four lives were lost. And the sub-Committee calls it an "incident." "Tain't funny, Maghee," but it shows just how cheap life can be under the 16th Amendment.

These are a few, only a few, of the thousands upon thousands of such cases that are prevalent today and will continue to be, so long as we, you and I, through our tax money continue to pour these billions upon billions of dollars into the Federal Coffers.

HOOVER REPORT

But the Hoover Report paints the picture far better than I. Former President Hoover, as you know, was appointed by the President of the United States to form a non-partisan commission made up of the finest Democrats and Republicans in our country. The sole objective of this Hoover Commission was to uncover unnecessary waste of the taxpayers' money in the Federal Government. Their report was finished and given to the Federal Government in June, 1955. It is called the HOOVER REPORT.

Former President Hoover said the job of the Commission was a "fantastic nightmare" of working in "regimented chaos."

"In spite of our investments of billions of dollars," (of the taxpayers' money) "the Federal Government didn't even have an inventory of its assets." Suppose we ran our businesses that way?

The Federal Government has personal property worth 66 billion dollars, not including weapons, buildings, furniture, ships or airplanes. The latter items are worth 65 billion dollars. Its real estate assets (land not in the public domain such as National Forests, Public Parks, etc.) consists of 839 millions of acres of land in the United States and abroad.

Gov. J. Bracken Lee of Utah

Director of Organization to Repeal Federal Income Taxes Inc.

WASHINGTON, June 13, 1955 — AP — The Hoover Commission said the Government has accumulated working space for paper work equal to 1,250 Empire State Buildings.

Land in the United States owned by the Federal Government is one-fourth of all the 48 states. (The Federal Government owns 46 and one half per cent of California—44 per cent of Arizona—85 per cent of Nevada—and this land has been gotten mainly thru purchase since 1913. In other words, the Federal Government has bought your land from you with your money).

This situation, the Hoover report said, has resulted in a pile-up of un-needed property as one agency bought without knowing what another already had. It said, "great recoveries of invested capital could be made for the Federal Government and the taxpayer by selling this surplus real estate back to the private citizen."

Incidentally, should anyone ask how the National Debt could be paid, why not suggest that the Federal Government sell this land back to the private citizen. What would you pay for 46 and one half per cent of California?

"Some 8,000,000 passengers were carried in Dept. of Defense aircraft during the fiscal year ending last June 30th—of whom 4,800,000 or more than half were hitch-hikers."

May 15, 1955 — AP — The Hoover Commission called on the government to shut down nearly 3,000 plants, stores, repair shops and other enterprises ranging from ice-cream factories to shipping and airplanes which compete with private enterprises. These could be wiped out, curtailed or sold to industry "without injury to our national defense or any essential government function." The report added: "Among other benefits many thousands of uniformed men would be freed to perform their real function—the defense of our country."

Hoover said the Federal Government could balance its budget overnight. Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia said the same thing.

And we find there are hamburgers in storage for the entire Navy for 60 years. The Hoover Commission told Congress the Government is wasting $155,000,000,000 by piling up "mountainous" supplies of un-needed goods and then selling them as surplus at a fraction of the cost. Who buys this surplus for nearly nothing? 155 billions of dollars is more than half of our National Debt.

And now that the Hoover Report has been made, what is it doing, gathering dust in the pigeon-holes of the Federal Government?

IT'S UP TO YOU!

In 1933, I received a letter with the Senate imprint at the top of the stationery. The letter reads:

"Dear Miss Griffith:

Mrs. Davie has called my attention to the fine speeches you are delivering on the tax situation.

I've given the tax problem a lot of thought and will give careful consideration to your suggestion. I think the taxing power has been greatly abused. The whole subject of taxing needs study—with a view to completely revising it. With all best wishes, Sincerely yours,

ROBERT A. TAFT"

General MacArthur has said: "No nation may survive in freedom once its people become the servants of a centralized government—a condition to which we are now headed with such dreadful certainty." And, the General added, "the greatest danger to a free people has always been the imposition of excessive taxation."

A tax expert, Dr. Harley L. Lutz, Princeton University professor emeritus of public finance, described the Federal Income Tax as a "method of national suicide."

Mr. T. Coleman Andrews, whom I have quoted before added, "The nation is in a death grip of taxation. And, he added, "the Federal Income Tax should be abolished."

But I assure you nothing will be done about abolishing it—certainly Congress doesn't want to give up this money until the voters support a movement to stop this march down the road to ruin, to the destruction of personal liberty and our Constitution. For that reason, the Organization to Repeal Federal Income Taxes was formed. The single objective of this non-profit, non-partisan, one-purpose organization is to Repeal the Federal Income Tax.

The late Bertram W. Gearhart, elected 7 times Congressman from California to the House of Representatives in Washington, was founder and first President of the Organization to Repeal Federal Income Taxes. Mr. Gearhart was one of the founders of the American Legion in France, and first Commander of the American Legion in California. 12 of his 14 years in Congress, Mr. Gearhart was a member of the House Ways and Means Committee, where all money bills originate. Mr. Gearhart was more than conversant with the evils of the income tax.

The new President of our Organization is Mr. Hubbard Russell. Mr. Russell, a Californian, is a Charter Member of the Western Cattle Marketing Association, past President of the California Cattlemen's Association and past President of the American-National Cattlemen's Association.

A member of the Board of Directors is Gov. J. Bracken Lee, of Utah. Gov. Lee has refused to pay part of his 1955 income tax. He has taken the position that under the Constitution of the United States, the Federal Government has no right to tax United States citizens for the purpose of giving their money to foreign nations.

Gov. Lee has deposited the amount of money supposedly due for the taxes in a bank in escrow. As a great patriot, he is willing to make of himself a test case in order to prove whether or not we still have a Constitution.

A long list of sponsors is headed by the names of General Albert C. Wedemeyer and General Robert E. Wood.

Bills have already been introduced in Congress to Repeal Federal Income Taxes, but nothing will be done about it until the Congress feels the pressure of voters.

The Organization needs members, members, millions of members. Only by millions of voters pledged to support anyone, be he Democrat or Republican, who will, in turn, support this Repeal movement, can this movement be successful.

We have no Utopian Dream to substitute for the Federal Income Tax Law. We are simply demanding a return to our original Constitution.

And please understand, that under our Constitution the Federal Government always had the right to assess the States for money for defense. The United States financed wars long before the Federal Income Tax Law became an Amendment to our Constitution.

It is as simple as this: The States tax us and when the Federal Government needs money, in an emergency or a war, it has the right to assess the States. But, there is no direct Federal Income Tax, no direct Federal jail sentence over the head of the individual.

Surely you will agree that you have a much greater chance of protecting your rights in your own state than you have in Washington, D. C.

Legitimate federal expenses could be handled thru sales and excise taxes. The great sprawling Federal bureaus dissolved and the grafters and do-gooders would promptly fade away. The individual citizen would be far better off, and the States would automatically be forced to find themselves better government. There would be vast improvements in all categories.

Only the repeal of the Federal Income Tax (the 16th Amendment) will bring back to our Congressmen in Washington, our Governors, State Senators and Assemblymen, to you and me as individuals, the dignity, honor and liberty bestowed on us by our founding fathers in our original Constitution.

Communist Progress In Hawaii!

By Charles Brandon our Pacific Observer

Here in the "Paradise of the Pacific" the Red flag of international Communism is represented in practically every aspect of life. In labor, politics, business, and the press, known agents of International Communism are active. In no other place, which flies the Stars and Stripes, has Communism made the advance which it has in Hawaii. The Reds exert increasing strength in the political field and, by virtue of this, they have established considerable power in the local government — power which is growing by the year. By means of a cleverly concealed, well executed, and well financed propaganda program, they continuously exploit and intensify racial hatred, magnify social tensions, and undermine respect for the American government.

The most powerful civilian in Hawaii is not Governor Samuel Wilder King, but Jack Wayne Hall, regional director of the Communist dominated ILWU, convicted 33 months ago, with six other Communist leaders, of conspiracy to teach and advocate the overthrow of the United States Government by force and violence. He and his six fellow conspirators are still free on bail pending hearing of their first appeal which has been set for July 2nd, 1956. Hall's ILWU followers number 23,192 members in the Territory, according to the latest count.

Organization of the Communist movement in Hawaii began in earnest in 1936. At that time, there were slightly more than 50 Communists in the islands — most of them among the waterfront and maritime workers. Harry Kamoku organized the "Travellers Club" which was soon to become the nucleus of the Communist Party of Hawaii. In 1938, Jack Denichi Kimoto was appointed chairman of the Communist Party of Hawaii and returned from Los Angeles where he had formally joined the Party in 1931. Kimoto is one of the "Hawaii Seven."

Harry Bridges, head of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union sent Jack Hall to Hawaii for the dual purpose of organizing the ILWU and the Communist Party — according to sworn testimony of Louis Budenz. Hall arrived in Honolulu in 1935 and immediately began agitational propaganda work on "The Voice of Labor." He became regional leader of the ILWU in 1938 and attended the Red California Labor School in 1939.

Beginning in 1936, all Communist activity in Hawaii was under the jurisdiction of District 13 headquarters in San Francisco. This arrangement still exists today. Following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, couriers from District 13 headquarters ordered the disbandment of the Party in Hawaii but by 1942 the Party began to operate underground. By July, 1945, the Communist Party of Hawaii once again became more openly active.

In 1946, Kimoto still was head of the Party. Jack Hall had 33,000 followers in the ILWU and the most promising of these were sent to the Communist California Labor School for advanced training. By 1947, the Party had 15 branches (or cells) in the Islands; 11 of these were on Oahu. Due to the increased strength, the Reds sought to establish an open Party. After a bitter dispute within Party ranks, District 13 CP-USA intervened and decided upon the emergence into the open. Charles Fujimoto was appointed Party Chairman for Hawaii.

The same year saw the establishment of the "Honolulu Record," the present Communist paper in Hawaii. Edited by Koji Ariyoshi and assisted by Jack Denichi Kimoto, that paper is still going strong. It has been officially described as the "mouthpiece of the Communist Party." Yearly, right up to the present, $250,000 have been spent for propaganda purposes in the Territory.

Today in Hawaii, the Communists are still firmly entrenched. They control both the ILWU and the UPW with combined membership of those unions numbering in excess of 25,000 members. 150 individuals in the Islands have been identified under oath as Communists. 100 of these Reds are members of the ILWU — 40 of which are graduates of the Red California Labor School.

Communist propaganda is still extremely powerful. Besides the "Honolulu Record," which is also translated into Ilocano (a Filipino dialect), the Communists have three radio broadcasts daily sponsored by the ILWU. These broadcasts are originated by Robert McElrath, an identified Communist and graduate of the California Labor School, and are broadcast in English, Japanese, and Ilocano. These programs strictly follow the Party line. The ILWU also disseminates two pro-Communist union papers to its members.

In politics, the Communists have captured the local Democratic Party for all practical purposes. They first took over precinct organizations, and then succeeded in electing known Communists or Communist sympathizers as key officers in 80% of the Democratic precincts on the Island of Oahu. Known Communists keep sharp surveillance in Iolani Palace (Hawaii's capitol building) and have local politics completely under their influence. If popular elections for Governor were held (at present he is appointed), Jack Hall — the convicted Communist — would undoubtedly be elected.

The present legislature has practically forced the Territorial Commission on Subversive Activities out of business by slashing its funds from a requested $50,000 to a mere $20,000 which is forcing it to discard most of its personnel. Harry Bridges, Louis Goldblatt, and Jack Hall are idolized by many local politicians just as the natives used to idolize their pagan gods a hundred years ago. Every member of the Kauai County Board of Supervisors recently inserted paid congratulatory ads in the Communist "Honolulu Record."

The Territorial Commission on Subversive Activities has defined the aims of Communism in Hawaii as follows:

(1) To maintain control of decisive sections of organized labor.

(2) To create a social and political climate favorable to the Communists in their ultimate aim of controlling government.

(3) In furtherance of point two, to create and increase social tensions by exploiting and intensifying racial frictions, undermining respect for authority of established government institutions, and agitating class struggle.

No one in Hawaii can deny how close the Communists are in achieving all three of those aims.

The Communists also have made considerable progress in creating tense feelings between service personnel and local inhabitants. Recently, two servicemen have been killed by local hoodlums. The two individuals responsible for the actual deaths were given two and three year sentences, respectively, by a local judge. Assault cases upon servicemen by local gangs are reported practically daily in the press. Needless to say, the Communists protect every local hoodlum and condemn the armed services, which brings up another point.

As you are well aware, the Commanding General of the Far East Command is none other than General Lyman L. Lemnitzer who has been promoted in sky-rocket sequence since he sabotaged aid to the South Korean Republic in 1949 (see Williams "Know Your Enemy"). There is a report circulating that the United States Army of the Pacific (Hawaiian Command) may be combined with the Far East command and placed under Lemnitzer. If this occurs, the Communists will be aided all the more.

Among military circles here in Hawaii, there are two sacred cows above criticism when it comes to discussing past blunders and appeasements with the Communists, and those sacred cows are General George C. Marshall (who refused to arm 39 Nationalist divisions at the height of the Chinese Civil War) and Lemnitzer. The military frowns on anything resembling an anti-Communist feeling as "controversial." One would think that certain members of the Pacific brass are considerably out of place. Instead of being in a position of trust, certain of these individuals should be licking the boots of Baruch or lobbying for the Reds in the UN.

It appears that Lemnitzer is repeating his past actions (military sabotage) all over again by his drastic reductions of American forces from Korea and Japan. Indications point to an abandonment of Korea and of Japan in the not too distant future (Owen Lattimore must be back in circulation). Soviet strength has increased in the same ratio that American strength has decreased in the Far East. Lemnitzer is bound to be the next Chief of Staff, according to informed circles in Hawaii. The old pro-Red spirit of Owen Lattimore is amazingly alive here in Hawaii among high military personnel who should know better. Another Pearl Harbor attack is highly likely due to the complacency of certain leaders here in the Pacific.

As one of your readers, I am simply passing on these observations to point out the growth of Communist subversion and penetration in the Pacific from within our own territory. Every American should realize the advances being made by the Marxists in this quarter.

LET AMERICA TAKE HEED

GIBBON assigned many reasons for the collapse of that ancient civilization that was Rome. Among them are six mentioned: (1) rapid increase in divorce, which undermined the home as the basis of Roman society; (2) miscegenation and mongrelization; (3) destructive taxation and lavish governmental extravagance; (4) the mad craze for pleasure and brutalized amusement that had infected the entire population like some fearful plague; (5) gigantic armament programs against external foes when the real enemy was the decaying spirit and corruption of the people; (6) the decline in vital religion, which had become powerless in human lives and impotent in government policy.

Any student of current American history must be impressed by the ominous parallel between conditions in ancient Rome and apparent in American civilization today. We have the highest divorce rate on earth. Our divorce statistics are shocking. More shocking are the resulting evils in undermining the home, jeopardizing the welfare of children, promoting immorality associated with consecutive instead of contemporaneous polygamy and polyandry.

Our burden of taxation weighs heavily on people who strive to meet their ever-mounting taxes — income, property, excise, sales and an ever increasing array of hidden taxes. Have you ever calculated the hidden taxes on a loaf of bread?

Constitutional Congress Can Stop World Government!

By Senator William E. Jenner

You have been hearing expert testimony on the fantastic taxes you are paying your government today. I will try to show you something of what you are getting for your money.

Let me take, as an example, one of Mr. Acheson's most curious achievements, NATO.

I mentioned, at the N. Y. meeting of For America, that the North Atlantic Treaty area includes not only Britain, France, Benelux and the other West European powers, but the African territories of the member nations, their airplanes and their ships at sea. I received a doubting letter from someone in California, who asked if I hadn't made a mistake. Wasn't NATO, he said, limited to the nations of Western Europe?

I quoted from the North Atlantic Treaty, and added, "The NATO area also includes the Atlantic Ocean, Canada and the United States. San Francisco is as much NATO territory as Paris."

Why do our people have this propaganda picture of NATO as something limited to Western Europe, instead of a vast empire stretching from Alaska to the borders of Iran? Perhaps some one planned it that way!

Another evidence of NATO's importance is its financial resources. A report in the N. Y. Times of April 22nd, from the North Atlantic Council, date-lined Norfolk, Virginia, stated that the NATO nations had spent 316 billion dollars on defense in the past seven years.

Of that amount the United States spent 252 billions, or about five times as much as the other thirteen nations combined. It is true that part of our expenditures were for the Pacific area, but it is also true that most of the NATO members have Pacific territories. We also make non-military contributions to help support the budgets of member nations.

You may wonder why American defense expenditures are included in the NATO figures. Just remember that NATO is a holding company which silently directs the defense programs of member nations as Sam Insull's holding companies used to direct your local light and power companies.

THE NATO

GOVERNMENTAL STRUCTURE

NATO does not stop with pious statements of intention. It has governmental organs to put its intention into effect. Some one planned it that way.

NATO has a secretary-general and other officials, and a permanent international civil service. This purely executive operation is nowhere subject to any limits on its powers.

NATO has organs for budgeting, purchasing, letting of international contracts, accounting, auditing and inspection. Like Topsy, these agencies just grewed, but how they grewed!

The NATO Council of Foreign and other Ministers is the top policy-making layer. Their permanent deputies come next. The Joint Chiefs of each member nation form a third supervising layer, and a military executive committee in Washington is a fourth layer, all above the military commander who sits in splendor at the headquarters called SHAPE.

These powerful but almost invisible agencies give political guidance and strategic directions to the commander of the NATO forces.

NATO has its own armed forces in being. This is the crucial test of sovereignty. Its forces are made up of parts of the armed forces of the Western European member states assigned to it, and the components of our army stationed in Western Europe.

Whoever is guiding the evolution of NATO has been careful to avoid anything which would arouse American suspicions. The commanders of NATO forces have always been American — Generals Eisenhower, Ridgeway, and Gruenther. But the military commander is low man on the totem pole of the policy-making hierarchy in NATO.

Now it is perfectly clear, if you read the record, that these military contingents from the member nations form one integrated NATO armed force.

It is the duty of the Supreme Commander to see that they are integrated. Great care has been used to avoid visible signs of this integration. Uniforms are different. Titles are different. All the unimportant things are different. Some members of our armed forces sincerely believe the national contingents are still legally and militarily independent but I see no grounds for any such illusion. This hope is part, I believe, of the natural tendency of professional military men to believe our powerful military establishment is unchanged, if the only change is in the fine print of a legal document.

NATO'S POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POWERS

From the beginning, NATO has had political, economic and social as well as military responsibilities. Article 2 of the Treaty proclaims the intention of the signers to promote conditions of "stability and well-being." Words like "stability and well being," in present-day legislative drafting, are designed to cover the waterfront. The Ismay Report on the first five years of NATO, says and I quote, "Peace is not merely the absence of war. Its maintenance requires continuous cooperation by governments in the economic, social, and cultural as well as in the military field." Article 2 is, in fact merely a restatement of Articles 55 and 56 of the United Nations Charter.

NATO's aim is to unite all the member states into one community. What will be left of the American experiment, when we have been integrated with the political system of France, the economic system of Turkey, the social system of Italy? I do not know, but some one knows.

I can not understand the present hullabaloo over giving NATO economic and political responsibilities. Certainly Mr. Dulles, Prime Minister Mollet, Foreign Minister Lester Pearson and the other ministers of NATO nations know what was in the treaty and is now in full operation. The Three Wise Men who were assigned to present a program for enlarging the role of NATO may be needed to prepare public opinion, but not to provide any new powers.

Military responsibilities are in themselves both economic and political controls.

Armies consist of men, supplies, weapons, and the command and staff structure. Supplies and weapons are economic problems. Command and strategy are political. NATO moved early to authorize its bureaucratic agencies to oversee the production of weapons and supplies, and the financial operations involved in defense production by member nations.

The significant area of economic and political control is the planning of expenditures yet to come. Here the key word is "co-ordinated."

Congress Must Curb Supreme Court!

The Supreme Court of the United States, through the Segregation Decisions, and many previous decisions under the "commerce", the "welfare", and most of all, the "supreme law of the land" clauses of the Constitution, is completely destroying the fabric of our Republican form of Government. If the Court is permitted to continue the usurpation of the Legislative and Executive functions of government, both on the National and State level, it will make unnecessary the election of the Congress, the State Legislatures, county and municipal bodies, and every elected official in the States and communities, thus destroying the power of local public officials to protect the individual citizen. The United States District Courts would become the "commissars" for the operation of all government.

The above is from a speech of Representative John Bell Williams in the House of Representatives of the United States.

If you as an American citizen want to preserve our wonderful country, and wish to understand how ridiculous, impractical and criminal this Marxist move to abolish segregation really is, then we suggest you write for the complete speech of Congressman Williams.

Only Two Men On The High Court Have Had Judicial Experience

Boston, Mass.

To each Member of Congress -
Senate and House

Dear Sir:

Let the managing directors of Eggheads, Inc. gloat, in company with the Communists, over some half dozen recent Supreme Court Decisions! Let A.D.A.'s dear Eleanor and Adlai, juniors Rauh and Schlesinger, Robert Maynard Hutchins and their duly appointed mouthpieces Murrow, Meyer, Alsop, Sulzberger & Co. crow, with the DAILY WORKER and the N.Y. TIMES, over the Desegregation decision, comrade Steve Nelson's case overturning 42 states' anti-secession laws, all the way through to the latest which nullifies Nebraska's "right to work" laws.

I venture to suggest that their joy will be short lived.

These decisions can fool some of us all of the time, all of us some of the time—but they cannot fool all of us all of the time. "We, The People," are just waking up to the background of mediocrity characterizing our Supreme Court justices, a mediocrity which goes a long way toward explaining and accounting for the cute and cunning way these decisions were handed down, in direct conflict with the 9th and 10th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

The 9th Amendment reads:

"The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people."

The 10th Amendment reads:

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

It doesn't take a law degree (or Supreme Court experience, which 7 of our 9 high court justices did not have prior to their politically expedient appointments!) to see how the "republican form of government" guaranteed under our Constitution is being changed to a "peoples democracy", the best known example of which is the U.S.S.R.

And all this change is being accomplished right under our noses without the slightest compliance whatsoever with Article V of our Constitution, which sets forth the way, and only the way, our form of government can be changed.

Have "We, The People", no recourse to stop a controlled Supreme Court from taking away all our other rights, too?

We have a recourse—by impeachment of the incompetents—as provided in that same wonderful document of true freedom, our United States Constitution.

What are we waiting for?

Sincerely yours,
Kenneth D. Robertson, Jr.

Former Supreme Court Justice Speaks Out!

James F. Byrnes, former Justice of the Supreme Court of the U. S., also former member of the House of Representatives, a United States Senator, and Director of Economic Stabilization, Director of War Mobilization, U. S. Secretary of State, and now the Governor of the state of South Carolina.

Gov. Byrnes states:

"Power intoxicates men. It is never voluntarily surrendered. It must be taken from them.

"The Constitution authorizes the Congress to regulate the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. Loyal Americans, who believe in Constitutional government, appeal to the court of public opinion in the hope that you will ask the Congress to act before it is too late.

"The present trend of the court brings joy to the Communists and fellow travelers who want to see all power centered in the federal government, because they can more easily influence one government in Washington than 48 governments in 48 states.... To preserve the republic we must preserve what is left of the powers of the states. You may be unconcerned today. You may cry tomorrow. THE SUPREME COURT MUST BE CURBED."

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF SMALL BUSINESS

Fellow Citizen:

The U. S. Supreme Court is setting itself up as the highest, most infallible tribunal, yet it has reversed itself on many occasions.

In order to restore confidence of the citizens of our nation in the U. S. Supreme Court and to protect the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights, your support is urgently requested in bringing about the approval by the U. S. Congress and the various State Legislatures of the Twenty-third (23) Amendment to the Constitution entitled:

To regulate the Supreme Court of the United States of America.

Be it resolved:

No person shall be appointed by the President and confirmed by the U. S. Senate to the Office of a Justice or Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court unless he is a native born citizen of the United States of America and until he has served at least four years as a Judge of a lower Federal Court, or as a Judge of a court of last resort in one of the states composing this Union. Furthermore, not more than five persons adhering to the same political party shall ever serve as members of the U. S. Supreme Court at any one time, and the Chief Justice must be appointed from the members of the Supreme Court of the United States of America.

Resolved:

The Chief Justice must have served not less than four years as a Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court directly before appointment to the office of Chief Justice.

And be it further resolved:

The appointments of Justices and Chief Justice shall be limited to twelve years. After having served for twelve years a Justice and Chief Justice may be reappointed by the President and reapproved by members of the Senate.

Regardless of where you live, or what your political affiliations may be, you must be interested in the United States Supreme Court.

Only two of the Justices of the present U. S. Supreme Court have ever had any judicial experience. An appointment of a Supreme Court Justice should never again be approved as payment for a political debt.

The Judicial legislation being enacted by the U. S. Supreme Court to bring about a centralized government becomes more and more alarming to the citizens of our nation. Among the most disturbing rulings the Court has recently handed down are decisions nullifying the Fourteenth Amendment, the sedition laws of the various states, the decision on the Fifth Amendment, which makes it impossible for the states to protect themselves against Communist infiltration, the ruling regulating the development of the natural gas industry and interpreted the Robinson-Patman anti-monopoly law putting a loophole in it causing the greatest number of small business failures since before World War II.

We were successful in securing the approval of the Twenty-second (22) Amendment to the Constitution limiting the President's term of office to two terms of four years each. WE CAN DO IT AGAIN.

Your for keeping small business in business and

Very sincerely,

LET AMERICANS RALLY

The days of subversion have run their course: we are now on the way back, on a trail blazed by sacrificial, selfless Patriots! The honorable J. Bracken Lee, Governor of the Sovereign State of Utah, has burned his bridges in a noble attempt to SAVE the American Constitutional Representative Republic and Government.

Gov. Lee has refused to pay part of his 1955 income tax. He has taken the position that under the Constitution of the United States, the Federal Government has no right to tax U. S. citizens for the purpose of giving their money to foreign nations.

Gov. Lee has deposited the amount of money supposedly due for the taxes in a bank in escrow.

As a great patriot, he is willing to make of himself, a test case in order to prove whether or not we still have a Constitution.

LET ALL AMERICANS EVERYWHERE, OF SPINE AND SPIRIT, RALLY BEHIND HIM! "Gird up your loins, and fight the good fight!"

STOP WORLD GOVERNMENT

In the mushroom growth of the governmental network all over the world today, the Co-ordinators have all the fun. If any of you are ambitious to get a place in one of these hierarchies, get a job as a co-ordinator.

Then everybody will be working for your nod of approval, and their fate will be in your hands.

NATO puts what its members should do, in the form of "recommendations" to member governments. But what recommendations NATO has made to the American government I do not know. They are classified. You have to be a high official in the executive branch before you can be told. Members of Congress, the press and the people, lack the necessary intelligence or discretion or something. The facts on NATO must be kept from them!

At this point let me remind you there is nowhere in the North Atlantic Treaty system any provision for keeping Communists out of either its governing councils or its permanent international staff.

We know the high proportion of Communist voters in France and Italy. We know that, in Britain and Canada, Communism is strong, as it is in our own country. How much vital military information is channeled to the Communists by the NATO machinery? I do not know, but I consider it the neatest espionage set-up the Communists have yet devised, not excluding the agreement which put a Soviet national at the key point in the U.N. through which military reports are funneled. You remember how all General MacArthur's military reports on the Korean War were sent to a U.N. official from the USSR. How many such reports our busy bureaucrats are sending to NATO links in the Communist net, we can not know. Judging from the information we obtained under oath on the so-called international civil service of the United Nations, I fear the worst.

IS NATO REPLACING NATIONAL MILITARY FORCES?

We have one test case of how NATO planning works. That is in the mystifying developments in the re-arming of West Germany.

Somewhere in the maze of NATO it has been decided that West Germany may enlist her man-power, put her men in uniform and train them. But the West German government may not do certain other things. It may not have a military general staff. It may not have atomic weapons, chemical weapons, or the most modern planes.

Germany is the front line for the defense of all Western Europe. Who gains from a system which makes the German troops a mere armed horde, without its own general staff and without modern weapons of war?

Suppose we should face the threat of a war with the Soviet Union, and Germany wants to fight with us, but the other West European countries go neutralist? German troops will be bound hand and foot. Some one planned it that way.

I am troubled about another question. I wonder if this amputation of the essential organs of military power, in the case of Germany, is the pilot model for all national armies in the future? Are we moving—by deliberate plan—to the day when no nation will have a general staff, or atomic weapons, or air power?

NATO has a curious interest in civil defense. Now some of you are worried about the Constitutional dangers implicit in civil defense. These doubts were intensified in Washington, when our executive branch held a dress rehearsal for dispersal after an imaginary atomic bomb attack, and the President proclaimed martial law. Apparently it was a mistake in signals. The connection between atomic attack or even rumor of atomic attack, and martial law here at home, was not supposed to be brought out so clearly.

So far NATO has operated with a velvet quiet. But it is getting too large and too important for secrecy. So what is the alternative? NATO is stepping up its machinery for saturating our minds with propaganda, through the printed word, motion pictures, radio, student tours, and all other devices for political brain-washing.

HOW NATO ERODES OUR CONSTITUTION

Constitutionally NATO is not responsible to the people of the member nations. Only the executive branch has any influence on the policies of NATO. Only the executive branch is permitted to learn what NATO decides. The growth of NATO is a continuation, in another form, of the mushroom growth of the executive power, far beyond the point where it can be influenced by Congress, the courts, the press or the people.

But note this. Under the American Constitution, when the people wanted to change their government policies, they voted the administration out of power, and out it went. Today our elected officials, and their advisers, are wedged tightly between an internationalist bureaucracy above them and an independent self-guiding bureaucracy below them. The officials in the front windows may be changed by a national election, but they can make almost no change in our policies.

I have given you the simplest, most unemotional and undramatic presentation I could make of the information about NATO, from its own published reports.

NATO is part of a system of regional pacts which includes SEATO, and the Organization of the American States, that strange new agency, which has locked the Pan American Union firmly into the United Nations, where we of the America's can now act only with approval of Soviet Russia in the Security Council.

Do you like this silent relentless drive to world government?

Do you think global executive supremacy is superior to American Constitutional freedom?

Do you think the clever men who planned this devious political strait-jacket should be trusted with making American policies, in the life and death struggle with the Communist elite?

CONGRESS ALONE CAN DEMOLISH WORLD GOVERNMENT

You ask what you can do, to help destroy this super-structure which cages us in.

There is no slightest hope that anyone in the executive branch can cast off the chains that bind us. The weaving of the net was too cleverly done.

YOU KNOW FULL WELL THAT OUR SUPREME COURT WILL NOT DO IT.

The only power that can restore Constitutional liberty is the Congress. On Feb. 11th, I said, "We must put none but Constitutionalists on guard in Congress." But people say, "What do you mean. How can we do that?"

Isn't it pitiful that Americans do not know how to get a Congress that represents them?

Let me give you a short-cut method of electing a Constitutionalist Congress. Study how left-wingers have year after year elected their left-wing, collectivist, internationalist spokesmen in Congress!

The collectivists understood something we have forgotten. The political contest to win the executive branch is entirely different from the contest for control of Congress. The executive branch operates as a unit. It is a Roosevelt administration, or a Truman administration, or an Eisenhower administration. The fight at election time is for large blocs of votes in key states, to win or lose all, for four years.

Congress is entirely different. Nearly 50% of the members of both houses speak for the party out of power. The problem is to tip the balance in Congress. A few districts mean victory. Every Congressional district, every Senatorial contest, in large or small states, is critical. It may be the battle which wins the war.

COLLECTIVISTS HAVE A GRAND STRATEGY TO WIN CONGRESS

The collectivists have carefully planned the strategy and tactics for Congressional elections. Sidney Hillman taught them, many years ago, to fight for the marginal districts, to win where the other party's margin was small.

The collectivists see the Congressional campaign as a chess-board on which is clearly marked the margin of victory, and the record of opposing candidates, in every Congressional district in the United States.

The objective of their strategy is to help collectivists to defeat Constitutionlists. They work in both parties, because they know the Constitutional struggle is far more fundamental than the contest between parties.

The collectivists have perfected three techniques. First, they build a vigorous organization in every district, to ring door bells. It is directed by their national agencies, but appears to work through local people.

Second, they build up a nation-wide propaganda to indoctrinate people with the left-wing policies which their candidates will be supporting.

Third, they mount an intensive campaign, backed by all their resources of money, propaganda, and organizations, to destroy the leadership candidates on the conservative side, and to elect outstanding candidates on their side.

For many years the collectivists have worked together brilliantly, along all three roads, regardless of party, to elect men to Congress who will serve their purpose, and to pass a political death sentence against those who oppose Communism, Socialism, big spending or internationalism. The attack on the 80th Congress, which exposed wartime Communism, was their most blatant, but not their only, victory.

CONSTITUTIONALISTS CAN BEGIN TO FIGHT FOR CONGRESS

The Constitutionlists have no comparable organization to help American nationalists in their districts, to create a tide of opinion in favor of Constitutionalism, or to strengthen the leadership on their own side in both houses, and defeat the leaders on the other side. They have never tried to tip the balance in Congress to the conservative side.

For decades, the voters who revere the Constitution have sulked in their tents like Achilles, while collectivists were out ringing door-bells, keeping up a continuous barrage of collectivist ideas in the press, over the air, and in a thousand papers and magazines, and sending their best teams to drive from public life the leaders of Constitutionalism in Congress.

For decades conservative voters have watched the balance of power in Congress being pushed toward the left, a little more every year, and done nothing. Then they wonder why Members of Congress who were elected by the left-wingers vote for foreign Communist Secret Manual Now In Print!

Kenneth Goff

Because of the drive to introduce Mental Health Bills in every state of our nation, and the attempt under the Alaskan Mental Health Bill to establish an American Siberia in Alaska, where men and women who fight Communism and the hidden government could be incarcerated, and because of the wide use of fluoridation, and the brainwashing of our American boys in Korea, I felt it necessary to publish this secret manuscript of the Communist Party on how to seize a nation by the conquering of the minds of its people. This manuscript contains 16 chapters and an address by Beria to the Lenin University to a class on psychopolitics.

At the present time the Communists are seeking to capture the minds of the American public. They openly state:

"The end justifies the means. The degradation of the populace is less inhuman than their destruction by atom bomb, for to an animal who lives only once any life is sweeter than death. The end of a war is the control of a conquered people. If a people can be conquered in the absence of war, the end of war will have been achieved without the destruction of war."

Let me quote a few paragraphs which believe are very important in the book:

"You must work until religion is synonymous with insanity. You must work until the officials of city, county and state governments will not think twice before they pounce upon religious groups as public enemies." (page 60)

"By thus inviting the cooperation of the population as a whole in mental health programs, the terrors of mental aberration can be disseminated throughout the populace. Furthermore, each one of these mental health groups, properly guided, can bring, at last, legislative pressure against the government to secure adequately the position of the psychopolitic's operative, and to obtain for him government grants and facilities, thus bringing a government to finance its own downfall."

Time and space does not allow more quotes from the book, but this manual of the Communist Party used in this country lays the groundwork for the seizure of our nation without firing a shot. At present its program is going forward as per schedule, and it is high time that every American awakened to the realization of what is going on in its midst. This book is of vital importance to you and your family and to your friends. This is one of the most shocking revelations to ever come before the American public.

TASS NEWS AGENCY COVER FOR SPIES!

FROM THE SENATE INTERNAL SECURITY SUBCOMMITTEE

The official Soviet news agency, TASS, poses a major security problem to the United States, said Senator James O. Eastland, (D-Miss.).

The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, of which he is chairman, has recently been hearing a considerable volume of testimony about the agency, how it works, how it obtains its personnel, the type of news it handles and the way it selects its news.

"We have heard testimony, under oath," Senator Eastland said, "that 80 to 85 per cent of TASS employees are agents of one or another of the several Soviet intelligence groups."

"For instance, Col. Ismail Ege, who was chief of the Fourth section of Soviet Military Intelligence, charged with procuring technical military detail, told us that, when he was assigned to Berlin, in 1941, he was given credentials as a Tass employee under an assumed name and false personal history. At that time, he said, every member of the TASS staff was a Soviet intelligence operative. The same thing, he said, was true in Ankara, when he was assigned there later as press attache."

"TASS, he said, is an excellent 'cover' for a secret agent because 'we had social standing—(were) invited to social parties, to conferences, to press conferences. We had access to press members of other agencies.'"

Ege said that, from his 12 years as a Soviet intelligence agent, from his contacts with the director of Soviet intelligence and other high ranking intelligence officers, he knew that TASS is used in the United States, just as it is in other countries. He said TASS should be even more effective in the U. S. because of "freedom of movement—freedom of speech and (because) people could not believe that TASS was used for military espionage."

The Communist Party has its own network, Ege said, with contacts with the military groups and secret police. But he said TASS members are not allowed special orders to come in contact with foreign Communists, because of the possibility that either or both might be exposed.

Any contact, he said, between the Communist Party and the military intelligence or secret police networks is made secretly.

It is forbidden, Ege said, to use TASS transmission facilities for intelligence matters. Intelligence reports, he explained, are sent to Moscow by diplomatic pouch, or in cipher by radio.

Since the Soviet is a big power, he said, it needs cover for many espionage agents, and for that purpose it uses "all Soviet institutions operating abroad, like Soviet embassies, consulates, trade missions and so on," as well as TASS. He said that, while the first, second and third secretaries of a Soviet embassy are used as cover for intelligence operators, embassy employees are suspect and subject to surveillance. Other witnesses have testified that while Panushkin was ambassador to this country from 1947 to 1953, he was chief of the Soviet intelligence service in Washington and that, after his departure from the U. S., became a high official in the Soviet intelligence service in Moscow. One of these witnesses, himself, operated as a Soviet intelligence agent from the cover of second secretary of a Soviet foreign mission.

Colonel Ege declared that, even in its news

report, TASS presents a distorted picture of world events. "We were ordered," he said, "to select news in order that it be used in the interests of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union." He asserted: "I don't know a fact or a day when TASS was just engaged in an objective way of gathering news for news."

"Thus," said Senator Eastland, "we seem to have two indictments against this Soviet news agency: first, that it is used as a cover for Soviet spies; second, that it serves the interest of Soviet propagandists who take the selected news items and turn them back, in a distorted way to the whole world."

"I would not disturb the freedom of operation of any legitimate news agency or newspaper reporters in this country, nor do I wish to lessen any freedoms which are enjoyed by our newsmen, abroad, but it seems to me there should be some way to give fuller protection to the security and good name of the United States when it is subjected to such activities as have been attributed to TASS."

aid and big spending.

Jim Farley had a saying which we ought to heed. He kept repeating, "In politics, you can't beat something with nothing."

Congressional elections are three months away. For all of those three months the collectivist political machine will be in high gear, working in and through both parties, to destroy the remnants of American Constitutionalism. What will you be doing?

If you wish, you can do something. Now is the moment. You can take your eyes off Washington, and ring door-bells in your own district. You can ask For America to compile a list of the hard core of leadership on the left and try to defeat it. Also a list of the hard core of leadership on the American side, and reinforce it. You can study how the collectivists spread their slogans and symbols and then tell the story of our Constitution as it affects the fight today.

You may not win a majority in Congress on the first try, but you can begin to tip the balance your way. In each succeeding Congress you can do a little more. In a few short years you can have a Constitutionalist Congress. Then your Congress can cut down big spending and demobilize the bureaucratic elite. Or, if you wish, you can do nothing.

Let me end with this. While you do nothing, the mesh of world government is being woven tighter and tighter, in the U.N., in NATO, in SEATO, and in UNESCO.

It is moving to control your money, your foreign policies, your armies, and the minds of your little children.

The collectivists are watching. They will know the moment when they dare spring the trap. Once they spring the trap, my friends, I promise you, you will be helpless to do anything.

IKE AND CATTLE

Eisenhower knows the value of a pure-bred herd and on his Gettysburg farm practices segregation of his Black Angus from Hereford cattle.

Are we, human beings, not entitled to maintain a pure race of people as much as Eisenhower is entitled to maintain a pure breed of cattle? Evidently not, according to the Supreme Court's recent decree.

Senator Johnson's Victory In Texas- A Major Tragedy In U.S. History

By Robert H. Williams (Reprinted from Williams Intelligence Summary, P. O. Box 868, Santa Ana, California)

When Senator Lyndon Johnson's forces beat those of Governor Allan Shivers in the precinct, county and state Democratic conventions in Texas, the victors crowed in the usual fashion of political winners.

There were no doubt a lot of good people in the Johnson crowd, but for the most part they were people bent only on winning an election and keeping their own crowd in power.

The fact is, these unthinking, perhaps well meaning people struck their country one of the most costly blows of recent years. I am sure if the rank and file who followed the Johnson lead should suddenly look at the two-thousand-year-old struggle of the Western man to establish and maintain human freedom, if they could look back down the telescope of time and suddenly see what they had done—they would be appalled.

For they probably killed the one great upsurge of indignation of recent years, which gave promise of overthrowing the alien Socialist New Deal forces which had captured control of both major political parties.

The Texas convention victory for Johnson may well have killed the movement for a new conservative party, a movement which had become so strong (especially after Eisenhower and Earl Warren engineered the de-segregation tyranny over the 48 states) that it was about to force the nomination of a conservative candidate on one or both the old line major parties, or launch a new party.

ADING REVOLUTION

To understand the historic crisis it is necessary to understand that our country and the whole world are caught in the holocaust of the greatest of all the Jewish-inspired revolutions. Crazed by the old Testament and Talmudic "master race" incitation, the Jewish rabbis, and in recent times political and financial leaders, spawned a movement called Communism. Their prophets inspired the French revolution (which so misled and misguided Christians and gentiles that they guillotined the best of their neighbors and leaders in the streets of Paris.) One of their later prophets, Karl Marx, put their revolutionary front movement on the road with his Communist Manifesto.

Another of their leaders (associated with Marx, but somewhat anti-dating him), the Jewish "German" poet Heinrich Heine, leader of the Communist youth of the 1830s, and 1840s, foretold that Communism would capture mighty Russia and the whole world would then become "one flock" under "one shepherd—one free shepherd with iron staff, and a shorn-alike, bleating-alike human herd!—The future smells of Russian leather, blood, godlessness and many whippings. I should advise our grandchildren to be born with very thick skins on their backs."

The Jewish revolutionaries, gifted, crafty men dedicated to the age-old goal of exterminating Christianity and subjugating all nations, and willing to use their fabulous wealth to promote this end—were so sure of success, in view of their many successful revolutions of past ages that they would dare to predict, and could in fact predict, the

ROBERT H. WILLIAMS

Communist revolution in Russia eighty years in advance.

After their descendants imposed the Communist power on the shorn-alike, bleating-alike Russians, many of the Jewish organizers began slipping out of Russia into the United States. Their forerunners already were here, including the late Jacob Schiff, head of the foremost Jewish banking house in America, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and his associates, one of whom was Herbert H. Lehman (now a Senator, elected with the open support of the Communist Party, as you doubtless noticed in the newspapers).

Our immigration gates stood wide open. The revolutionaries poured in by the thousands. We were naive and trusting. Our newspapers received and published stories from Europe that the Jews were persecuted; so we accepted them with open arms. Not realizing that the European news wire services were Jewish founded and owned, and many of the correspondents were Marxist indoctrinated Jewish revolutionaries.

While the kindly, blindly tolerant Americans still slept, the alien invaders set up a great revolutionary regime called the New Deal, surrounding and advising President Roosevelt, who apparently did not even catch an inkling of how he was being used till a few weeks before his death.

JOHNSON TALKS LIKE COMMUNIST

The Jewish Reds, now with wealth far greater than ever before in their history, established several mighty organizations and a movement which today they call Zionism. While the Communists make their principle vehicle of destruction of Western civilization and Western nations, the device of forcing race warfare and the inter-breeding and certain destruction of the White resistance—White solidarity and its Christian religion—the Zionists promote the same Marxist destruction of all but their own race. The Zionist so incite their own people and so quicken their Jewish nationalism and make them believe they are persecuted and threatened by those who fight Communism and Zionist subversion, that they keep their fellow Jews from inter-breeding, they keep them from falling for their own brotherhood, race-mixing propaganda.

The New Deal was first an early, then an advanced stage, of Communist-Zionist Marxism. It was the device for throwing the reins of government and eventually all the property in America into a central government in Washington, which the Jewish missionaries of the movement naturally expected to dominate.

The great obstacle in their way was the Anglo-Saxon conscious South, with its high percentage of good blood and its fighting courage.

After the New Deal got Eisenhower into the White House, Ike appointed their man Earl Warren, whose closest political advisers were his wife (who came to America from Europe, an adult, thoroughly indoctrinated with European Socialism), and Jesse Steinhardt, San Francisco attorney, and a national commissioner of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

JOHNSON MEETS WITH RED B'NAI B'RITH

And of course Warren led the already packed New Deal Supreme Court to destroy racial segregation, greatly advancing the Communist-Zionist objective and furthering the destruction of states rights and the further centralization of power in Washington.

The conservative citizens, North and South, Republican and Democrat, got so mad at long last that they were rebelling. We had a good chance to force the nomination of a President who would re-establish the doctrine of states rights, and perhaps bring the subversive Anti-Defamation League to justice and send its leaders to prison for plotting revolution and for protecting the Communist spies and other agents.

But Lyndon Johnson was hell bent on being the big shot. And what he knows about the history of this growing world Officials in Wash. D. C. are sending their children across the line into Virginia and Maryland, to private schools (all white) since the Supreme Court ruled on segregation.

It's fine for your boy and girl to mix with the negro, but our Washington officials want their children protected in private schools.

EARL WARREN

PLUNDER IN THE HOLY LAND

[] By Henry Cattán

"We lost everything," say Palestine refugees—"and time will not bring acceptance of Israel's gun-point thievery."

The problem presented by the seizure by Israel of the properties of Arab refugees is intimately connected with the problem of Palestine as a whole. It cannot, therefore, be well visualized without a brief reference to the historical and political background of the Palestine problem.

At the end of the first World War, the number of Jews in Palestine did not exceed 50,000 as compared with over 650,000 Arabs. The Arabs had inhabited Palestine for more than thirteen centuries. Great Britain, appointed in 1922 by the League of Nations as Mandatory Government over Palestine, then began to facilitate the immigration of Jews into that country.

Such immigration took place against the wishes of the Arabs, the lawful and original inhabitants of the land, with the result that in 1927 the number of Jewish inhabitants, swelled by the waves of immigrants, reached 750,000. The Arab population, on the other hand, by natural increase over a period of thirty years, had almost doubled in number.

In 1947, as a result of political maneuvers and machinations too long to detail here, the United Nations recommended the partition of Palestine among its original inhabitants and the new immigrants, allocating to the Jews on arbitrary grounds areas amounting to 40% of the general area of Palestine, notwithstanding the fact that the Jews then owned less than 7% of the total area of the country.

The figures as to the respective ownership of land by Arabs and Jews in Palestine is well established by Land Registry records and official statistics published by the Palestine Government before the end of the mandate. According to official records, the Jews owned in the whole of Palestine in 1948, one million and a half dunums (4.05 dunums equal 1 acre) of land out of a total area of 25 million dunums. The proportion of Jewish-owned property is therefore, less than 7% of the area of Palestine.

The Arabs, on the other hand, who owned and possessed 93% of the area of Palestine were allotted the remaining regions mostly arid—amounting to 60% of the area of the country.

On May, 15, 1948, the British Mandate over Palestine ended in conditions of chaos and confusion. The Arabs opposed the partition of their country and the creation of an Israel State carved from their ancestral land. A conflict ensued. In this conflict, however, the arms of the Arabs were only right and justice; the arms of the Israelis were bombs, machine guns, and terrorism. If comparisons of the degrees of savagery may be made, the Deir Yasin massacre of Arab men, women and children far exceeded, in horror and brutality, the outrages at Lidice and Ouradour during the last World War. Israeli terrorism succeeded. Some 900,000 Arabs had to abandon their homes, their lands, and now live as refugees in camps or caves.

The Israeli success over the unorganized Arab inhabitants of Palestine, achieved by a horrible terrorism, was condemned by the late Count Bernadotte, U. N. Mediator (himself assassinated by Israelis in Jerusalem in Sept. 1948). It is now heartlessly described by the Israelis as "winning the war over the Arabs!"

The Arab withdrawal enabled the Israelis to seize 70% of the Palestine area—that is, almost double the area allotted to them by the U. N. We now have, therefore, this unnatural and illogical situation of the Israelis owning less than 7% of Palestine, but occupying and claiming retention of 70% of the total area. They now occupy whole Arab cities, tens of thousands of Arab homes and thousands of Arab villages with their lands and groves.

The majority of the Israeli population today lives in Arab houses. Over 90% of the Israel cultivation live on Arab-owned land. Arab citrus and olive groves which were taken over by the Israeli government, account for the largest percentage of the government's income from foreign exports.

Let us overlook for a minute the basic injustice arising from the U. N. decision on partition. Let us focus our attention on the areas, cities and villages allocated to the Arabs by the decision of the United Nations, but seized and occupied by the Israelis in 1948 beyond the limits and boundaries assigned to them. Here, we observe two basic facts of major importance. These two facts are not sufficiently known or appreciated. If they were, they would guide those concerned towards redress of a gross injustice and a substantial solution of the tragic plight of Arab refugees.

The first fact that must be considered is the ownership of such areas occupied by Israel beyond the limits and boundaries assigned to them. The following table gives this information:

Western Galilee, Arabs 87 percent, Jews 3 percent, Others 10 percent; Jerusalem Area, Arabs 99 percent, Jews 1 percent; Ramleh and Lydda Areas, Arabs 77 percent, Jews 14 percent, Others 9 percent; Hebron Area, Arabs 96 percent, Jews 1 percent, Others 3 percent.

The figures just quoted are taken from Appendix 5 to the Report of the Second Committee on Palestine, submitted to the General Assembly in 1947 (Document A/AC-14-32 of 11 Nov. 1947) and are based on official figures and records of ownership of land.

The second fact concerns the number of Arabs dispossessed and displaced by the Jewish occupation of those areas. The number of people who have become refugees as a result of the seizure by the Jews of Western Galilee, the Jerusalem area, the Ramleh, Lydda and Hebron areas, including the cities of Jaffa and Acre, exceeds half a million people.

It can, therefore, be easily seen that if the United Nations instituted at least one evacuation by Israel of the areas that it seized beyond the boundaries assigned to it by the United Nations, more than half of the present number of Arab refugees would be able to return to their lands and their homes.

It is distressing that neither the U.N. nor the Great Powers—whose interests are related to stability in the Middle East—have made it their policy that Israel should evacuate the area it has seized in Palestine, in violation of the resolutions of the U. N. It is a recognized principle of international law developed after World War I, not to recognize title by conquest. It has even been specifically stated in 1948, by the Chief Delegate of the United States to the U. N., that his country will not recognize the title of Israel to lands occupied by it beyond the area allotted by the United Nations.

The value of principles, however, depend upon their enforcement. The principle of non-recognition of conquest or seizure was enforced in Korea and other places—but it has remained a dead letter in Palestine.

The value of Arab properties now seized by the Israelis is tremendous. Although no proper estimate has ever been made of such properties yet, the figure runs between 15 and 16 billion dollars.

In 1950 the U. N. Conciliation Commission for Palestine set up a Committee of experts to evaluate Arab properties in Israel. This Committee, disregarding market prices and established values, proceeded to evaluate Arab agricultural lands and urban properties on the basis of their notional tax value as it stood in the tax books as of the year 1947. Instead of attempting to ascertain what the value was, it attempted to lay down what the value should be, naturally, in favor of Israel.

By this arbitrary method, the Committee arrived at the ridiculous figure of 100 million sterling, a sum which represents about two and one half percent of the real market value of Arab properties in Israel. The figure suggested by this Committee is equivalent to confiscation rather than compensation.

When one recalls that the Jews had before the end of the Mandate, spent several times that amount in order to acquire less than 7% of the land of Palestine, one clearly realizes that the figure suggested is quite unreasonable as being the value of the remainder of the area, with the addition of a few Arab cities like Jerusalem, Jaffa, Haifa, Lydda, Ramleh, and Safad, and a few thousand villages and thousands of orange, olive and fruit groves. It goes without saying that this incongruous evaluation was rejected by the Arabs.

At present, many persons, unaware or unconscious of the magnitude of Arab assets in Palestine, talk of compensation. Even if the principle of compensation were to be acceptable to Arab refugees—a fact which Arabs do not concede, because the Arabs prefer to recover their homes and lands rather than be compensated—therefore the compensation if it is to be adequate and commensurate with the value of such properties is clearly beyond the financial American money and American Jewish power is responsible for the desperation of thousands of Arabs and Christians in the desert today.

Patriot's Answer To Smear Attempt

By Hamilton Fish

(reprinted from the BROOKLYN TABLET)

This is in answer to the veiled implications that Nazi money was given in 1940 to the National Committee to keep America Out of War. I was Chairman of the Committee, composed of 50 members of the House of Representatives and a few former members, and I welcome the opportunity to defend its actions and all of its members.

We had only one objective: to keep America out of the European conflict, representing the sentiment of 85 per cent of the American people, according to public opinion polls at that time.

We raised approximately $4,000, sufficient for our purposes of using every legitimate means to keep us out of war, including one advertisement in the N. Y. "Times" just prior to the Republican convention in 1940.

We never received, and never were offered any Nazi money. There is not an iota of evidence of any kind that a single cent was ever given to the Committee.

I have been asked why the State Dept. released this dead cat 16 years afterwards, and whether it was routine procedure or premeditated for political purposes.

If I thought it was a political release made in desperation to head off the rising

Former Congressman Hamilton Fish

tide of Americanism, I would denounce Secretary (of State John Foster) Dulles without reservations, and the New Deal internationalist hold-overs in the department, for another attempt to smear the 1940 Republican non-interventionists who represented 85 per cent of the people, and who in 1952 still constituted one-half of the Republican Party under the leadership of Sen. (Robert A.) Taft.

In the last year, the pendulum has swung back and I believe today that once again a large majority of the Republican Party is opposed to our huge foreign handouts, to making the NATO a world government, and are in favor of the Bricker Amendment. If Secretary Dulles wants to debate our foreign handouts and One Worldism, without dead cats, I accept the challenge. The overwhelming rejection of Senator (Alexander) Wiley by the Republican convention in Wisconsin, where the Republican Party was born; and the withdrawal of Senator (Walter) George because of opposition to his intense internationalism and support of foreign handouts, are significant political-opinion straws, indicating distaste of our extreme internationalistic policies. Public opinion is now once again in favor of placing our own American interests first.

I was proud to be associated with such

Plunder In Holy Land — Continued— means of Israel.

In any event, the question of compensation in respect of Arab properties cannot be considered in relation to Arab properties in Jerusalem (which is subject to internationalization) or to areas of Palestine occupied by Israel beyond the boundaries of the U. N. resolution on partition. Any discussion as to compensation in such areas, is an indirect attempt to attribute to Israel title to territories held by it in contravention of, and in contemptuous defiance of resolutions of this international assembly. The question of compensation should, therefore, be so circumscribed.

Moreover, compensation can only be discussed when the Arab refugees are allowed to exercise the right, recognized in principle by the U. N. but denied in practice by Israel, of returning to their homes. Only in the case of such refugees as decline to exercise the right to return would the question of compensation arise.

One solution that has never been explored would be the possibility of making exchanges between Arab properties in Israel as circumscribed by UN boundaries and Jewish properties in the Arab countries. But all this is entirely dependent and contingent upon Israel's preparedness to submit to resolutions of the U. N., of which there has been as yet no sign. Otherwise, any talk of compensation is futile and sterile.

Arab properties are at present vested in the Israeli Custodian of Absentee Properties. Absentee means Palestinian Arabs, and includes subjects or residents of Lebanon, Egypt, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Iraq or Yemen. The Custodian leases and administers Arab properties; he may even, in certain cases, sell or transfer the right of ownership thereto. The produce of vested properties is itself vested in the Custodian. Such produce is charged with taxes, rates, administration expenses and repairs.

Such is the picture in relation to real property. The question of movables is somewhat different. It is well known that by reason of the sudden aggravation of events in 1948, most of the refugees left their homes, shops and businesses without being able to take any of their effects or belongings with them. Some 200,000 Arab homes were looted by Israel and Israelis. Some of those homes were rich, full of silver, carpets and furs; many were modest, many more were poor.

The fact, however, remains that an organized and general pillage of Arab homes occurred which left no traces of the effects and belongings of over 900,000 Arabs. The same story may be told of the contents of thousands of Arab stores, shops and offices.

Some goods were seized by the Israeli authorities but the larger part was allowed to be pillaged.

The United Nations, by its misguided decision to partition Palestine, is largely responsible for the present political mess in the Middle East and the tragic problem of refugees. What has it done to remedy the situation? True, as principal contributor to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency, it is providing Arab refugees the barest means of existence at a rate of less than $2.00 a month per head. That, however, is equivalent to feeding a patient who is still on the operating table merely to keep him alive. The wounds are not sutured, the poison is still circulating in the body; the surgeon is distracted and talks to his assistants about other irrelevant matters, such as river diversion and water distribution which, when overheard by the patient in his moments of consciousness, merely worsen his physical and moral condition.

The General Assembly of the United Nations, on Dec. 11, 1948, passed a resolution recommending the following measures:

1. That refugees be permitted to return to their homeland.
2. That compensation be paid in respect of the properties of those that do not wish to return.
3. That compensation be paid in respect of damages and losses relating to property which is recoverable in accordance with principles of international law, equity and justice from the governments or authorities concerned.

What has happened since the date of that resolution? NOTHING! Not one refugee was permitted to return and not one piastre was paid as compensation. Israel is not disposed to permit Arab refugees to return to their homes or to pay them compensation.

The United Nations also passed another resolution. It recommended in 1949 in its Paris session that the Conciliation Commission should take all conservatory measures for the protection and preservation of the rights, interests and properties of Arab refugees. What has been done in this respect? NOTHING!

Israel has, however, been doing a lot. It has destroyed some two hundred villages (including their churches and mosques) and wiped them completely from the surface of the earth (see the names of those villages listed in a Christian-Arab church magazine Al-Rabita, Nov. 1953, published in Israel by the Catholic Melkite Patriarchate). It has uprooted thousands of acres of Arab orange groves.

It is actively and gradually confiscating Arab properties. This is how it is done. In March 1953, Israel passed the Land Acquisition Law. Under this law, power is given to expropriate Arab properties and register them in the name of the Israeli authorities. A nominal amount as compensation is evaluated in favor of the owner and then such amount is vested in the Custodian. This method of acquisition of the properties of Arab refugees is made to look, in appearance, like a legal expropriation, but in fact and in substance, it is a blatant confiscation. Arab properties are thus gradually passed into Israeli ownership without the UN lifting a finger or raising its voice.

The Arabs do not recognize Israel. Nor do they recognize anything done by it, whether it take the form of expropriation or confiscation. Israel is literally settled in another man's home; it has bolted the door and fixed guns at all windows fearing the return of the owner and his family. This large scale robbery of the homeland of a million Arab refugees will never be accepted. Such an injustice cannot go unrequited.

The treatment of the Palestine question by the United Nations has shown basic ignorance of the facts and complete indifference to consequences. The partition resolution was itself the most serious blunder. It has created the present explosive instability in the Middle East. And all subsequent resolutions of this international assembly have evidenced a total non-comprehension of the facts and premises of the Palestine problem and the principles to be followed in its solution.

The attitude of Arab refugees is principally and basically an ardent desire and inflexible determination to return to their homes and their lands. This desire is natural. It does no good to compare them with other refugee groups. The tragedy that has befallen the Arab refugees has no parallel in modern history. The Germans and Italians lost the war, but they still live in their homes and have their country. The Arab refugees have not fought or lost any war, but have lost their homes and their country. It is, therefore, obvious that the solution of the Palestine problem cannot be financial, but must be territorial. Compensation for properties can only be incidental to a solution, not the solution.

The question of Arab properties is one that carries serious consequences for the social, political and economic situation of the Middle East. It is, however, one face only of the problem. It cannot be solved without, or separated from, the main political problem of Palestine, in fact, it is an inseparable part of it. Such problem remains the most explosive in the Middle East today. It will remain so until it receives a solution based on elementary principles of justice and equity.

revolution and its threat to degrade and humiliate and enslave our children as it enslaved the Russian people, is probably not much; and from what I know of Lyndon Johnson, he would not give much thought to the matter even if he understood it. He is too deeply involved in scheming and conniving for personal political advantage.

Even so, it was a little surprising to me that he would be so openly bold as to go immediately after his victory in the precinct conventions, before the mighty political power, the B'nai B'rith, in Washington, D. C., and report to his masters. Here is a quotation from an item on page 1, of the Sweetwater, Texas, Daily Reporter, May 9, 1956—a dispatch from Washington:

"The red carpet for the returning conqueror was rolled out here last night for Sen. Lyndon Johnson—The Senate majority leader told the crowd that the issue in his victory over Gov. Allan Shivers in Democratic precinct and county conventions—was a question whether extremists and forces of reaction or those of moderation would prevail.

"Later at a B'nai B'rith dinner Johnson praised the organization's Anti-Defamation League and said, 'I want to call your attention that the people of Texas last Saturday overwhelmingly rejected the politicians who stooped to bigotry.' Johnson added that Texas voters had 'rejected efforts to inject race hatred into the campaign'."

Read that statement again, fellow American. It might well have come directly out of the Communist Daily Worker or the Anti-Defamation League Bulletin. It is the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, (of which Senator Lehman is a vice president) which, with the American Jewish Committee (of which Lehman is a principal policy maker) steers and incites the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. I have recently published quotations from the American Jewish Committee Budget Report, 1953, in which this revolutionary anti-Christian machine told how it shaped and helped finance the program of the NAACP.

Lehman is also one of the founders and principal policy makers of the Americans amounting to many millions of dollars, spent for British propaganda in the United States in World War II.

How much of these huge sums came from Lend-Lease money or actually from our own taxpayers, to involve us in a war against the wishes of the taxpayers and of most of the American people?

I am proud of the fact that up to Pearl Harbor I did everything in my power to keep us out of war. I voted for war after Pearl Harbor, but what a tragedy it turned out to be!

We had a million casualties, spent billions to destroy Germany and Japan—the only powerful barriers to the spread of world Communism. Hitler was replaced by Stalin, and 70,000,000 Germans by 700,000,000 Communists.

Now we are trying to placate West Germany, Japan and Spain, and make military allies of them.

We have spent over fifty billion dollars since the war, in foreign handouts, and the more we spend, the more we are hated, because Britain, France and Italy fear we are trying to drag them into World War III.

The truth is that the result of the second world war, which we entered to save the liberty of Poland and the smaller nations, was that we threw them to the dogs and Communism, which has taken over half of the world. What a tragedy and travesty it has all been! The American people are just beginning to realize the ghastly blunders of our war-making internationalism. We are now confronted by world Communism, a frightful, evil, dangerous and powerful force which is determined, by fair or foul means, to communize the entire world.

In my opinion, the members of the National (Congressional) Committee to Keep America Out of War should be awarded medals for meritorious service, for their efforts to keep out of war instead of being subjected to snide smear attacks 16 years later.

If it had not been for the activities of this entire anti-war committee, President Roosevelt would have involved us in war six months or a year before Pearl Harbor, and then Germany would never have attacked Russia on June 21, 1941. In all probability, we would have been fighting Germany and Soviet Russia, and might have lost the war, or it might have been a deadlock, with for Democratic Action, one of the major forces advancing the Marxist, or Communist-Zionist, revolution destroying our country. It was this man Lehman and his B'nai B'rith crowd that Lyndon Johnson reported on his victory in Texas!

The Congressional Record, Oct. 20, 1951, states over and over that it is the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith which continues to block investigations of Communists. Entered into the records by Congressman Clare Hoffman, the Congressional Record says that the Anti-Defamation League (along with the Communist Party) was one of the principal agents tricking and smearing Martin Dies while he was trying to expose Communist enemies of our country.

Also, the Congressional Record of June 8, 1950, says "B'nai B'rith has been infiltrated by Communist agents. They are in control of its committee, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, which does the dirty work for the Communists."

It was this Communist-protecting, Communist-dominated Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith which Lyndon Johnson praised when he went before the B'nai B'rith Jewish revolutionaries to crow with them over their victory in Texas.

God pity our children unless our people wake up to the nature of the New Deal-Internationalist revolution and learn which of our leaders to follow.

It was the scheming, crippled, mentally warped Thad Stevens who principally blocked the efforts of intelligent men to solve the Negro problem after the Civil War. It was Thad Stevens who, more than any other Congressman, imposed the Carpet Baggers and the Fourteenth Amendment on the South. Lyndon Johnson is the Thad Stevens of our time.

millions of American soldiers sacrificed in vain.

I am reminded of other unfair and untrue smear attacks made on me. I was accused of renting my house in New York to Otto Von Keip, the German Consul General, and raising the rent twice. The fact is that it was my father's house, and the rent was reduced twice, and some years later, Otto Von Keip led the conspiracy on Hitler's life and was tortured to death. He was never a Nazi.

No one has ever questioned my integrity or Americanism, except possibly some fanatical Communists.

However, I am not interested in making any defense of myself except to keep the record clear, that I and my non-interventionist colleagues fought a valiant fight to keep America out of war in 1940 and 1941, and only lost when we were maneuvered into war through the back door, by President Roosevelt issuing a secret war ultimatum to Japan ten days before Pearl Harbor to get out of China and Manchuria. Secretary of War Stimson called it a war ultimatum in his memoirs.

The repudiation of Sen. Wiley and the withdrawal of Sen. George will have a discouraging and terrifying effect on the internationalists and one-worlders. The time has come for a complete revision of our foreign policies, no matter how agonizing it may be to some mis-guided internationalists and one-worlders.

Patriot's Answer

Americans in 1940 as Senators Taft, Vandenberg, Wheeler, Reynolds, Walsh, Nye and Clark of Missouri, Clark of Idaho, Johnson of Colorado, and a host of Congressmen, including Rep. Joseph Martin, who realized that the Lend-Lease Bill was a phoney war measure—the money and arms to be followed by soldiers and war.

Today, many of the supporters of the Lend-Lease Bill admit it was a war measure. It was forced through the Congress by the most outrageous use of patronage and political influence.

I denounced the Presidential campaign of 1940 as the grossest fraud ever perpetrated on the American people. President Roosevelt proclaimed his love of peace by promising the American fathers and mothers again and again and again that their sons would never have to fight in foreign lands. And (Wendell L.) Willke afterwards called his own speeches mere campaign oratory. After F. D. R. won, he exerted his vast powers to incite us into war. I agree with Ambassador Clare Luce that President Roosevelt maneuvered and lied us into war against the wishes of the American people.

I know nothing about the dead cat release of the State Dept. except what I have read in the newspapers.

Sen. (Karl E.) Mundt, then a Representative, led 20 members of Congress to to urge an anti-war plank, and succeeded in the Republican national convention in 1940, having a very strong one written. No member of Congress was paid his traveling expenses to Philadelphia. Our committee had ample funds if anyone had required $20 for such expenses. It is obvious to me that the Nazi telegraphic suggestion to provide $60,000 for numerous newspaper ads was rejected, as no such ads were ever published except in the N. Y. "Times," which our committee paid for.

There would have been nothing legally wrong if our Committee had taken the money from any source, a year and a half before Pearl Harbor, but it did not. For every dollar Germany spent to keep us out of war, Britain spent millions to drag us in.

I wonder why the State Dept. release contained no reference to the vast sums, Stop World Wide Zionist Political Pressure!

By Franklin Hichborn

A London (England) speaker for the Jewish National Fund to raise money for Israel is reported by "The Jewish Chronicle" as stating:

"The one chink of light in the gloom into which Israel and the entire Jewish people of the world have been plunged in the last few weeks is that there will be a presidential election in the U. S. A. next year, in which both sides will tussle for the very substantial Jewish vote. There might thus be a change of policy toward Israel on the part of the U. S. A."

Such has been the view on both sides of the Atlantic for long—too long.

James Forrestal, as Secretary of Defense, found that the bidding of both parties for Zionist support was driving the Arab world into the arms of Communist Russia. He tried to stop it. Failed.

He tells us in "The Forrestal Diaries" that the Republicans refused to stop because "there was a feeling among most Republicans that the Democratic Party had used the Palestine question politically, and the Republicans felt they were entitled to make similar use of the issue." (page 347) Democratic leader J. Howard McGrath objected because "failure to go along with the Zionists might lose (to the Democratic Party) the states of N. Y., Penn., and Cal." Secretary Forrestal commented: "I thought it was about time that somebody should pay some consideration to whether we might not lose the United States." (Page 363)

Commented the "N. Y. Herald Tribune," and reprinted with approval by the "Council News," official publication of the American Council for Judaism, Inc.:

"Through 'Jewish' (Zionist) nationalist pressures, a hundred years of tradition behind Americans of the Jewish faith was undone. For the Jewish (Zionist) bloc is revealed in Forrestal's diary as a reality in the minds of politicians. The diary makes it crystal clear that the motivating factor behind American maneuvering in the Palestine problem was not a belief that Palestine was the 'bastion of democracy,' nor was it humanitarian concern for refugees. What determined American decisions in the problem was cold, calculating consideration of the domestic political scene."

On Nov. 15 last, the political Zionists held a mass meeting in Madison Square Garden, N. Y. The Jewish Newsletter for Dec. 5th, last, reported its purpose to be:

"A demonstration of the political power of American Jews, who were asked to appeal to the American people, over the heads of their government, to grant Israel's demand for equal arms with all Arab states. Its immediate aim was to show the State Dept. and the politicians of both parties, in and outside Washington, that American Jews are a political force, not to be trifled with in a Presidential election year, and their wishes with regard to Israel, whatever they may be, must not be ignored."

We have it from the Jewish press, non-Zionist as well as Zionist, that the Yiddish language papers arranged that Madison Square Garden meeting to put our politicians on notice of the importance of the Jewish vote in a Presidential year; that the attendance was largely of Yiddish-speaking Jews; that most, if not all, of the speeches were in Yiddish. Commented Mr. B. Z. Goldberg, described as one "of the more intellectual Yiddish commentators and spokesman for the Left-Wing Zionist parties" ("Journal Tog," Nov. 7):

"One question in connection with the meeting disturbs me. Where were the so-called 'American Jews' that evening? I mean the respectable ladies of the Hadassah, the young men of the Temple, all the Jews of the second and third generation in America—I saw many hats and Yarmolkes, but I did not see the type of Jew that one meets in the 'Y's,' in the Centers, in the down-town financial district, nor in the Harmony Club. It was a meeting brought on entirely by the Yiddish press. I do not remember a meeting at which so much Yiddish was spoken. But why did not the other (non-Yiddish speaking) Jews come?—They knew the seriousness of the danger for Israel at the present moment. Why did they stay away?"

Perhaps the answer to Mr. Goldberg's very pertinent question is to be found in the comment of the "Jewish Newsletter" (issue for Dec. 5th last), of which the late Dr. Monroe E. Deutsch, long Vice President of our University of California, was, until his death, head of the Newsletter's Editorial Advisory Board:

"The non-Zionist Jews, who are not entirely nationalistic, are now in a state of doubt, uncertainty and confusion. Even ordinary people who are not well informed about the intricacies of the situation cannot help feeling that there is a difference between a real emergency, where a nation fights for its independence, and a spurious crisis, when it fights for what it has grabbed and wants to keep. Many cannot help having doubts about the sincerity of the protestations of the Israelis, that they have no aggressive aims and that they want more arms only for defense, while the entire Zionist press and Zionist speakers boast of Israel's strength and clamor for a preventive war. Many wonder whether Israel's policies of retaliation and the American Zionists' political pressure tactics have not helped to push

Who Is Chief Of Far East Forces Today?

General Douglas MacArthur

Was chief of all United States and United Nations Far Eastern forces. Gen. MacArthur was fired while Anna Rosenberg was the Assistant Secretary of Defense, but she actually directed George C. Marshall, the so-called Secretary of Defense.

The powers think this disgraceful act was directed by Bernard Baruch, Felix Frankfurter, Herbert Lehman, and Anna Rosenberg, using Pendergast Truman, then disgracing the Presidential chair, as a front. It has been stated by observers in Washington that it was 2 A. M. and Truman was under the influence of liquor when he was told to sign the order firing Gen. MacArthur.

General Lyman Lemnitzer

Now chief of United Nations and United States Army, Navy and Air Forces in the Far East.

Lemnitzer was in the Pentagon when Congress appropriated ten million dollars for arms to Korea before the war, so that Korea could defend herself against the threatened attack by Communists. Lemnitzer at a Senate hearing, in answer to Senator Homer Ferguson, admitted he blocked shipment of arms to Korea. Only $200 in wire was ever sent out of the appropriation.

Now this man is rewarded for causing the destruction of Korea and our defeat after enormous loss of life. So the Invisible Government goes ahead with their plan for the destruction of Christianity.

ZIONISTS REPLACE PATRIOTS WITH PLOTTERS!

Count Folke Bernadotte

The United Nations on May 21, 1948 appointed Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte as mediator between Israel and the Arab States. After making an exhaustive study of the questions involved, the Count was to report with a solution for peace. The U.N. Assembly was to meet at Paris for this purpose on Sept. 21, 1948, but the Jews learned that the Count's findings were not favorable to Israel.

Four men in Israeli uniform approached the Count's car in Jerusalem on Sept. 17th, and murdered Bernadotte and Col. Andre Serot, his aid. Col. Frank Begley, a U.S. marine, also in the car was powder burned and spattered with blood.

This is the Jews way of accepting any decision against them. Not a soul was ever arrested, but the man believed to have carried out this cold-blooded murder is the most powerful man in the Israeli Government today.

Who was appointed to succeed Count Bernadotte?

None other than Ralph Bunche, Negro, who has been acting in this capacity for eight years with not one word of complaint from the Zionists. He is also director of the National Association for the Agitation of Colored People, which is crawling with Communists. He is promoted at dinners by B'nai B'rith, the Anti-Defamation League and the very red NAACP. The Zionists are behind Bunche one hundred percent.

After the Jews murdered Count Berna-

dotte why did they have Ralph Bunche take this important spot? This negro is as red as a fire-cracker. His Communist-aiding record covers 49 pages—we give you part in brief:

This report intends to prove, without a shadow of a doubt, that Dr. Ralph Bunche for a number of years had expressed himself in writings, speeches, and organizational activity in a manner which paralleled the communist line in its major aspects. Further evidence is hereby presented to prove his expressions were of such a nature that they could only have been arrived at as a result of his going through a thorough indoctrination in communist methods and techniques. It will also be shown that his affiliations and activities were such as to fill the requirements necessary for a top level operative for the Kremlin apparatus.

It also presents authentic documentation to substantiate the following summation of Dr. Bunche's record of activities paralleling the communist line throughout the years which is so consistent that it seems impossible to interpret it as accidental:—

1. Travels in Africa, which coincided with the Kremlin's planting of agents in that part of the world, in order to lay the basis for racial explosions of the future. Bunche wrote from there (Journal of Negro Education) denouncing "Imperialist Capitalism" and advocated the elimination of the current social order in the mother countries. The fruits of the Kremlin infiltration in Africa can be seen today in the bloody Mau-Mau

2. Wrote a pamphlet which advocated a communistic program in respect to the Negro question and advocated class war throughout the world asking the non-white peoples to look to the Soviet Union for inspiration and leadership. (1936)

3. Wrote a clearly communistic line in respect to education. He voiced the red line that "American education" is "goose step education". And that "Capitalism own the colleges and universities by right of purchase". Bunche denounced "red riders", and "oath clauses". He complained that "in America....."we are living in an economy of capitalism and our educational system consistently harmonizes with the dominant capitalistic pattern". (1936)

4. Bunche was praised in the official theoretical red organ, THE COMMUNIST, published for upper echelon communists and supporters. One of the top communists, A. W. Berry, praised Bunche for "approaching the Marxist viewpoint" and "that Bunche realized the significance of the class struggle". Berry then described Bunche as an "active friend and supporter" of the working class, which in the communist aesopian manner means a friend of the Soviets, since they claim exclusive franchise as representing the "working class". (1937)

5. Contributed an article to the RACE MAGAZINE whereby he repeated the "class" position on the race question and considered those who called the National Negro Congress as "dominated by reds" and as "biased individuals". This magazine in its opening issue prominently announced that they are working for "a social upheaval which will plow up our institutions to their very roots and substitute a socialist order for the present capitalist imperialist order". (1936)

Actually the evidence of communistic writings and communistic organizational activity by Ralph Bunche is greater overall than the combined evidence that government agencies had when they first began to get interested in red activities of Alger Hiss, Remington, Harry Dexter White and the Rosenbergs. Bunche's communistic utterances and connections are there as a public printed record and it is a great puzzle as to why our Government officials have not taken appropriate action. Instead it seems, that there is an effort to hush up the entire matter.

Those who are sufficiently interested may obtain a 49-page report on Ralph Bunche, by sending a dollar to Alliance Inc. 200 East 66th St. New York, N. Y.

Jews Squander Taxpayers Money

By Our Washington Observer

Jewish members of the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives, the outstanding offenders being Sen. Lehman and Congressman Multer of N. Y. City, use the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD for Jewish War propaganda articles, and in the course of a single year the cost of such printing to the American taxpayers runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Two glaring examples of such Jewish propaganda will be found at pages 9992-10004 of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of June 27, 1956, where Sen. Lehman, Jewish Senator from N. Y., inserted a 13 paged closely printed report (of over 25,000 words) of the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS, bitterly attacking the Arab countries for daring to oppose Jewish Communism. At a conservative printer's estimate of $100 a page, this amounted to $1300—paid of course by the American taxpayers. And as a glaring example of Hebraic gall, this very Report had been previously printed in

Clarence Manion

Former Dean of Notre Dame University law school, fired as chairman of Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. Sherman Adams delivered the firing, but Maxwell Rabb (Rabbinowitz) placed in the White House by the Zionists to replace the late David Niles (Neyhus) really gave the orders. Rabb is look-out man for the Invisible Government which is feared by many Democratic and Republican politicians.

Meyer Kestenbaum

This Zionist, President of Hart, Schaffner and Marx Clothing Co. took Clarence Manion's place as chairman of Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. The Invisible Government marches on in its plan to wreck our Constitution and set up World Government. Gullible citizens applaud the "Brotherhood" movement while the plan to erase Christianity from the face of the earth is being carried out.

Stop Zionist Pressure

the Arab states into the Communist fold; and whether it really is to the best interests of the United States to antagonize 40,000,000 Arabs in order to please Israel and the Zionists."

The astonishing incident, and demands upon American politicians by that Yiddish-dominated Madison Square Garden meeting brings to mind the warning of Mr. Benjamin H. Freedman, an outstanding American. He states that the Eastern-European, Yiddish-speaking Jews, whom he declares "form the Zionist group practically in toto," have neither a geographic, historic or ethnic connection with either the Jews of the Old Testament or the land known today as Palestine; that they are descendants of a non-Semite, Turko-Finn Mongolian tribal people, who, about the first century, established the Khazar Kingdom in Eastern Europe, and about the seventh century adopted Judaism as their state religion. Mr. Freedman cites the Jewish Encyclopedia and Jewish and non-Jewish historians as his authorities.

Obviously, there would be no Middle East problem if there were no "State of Israel." That there is a "State of Israel" is due:

1. To England's betrayal of her Arab allies after World War I. Ramsey MacDonald, British statesman, declared that betrayal to be "crude duplicity," from which we cannot escape the reprobation which is its proper sequel."

2. The bidding of our American politicians for Zionist support, thereby joining Communist Russia in forcing partition of The Holy Land between our then Arab friends of a century standing, and the invading Zionists.

The tactics of the Zionists to secure such results have been variously described. Mr. Benjamin H. Freedman, quoted above, stated in the Economic Council Letter for Oct. 15, 1947:

"The ability of Zionists to have things their own way stems from the organized pressure they can bring upon people who do not agree with them. By holding the threat of being called 'anti-Semitic' over men engaged in public or business life, they have been able to stifle opposition—even among American Jews, who have no interest in forming a Jewish state and wish only to live and die as good Americans.

"It will take courage for Americans of whatever origin to think these facts through and take public position upon them. They will be smeared. They will be slandered. Already Zionists have been able to bring about the economic ruin of many Christians and Jews who have dared challenge their right to claim Palestine for a national Jewish state."

Incidentally, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, who attempted to end the bidding for Zionist support which he found sacrificing American interests and security in the Middle East, was slandered, smeared, driven out of office and to his death.

Douglas Reed, English author and student of world trends, accounting for the strange establishment of the State of Israel, observes in his "Somewhere South of Suez," that "political leaders of the Christian West" have "Zionist halters round their necks." (P. 310) Later, after visiting our U. S. A., he reported in his more recent "Far and Wide," that the three forces weakening the whole structure of American public life are Organized Crime, Communism, and Political Zionism." (P. 274) Of the three, he considers Political Zionism the most important, because it "stands behind the seats of the mighty," "while the others work in lesser places, if to similar ends of power-over-politicians."

The flippant recklessness with which the Zionists and their affiliates bandy about charges of anti-Semitism against their critics is curiously characteristic of the present situation.

Lt. General George E. Stratemeyer, for example, recommended to his fellow Americans, Colonel Beaty's "Iron Curtain Over America." The so-called Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, which was and still is busily engaged in suppressing Colonel Beaty's revealing book, undertook, through its National Chairman, Henry Edward Schultz, to "reprove" Gen. Stratemeyer, stressing against Colonel Beaty the familiar "anti-Jewish," "hate-monger," and of course "anti-Semite" charges.

Gen. Stratemeyer didn't scare a bit. In a smashing reply to National Chairman Schultz he dealt a bit forcefully with the "anti-Semitic" threat, a good example which our scary politicians would do well to follow.

"As for your meaningless expression 'anti-Semitic,'" declared Gen. Stratemeyer, "it makes no sense. According to the dictionary, the word 'Semitic' pertains to the descendants of Shem, which includes Assyrians, Hebrews, Phoenicians, Arabs, Abyssinians, etc. It also pertains to the Semitic languages collectively. Therefore, how any one person or group of persons could be 'anti-Semitic' is beyond understanding."

Obviously, in the controversy between the Yiddish-language Khazars of the Jewish faith and the Semitic-language Christian and Moslem Arabs, the only Semites involved are the Arabs, and the charge of anti-Semitism is applicable against the Zionists alone. That seems to clear up the charge of anti-Semitism made so recklessly against any and all, Jew or Gentile, who assume to criticize Zionist intolerance and aggression in the Holy Land.

The Forrestal Diaries furnish the humiliating evidence that the Zionists and their supporters have made our politicians believe that no American can be elected President without the consent of the Yiddish-speaking minority. Such also seems to be the impression in England, as indicated by the quotation from Jewish sources with which this letter is begun. The remedy for this political misconception—political illness indeed—is for the 160,000,000 or more Americans of the majority to announce they will vote for no candidate running on a platform containing a pro-Zionist plank, or for any candidate who advocates American support of Zionist pretensions in the Holy Land.

Our politicians must be made to fear the charge of un-Americanism far more than the silly charge of anti-Semitism. That is not only sound Americanism, it is sound common sense. An American with a Zionist halter round his neck is a sorry sight, unworthy of trust or support—or office.

Marxists Back Democrats

Apparently Adlai Stevenson is to be the Democratic Presidential Candidate. Backing him actively at this time, are primarily Marxist Jews, such as Anna Rosenberg.

They have selected Dore Schary, a Jew with a very red record to have charge of publicity for the Democratic Party. Dore Schary has been very active with Communists, hence, we give an abbreviated report of his red record.

On April 17, 1945, Dore Schary wrote to Emmet Lavery of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, giving him the writing assignments for a program which the Hollywood Writers Mobilization was to give in the Hollywood Bowl. He named Helen Deutsch (1 listing in index V of the un-American Activities Committee), Maxwell Anderson (7 citations in Appendix IX), Maurice Rapf (CP member - Un-American Activities), Francis Faragon (CP member - Un-American Activities), Emmet Lavery (8 citations California Un-American Activities Committee), Mary McCall (12 listings Cal. Committee), Leonardo Bercovici (CP member - Un-American Activities), A. B. E. Polansky, Alvah Bessie, Vladimir Posner, Ring Lardner, Barry Trivers (sponsor of Actors Lab, cited by Cal. Committee), Abe Burroughs, Harry Kurnitz (7 citations, Cal. Comm.), Leon Meadow (named a CP member, Un-American Activities Comm.), Paul Green and Dalton Trumbo (all named as CP members; later called the "Un-friendly Ten"), Schary crossed off one writer in his letter, substituting Alvah Bessie. We can find no affiliations for this excluded writer, which is an indication of the care with which Schary chose only Communists or pro-Communists for this program. We have a photostatic copy of this letter, (See pp. 260-1, 1948

Dore Schary

Report of Cal. Committee). The Hollywood Writers Mobilization itself is cited as subversive and Communist by the Attorney General.

"Its true purpose, of course, was the creation of a clearing house for Communist propaganda." (p. 130, 1945 Cal. Report). "John Howard Lawson appeared to be the dominating figure in the creation of the 'Mobilization', assisted by Robert Rossen and Marc Connelly." (ibid) Robert Rossen was named a CP member before the Velde Committee; Marc Connelly has 18 affiliations in Appendix IX prior to 1944, and has continued his pro-Communist activity to 1953; John Howard Lawson, the Communist commissar of Hollywood, has been named 15 times as a CP member.

Dore Schary addressed the above mentioned letter to Emmet Lavery in care of Mrs. Pauline Lauber. (Finn-editor's note) named as a CP member before the Velde Committee. Not one name on Schary's list was that of a person who was not a CP member or a fellow traveler.

Ten persons on Schary's list have been or are CP members, inclusive of Mrs. Finn. We wonder if the other seven were only pro-Communist. More to the point, was Dore Schary, himself, named as a CP member in executive testimony before the Velde Committee by the ex-Communist, Martin Berkeley?

In early Oct. of 1943, a Writer's Congress was held at the UCLA campus under the sponsorship of the University and the Hollywood Writer's Mobilization. Dore Schary was a member of that Congress Committee (Cal. Report, 1945, p. 116). With reference to this Congress, the Hollywood Writers Mobilization was characterized in Appendix IX of the Committee thus:

"The record discloses that the present all-out patriotism of the leading spirits of this Communist-front organization is primarily conditioned upon their loyalty to the Soviet Union... The Writers Congress was denounced as a Communist-front in a storm of criticism including five out of six of the Los Angeles newspapers... 'From this it should be quite plain that Dore Schary could in no way claim that it was not called a Red Front until after the actual event. Further, David Platt, movie expert of the Communist Daily Worker, called the gathering the 'Most important writer congress in the history of America'. Mikhail Kalatsov, film representative for the Soviet Union in the U. S., greeted the assembled writers in the name of 'all the writers of the Soviet Union, the artists and workers of the Soviet films, the workers of the theatre; and Jewish Pressure orced Their Nomination And Confirmation!

Simon E. Sobeloff

Too late now to stop Simon Sobeloff and Paul Hoffman. The Invisible Government has maneuvered them into the key spots in their plan to abolish our U. S. A., and set up World Government.

A stronger Common Sense published weekly with a million readers can prevent such defeats for America in the future.

On July 16, 1956 the U. S. Senate by a vote of 64 to 19 Confirmed President Eisenhower's appointment of this Zionist to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals. The Fourth Circuit covers Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Maryland, and West Va.

Segregation cases among other vital issues, will most assuredly be brought up before this Zionist, by the left-wing dominated NAACP.

Sobeloff is Vice President of the Zionist Organization, and American Jewish Congress. This organization is packed with Communists, Socialists, and Marxists. Common Sense has documented evidence on more than 200 officers, former officers and active members of the American Jewish Congress, showing their Communist-front connections.

The President Rabbi Israel Goldstein, has 12 Citations by Committees of Congress. The founder and President of the AJC until he died, was Rabbi Stephen H. Wise who has a very red record. Wise said "Some call it Communism, I call it Judaism". Wise was also the most influential member of the organizing directors of the NAACP, a front for Communists.

After eight hours of debate in the U. S. Senate, with Senators whose States were effected by his nomination protesting, the pressure of the Invisible Government caused 64 Senators, looking to November elections, to force this Zionist, One-Worlder, Anti-Segregationist over the people in the five states who do not want him. These 64 Senators know too well what the Jewish pressure will be in their home states this election year. They also know that Jews are heavy campaign contributors to dupes who will front for their anti-Christian world-wide conspiracy.

God bless the courageous 19 Senators who voted against this plotter.

Paul Hoffman

Paul Hoffman was nominated by Eisenhower as United States delegate to the U. N. and on July 20, 1956 was approved 64 to 22 by the U. S. Senate. God bless the 22 Senators who were alert and courageous enough to vote against this stooge of the Invisible Government.

Paul Hoffman is an Internationalist, One Worlder and a leading anti anti-Communist. Hoffman was the first administrator of the Marshall Plan which squandered hundreds of millions of the taxpayers' dollars all over Europe. He selected as head of the Paris office, Otto Frankfurter, ex-convict and brother of Felix. When advised of Otto Frankfurter's record, he brushed it off as unimportant.

Hoffman is now chairman of the board of Studebaker Corp. which, according to Leslie Gould, Financial editor of the N. Y. Journal-American, July 27, 1956, had a loss of around 80 million dollars. Studebaker Packard Corp. is a Lehman Brothers concern.

Hoffman, former head of Ford Foundation is now chairman of the board of the Fund for the Republic which was granted 15 million dollars by the Ford Foundation. The Fund for the Republic's main activity is financing writers who are conditioning the U. S. for Marxist One-World rule. The Fund is out to investigate and break down all effective anti-Communists. They want to see that every fifth amendment user gets a fair deal. This Fund for the Republic is just another front for the Jews. Hoffman, a non-Jew, makes a most willing front.

Milton Katz, who is careful to remain out of print and in the background is the directing force in both the Ford Foundation and the Fund for the Republic. Katz, a product of Harvard Law School and likely a student of Felix Frankfurter was an important cog in the New Deal NRA, where he was placed by Felix Frankfurter. He also served in the S. E. C. and the Dept. of Justice under the New Deal. He succeeded W. Averill Harriman as head of European operations of the Marshall Plan. The technical planning of the Marshall Plan in Europe was by Katz. He helped throw away our millions.

Paul Hoffman, a stuffed-shirt phoney, is a front for Lehman Brothers, who can fire him from Studebaker, and a front for the Jews who placed Milton Katz in the Fund for the Republic.

the Soviet sculptors, musicians, and workers in radio." (p. 786).

Let us examine the composition of some of the sessions as recorded in Appendix IX. Marc Connelly read the message of greeting from FDR. Owen Lattimore had five known Communist-front citations to his discredit at that time, the late Walter White (NAACP) had eleven, and Theodore Dresiser, a listed guest, sixteen fronts, as had Lion Feuchtwanger. Others in this group had similar records.

The opening seminar was headed by Dore Schary and comprised among others, Talbot Jennings (3 citations) and Sidney Buchman (8 citations) who has been subsequently named as a CP member.

The total listings of citations for the 120 participants in these seminars would require a research far beyond the limits of this report, but it can be safely stated that at least half of the number were at that time members of the Communist Party, when a far less number would have been sufficient to establish complete control by the Party.

If the reader will note that the majority of the Communists named herein are Jews, he will more clearly see the true picture of who and what is behind Communism. It is Jewish controlled and financed from beginning to end.

JEWS USE CONGRESS

the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of May 7, 1956, at pages 3602 to 3614 of the Appendix, at the request of Congressman Abe Multer, Jewish Cong. from Brooklyn, N. Y., at a cost of another $1300 to the American taxpayers. This same Jew in the course of a year puts into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD to be mailed out free of charge on Congressional franking privilege, actually hundreds of thousands of dollars of Jewish propaganda on subjects devoted to such tidbits as speeches of Rabbis, demands for provocative acts against Arab countries, praise puffs of the Jewish theatrical world, and attacks on anti-Communists.

To add insult to injury this $2600 worth of printing for the benefit of the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS is given to an outfit which filed a brief with the U. S. Supreme Court, advocating the mixing of negroes and Southern whites in schools, sports and social functions—in fact the same Jewish gentleman who filed that anti-segregation brief was the author of the call for war against the Arabs, which Lehman and Multer twice inserted in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD as detailed above.

As frosting on the taxpayers gefilte fish cakes this Jewish propaganda will go to millions of voters under the franking privilege given to these Jewish war mongers. So we will not only be dragged into WORLD WAR III by Jewish propaganda, but Messrs. Lehman and Multer are seeing to it that American taxpayers first pay for this propaganda, a situation analagous to a highwayman saying to his victim "Give me your gun so I can kill you with it, I don't want to pay for the bullets that kill you."

In my book the ordinary American voter is classified as DOPUS AMERICANUS, that's one thing the Jews and I agree on.

Do The American Voters Really Have A Choice?

By W. D. Herrstrom, Editor, of the Americanism Bulletin, Galva, Illinois

I have said repeatedly that the Republican Party as now constituted, is simply perpetuating Roosevelt's New Deal. If the Republicans were REAL Republicans, the first thing they'd do when they got into office, would be to throw out the whole New Deal; abolish every law passed since March 4, 1933, and "go back" to Constitutional government.

You can't build the American form of government on a foundation of Socialism and Communism. Until we can find some Republicans who have the intestinal fortitude to abolish the New Deal, the national elections will be little more than a farce. The public will simply have the choice of perpetuating the Roosevelt-Truman New Deal under a New Deal Republican president or a New Deal Democrat president, tweedle-dee, tweedle-dum.

Sam Rayburn, House Speaker said in Chicago:

"After four years I challenge any Republican anywhere, to put his finger on any changes they have made. I challenge them to show where anybody in this administration, from the president down, has advocated the repeal of a single law we passed in the 20 years of Democratic administration.

"I say here and now that if the Democratic party was socialistic, in putting these laws on the statute books, then the Republican party is equally socialistic for permitting them to remain on the statute books.

"I believe in putting the blame where it really lies," he said. "It belongs on the shoulders of the President of the United States. The people elected him as the chief executive. He, and he alone, must bear the responsibilities of his office and his administration."

Speaking of what the Republicans call "creeping Socialism," he said. "These same Republicans have embraced this brand of socialism during the last four years."

Unfortunately what Congressman Rayburn said is all true. The Republican Party has simply been carrying on the New Deal program. They cannot deny this. Until Republicans launch a program to get rid of the New Deal the people will have nothing to vote for, and doubtless sixty million will absent themselves from the polls since the election will give them no choice except between two New Deal "puppets" either of which will be manipulated from behind the scenes by the same Marxist crowd.

TRUMAN FIZZLES OUT

One thing the Democratic convention proved was that the influence of Harry Truman was nil. He was out of order in announcing that Stevenson couldn't win. He threw a monkey-wrench into the Democratic Party machinery. He was out of order in attempting to "dictate" to the party whom they should choose. He finally had to eat his own words—and what a bitter pill that was! Truman sought the spotlight, but he would have been more popular had he remained in the background. At least it proved that even the Democrats have had enough of Truman—yes, altogether too much.

TOO MUCH ILLITERACY

We were impressed that there was too much "illiteracy" among some of the Democratic speakers, especially representatives of labor. Perhaps that explains why they swallow so much of the Marxist Left-Wing propaganda and attempt to steer labor toward Moscow.

THE I. W. W. COMES BACK

Many of the speeches reminded me of the speeches of the much discredited I. W. W. which I heard as a young man. Those early radicals-forerunners of the Communist Party members of the present day, were always employing terminology such as "special interests," "big business," etc. The same harangue was rehearsed by many of the Democratic speakers.

BACK TO THE PEOPLE

The Democrats said much about giving the government "back to the people." But the Democrats are the ones who took the government away from the people and placed it in the hands of two million bureaucrats. The way to give it back is to discharge two million bureaucrats, and the Democrats are not interested in that—so we know they are positively not interested in "giving the government back to the people."

NEW DEAL FAILURE

Another question arises. If Eisenhower's program has been a failure and if Eisenhower has simply perpetuated the Roosevelt-Truman program—then isn't the failure a NEW DEAL FAILURE—not a Republican failure.

REPUBLICANS "SWALLOWED" THE NEW DEAL

In his speech accepting the nomination, Stevenson said:

"I will have to confess that the Republican administration has performed a minor miracle—after 20 years of incessant damnation of the New Deal, they not only haven't repealed it but THEY HAVE SWALLOWED IT, or most of it, and it looks as tho they could keep it down at least until after the election."

True, Adlai, alas, all too true!

FOREIGN PRESTIGE LOST

Concerning our foreign policy Stevenson said:

"The truth is not that our policy abroad has the Communists on the run. The truth, unhappily, is not—in the Republican President's words—that our 'prestige since the last world war has never been as high as it is this day.' The truth is that IT HAS PROBABLY NEVER BEEN LOWER.

"The truth is that we are losing the military advantage, the economic initiative

GOVERNOR SPEAKS OUT FOR STATES RIGHTS!

Governor Marvin Griffin
A loyal patriotic champion for State's Rights.

Here is a man who had the courage to stand before the Democrat Convention and speak for State Rights and his own state and own people. Some people who were there are politicians first and possibly Americans later. They booed this patriot.

They are being weaned away from loyalty to their own people by the clever Marxist Socialists who demand we give up our local interests and go along with World Government. Who is Governor Griffin supposed to represent? It was his people in Georgia who elected him. Georgia is fortunate in having a Governor who is made of patriotic fibre and true American fighting blood.

There are other men like Governor Griffin in the U. S. and the Marxists are trying to prevent them from coordinating, for these and the moral leadership.

"The truth is not that we are winning the cold war. The truth is that we are losing the cold war."

Again I comment—there is altogether too much truth in the above. On the other hand, it cannot be denied that the Democratic party is the "war party." They got us into World War I, World War II, and the Korean War. The Communists benefited by all three of these wars. In fact, it was these three wars that placed more than half of the world under Communist domination and the rest of the world is now in danger of subjugation to the Reds. Democrats may say, "Peace, peace," but they got us into all the big wars of this century.

NEW AMERICA

Stevenson wants a "New America." I don't. We had the NEW Deal and it turned out to be a Bolshevik deal. When a politician announces that he wants something NEW, you may well be suspicious that he thinks the Constitution of the United States is out-moded. He may have in mind scrapping it—as F. D. R. attempted to do—and as he largely did when he inaugurated his NEW Deal. The New Deal turned out to be a replica of the Communist blueprint for a Red world.

Anyone above the stage of a moron should know by this time that all "change" is not necessarily "progress." Russia changed from the Czars to Bolhevism. Was it progress? America changed from Constitutional Government to Roosevelt Marxism. Was it progress? No! Getting stuck in the cesspool of Marxism is not "progress." The only road to progress is to "go back" to the main track. Get off the Marxist siding which leads to the quagmires of Communism. I emphasize the "go back" because New Dealers are always asking Republicans if they'd "go back." I certainly would. We're now on a Marxist siding heading for disaster.

SOCIALIST SECURITY

Republicans will never have sufficient influence to restore Constitutional Government until they throw out Social Security. That is Socialism—the government in the insurance business. As long as Republicans defend that, anything they say against Socialism or Marxism in the New Deal will be ineffective.

Experts have figured that by 1975 the Social Security benefits will require 66% of America's total income—in order to meet them. We are now paying more than the other 34% of our total income in taxes. This means that by 1975—in just 19 years, this country will be totally bankrupt—even if Republicans retain only ONE Socialist measure—the Social Security.

Thus, the seeds of destruction of the American form of government are already sown—sown by the Roosevelt Marxists. This country will die—as far as being a free nation is concerned—in less than two decades, if real Republicans and real Democrats do not do something to get rid of the Socialist New Deal.

There is no way to abolish it piece by piece. The country would be destroyed before we could root out all of the Marxist SAPlings. The only way to save America is to abolish the whole New Deal in one stroke. Repeal every law passed since March 4, 1933 and build again on an "American" foundation instead of on the Bolshevik Russian foundation upon which the New Deal is built. It'll take Republicans and Democrats with "guts" to do that. Where are you going to get them?

It appears to me if F. D. R. had the brazen effrontery to walk into the White House and practically abolish the American form of government, there ought to be a few men and women among 167,000,000 who would have the intestinal fortitude to demand a return to Constitutional Americanism.

Or are we at the point where all of your big news-gathering and news-disseminating agencies are so thoroughly dominated by Marxists that anyone who suggested going back to the American form of government would be greeted by only sneers and jeers? Is the press so thoroughly "controlled" by Marxists that the press cannot build any "prestige" for a real American candidate for office?

Since FDR took the oath of office and hypocritically swore to uphold the Constitution which he did everything to destroy—there has been "freedom of speech" only for Left-Wing radicals and Communist Party members. Those who have opposed Communism have met terrific opposition and many, if not most of them, have been silenced.

Put anti-Communists back on the radio and if you give them the same right of "freedom of speech" as the Left-Wing radicals have had, the people of America will vote every Left-Winger out of office next November. But neither the present so-called Republicans or the present so-called Democrats will dare to accord free speech to those who "effectively" oppose Communism, and who tell where it originates. No, they wouldn't dare!

DEMOCRACY IS COMMUNISM

During election time the word "democracy" is over-worked. When Left-Wingers speak of democracy, always substitute the word "Communism" and you'll know what they're talking about.

I attended a meeting at which Earl Browder was featured as the speaker when he was a candidate for president of the U. S. on the Communist Party ticket some years ago. A large streamer floated across one side of the auditorium which carried the following statement in large red letters:

"COMMUNISM IS TWENTIETH CENTURY DEMOCRACY."

There you have it, ladies and gentlemen. When you talk about "democracy" and recommend it, you are, for all practical purposes, recommending Communism. Therefore never use the word democracy, without defining what you mean by it. Some people think the American form of government is democracy. Nothing could be further from the truth. Woodrow Wilson said, "We must make the world safe for democracy." We know what that means. We fought several wars to make the world safe for Communists. And Communists are the only people in the world today who are SAFE.

It used to be the DEMOCRAT party. Now they call it the "Democratic" Party. I don't know why, unless they think that links it up with "democracy." If it does, then informed—the really "informed" will link the Democratic Party up with Communism.

If you're going to speak of the Democratic Party, why not speak of the Republican Party?

Let's call it the Democrat Party. Of course if it has adopted "democracy" and Communism is 20th Century democracy, then let's call it the "Democratic" Party in order to identify it with Communism, i. e. "democracy."

HARRY THE TERRIBLE

MEMORABILIA

Some four hundred years ago there was a Russian Tsar who is known in history as "Ivan The Terrible". ("Terrible", by the way, is a wrong translation of the Russian word "GROZNY" which means, rather, "menacing" or "awe-inspiring" and not "terrible"). This Tsar had a very unfortunate youth, was neurotic, irritable, and, in all probability, mentally insane. He was, nevertheless, quite intelligent and was considered to be one of the best educated men of his age. With some reason he suspected the Russian aristocracy of that time, the Boyars, of plotting against him, and in one period of his reign he persecuted them bitterly and condemned to torture and death quite a few of those Boyars, not sparing their families and servants. Ivan, being a deeply religious man, was often tortured by his conscience, and led a most miserable life during the last years of his reign. Before his death (in 1584) he took the vows and died as a monk Jonah. His tragic figure inspired many poets and playwrights, and he left a profound impression on the Russian folklore in which he is remembered not as a cruel tyrant, but with reverence and compassion.

It would be difficult to say how many men perished during Ivan's "purges", but since the class of the Russian aristocracy was never too numerous, it would be a safe guess that the number of all his victims did not exceed five thousand, or, more probably, was even less than that, which, by our modern "standards", is practically nothing.

The evil which Ivan did was, as we may say, on the "terrestrial plane" and died with him and his epoch. He killed only the bodies but not the souls of his subjects, and he was himself a victim of his tormented mind and repenting soul.

We have, however, still with us a person whose nefarious deeds dwarf those of unfortunate Tsar Ivan, and who really deserves to be called "TERRIBLE", terrible in his arrogant smugness and his complete lack of any pangs of remorse or regret which side of his character he boastfully displays at every opportunity. The crimes of this mediocre but fatal man are of such nature and magnitude that their poisonous fruits will plague the future generations for many years to come and may bring, finally, the downfall of the existing civilization.

Only future historians—provided somebody will be left to write history after the next war—will be able to judge fully the immense harm done by Mr. Truman, but even now we can make a brief summary of the most important events of his terrible "reign".

KOREA

The past knows many wars started to satisfy the pride of some of other over-ambitious potentate or even for a woman's whim. But never millions of human lives were sacrificed so senselessly for a big NOTHING as it happened in Korea. In fact, who can say what was the ultimate aim of the Truman Administration when it openly declared that both S. Korea and Formosa are OUTSIDE of the American perimeter of defense in the Far East, and substantiated this declaration by removing American troops from Korea leaving behind the purposefully underarmed Korean divisions deprived of heavy artillery, tanks and aviation?

If it was a deliberate provocation to lure the N. Korean armies to their destruction in order to pave the way for the unification of that country, then why this goal which could be easily attained was never reached? The net results of this war were, however, only such: ruination of Korea; loss of American prestige in Asia; consolidation of Communism on this continent. Was this then the aim of Mr. Truman when he criminally provoked the war in Korea which could have been avoided by a simple declaration on his part that the American Army would fight if the Reds attack?

JAPAN

On July 25th, 1945 the Japanese Government expressed the wish to surrender on terms of the Atlantic Charter; on Aug. 6th, by order of Mr. Truman, an atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima,—a town which had no special military significance, but had a sizable Christian community; on Aug. 8th, without waiting for the reaction of the Japanese Government and people to this mass murder of the civilian population, the

NOMINATING SPEECH OF GOVERNOR MARVIN GRIFFIN OF GEORGIA AT THE DEMOCRAT NATIONAL CONVENTION, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. 8/16/56

Mr. Chairman, President Truman, Ladies and Gentlemen of this convention:

Judging from what happened here last night the only satisfaction the people of Georgia will get out of this convention is the privilege of listening to the band play DIXIE and THE RAMBLING WRECK FROM GEORGIA TECH.

With no criticism of our able presiding officer, the chairman of the Georgia delegation could not get recognized, just to ask that the Georgia delegation be recorded as voting NO.

It is our privilege to be heard in these Democratic councils. Let me call your attention to the fact that Georgia is the only state which has never forsaken the Democratic Party. We shall not forsake it now. There is no haven of refuge for a Democrat in the Republican Party.

Let me also call your attention to the fact that four years ago Georgia gave Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, the greatest majority of any of the nine southern or border states which they carried in their race for President and Vice-President.

Let me call your attention to the fact that four years ago Gov. Stevenson failed to carry a single state outside these sections.

Four years ago a group of delegates to this convention tried to throw us, and some other Southern states out of the convention. The leaders of this group were referred to by the press as the young turks.

Let me remind you also that one of these young turks was able to carry his state for the Democratic nominee in November.

It is an even bet that those who last night would have crucified the people of the South will not be able to carry their states for the Democratic nominee in Nov. 1956.

The people of Georgia believe in Constitutional Government. I have been on the floor of this convention for four days and I have yet to hear a speaker defend Constitutional Government and the sovereignty of the states.

The people of Georgia believe that the Supreme Court has wrecked the Constitution and destroyed Constitutional Government in this country.

The people of Georgia believe that the Supreme Court has usurped powers which were never delegated to it, or even the Federal government in the Constitution.

The people of Georgia believe that the unbridled license of the Supreme Court must be curbed and its illegal decisions set aside as many of its other illegal decisions have been set aside in the past.

The death knell of Constitutional Government in Georgia will be the death knell of Constitutional Government in the United States. And you may be next.

The people of Georgia believe that over the years and with much suffering we have evolved in the South the only way of life under which our two great races can live together in a state of peace, harmony and good will.

Substitute for that way of life the planned social order now emanating from an overpowering central government, and racial tension, hatred, bitterness and violence is sure to follow.

The people of Georgia believe that the people of every state have a right to operate their own schools without interference from the federal government.

The people of Georgia believe that the people of Illinois and all other states know best how to manage their own schools, and internal affairs. We do not attempt to dictate to you or to the people of any state. As one of the signers of the compact, we have never insisted on conformity.

Likewise the people of Georgia believe that they know best how to run their own schools and to manage their own internal affairs, and resent dictation from other states.

The people of Georgia stand on these principles. The people of Georgia can not and will not compromise on these principles.

Therefore, it becomes necessary for the delegation from Georgia to nominate and to vote for a candidate for the office of President of the United States who subscribes to these principles.

So I nominate a man who stands for these principles,—a great American—a great Democrat—the Honorable James C. Davis, from the Fifth Congressional District of Georgia.

Bracken Lee & Constitutional Government

By Marilyn R. Allen P. O. Box 2243
Salt Lake City, Utah

I LIKE J. BRACKEN LEE BECAUSE:

Gov. Lee is a one hundred per cent Constitutional American. As such, this puts him in the front rank of American Patriots; and for this he is revered throughout the length and breadth of our land. As Gov. Lee pertinently asked Sunday night (Aug. 19th 1956) on a recorded program titled, "Politically Speaking," WHY do men solemnly swear to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the U.S.A. if they then do not do so? How can they be so perfidious? I doubt that there has ever been a public official (including our presidents) who has striven, with undiluted patriotism, to fulfill this oath to uphold the Constitution more faithfully, diligently and valiantly than our Gov. J. Bracken Lee. In my opinion, this is the finest tribute that can be paid to any man (especially one in public office): that he is a true Constitutional AMERICAN! Our Gov. also recognizes the State Sovereignty of Utah—as one of the autonomous 48 States. He stands like the rock of Gibraltar for his convictions: not for him the easy way of compromise and expediency.

I like Lee because he recognizes the fact that PRINCIPLES are so much more important than personalities. But our people are usually beguiled into voting for personalities, many of which may appear glamorous outwardly, but time and tests prove them to be based on 'shifting sand.'

People in other States who know, love and honor our Gov. Lee and what he stands for, wonder why we Utahns should even have to put on a campaign for his re-election. They believe as the Gov. himself has said: the RECORD of his able and incorruptible Administration speaks for itself; there is no other like it in the other 47 States. What these people do not realize is that Utah has its quota of subtle subversionists, one-worlders, UN'ers, anti-Constitutionalists. One alleged leading educator told me personally that he was NOT for Lee because Lee stands for the Constitution, and this 'educator' doesn't want strict Constitutional Americanism. He is a liberal Internationalist—which is the enemy of Ameri-

In Utah, we have the very thing that the Dem. nominee, Stevenson, called for in his acceptance speech (and which this writer has long been stressing): bold, militant LEADERSHIP in America. (Of course, the Demos have had the wrong kind of leadership for decades; I guess they DO need a change). But we here in Utah are blessed in having true American leadership in our Gov. He dares to follow his highest ideals: with him, principles are primary. We already have the highest type of Constitutional statesmanship. What's wrong with putting the best Gov. Utah ever had, in for a third term? The Demos (along with the rest of the country) put an old sick man in office—an anti-Constitutionalist, FDR—for a fourth term, based on his experience, alleged "indispensability" etc. So they are stopped from any criticism of a third term for Lee.

I like Lee because he is a Constitutional American: NOT an INTERNATIONALIST. These two are not compatible. Our Gov. is known throughout the 48 States as standing for the Constitution, and these grass-roots Americans KNOW—as he does—that when our Constitution is gone (ignored, by-passed, subverted), then America is gone. Too many people know too little about their Charter of Freedom—the greatest instrument ever struck off by the mind and pen of man, through Divine Inspiration. It is the ONE sacred thing which stands between America and the horrors and disasters which have afflicted the ground-down people behind the Iron Curtain. It should be taught in our schools, churches, over radio-TV, everywhere—SINCE IT ALONE GIVES US OUR FREEDOM. As long predicted by the prophets, the Constitution now hangs by a thread: its power, glory, lustre, vital principles, have been dimmed and diminished through subversion, one-worldism, UN'ism and Internationalism: through failure to glorify our national heritage—which is Christian Constitutional Americanism. If Foreignism continues to take precedence over Americanism, then our people have no future. Through high calibre statesmanship, J. Bracken Lee has revived interest in, and love for, our Constitution—not only in Utah, but throughout the United States of America.

Liberal Internationalism (liberal with our men, money and principles) is un-Constitutional, regardless of where or by whom it is taught, or practiced. Whatever is un-Constitutional is subversive of the one and only SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND, which is the Constitution (See Article VI of the Constitution). The Supreme Court is NOT the "Law of the Land," as preached by the subverters. Further, the Supreme Court has NO legislative powers: it may not Constitutionally pass or decree NEW legislation, or invent new interpretations. The ONLY legislative body—according to Article I section 8 of the Constitution—is the CONGRESS of the United States. The Congress of the USA knows that it would be, and is un-Constitutional to pass FEPC, civil rights laws etc., and IT HAS NEVER DONE SO—because these violate the Bill of Rights in the Constitution and deprive the majority of their rights. They are strictly "class" legislation, or more truly "race" legislation. The Courts of the Land (including the Supreme Court) may only pass upon the Constitutionality of specific cases which are brought before them, and their decisions must be based upon the Constitution and upon precedent. (It has been ruled in American Jurisprudence that anything which violates the Constitution is automatically null and void and of no effect—and this applies equally to the acts of the Supreme Court.) They have NO Constitutional authority to originate new legislation or to give NEW MEANING to the Constitution or any of its Amendments, or to by-pass many former decisions by their own Tribunal: otherwise, NO decisions by the Supreme Court are "infallible" or binding. Law, to BE law, must be constant.

The CONSTITUTION is one of LAW, and of limited powers: no other thing was so strictly insisted upon by the Founding Fathers as this limitation—which is WHY we have a written Constitution, so that its provisions may not be arbitrarily changed. The powers and things on which the Congress might legislate were limited to eighteen general subjects as specified in Article I. One of the greatest Constitutional authorities, Thos. M. Cooley, said in his book, Constitutional Limitations: "The meaning of the Constitution is fixed when it is adopted, and it is not different at any subsequent time when a court has occasion to pass upon it." It does not vary from time to time, or from court to court, and it does not (or should not) respond to political pressure. "That which it meant when adopted, it means now." (See South Carolina vs. U. S. 199 U. S. 437.)

"In question of power, then" (said Thos. Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence), "Let no more be heard of confidence in MAN, but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution."

Upholding the Constitution—the SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND—is much more vital than upholding any one man or set of men.

I like Lee because our Gov. honors his oath of office in the doing of this very thing!

MY PLATFORM

My own personal platform: I am a Christian first ("It is better to obey God than man" in case of conflict); an American second; and a Republican third. I believe in a two-party system and in loyalty to the Party of one's choice so long as it or its officials are true (first) to the Constitution of the land, and (second) to their own ideals and principles. But if they violate these principles, then my FIRST loyalty is to God and my country: my own principles then take precedence, and I must be free to express my own convictions. He who is not true to himself cannot be true to anybody else.

Some people make a blind rabid fetish out of Party loyalty—like Harry S. Truman. That is likewise what Communists must do: if they deviate or do not conform, they are liquidated. All this over-exaggeration on "unity" and harmony etc., means Communist conformity and loss of individuality. Freedom of opinion—right or wrong—freely expressed, is the essence of Constitutional Americanism. Enforced conformity of opinion, the leveling-down process—is the essence of Communism-Marxism.

Nowadays it seems to have become somewhat routine (due to Minority pressure) to deprive anyone who is labeled "controversial" or non-conformist, of their Constitutional rights of free speech and press.

I believe the foregoing stand is likewise that of our truly American Governor, J. Bracken Lee.

second bomb was dropped on Nagasaki. It is approximately estimated that about 110,000 persons, most of them women and children, were killed on the spot as the result of those two explosions; thus making Mr. Truman the holder of the world record for the fast extermination of mankind expressed in L/S.—lives per second. This Mr. Truman's fateful decision (about which he said recently with his usual arrogance that he "never suffered one minute of regret") opened the door for atomic warfare, demonstrated to the Asians the true value of the "Christian Morality", and sowed a deep and lasting hatred of America in the hearts of Japanese. It is quite apparent, that the same effect of scaring already defeated Japan into unconditional surrender could be attained by dropping the first A bomb on, let us say, one of the small islands of the Inland Sea, or, still better, by blowing off the top of Mt. Fuji, which would be a quite spectacular demonstration of the then absolutely unknown new weapon. And if such demonstration of force would fail, then with some justification, Mr. Truman could order an A bomb be dropped on an inhabited place. But, as it appears, the unsuccessful haberdasher wanted this time to "play God",—and, to tell the truth, he did it on a grandiose scale!

CHINA

Even the most dim-witted politicians begin to realize by now that the key to the world domination is in the Asian masses of human beings. After the 2nd World War Truman's Administration with a minimum of effort could secure the victory of the pro-American Nationalist Government in China which would consolidate America's position in Asia and block the way to Communist expansion. However, as everybody knows, Mr. Truman did his very best to help the Reds grab power over China, which deed he tried later to cover in his memoirs with his usual blatant lies; he lied so shamelessly, that even the editors of LIFE Magazine, which published Truman's memoirs, had to repudiate Mr. Truman's explanation of his "China Deal" the immediate results of which are such: loss of 500 millions of people to Communism; extermination of about 20 millions of Chinese in different Red purges; collapse of the enormous spiritual structure built in China by Christian missionaries since the days of the Tsar Ivan's contemporary, Father Matteo Ricci, who came to that country in 1583; gradual but sure Communization of the rest of Asia, which in the years to come will present a most serious threat to the Christian Western Civilization.

ISRAEL

In NEWSWEEK, March 12, 1956, was published such a statement about Mr. Truman's policy in the Middle East: "BY HIS OWN ACCOUNT Mr. Truman must be regarded as one of the chief architects in the setting up of the new state of Israel..." Which means that Mr. Truman is directly responsible for: delivering the Holy Land of all Christians into the hands of the bitterest enemies of Christianity, the Zionist Jews; turning of this Holy Place into a permanent battlefield; aiding and abetting the robbery and expulsion of millions of Arabs from their homeland and thus pushing 350 millions of Moslems into the Soviet fold which, when completed, will assure the Soviet domination of the world with all its tragic consequences....

The seeds of evil so abundantly sown all over the world by HARRY THE TERRIBLE, unlike those of Tsar Ivan, will continue to grow long after Mr. Truman's death, giving a rich crop of sweat and blood. That Mr. Truman is held in great esteem by the American Jewish minority is of no great wonder, because he was always their faithful champion and mouthpiece; but it is somewhat difficult to explain why a rather large section of Americans who call themselves "Christians" still like Mr. Truman, this arch-enemy of Christianity and a wholesale murderer of mankind.

FIVE CENTS

Unite For A Long Hard Fight To Preserve Our Freedom!

Keynote address of Dean Clarence Manion before an enthusiastic audience of 3000, at the National States Rights Conference, Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 14, 1956.

My dear affectionate and over-indulgent friends: Monsignor Carney, Senator Evans, Mr. Bob Chandler, and patriotic Americans:

Many years ago back at Notre Dame we were at the point of what everybody hoped and prayed was the near end of what turned out to be an almost interminable football banquet. It was a quarter of two in the morning and our distinguished guest, a very prominent southerner, by the way, was just warming into the beginning of his address, when my old friend Knute Rockne leaned over to me and said, "Pat, you know I can forgive the public speaker who doesn't look at his watch, but the fellow I want to shoot is the guy who doesn't keep his eye on the calendar."

Now, I know what day it is. I sincerely hope that the people of America know what day it is. I am sure the people of this audience know what day it is. But for the benefit of everybody here and everywhere, let me say we are rapidly approaching the last days of life for American liberty. The calendar of our constitution tells us that! Any discerning person can learn that simply by looking at the calendar of political events. We are here at a very, very late day and hour. Nevertheless we can make up in determination, my friends, what we have lost in time; and if we are as determined as I believe we are, we can still strike the corpse of Constitutional Government in America and make it spring to its feet.

There are several important underscorings that need to be made with reference to this interstate conference. I want to tell you tonight of the essential relationship between the fight between communist subversion in this country, and the revival of constitutional states rights. A good many years ago a very notorious, and I am sure a thoroughly repentant ex-Communist told me this. He had escaped from the editorship of the Daily Worker and knew what he was talking about. He encountered me at Notre Dame and found me teaching Constitutional Law. He said, "Communism is not an economic system. Communism is a conspiratorial drive for tightly centralized government in the hands of Godless gangsters. Communism," he said, "must, as a prerequisite for success of its conquest, pull all powers of the government into one place (Washington, D. C.) first central control of police; second, central control of ballot boxes; third, central control of property, business; fourth, central control of the press; fifth, last but not least, central control of education." He said, "In this country the Constitution of the United States decentralizes the control of all of these things by constitutional mandate," and then he added, "As long as the constitutional doctrine of States Rights is maintained in this country, the communist conspiracy can never succeed."

Under the Constitution of this country,

T. Coleman Andrews
For President of the United States and the express language of the 10th Amendment, all powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution are reserved to the states and to the people. And among the things that are not delegated to the United States, among the powers and authorities that are reserved to the states and to the people in the states are the control of the police, the control of the voting ballot boxes, of property and business, of the press, and the control of education.

Unless we can maintain the decentralization of these controls, all of our efforts to frustrate the progress of the communist conspiracy will be lost. Unless, in other words, we can resurrect, reaffirm, reestablish and refurbish the constitutional doctrine of state's rights, over 40 billion dollars we spend every year to hold communism back from the far perimeters of the world is money gone down the drain.

When communism comes to the United States of America it will come as it came to Czechoslovakia, as it came to Hungary, as it came to Roumania, as it came to Bulgaria and to every other of the 16 nations subjugated since World War II ended. It will come by the centralization of power in one place in each country and when those cen-

United States Day Oct. 23

U.S. Day Should Be Observed By Every Community In Our Land!

FIRST: To bring to the attention of all the people the fact that the people of this nation have enjoyed greater freedom and a higher standard of living than the people of any other nation in the history of the world.

And that these freedoms and standard of living have resulted from our form of government.

Ours is a form of government, which, under the Constitution and Bill of Rights, protects the individual and the States, and assures the independence and sovereignty of the nation.

It is an obligation of every loyal citizen to protect this heritage and pass it on to future generations.

SECOND: To awaken the American people to the fact that we are in grave danger of losing our freedoms and national sovereignty by the usurpation of individual and states rights by the federal government, and surrender of national sovereignty to internationalism.

As shocking as it may sound, we have already lost much that our forefathers fought and died to attain. By an arrogant usurpation of power, without the consent of the people or the Congress, the federal courts have changed the meaning of the Constitution. They have restricted the rights of individuals and of the states, contrary to all previous decisions of the courts. Likewise by the encroachments of the federal government, many of the freedoms and prerogatives of the States have been lost.

tralized powers are safely tucked away in one place, then a Marxist trained Communist stooge will grab those powers and subjugate that country. They will follow that pattern in the United States as in sixteen other nations. What is the remedy against this communist subversion? The revival, the re-establishment, the underscoring of Constitutional States Rights. For such protections that we have left against the success of this evil, communist, Godless conspiracy, we do not owe thanks to our present generation; we do not owe it to our Governors, our Congressmen, our Senators; we owe it to the foresight and the courage of the founding fathers of this Republic. In the 10th article of the Bill of Rights, the founding fathers of the United States said to us, finally and faithfully, what we could do in order to save America: "The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage other rights retained by the people. The delegation in this constitution, the rights not delegated to the United States, are reserved to the states and to the people of the states."

Now, my friends, in our time and in our recollection we have heard a great deal — particularly when communism and fellow travelers were in trouble, we have heard a great deal about the 5th Amendment. This interstate conference is held now to remind the people of the 9th and 10th Amendments of the Constitution of the United States. And these were designed—not to protect communists—but to prevent the success of the Communist conspiracy in this Republic. Let us put this movement upon high ground. Let us understand the high purpose for which we are assembled here; and let us from New York, from my State of Indiana, from California, from Arizona, from all over the country, understand the community of interest we have in the protection of our republican form of government. The only defense against communist conspiracy; and let me repeat it again, and again and again—is the revival of Constitutional State's Rights.

Now why do we have to concern ourselves here with this extra-curricular political conference to underscore the obvious, to restate what has been stated so many times before? We have been called upon to do it, my friends, because the political leadership of both parties has run out on the Constitution of this country.

All of us, and I do mean all of us—have witnessed in whole or part a very spectacular and expensive demonstration in evasion at Chicago and at San Francisco. We have seen demonstrations and heard speeches and read platforms which are conspicuous for what they did not say, rather than what they did say. So much so that at a high point in one of these conventions a Governor of a Southern State managed to get the floor and said in that particular convention: "I have sat on the floor of this convention for four days and have yet to hear anybody say anything about State's Rights or Constitutional government." Eight days later, at the near-end of another convention, somebody might have gotten the floor and might have said, "I have sat in both conventions all the time, both day and night, and have yet to hear anybody say a thing about State's Rights or Constitutional Government." And so we had to come to Memphis, in an interstate conference, to tell the world that State's Rights and Constitutional Government are still important in this country and to our children and to the future generations in the world.

We have in this country what are known as Anti-trust Laws, which are directed against conspiracies, designed to prevent conspiracies in the restraint of trade and business. Many people have been prosecuted and some are in jails for conspiring to take things off the market, to agree on price-fixing, and to commit other shenanigans in restraint of free competition in business.

After having listened to both political conventions, I am constrained to believe that we ought to have some kind of anti-trust law against the restraint of political competition in this country; I think that there ought to be a law to prevent monopolistic political practices which take off the political market the products which the people want to buy, talk about and discuss. When two apparently competitive parties representing the people of the United States in Chicago and in San Francisco deliberately conspire to keep off political counters the things which are precious to the heart of America, I say the National Committee should be indicted for restraint of political trade.

One thing that was not conspicuous by its absence, was prominently underscored, accentuated, repeated over and over, was the attitude of hypocrisy. One of the freshest and brashest of these hypocritical utterances was made last night, which I heard on the radio as I drove home in my automobile. This came from one of the carbon-copy candidates for President. It might have come from either of them, but you know who spoke last night. Here is what he said: "If I could put my political philosophy in one phrase, it would be this: 'Trust the people; trust them with the great decisions.'" Now, my friends, let's take this great protestation very literally. Trust the people. Trust them with great decisions. And I say, Mr. Stevenson, "Amen,"—if you would only do it. I say, Mr. Stevenson, I dare you to trust the people with the decision of the Bricker Amendment, for instance, Mr. Stevenson, in the spirit of your own great statement, I dare you to trust the American people with the decision of foreign aid. Mr. Stevenson, I dare you to trust the American people on the question of whether we shall surrender American independence into the swamp of World Government. And last, but by no means least, but first Mr. Stevenson, I dare you to trust the American people with the decision of whether or not the federal government shall enforce civil rights in the states of the Union.

My friends, let us be perfectly frank, fearless and honest. We are here from the far reaches of this country. All of us have our local institutions which are near to our hearts, close to local administrations which we are determined to protect and preserve. A State's right to decide its local questions necessarily implies a State's right to be wrong occasionally. My own State of Indiana has been wrong in my judgment many times in its own administration. I dare say other states have been wrong at times.

The State of Nevada may be wrong in its legalizing gambling and paying the Governor's salary out of the proceeds of its Monte Carlo. The State of Illinois may be wrong in establishing or disestablishing the segregation of races in its public schools and public conveyances. But whether it is gambling in Nevada, or segregation in Mississippi, it is the right of the state to decide whether it is wrong or right.

When God Almighty endowed each and every one of His creatures with freedom of the will, it was a foregone conclusion that some of them would use their freedom to commit sins, errors, trespasses, as well as virtues. And we must concede when we are speaking of personal rights, the rights of States, the rights to make those decisions according to their local lights, and that is what the founding fathers intended, and that is what the Tenth Amendment means, and the Constitution is a travesty and a scrap of paper unless we have the courage to enforce it as such.

Now the calendar indicates that we are far along on the history of liberty in this country. All of us can see the fateful day approaching. The obligation that rests upon us here this evening is not an obligation to talk about State's Rights, not an obligation merely to cheer references to them. We have heard a lot of talk about State's Rights—the time has arrived now here in Memphis to do something about them. I think that one of the greatest evils present in this country today, one of the greatest menaces to the perpetuity of our great civilization, is not the menace of communism, however great and menacing it may be—a greater menace to the perpetuation of our liberties, to the safety and freedom of our children is the great cancer of complacency and apathy that afflicts the people of this country. We need, in other words, a wholesale revival of understanding with references to constitutional principles. We need to understand those principles free from prejudice and self interest, free from anything except the public interest, and this we can have if we refurbish and cleanse ourselves of all selfish motives, and look the problem square in the face. We must examine our constitutional conscience; and remember this, that the principles of constitutional liberty can never be preserved by people who are in ignorance of those principles. Education is required, but in America it has been demonstrated ever since the Constitution was born, there is one form of political education which is indispensable to the proper progress of political action.

The people will understand what they are asked to vote for on election day and the great tragedy of the bi-partisan carbon-copy conspiracy that is presented to us today is that all of the important constitutional issues are suppressed, silenced and obscured, and so in order to educate the American people to the dangers which threaten our constitutional system, we must have not merely political discussion and political action, but we must nominate, endorse, call it what you will, a candidate for President who stands for the independence of the United States against World Government: we must nominate a candidate who pledges himself to do away with the evil waste of foreign aid; we must nominate a candidate who is pledged prior to all of these things as a basic prerequisite for the preservation of Constitutional Government all down the line to preserve the 10th Amendment and Constitutional rights of the States of the Union.

There is no way to do this academically. If neither one of the carbon-copy candidates has the courage to speak on the subject of State's Rights, then the people of the country must speak on that subject. If neither of the carbon-copy candidates has the courage to speak out either for or against the Bricker Amendment, to prevent the envelopment of the independence of this country into the snares of World Government, then the people of America must speak on it.

The Constitution of the United States does not say that the people of America are obliged to accept the lesser of two evils anywhere, any place, any time. On the contrary, the Constitution of the United States says in plain terms that each state of the Union shall select in whatever manner the legislatures of those states shall direct, presidential electors, who shall choose a President of the United States of America.

The Constitution of this country says nothing about political extravagances that we have come to know as National conventions. The Constitution says that we are not subjected to bi-partisan combines which eradicates for popular discussion and popular decision, the real important issues of this day. The Constitution says that the virtue of this Republic is in self-government by the people, through the States according to Constitutional Law. So we need through political action, through the candidacy of forthright patriots, men who are willing to come forward, to be counted, to be shot at. We need, in other words, to resort to forthright patriots who have expressed themselves courageously, confidently and with determination on these issues—men like T. Coleman Andrews and Thomas Werdel.

My friends, what is constitutional government? (Voice: "LIBERTY") Right, my friend; spoken like a founding father. It was George Washington himself who said that government is like fire, a dangerous servant, a fearful master. My friends, the founding fathers of this Republic knew that Government is like fire. Government is precisely like fire. There is nothing so much like fire as government, and vice versa.

Fire is an essential ingredient of civilization. Without fire we would still literally physically, and scientifically be in the dark ages. Fire is what has lighted up, energized and motivated the world. Fire is a necessary, useful thing, but once it is out of control, fire is the most dangerous and destructive agency on earth. "Government is like fire," said Washington. "We fear fire and" he said, "we should fear government." Here and all over the country, we still fear fire. In this auditorium we still fear government. Fire, when it is controlled, when it is held under what is supposed to be cooked, whether in blast furnace or in a cook stove, fire is always surrounded by iron walls, and watched, vigilantly watched, and whenever fire escapes from these iron walls, when it leaks over its containing barriers, it becomes a destructive conflagration, the most destructive, catastrophic agency on earth. Government is like fire, and the founding fathers knowing this, took the fire of government that they lighted in the Declaration of Independence for the first time in human history, and they encased that fire of government behind the iron walls of the constitutional system. They separated those fires of government and put them in different places, in states of the Union, in local governments, in counties, in cities. They took a very little bit of the fire and put it in a place called Washington, D.C. a very little bit of the fire—and by strict constitutional limitations, and by deliberately constructed fire walls, they separated these fires one from another—the fire in Tennessee, the fire in Indiana, the fire in Memphis, the fire in Nashville.

The whole basis of our political science was a separation, a check and balance, between the fires of government as they burned in the various areas of our political domain—and that was the secret of our liberty. Keep the fires of government separated; keep them checked and balanced one against the other, and we would be safe from a conglomeration of tyranny. It was 1912, when Woodrow Wilson said, "A concentration of governmental power is what always precedes the death of human freedom." And after 1912, significantly, the fires of government, which had been separated, checked and balanced throughout the country, began to be consolidated in Washington. The blaze of power in Washington built up higher and higher and became more and more destructive until today it threatens to scorch and singe the liberty of everybody in the land. The American people have sat idly by and watched this conglomeration of centralized fire go on without challenge or contest.

We have been urged by international Socialists not to fear fire of Government, but to worship it, to amalgamate it, to centralize it, to warm ourselves upon and with it, to trust it absolutely. And in the last 20 years particularly, in the federal Executive, in the federal Congress, and last but not least in the federal courts, the sacredness of this centralized fire in Washington has been accentuated and underscored to a point that today everybody in this country lives fearfully in the shadow of the Federal Giant without any rights you can expect this Federal Government upon petition to respect.

Some months ago a man who had been Collector of Federal Income Taxes, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under the present President of the United States, suddenly abdicated his responsibility, and told the American people, the truth: "The root of this omnipotent power," he said, "The thing that gives the Federal Government its ever-widening scope, its ever-tightening grip of despotic centralization, is the federal income tax. It ought to be destroyed." For having had the courage to put his finger upon the root of all this evil, this gentleman was criticized by the powers that be. BUT for having had that courage and common sense, we here, in this State's Rights Conference will, I hope, endorse him for President of the United States. As T. Coleman Andrews has said, "Unlimited money is unlimited power." When the Federal Government has the unlimited, unrestricted, unrestrained power to scrape the last dollar of your income out of your pocket and give it to the King of Cambodia, or anybody else they can think of, then it is useless to talk about constitutional limitation. If the Congress has the unlimited power to tax and to spend for any purpose on earth, then not only the 10th Amendment but every article and section of the Constitution of the United States, has been repealed, and it is not because anybody is penurious that they wish to attack the root of this evil, not because any of us are badgered or hounded by the income tax collector that we wish to get rid of it. Those are personal selfish gripes that we have against this iniquitous, immoral banditry that is called the Federal Income Tax. But there is a more general, more all-pervading, more convincing reason why we are against it. The Federal income tax is an unlimited right in the Federal Government to take the last dollar from any American anywhere in the country and that unlimited right means unlimited power in the Federal Government. The unlimited power of the Federal Government means the destruction of States Rights and personal liberties. That is why we must destroy the income tax.

Of course people write to me, four or five thousand every week, because I am unfortunate enough to be addicted to a radio program, and say: "This is the height of irresponsibility; you propose to repeal the federal income tax. Where is Congress going to get the money if you repeal the Federal Income Tax?" I answer it categorically: They ain't agoing to get it.

And now when we propose to stop this, the bandits tell us, you cannot stop the federal income tax until you find some better way to support the King of Cambodia. My friends, if the federal income tax is inherently immoral, iniquitous, discriminatory, and as T. Coleman Andrews says, it was conceived in Marxian class conscious vengeance, then regardless of alternatives, this immoral, iniquitous thing must be stopped. Let nobody accuse us of irresponsibility.

I have heard from Bob Chandler and other excellent lawyers all over the country, with suggestions as to what we can do about this income tax. This idea is not mine but comes to me from the best legal brains in the country. He wrote up an amendment and it goes something like this. Five years after the ratification of this Amendment by the states of the Union, it will be unlawful for Congress to levy an income tax upon anybody's income anywhere in America. Congress will have five years to cut out its extravagance, to rearrange its budget, and to find a legitimate, moral substitute, and if Congress can't do that in five years, it certainly should not have the unlimited right to spend the unlimited income of the American people for five minutes.

For a good many years I had the pleasure of teaching American history, and for a good many years before that, I had the pleasure of reading it. I still love to read it. But it gives me more pleasure to make it. And we are going to make it here, tonight.

Another question which has been addressed to this conference and which requires an answer is this: "How effective can these extra-party activities be? Why, this is a rock-ribbed two-party country. Third parties, extra parties, new parties, are un-American, ineffective purposeless." Well, let's go to American history and see what has happened with reference to that assertion. My friends, exactly one hundred years ago, an institution was born in this country which has come to be known as the Republican Party. The Republican Party was born in the election of 1856, crowded the existing Whig Party, which was the second party, out of second place, and four years later, in 1860, the Republican Party won the election with Abraham Lincoln. But, people forget when Lincoln won that election in 1860, there were four political parties in that field, and each one of these four candidates received electoral votes, and one of them was from Tennessee. There were four candidates, not two, in 1860. Of course, for 20 years after the Civil War the Republican Party had it their own way. And we didn't have anything like two parties in this country, but 20 years after the Civil War the renewal of duplication of parties began and from 1880 down to 1932 we not only had two parties, we had 3, 4, 5, and 6 parties contending in Presidential elections.

Of course in 1932 the Socialists merged with the Democrats, then after that they left the left-field to Earl Browder and Henry Wallace. But has it ever occurred to you to explain why both parties are now so close together on the matter of international socialism? It is precisely, my friends, because of the activity of the so-called third parties in this century. All of the activities on the part of the third parties was leftist, Socialists, Communists, Marxists, Progressive. The activities of these parties were constantly pulling these parties to the left, to the left, and to the left. And now the time has come for extra-party activity to pull one, two parties, perhaps both of them, or at least a new party, to the right, toward the Constitution. And with courage and with determination we can do it.

We have a lot of vacuum to be created on the moral right of Constitutional principle and we expect to fill that vacuum this Fall.

I came to Memphis with many misgivings. I go away heartened, enthusiastic, confident.

It has been said that the Lord helps those who help themselves. Tonight—tomorrow—we here in the State's Rights conference plan to map a procedure whereby we can help ourselves back to the Constitution and to Liberty. I am confident as I am standing here that the good Lord will help us to do it.

UNITED STATES DAY

And because of Executive agreements and treaties, many of them secret, our nation has already lost many of its sovereign rights. And if present trends are not checked by loyal American citizens, the Internationalists will soon make of the United States a second rate nation—or worse still, surrender its sovereignty to the United Nations or some other World Organization dominated by our enemies.

FLY THE UNITED STATES FLAG

And No Other,

THE TIME HAS COME FOR ALL LOYAL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS TO STAND AND BE COUNTED!

It is not enough for us to remember the virtues of our constitutional form of government and the dangers already undermining it:

We must recognize the tremendous propaganda machine that is attacking our way of life and meet it head on.

First we must face the fact that the internationalists in the godless, alien-controlled United Nations, through UNESCO, together with those in government positions, aided by the tax-free endowed funds of foundations, have an almost unlimited amount of money at their disposal for propaganda purposes and that they are making good use of it to brainwash the American people against the ideals that have made the United States great, and in favor of socialist and internationalist ideas.

They have entered every educational agency, the press, radio, television, schools, women's clubs, civic organizations, and even the churches. Their propaganda is literally flooding every avenue to the mind of man, woman, and child. And the only possible chance to offset the erroneous information they are proclaiming, is to meet them on every field of battle, and give the people the truth. Truth will win the battle for the minds of people. But it will take the cooperative efforts of all patriotic persons. We face a mighty foe. But with TRUTH as our sword, and the Author of TRUTH as our Helper, we cannot fail.

We have to be prepared for unfair attacks. This has been the method used by those opposing all patriots and patriotic groups. They use a smear campaign against all who put the interests of the United States above every other nation. They call such persons or groups, Extreme Rightists, Super Patriots, or even Hate Groups, though most patriotic persons and groups are neither extreme nor hate groups. We do not hate even our enemies; but we do love this land we are glad to call our own, and we want to keep it the wonderful land it has always been, the land of the FREE and home of the BRAVE.

Can This Be Done?

The answer rests with the patriotic men and women and young people throughout the United States of America. Concerted action alone can win.

Study To Know The Truth About:

1. The dangers inherent in the United Nations or any other world organization that submerges the nation.

2. The danger in well planned propaganda against American ideals and the patriotic persons and organizations who defend the United States—propaganda in text books, comic strips, news articles, TV programs, radio announcers, subversive organizations, and fellow-travelers in high places in Church and State.

Do Something About It! Day In And Day Out Throughout The Year!

Support Persons And Movements:

1. Attend public meetings and speak your mind.
2. Vote your conviction on all issues.
3. Write letters to news columns.
4. Write letters to your Congressmen:
 - a. Approving patriotic efforts:
 - b. Disapproving un-American stands.
5. Join with other patriotic persons in the community to preserve American ideals in community, state and nation.
6. Expose "United Nations Day" for what it is—a day of infamy and shame when Stalin's Reds formally ratified a permanent alliance with the United States by ratifying the Charter of the United Nations.

Red Sea Not Crossed in Exodus Of Israelites, Scientists Maintain Expedition on Sinai Peninsula Says Route Was to North, Below Great Bitter Lake

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 3.—The University of California African expedition exploring the Sinai Peninsula has discovered evidence that Moses and the Israelites may not have made their exodus from Egypt across the Red Sea as believed by some biblical scholars, but crossed a shallow body of water much farther north, according to Wendell Phillips, leader of the expedition.

"The Sea, or Lake, of Reeds," Mr. Phillips said, "has generally been identified with the Red Sea, to which the name was later extended. Many scholars believed that the north end of the Red Sea was much farther north in biblical times than it is now, in which case the Israelites might have crossed it by following the itinerary given in the Book of Exodus."

"This view has now been conclusively disproved by expeditions of the eminent archeologist, Prof. W. F. Albright, of Johns Hopkins University, who discovered with Henry Field, former Curator of the Field Museum in Chicago, a small, ancient Egyptian port on the shoreline near Abu Zenima, south of Suez, whose archeological remains show that this settlement was occupied about 1,500 years before Christ. By that time, the shoreline was already about the same as it is today, so that it could not have been any higher at the time of the exodus, five centuries later."

"It is now certain that the sea the Israelites crossed was not the modern Red Sea at all, but a more northerly body of water, probably the Lake of Reeds mentioned in Egyptian documents of the exodus time."

The Lake of Reeds is believed to have been north of Suez, which is the most northerly point of the Red Sea, and probably in the marshy area between Suez and the Great Bitter Lake.

Cecil B. DeMille's newest "Ten Commandments" will soon be seen throughout the United States on the screens of motion-picture theatres with a paid weekly attendance of more than 62,000,000 Christians, and in Europe, Asia and Africa on the screens of motion-picture theatres with a paid weekly attendance of several hundred million Christians and members of the world's other leading religions. Cecil B. DeMille's newest "Ten Commandments" will quickly demonstrate that it is the most dangerous device ever developed for this purpose by that newly-perfected science so accurately described by the term brainwashing, the secret weapon for liquidating the Christian faith.

SCRIPTURES NOW USED TO LIQUIDATE CHRISTIAN FAITH.

To accomplish its most important purpose Cecil B. DeMille's newest "Ten Commandments" will distort, disfigure and disguise many Scriptural, historic and scientific truths in the most flagrant manner ever attempted, on a scale never before conceived and with extravagance never before contemplated for this purpose. The appeal to Christians will prove very dynamic. These dramatized distortions of historic truth were planned only in order to capture Christian imaginations. The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith regard it an outstanding achievement to divert $15,000,000, belonging to the stockholders of Paramount Pictures Corporation into Cecil B. DeMille's newest "Ten Commandments." They could not have planned it better. Will this $15,000,000 brainwash now awaken sleeping Christians?

EXPLORATION EXPLODES ANCIENT MOSES EXODUS MYTH.

The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith are today using to its maximum capacity their monopolistic control of mass-media for shaping public opinion to brainwash Christians that Moses and his 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles evacuated Egypt upon the bed of the Red Sea, which opened to permit their safe passage by the grace of God. The article on this page reproduced from the New York Times completely debunks that myth. This article reproduced from the New York Times presents incontestible proof of the falsity of that claim. The Scriptural, historic, archeological, geological and other facts in that article supply proof beyond the question of any doubt of the deception practised upon Christians by the conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith without revealing their scheme.

EXODUS EVACUATES EGYPT ACROSS "MARSHY LAND" ONLY.

The article reproduced here from the New York Times presents facts which are utterly impossible for anyone to disprove. The facts so clearly establish that the Red Sea was not opened by the grace of God to permit Moses and his 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles to march upon the bottom of the Red Sea to the Sinai Peninsula on the opposite shore without getting wet. The New York Times article recites that Moses ushered 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles out of Egypt upon just "marshy land," approximately 10-20 miles inland from Suez, the nearest point on the Red Sea. The New York Times article quotes one of the world's most authentic sources for information on this significant question as follows: "the old view, however, that the passage had taken place near Suez is now almost unanimously rejected."

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA'S GEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY.

Conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith brainwash Christians that God opened the Red Sea to allow the safe passage of Moses and his 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles upon its bottom without getting wet, then instantly closing up the Red Sea again, drowning the entire pursuing Egyptian army. The New York Times article smashes that myth to smithereens. The New York Times article presents a part of the report of the University of California expedition exploring the Sinai Peninsula, headed by the eminent Professor W. F. Albright, now of Johns Hopkins University, and the eminent Mr. Henry Field, former Curator of the famous Marshall Field Museum of Chicago, the world's two leading authorities on this subject. It becomes the duty of every Christian worthy of the name to read the New York Times article carefully and then to explore this question further. They will soon learn the extent to which Christians have been brainwashed by the conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith without arousing suspicion.

Photostatic reproductions of the University of California report mentioned in the above article in the New York Times, and equally scientific geological and archeological discoveries, are available to interested theologians and scholars desiring the very latest information on this subject. MOSES NOT BORN AN "ISRAELITE," "HEBREW" OR "JEW."

The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith are today using to the maximum of its capacity their monopolistic control of mass-media for shaping public opinion to brainwash Christians that God divided the Red Sea for Moses and his 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles, claiming it usual for God to perform His miracles for "Israelites," "Hebrews," and/or "Jews." These conspirators now glorify Moses either as an "Israelite," a "Hebrew" or a "Jew" depending upon where and what story about Moses is being told. But as a matter of fact, Moses was neither an "Israelite," a "Hebrew" or a "Jew" then, as the full facts of the Exodus will confirm. The 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles who emigrated from Egypt were likewise neither "Israelites," "Hebrews," or "Jews" in the same sense that Moses was not either. To apply the terms "Israelite," "Hebrew" or "Jew" to either Moses or to his 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles is in complete contradiction to the legitimate etymological and philological connotations of these terms.

"ISRAEL" NEITHER A RACE, RELIGION OR NATIONALITY.

"Israel" was a term common to many Semitic languages. "Israel" was formed by combining "isra" with "El." In ancient Semitic languages "isra" meant "to strive with, to serve with." In ancient Semitic languages "El" was one of their many terms for our several English equivalents, i.e. "God," "Lord" and "Almighty." In ancient Semitic languages "Israel" meant "to strive with God" or "serve with God." "Israel" then also became the name given to persons assuming that emerging new spiritual philosophy based upon the belief in one invisible, eternal and omnipotent Deity. A believer in this new emerging spiritual philosophy thereafter became an "Israelite." This monotheistic spiritual philosophy made its first appearance among some non-Semitic people in the far East, between 4000 B.C. and 5000 B.C. This spreading new spiritual philosophy reached Chaldea in the west, home of Abraham, from the East about 2000 B.C. About 1950 B.C. Abraham was converted in his old age to this spreading new spiritual philosophy upon which modern religions are based. Theologians, historians and archeologists confirm the fact that Abraham neither discovered nor invented the spiritual philosophy of one invisible, eternal and omnipotent God. Monotheism was neither discovered nor invented by Abraham, contrary to that general belief.

ABRAHAM NOT BORN AN "ISRAELITE," "HEBREW," "JEW."

About 1950 B.C. Abraham emigrated from his homeland in Chaldea, in the interior of Asia Minor, to Canaan on the Mediterranean Sea, after he was frustrated in all his attempts to convert his family and friends to his newly acquired spiritual philosophy. Abraham settled in Canaan permanently and there he endeavored to inflict upon the Canaanites his earlier thwarted ambitions as a missionary in his homeland. Abraham had a grandson in Canaan named Jacob. Scriptures state that Jacob had earned an unsavory reputation earlier in his life owing to his lack of integrity in many respects. Scriptures further state that Jacob eventually reformed and turned over a new leaf. Upon resolving to lead an exemplary life Jacob assumed the name of "Israel." "To strive with God" or "in the service of God" implies worship of Jehovah by Jacob and practise by him thereafter of higher moral principles.

TRUE MEANING "ISRAELITE" A "BELIEVER" IN JEHOVAH.

"Israelite" was a new term deriving from "Israel." Thus "Israelite" indicated neither race, nationality or membership in any specific religious sect or cult. Members of many races, members of many nations, and members of many religious sects or cults participated in remotely removed areas in the great variety of local interpretations evolving at the time of the rapidly spreading new belief in one invisible, eternal and omnipotent Deity. "Believer" is the term in the English language which accurately expresses the intended sense of the ancient Semitic term "Israelite." Where "Israel" or "Israelite" now appears in English editions of the Scriptures it is a foreign term, not an English term. The authors of Scriptures intended to convey the idea solely of a "Believer" when applying the term "Israelite" to a new "Believer" in the growing recognition of Jehovah. The erudite clergy of important Christian denominations substitute the term "Believer" for the term "Israelite," and the term "Believers" for the terms "Israelites" or "Israel" when reading aloud from Scriptures or writing for religious publications. The ancient Semitic foreign terms "Israel" and "Israelite" are used in the English language very much like the Latin "modus operandi" and "quid pro quo," or the French terms "fait accompli" and "laissez faire" are used. It seems senseless to use an ancient foreign term in the English language when there now exists in the English vocabulary a word which accurately conveys the exact idea originally conveyed by the foreign term.

MOSES MURDERS EGYPTIAN, MOSES POLITICAL AGITATOR.

Moses was born in Egypt of Egyptian parents and raised as an Egyptian according to Scriptures, and other sources of reliable information on the subject. Moses was exiled because he murdered an Egyptian and because he was an undesirable political agitator. Moses returned to Egypt later on a mission to arrange for the emigration from Egypt of 600,000-700,000 Egyptians in whom Moses had a personal interest. During the years of his first exile from Egypt, Moses lived amongst the tribal nation known as the Midianites then occupying a southerly part of the Sinai Peninsula coast in the area of Mount Sinai. For many centuries the Midianites worshipped Jehovah, their one invisible, eternal and omnipotent Deity. The worship of Jehovah was the religion of the nation. Genesis IV, 15 recites that from time immemorial the Midianites wore the emblem of Jehovah tattooed upon their bodies. Historic facts confirm that Jehovah was the ancestral Deity of the Midianites. Moses acquired his first knowledge of Jehovah from the Midianites when he lived amongst them. Moses subsequently married the daughter of the high-priest of the Midianites and became a priest among them himself. Moses became an "Israelite," a "Believer" in Jehovah, when he was converted to the spiritual philosophy of the Midianites, as countless other millions had become "Israelites" before Moses during the thousands of preceding years, all inhabitants of the vast area from far-off India to Egypt.

MOSES PETITIONS EGYPT EVACUATE ALL HIS KINSMEN.

Inspired by his newly-acquired spiritual philosophy, Moses returned to Egypt specifically to ask the ruler of Egypt for permission to evacuate from Egypt the 600,000-700,000 Egyptians in whom Moses took very personal interest. Moses asked permission to evacuate them to the Sinai Peninsula on the opposite shore of the Red Sea, directly across the Red Sea from Egypt. Moses obtained permission to evacuate these 600,000-700,000 Egyptians as petitioned by him. The Egyptians felt much safer without them. The Egyptians regarded them as 5th columnists. These 600,000-700,000 Egyptians were the descendants of invading aliens from the north who had driven the Egyptians out of their homeland in the area of the fertile Nile Delta 300-400 years earlier, when they sought temporary refuge there to graze their herds, owing to drought and famine in their native land, the area which in later history is described as Palestine. The great personal interest shown by Moses in these 600,000-700,000 other Egyptians resulted from the fact Moses also was descended from the invaders who had conquered Goshen centuries before.

EGYPT RECAPTURES GOSHEN FROM KINSMEN OF MOSES.

The Egyptians had since retaken their lost province of Goshen, driving their alien rulers, the Shepherd Kings, out of Egypt. The Egyptians regarded these 600,000-700,000 Egyptians of alien origin as potential 5th columnists who might at any time aid and abet their defeated rulers in exile if they

1. Thou shalt worship no other god.
2. Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.
3. All that openeth the womb is mine.
4. None shall appear before me empty-handed.
5. Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest.

The first commandment, "Thou shalt wor-

The "Decalogue," or "Ten Words," also known as "Book of the Covenant," is the accurate title of the above code, less accurately described as the "Ten Commandments." This code was originally reduced to writing in four Semitic texts, the first about 850-800 B.C., the second 800-750 B.C., the third 619 B.C. and the fourth about 500 B.C. and are found in English recisions in Exodus XXXIV:10-26, in Exodus XX:23-XXIII:17, in Deuteronomy V:6-21 and in Exodus XX:2-17. The "Decalogue," or "Ten Words," are regarded as the written "Law" as revealed to Moses by Jehovah on Mount Sinai, and recorded on two stone tables by either Jehovah or Moses, according to the two versions in Scriptures.

again made war upon Egypt to reconquer the strategic province of Goshen, the most fertile land in all the world. The ruler of Egypt was delighted to give Moses his consent to evacuate these 600,000-700,000 potential 5th columnists from the strategic area they occupied on the northern border of Egypt. The ruler of Egypt was thankful that Moses collaborated in removing this internal threat to the security and peace of Egypt, without resort to the use of force.

SCRIPTURES CONFIRM EXODUS EXILES NOT "ISRAELITES."

As recited in Scriptures, the Egyptian army escorted the departing 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles to the border of Egypt to reduce to a minimum the looting in which they engaged as they travelled towards the border. These departing 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles were not "Israelites" in any sense of the word by the wildest stretch of the imagination. Exodus 3:13f.6:3 makes the positive assertion that the name "Jehovah" was unknown to the departing Egyptian exiles under Moses, was unknown to their ancestors, and was unknown to the early patriarchs. The escorting Egyptian army could not have been "drowned in the Red Sea" if the departing 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles under Moses marched out of Egypt upon just "marshy land," approximately 10-20 miles inland from the nearest point of the Red Sea. It is highly improbable that the grace of God would have rewarded the ruler of Egypt for granting permission to Moses to evacuate these 600,000-700,000 potential 5th columnists peaceably, by promptly drowning the entire Egyptian army. The ruler of Egypt could have kept these 600,000-700,000 potential 5th columnists in Egypt, continuing to work upon the land there in "bondage," the treatment accorded to populations of all conquered nations at that period in history throughout the world, which was not "slavery" in our sense of that word. Exodus 20:2 confirms this by referring to Egypt as "the house of bondage" of the 600,000-700,000 kinsmen of Moses. Deuteronomy 5:15 informs them "thou wast a servant in Egypt," not "slaves" there.

GENESIS XIV:13 REFERS TO ABRAHAM AS AN IMMIGRANT.

Moses was not a "Hebrew" in the sense the word is universally accepted by Christians today, that "Hebrew" signifies either a race, a religion, or a nation by that name, or signifies all three of them rolled into one. The most authentic and most authoritative source for information on the origin of words in the English language, and their correct definitions, is the classic unabridged Oxford English Dictionary, which is so regarded by the world's most eminent scholars in all fields. The Oxford English Dictionary, and every other source for reliable information on this subject, concur that "Hebrew" is the modern English term for the ancient Aramaic term "ebrai." The literal meaning of "ebrai" in Aramaic is "one from the other side (of the river)." The Aramaic term "ebrai" comes from "eber," meaning literally "the region on the other or opposite side." "Eber" comes from "abar," meaning literally "to cross or to pass over." Abraham is referred to as "Abram the Hebrew" for the first time in Genesis XIV:13, literally as "Abram the immigrant" or "Abram the passer over." The Oxford English Dictionary, on behalf of themselves and others who speak with equal authority on this subject, state that the author of Genesis XIV:13 applied the term "ebrai" to Abraham because Abraham had recently crossed over "from the other side (of the river)," from his homeland somewhere beyond the Euphrates River in Chaldea, or "from the opposite side of the region," from Chaldea in the interior of Asia Minor deep into Canaan, to his new home in the distant Mediterranean area.

"HEBREWS" UNKNOWN IN HISTORY BEFORE 10TH CENTURY.

The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith have for many centuries utilized their monopolistic control of mass-media for shaping public opinion to brainwash Christians that the term "Hebrew" is a legitimate synonym for the terms "Israelite" and "Jew," and as synonyms signify the race, the religion, and the nation solely responsible for the discovery or invention of the spiritual philosophy of one invisible, eternal and omnipotent Deity, and accordingly solely responsible for modern religious faiths founded upon the worship of Jehovah. However, the historic origin of the term "Hebrew" dispels that delusion. The terms, "ebrai" in Aramaic, their equivalents in the other 40 ancient Semitic languages, "Ebrios" in ancient Greek, "Ebreus" in ancient and medieval Latin, "Ebrieu" in Old French, "Ebreu," "Ebru," "Ebrew" and "Ebrewe" in Medieval English, "Hebru," "Hebreu," "Hebrieu" and "Hebrue" in Modern English, signify "immigrant," "passer over," "one from the other side (of the river)" or "from the region on the other or opposite side." Even in their new Semitic language acquired by the invaders of Canaan under Joshua from the Canaanites beginning in the 13th century B.C., and soon thereafter their only language, and called after the 10th century B.C. "ibrit," their term "ibri" likewise meant "one from the other side (of the river)." After the revival of learning in Europe following the Dark Ages, the initial "H" was prefixed before the modern English and French spelling, influenced by the classical modern Latin "Hebraeus," a new spelling which came into use with theologians about then. Christians are completely wrong in assuming the term "Hebrew" infers a race, religion or nation enjoying the blessings denied to others by God's directives.

CANAANITE LANGUAGE CALLED "HEBREW" AFTER 1000 B.C.

The Jewish Encyclopedia speaks with authority on this subject. The Jewish Encyclopedia states "ibrith" is the term signifying "Hebrew language," in the so-called Hebrew language itself. The Jewish Encyclopedia further states the term "ibrith" is "derived from the Aramaic ibrahy," their modified spelling for Aramaic "ebrai." The Jewish Encyclopedia further states the so-called "Hebrew language," in the Old Testament, "is called sephath Kena'an 'lip of Canaan.'" The Jewish Encyclopedia further states "ibrith," the first known term for their language in their own language, "was coined by the Rabbis of Palestine." When? The Jewish Encyclopedia supplies the information "ibrith" was a new "Semitic language" of which there has never been evidence found of its existence prior to the 10th century B.C. Documented evidence does exist however, that the Canaanite nations had spoken this language and written this alphabet more than 1200 years preceding the adoption of their language and alphabet by the Egyptian invaders under Joshua. The Jewish Encyclopedia further states, "Egyptian and Babylonian documents prove" the "Canaanite language . . . was current in Canaan before the coming" of the Egyptian invaders under Joshua and, "The cuneiform correspondence found in Egypt, chiefly, between Egyptian kings and their vassals in Syria and Palestine (about 1400 B.C.) also exhibits a language similar to, but older than, biblical Hebrew." It was quite normal and altogether natural that the Egyptian exiles invading Canaan under Joshua, illiterate before and after their 40 year primitive existence in the Sinai desert, should adopt the language and alphabet of the highly cultured Canaanites, among many other forms of Canaanite culture adopted by the uncultured invaders under Josephus, aiming to improve their living standards.

"HEBREW," "ISRAELITE," AND "JEW" NEVER SYNONYMS.

The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith are today utilizing to the maximum of its capacity their monopolistic control of mass-media for shaping public opinion to brainwash Christians that Moses was a "Hebrew" in the sense he was a member of the race, of the religion, and of the nation, or of all three rolled into one, which invaded Canaan under Joshua, shortly after the death of Moses. History bears solemn witness Moses never set his feet, nor even his eyes upon Jerusalem, or upon the territory which was destined to become Judea after his death, and ultimately the Palestine of more modern history. Moses migrated no further from his life-long homeland in Egypt than twice to make the journey to the Midianites on the Sinai Peninsula, directly across from Egypt on the opposite shore of the Red Sea. On both these occasions Moses became an "ebrai" to the Midianites in their own language, an "immigrant," a "passer over," one from "the region on the other or opposite side," "one from the other side (of the river)," or a "Hebrew" in the true sense of the word for the first time.

CALL EGYPTIAN INVADERS "HEBREWS" AFTER INVASION.

Moses becomes a "Hebrew" in 1300-1250 B.C. through circumstances comparable to the circumstances by which Abraham becomes a "Hebrew" in 2000-1950 B.C., according to Genesis XIV:13, and comparable to the circumstances through which Joshua becomes a "Hebrew" in 1250-1200 B.C., according to Joshua IV:1. Joshua, and all his invading effectives of the 600,000-700,000 Egyptian exiles Moses evacuated from Egypt, and the many added invading effectives of their 40 prolific years in the Sinai desert, were looked upon as "Hebrews" by the Canaanites. Joshua and his invaders were camped on the east bank of the Jordan River, and Canaan was over on the west bank of the Jordan River. Joshua and his invaders were regarded as "ebrai," by the Canaanites in the language of the Canaanites, while camped on "the other side (of the river)," preparatory to invading Canaan, and when they "passed over" from "the region on the other or opposite side" of the River Jordan and invaded Canaan, they became the legendary Old Testament "Hebrews," the first reference in recorded history to "Hebrews" used in that collective sense. The term "Hebrew" suggesting a race, or a religion, or a nation is completely contradictory to its correct connotation, and cannot be properly applied in that sense to Abraham, Moses, Joshua or to the invaders of Canaan under Joshua. There has never been a historic basis for doing so.

"JEW" AN IMPROVIDENT 18TH CENTURY ABORTIVE WORD.

The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith are today utilizing to the maximum of its capacity their monopolistic control of mass-media for shaping public opinion to brainwash Christians that Moses was a "Jew." Moses was not a "Jew," either before or after leaving Egypt on both occasions, in the sense Christians have been brainwashed to understand and use the term "Jew" today. The term "Jew" was coined in the 18th century. The term "Jew" came into use in the 18th century as the result of circumstances inconsistent and incompatible with the use of the term today. The term "Jew" properly has no legitimate connotation in the English language today, nor did it ever have any. Theologians, historians, archeologists, etymologists and philologists concur that "Judean," and not "Jew," is the only correct English translation for Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus." Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus," which both mean "Judean" in English, derive from Greek "Ioudaia" and Latin "Iudaea," which both mean "Judea" in English. In spite of its wide use today, these authorities unanimously agree that "Jew" is incorrect, and "Judean" is the only translation correctly interpreting Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus" into English. The term "Jew" improvidently came into use in the English language in the 18th century as an abortive English equivalent term for Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus," which with their foreign spelling could not be pronounced in English by Englishmen without the greatest difficulty, if at all.

1ST ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF SCRIPTURES BEGETS "GYU."

Prior to the 14th century, Scriptures were available in Greek and Latin hand-written copies only. In Greek Scriptures, Jesus Christ was referred to as "Ioudaios," Greek for English "Judean." In Latin Scriptures, Jesus Christ was referred to as "Iudaeus," Latin for English "Judean." In the year 1380 A.D., Scriptures were translated into English for the first time in history, by an Englishman named Wicliffe. Wicliffe coined the English term "Gyu" in 1380 A.D. as it appears in his first translation of Scriptures into English: Prior to this first translation of Scriptures into English by Wicliffe, the need did not exist in English for an English equivalent for Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus." Wicliffe had discovered that Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus" could not be pronounced in English by Englishmen with their foreign spelling. Wicliffe then hopefully coined the term "Gyu" as a possible English equivalent for Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus." Wicliffe's "Gyu" could be easily pronounced in English by Englishmen of all ranks. Wicliffe's "Gyu" when pronounced sounded almost exactly like the first syllable of both Greek "Ioudaios" and Latin "Iudaeus," and sounded then almost exactly like the sound of "Jew" as it is pronounced in English today. This was another typical English contraction and corruption in the English language of a foreign word difficult to pronounce in English with its foreign spelling, like many other foreign words in English. In the many hand-written translations of Scriptures into English in the century following the Wicliffe 14th century translation, and in earliest printed copies of Scriptures, before the later development of the printing press to its high state of perfection in England in the 18th century, Wicliffe's "Gyu" underwent many changes in spelling before it finally emerged as "Jew" in the 18th century. In successive translations of Scriptures between the 14th and 18th centuries, Wicliffe's "Gyu" appeared as "Giu," "lu," "luu," "luw," "leuu," "leuy," "lue," "low," "lewe," "loue," "lue," "lve," "lew" and finally, in the 18th century, "Jew." It has remained "Jew" without any further changes ever since then. The sound of each of the above was almost exactly like the sound of "Jew" as it is pronounced in English today. The great progress made in the printing-press in England in the 18th century then for the first time made possible mass-production of printed Scriptures in the English language at popular prices. Millions of copies of these English translations of Scriptures were quickly placed in the homes of Christians everywhere the English language was spoken. That is the real reason the term "Jew" came to be stabilized in the English language in the 18th century. No future change in the spelling of "Jew" is likely to occur in English editions of Scriptures unless "Judean" is substituted for "Jew" wherever the term "Jew" now appears, as a result of serious consideration now being given to such a step by hierarchies of important Christian denominations at the highest levels, and by other organizations interested in this subject. This correction was overlooked when about 300 other changes were recently made in the King James version of Scriptures, to eliminate about 300 other ambiguities and errors then existing, of less importance than the change now contemplated.

This is a photographic reproduction of one of the pages from the 63 books of the Talmud. This is one of the pages of the Soncino Edition of the Talmud. The Soncino Edition of the Talmud is the official unabridged and unexpurgated official translation of the original Talmud into English. The Soncino Edition translations were made by the rabbis qualified as greatest living authorities on the Talmud, from the ancient Semitic languages in which the Talmud was originally written. As to the origin of the Talmud, Moses is regarded as its author. Besides the written "Law" which Moses "received" from God on Mount Sinai on tables of stone, Moses "received" the oral "Law" for which Moses remained 40 days and 40 nights on Mount Sinai. Complete sets of the Soncino Edition of the Talmud are to be found in the Library of Congress, the New York Public Library and other leading libraries, where they may be consulted for additional information.

U. S. POST OFFICE BANS TALMUD QUOTATIONS FROM MAILS

The United States Post Office Department recently denied the use of the United States mails to a publication because it contained quotations from the Talmud of the nature shown in the photographic reproduction of a page from the Talmud shown here, and only for that reason. United States postal regulations prohibit use of the mails for indecent, immoral and obscene printed matter. The American Jewish Committee and the B'nai B'rith Anti-defamation League quickly came to the rescue of the publication in question. They feared the bad publicity if quotations from their Talmud kept this publication out of the mails. These two powerful political groups exerted their full pressure wherever necessary to allow this publication access to the mails. After five weeks the Post Office Department lifted the ban as suddenly as they closed the mails to the publication temporarily. A copy of this publication, "Facts are Facts," can be obtained through the mails now by sending $1 to Common Sense, Union, New Jersey. There are 62 large pages filled with quotations from the Soncino Edition of the Talmud, and many other equally interesting quotations on this same subject, from other sources. A copy of it should be in every Christian home in the United States today.

"LAW" TRANSMITTED ONLY ORALLY ABOUT 1500 YEARS.

As to the origin of the Talmud, rabbis have always taught that Moses was its first author. The rabbis have always taught that, besides the written "Law," which "Moses received from God on Mount Sinai on tables of stone," reconstructed in English as indicated in the illustration on page 2, Moses also received revelations on Mount Sinai for a further period of 40 days and 40 nights, called the oral "Law." The written "Law" on the two stone tablets were carefully preserved. The oral "Law" was transmitted solely by word of mouth for more than 1000 years, allegedly without the loss of a single word. The oral "Law" was made into a written code for the first time in the 2nd century A.D. and thereafter recognized as their only authentic religious book, the Talmud. The photograph reproduced here is one page from the Soncino Edition of the Talmud in English, the official translation from the original texts, made under the personal direction of the Chief Rabbis throughout the world, in cooperation with their leading theological seminaries. Many hundreds of pages containing oral "Law" of this nature are to be found among the other thousands in 574 chapters of 63 books of the Talmud.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA DIVULGES "CHOSEN PEOPLE" HOAX.

Christians who take the time to study the map on this page, will learn some important history and a little geography they were never taught in school. The history of the largest and most powerful 10th century nation in Europe has been mysteriously suppressed for centuries. What secret power has kept the history of the Khazars and the Khazar kingdom out of history textbooks for centuries? The ancient homeland of the Khazars was deep in the heart of Asia until the 1st century A.D. In the 1st century A.D. the Khazars were driven out of Asia by other nations with whom they were continuously at war. The Khazars invaded eastern Europe through the pass between the Caspian Sea and the Ural Mountains. The Khazars conquered 800,000 square miles occupied by 25 agricultural nations in the area approximately indicated on the map. In the 8th century the pagan king of the Khazars called in a group of Babylonian rabbis and imposed their religious belief upon the nation of phallic worshippers. The Khazar kingdom became a Talmudic kingdom, and none but a so-called "Jew" could thereafter occupy the throne. In the 11th-13th centuries, the expanding young Russian kingdom conquered the Khazar kingdom. Every native so-called "Jew" in Russia, Poland, Rumania, Hungary, Lithuania, Czechoslovakia, Austria and Bessarabia since that time were the descendants of the conquered Khazars. The ancestors of the Khazars were a Mongoloid Turco-Finn nation in Asia, who had never set a foot in Palestine. They were not Semites. By calling themselves "Jews," the descendants of the Khazars were able to claim they were the "remnants of the Lost Ten Tribes," and as such "God's Chosen People." This great deception of Christians was responsible for the invasion and conquest of Palestine by the transplanted Zionists, which may yet prove the cause of World War III, judging by the tensions created by that folly.

CLAIM JESUS CHRIST INSPIRED SOLELY BY TALMUD "LAW."

Christians will be amazed to learn that Jesus Christ is represented as preaching and practising the oral "Law" of Moses found in the Talmud. Rabbi Isaac M. Wise and Michael Rodkinson collaborated in writing their classic and authentic "History of the Talmud," in which the following appears: "Is the literature that Jesus was familiar with in his early years yet in existence in the world? Is it possible for us to get at it? Can we ourselves review the ideas, the statements, the modes of reasoning and thinking, on moral and religious subjects, which were current in his time, and must have been revolved by him during those silent years when he was pondering his future mission? To such inquiries the learned class of Jewish rabbis answer by holding up the Talmud. Here, say they, is the source from whence Jesus of Nazareth drew the teachings which enabled him to revolutionize the world; and the question becomes, therefore, an interesting one to every Christian. What is the Talmud? The Talmud, then is the written form of that which, in the time of Jesus was called the Traditions of the Elders and to which he makes frequent allusions. What sort of book it is?" A first-hand knowledge of the Talmud by Christians will convince them that Jesus Christ never came to "fulfill" the "Law" of Moses as it appears in the Talmud. The photographic reproduction here of one of many hundred similar pages from the Talmud certifies that Jesus Christ was not referring to the "Law" of Moses when He said "but to fulfill" in Matthew V:17. Saint Paul denying Jesus Christ came to "fulfill" the "Law" received by Moses as recorded in the Talmud, asserts He came rather to "perfect" them.

TALMUD STILL "DOMINATES MINDS" AS "DIVINE TRUTH."

The world's greatest experts made the official English translation for the Soncino Edition of the Talmud, according to the eminent Rabbi Isaac M. Wise and Michael Rodkinson, who in their "History of the Talmud state: "With the conclusion of the first volume of this work at the beginning of the twentieth century, we would invite the reader to take a glance over the past of the Talmud, . . . not only was the Talmud not destroyed, but was so saved that not a single letter of it is missing; and now it is flourishing to such a degree as cannot be found in its past history . . . The Talmud is one of the wonders of the world. During the twenty centuries of its existence . . . it survived in its entirety, and not only has the power of its foes failed to destroy even a single line, but it has not even been able materially to weaken its influence for any length of time. It still dominates the minds of a whole people, who venerate its contents as divine truth . . . The colleges for the study of the Talmud are increasing almost in every place where Israel dwells, especially in this country where millions are gathered for the funds of two colleges, the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati and The Jewish Theological Seminary of America in New York, in which the chief study is the Talmud . . . There are also in our city houses of learning (Yeshibath) for the study of the Talmud in the lower East Side, where many young men are studying the Talmud every day." This "divine truth" which "a whole people venerate" of which "not a single line is missing" and today "is flourishing to such a degree as cannot be found in its history" is contained in the 63 books of 524 chapters with several thousand pages, a sample of which is shown in the photographic reproduction here of one page from the Talmud.

TALMUD TEXTBOOK USED TODAY FOR TRAINING RABBIS.

The American Jewish Committee, the self-styled and self-appointed "Vatican" to their co-religionists everywhere in the world, is secretly the most effective political power in the United States today, who with their international affiliates, control more of the wealth in the world today than all other groups everywhere combined. If anything, this is an understatement. The American Jewish Committee sponsored an article "What is a Jew?" in Look Magazine for June 17, 1952. The article was signed by Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer, their Director of Interreligious Activities and President of the Jewish Chaplains Association of the United States Armed Forces. Look Magazine was selected as the publication to print this article because Look Magazine has more than 20,000,000 Christian readers in the United States, whom it was intended to brainwash with the article "What is a Jew?" In that article, under the sub-title "What is the Talmud?", The American Jewish Committee declares as follows: "The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of the ancient rabbis. It was edited five centuries after the birth of Jesus. It is a compendium of law and lore. It is the legal code which forms the basis of religious law and it is the textbook used in the training of rabbis." The article also features a recently made photograph of a smiling man seated on a chair with a large book opened on his lap, with a large group of smiling adult men and women seated in a semi-circle at his feet. These words appear beneath the photograph: "Adults study

"GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE" HOAX NOW EXPLODED

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. 4, pp. 1-5, and 382 books, textbooks, monographs and other publications in the New York Public Library on the subject of the Khazars, establish conclusively that the so-called "Jews" in eastern Europe are not "God's Chosen People." They know they are not the "remnants of the Lost Ten Tribes," the basis for their claim to recognition by Christians as the Creator's preferred people in perpetuity. The Jewish Encyclopedia, and authentic other sources of reliable information on this subject, disclose that the ancestors of the so-called "Jews" of eastern Europe were the Asiatic Mongoloid Turco-Finns who invaded eastern Europe in the 1st century, expanded their pagan Khazar kingdom to 800,000 square miles in the next 10 centuries by conquest of 25 nations, and in the 7th century adopted the religious belief based upon the Talmud, the code of the Pharisees, now called "Judaism." More than 99% of the so-called "Jews" in the United States today are the descendants of Khazars, although they demand recognition as "God's Chosen People," a hoax now used to promote their conspiracy.

ancient writings too. Rabbi, in this picture, seated in chair, leads group discussion of Talmud before evening prayer." The group may be smiling because the rabbi may be reading to them the page from the Talmud reproduced here, or from one of the many other of the hundreds of more shocking pages. Does The American Jewish Committee maintain also that the "Law" of Moses in their Talmud is the "Law" which Jesus promised to "fulfill"? "JUDAISM AND THE TALMUD" ARE "ONE AND THE SAME."

The Jewish Publication Society of America, in Philadelphia, is the oldest and foremost publisher in the United States in their field. They are the distinguished publishers of the "Jewish Encyclopedia," which has earned world-wide recognition for them. The Jewish Publication Society of America also publishes that great classic on the subject, "The Talmud" by Arsene Darmesteter, the world's outstanding monograph on the Talmud by the world's leading authority, in which the following appears: "Now Judaism finds its expression in the Talmud . . . The study of Judaism is that of the Talmud, as the study of the Talmud is that of Judaism . . . They are two inseparable things, or better, they are one and the same . . . a collection of decisions and traditional laws, embracing all departments of legislation, civil and religious . . . Nothing indeed can equal the importance of the Talmud, unless it be the ignorance that prevails concerning it . . . The daily study of the Talmud, which among Jews began with the age of ten to end with life itself . . . it aspires to one thing: to establish for Judaism a 'Corpus Juris Ecclesiastici'." It is unfortunate for Christians that "the ignorance that prevails concerning" the Talmud has for so long concealed from them the truth about the Talmud. There are several hundred pages in the official English Soncino Edition of the Talmud with contents similar to the page which is reproduced here, and others many times more obscene and lewd. BRAINWASH CHRISTIANS INTO FALSE SENSE OF SECURITY.

The conspirators planning to liquidate the Christian faith utilize their monopolistic control of mass-media for shaping public opinion to brainwash Christians into a false sense of security concerning the Christian faith, freely using terms like "Interfaith," "Brotherhood," "Judeo-Christian" and equally misleading terms. These terms appear innocent on their face but in reality are completely counterfeit in cases investigated. Sinister intentions are skillfully camouflaged with disguises deliberately designed to deceive unsuspecting Christians. A good example of this policy is "The Institute of Judeo-Christian Studies" of "Seton Hall University," where the moving spirits behind "The Institute of Judeo-Christian Studies" managed to finally find a sort of "home" for their "magnum opus." Contrary to the belief of Christians however, "Judeo" and "Christian" are antonyms, words which mean the exact opposite of each other, not synonyms. The scheme is slyly to brainwash Christians to accept the terms "Judeo" and "Christian" in the sense of "cause and effect." A title "The Institute of Judeo-Christian Studies" of "Seton Hall University" is as unrealistic as "The Institute of Treason-Patriotism Studies" of the "United States Military Academy" at West Point, or "The Institute of Vice-Virtue Studies" of "Vassar College," or "The Institute of Atheism-Catholicism Studies" of "Notre Dame University," alas!

"LIVES THERE A CHRISTIAN WITH SOUL SO DEAD, . . .

WHO NEVER TO HIMSELF HATH SAID:" "I would like to help in this fight against the conspirators who plan to now liquidate the Christian faith, if only I were told how I myself can do something that will bring victory for our side, please tell me how?" Suez Canal Propaganda Prepares U.S. For War!

Who has released this flood of misleading propaganda in the papers as regards the Suez Canal?

The public is led to believe that Egypt is preventing ships from passing through the canal and is likely to close it entirely. What ridiculous bunk! Egypt has not stopped one ship. The Zionist Jews who are maneuvering a war to be waged on the Arabs and Egyptians, plan on grabbing another large area of Arab country to accommodate the eleven million Jews they publicly state they intend to settle in Israel, which now accommodates only one and one half million.

The Zionists in Israel, realizing that the Egyptians know that world-wide Jewry is maneuvering a war against them, hardly expect the Egyptians to allow Israel to pass ships loaded with ammunition to kill their people.

The Jewish pressure groups in England and France are pushing their governments to go to war with Egypt just as the Jews in the U.S. pushed us into war against Germany, the only country which could hold communism back in Europe.

Can the Jews who control our newspapers through their page advertising bring about a war where American blood will flow in Palestine? The Zionists forced Truman to validate the robbery of Arab land by Israel; now this same Israel presents a threat to World War III. . . . Editor

FACTS AND FIGURES

Information Dept., Cairo, Egypt

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

The idea of linking the Mediterranean with the Red Sea by a waterway is as old as history. It dates as far back as Sisostris, a Pharaoh of the Twelfth Dynasty (circa 2,000 B.C.), who first set his hand to the enterprises. Another Egyptian ruler credited with having conceived and implemented the idea was King Serti who, fourteen centuries before the Christian era, cut a canal 57 miles long, from the town of Zagazig to the head of the Bitter Lakes, then forming the northern extremity of the Gulf of Suez, thus linking the Mediterranean with the Red Sea via the Nile.

Later, at the end of the 18th century, the idea occurred to Napoleon during his invasion of Egypt, but he was dissuaded from carrying it out by the erroneous belief that the Mediterranean was thirty feet below the Red Sea level. This also led Mohamed Ali, the Viceroy of Egypt, to drop the project and adopt instead a plan for building a railway between Cairo and Suez, in connection with another planned line from Alexandria. This would link Europe with the East, bringing great profits and no political danger to Egypt.

At this stage, the Saint-Simonians came on the scene. They were a French semi-religious sect founded by Count de Saint-Simon. Among projects in the program of this society was the cutting of a Suez Canal. The Saint-Simonians in 1833 set forth from France to spend four years in Egypt, but in the end they had to abandon their attempt to execute their project when they failed to obtain a concession from the Viceroy. Despite this setback, the Saint-Simonians clung to their conviction and were able in 1846 to form an international organization, the Societe d'Etudes du Canal de Suez, which undoubtedly paved the way for de Lesseps' Compagnie Universelle du Canal Maritime de Suez.

A few years ago we were ordered to hate Germany and love Communist-Russia, so we crushed Germany. Now we are expected to love Israel and hate the Arabs, who are 100% in the right.

CONCESSION OF THE CANAL

The original Firman (decree) of concession covering the 103 mile long Suez Canal was granted in 1854 by the Khedive Mohamed Said to his friend de Lesseps. The concession was modified and replaced by the Act of Concession of 1856. The concession authorized de Lesseps to form a company—the Compagnie Universelle du Canal Maritime de Suez—to construct, maintain and operate the canal. Under the terms of the concession, the company was not to be French, and the capital was to be offered for subscriptions to all people of the world. The concession was to remain in force for 99 years, ending in 1968. The director was always to be appointed by the Egyptian Government, which would choose him as far as possible from among the shareholders most interested in the undertaking.

The concession also provided that four-fifths of the labor employed should be Egyptian. At the same time the Egyptian Government pledged to afford the company, aid and protection. This provision, together with the Government's pledge, was interpreted by the company as an obligation on the part of Egypt to supply it with free labor, and for eight years this erroneous interpretation was enforced through the Khedive's fatuity.

Under the concession, the work on the canal was to be executed at the cost and risk of the company. The net profits were to be divided as follows: founders—10 per cent; Egyptian Government—15 per cent; shareholders—75 per cent.

As a result of pressure in Constantinople by Britain, who was primarily opposed to the project for fear it might undermine her naval supremacy, the Sultan dispatched on April 6, 1863, two notes, the one to Turkish ambassadors in London and Paris, and the other to the Khedive, in which he threatened to halt work on the canal unless his conditions were accepted within six months and the concession ratified by him.

In the meantime, Jan. 1863, de Lesseps' friend and patron, Mohamed Said, had died.

POWELL BACKS IKE---TO FURTHER DESEGREGATION?

An associated press article printed in N.Y. papers, Oct. 16th, reports on a talk between President Eisenhower and Congressman Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) in the Whitehouse the previous week. Powell is the radical Negro who belongs to 66 Communist-Fronts. These Fronts were published with Powell's photograph in Common Sense, Issue 252, May 15, 1956, and this issue is available while they last to patriots (30 for $1.00, sample free). Powell described the conversation as follows:

"I (Powell) asked Mr. Eisenhower if I could see him and on Thursday I saw him at the White House. I then said to the President:

"Mr. President, in the event that a school district refused to obey that decision of the federal court what do you advocate?"

"He (Eisenhower) said: 'Mr. Powell, I advocate that the federal court shall get federal marshals, swear in deputies if they need them, go out and arrest anyone who refuses to obey their orders, bring them before the court, try them for contempt, and if they are guilty put them in prison.'

"I (Powell) said: 'That's what we want up in Harlem and I thought that's what you wanted.'"

We have known for some time the Marxists were masterminding the attempt to end segregation in their plan to bring about trouble and thus condition us for Communism. There remains no doubt that Ike has been captured by the Marxist anti-Christians who depend on him to give stern ruthless orders to enforce the will of the one-world plotters.

Eisenhower and his Zionist advisors will never force desegregation on the South even should they carry out the suggestion of the Jewish-owned New York Post which urges that Negroes in Harlem be formed into an army and sent into the South.

Is Ike over-anxious for the red Negro votes in Harlem?

SUEZ SITUATION

Fortunately for de Lesseps, Said's successor was Ismail, the Profligate, as he was dubbed by his contemporaries for his reckless extravagances and bad administration, which ended in his ouster and in placing Egyptian revenues and expenditures under dual Anglo-French control. Ismail ranged himself boldly on the side of the enterprise. "I should not be worthy to be Viceroy of Egypt," he told de Lesseps, "if I were not even more a 'canalizer' than you are."

His championship did not make the new ultimatum from the Sublime Porte any less formidable. It was for the Khedive and the company to come to terms and find a modus operandi, which both were now anxious to do. The company petitioned the Emperor Napoleon III of France, on Jan. 6, 1864, to act as arbitrator. Napoleon agreed and in March appointed a commission to examine the questions at issue.

ARBITRATION FARCE

Since the majority of the company's shares at the time was held by Napoleon's subjects, the commission's finding in favor of the company was a foregone conclusion. As will be shown later, the verdict proved that Napoleon was not only completely biased, but that he was also not averse to thumbing his nose at world opinion. On April 15th, the commission had settled the points which were to be the subject of arbitration and these were accepted and signed by de Lesseps on behalf of the company, and by Egyptian Foreign Minister Nubar Pasha, an Armenian adventurer, on behalf of the Khedive Ismail.

On the strength of the evidence presented to him by the commission, Napoleon delivered his verdict. The company was to abandon its claim to free labor in return for a so-called indemnity of 38 million francs (five francs were then equivalent to one dollar) from the Egyptian Government.

How the Emperor was able to arrive at this unjust illogical verdict will always remain an enigma. Under the concession Egypt was not obliged to offer the company free labor, and even if it did agree to such an offer by de Lesseps' interpretation of Egypt's aid as including free labor, this offer could not be legal or binding, since it lacked the Sultan's sanction, which was withheld. But Napoleon was not concerned with justice or logic; he was chiefly interested in extricating the company from the financial difficulties that threatened to bring its operation to an abrupt end.

On the land question, in return for a further purported indemnity, the company was to restore to Egypt all lands on the Isthmus, covering 60,000 hectares, retaining, however, a narrow strip on either side of the canal. The Fresh Water and all subsidiary canals and irrigation rights thereon were likewise to be relinquished against a payment of 46 million francs payable to the company over a period of 15 years.

The money accruing from all these so-called indemnities more than covered the 84 million francs badly needed by the company to finance current construction. The Sultan's consent to this arbitration, thanks to foreign intrigue and pressure, was granted on March 19, 1866.

Again in August 1869, a convention was signed by the company and the Egyptian Government. Under the Convention, it was agreed that in return for renouncing its privilege of exemption from customs duties on articles brought into Egypt, or from other taxes and dues, and the privilege of fishing in the lakes, the company was to receive from the Egyptian Government 30 million francs. Since the Khedive Ismail did not have the ready cash to pay this compensation for privileges granted free to the company, he turned the coupons on Egypt's shares for 25 years over to the company.

It may be noted here that free Egyptian labor was used in the canal construction for about eight years until it was stopped in compliance with the Sultan's ultimatum. During the remaining two years needed for the completion of the canal, laborers employed were paid a wage between six and eight piastres (16 to 24 cents) a day.

The canal was completed and opened for navigation on Nov. 17, 1869. As completed, the canal was 100 miles long, 150 to 300 feet wide, 26 feet deep and 72 feet wide at the bottom.

COST OF CANAL

The cost of building the canal having been estimated by the International Scientific Commission at 200 million francs, a company was formed in 1858 with a capital in this amount divided into 400,000 shares of 500 francs each, bearing statutory interest at five per cent. In accordance with the desire to keep subscriptions open to all peoples, blocks of shares were specially reserved for different countries. The result was very disappointing, however, and the issue would have failed completely had it not been for the fine response of Egypt, which was originally allotted, together with the rest of the Ottoman Empire, 64,000 shares; under de Lesseps' prodding, the Khedive agreed to purchase a total of 177,642 shares, or 44% of the total issue.

The Egyptian treasury did not have the money to pay for the shares, so the Khedive had to borrow 28 million francs from French banks. It was the first foreign debt contracted by Egypt on account of the canal company.

The total payments made by the company for the construction of the canal amounted to 432,807,882 francs, or more than double the estimate of the International Scientific Commission. From the sales of shares, the company had realized 200 million francs. One hundred million francs was raised by a loan. The major part of the balance was made up by payments squeezed, without justification, from the Egyptian Government, to which reference was made earlier here.

Above figures do not include labor cost, which the company received free from Egypt for eight years, a cost which was estimated at 128 million francs, based on 25,000 laborers working for 8 years and paid an average of 7 piastres (21¢) a day.

EGYPT'S CONTRIBUTIONS

Following is a list of Egypt's financial contributions to the construction of the canal:

These figures show the actual cost of the construction of the Suez Canal was 560,000,000 francs, and that the Egyptian contribution towards the cost equalled more than one half times that made by all other contributors put together. In other words, Egypt's share was more than 60% of the total cost, plus 15% due from royalties.

This explodes the myth that the canal was built almost entirely with French and other foreign capital. Actually it was Egyptian hands which dug the canal and Egyptian capital which helped most in implementing the project.

Even if we were to deduct the 122 million francs which Egypt had received from the sale of her canal shares and royalties, as will be shown later, we would find that Egypt had paid 40% of the total cost of the canal, which was irretrievably lost to her without any acknowledgement or credit in return. Egypt's shares amounted to 44% of the company's shares. Her royalties amounted to 15% of the company's profits.

Until the nationalization of the canal, Egypt had to pay the same tolls as other countries on its shipping, even when passing through the canal from one Egyptian port to another. Likewise, Egypt was deprived of any share of the profits until the company decided, in 1937, to give Egypt the sum of $1,500,000 annually, which sum was replaced in 1949 by an allowance of 7% of the gross profits of the company, which may be a compensation for the tolls paid by Egypt to the company on her shipping.

SALE OF EGYPT'S CANAL ASSETS

For years the Khedive Ismail had been running recklessly into debt, borrowing at exorbitant rates of interest. He was particularly encouraged and even goaded into more debt by foreign interests which stood to benefit, not only financially, but politically, for already Egypt was a prize coveted by both France and Britain, who were working hard to establish their influence there.

In 1875, failing to raise a loan on Egypt's share in the canal company to meet pressing obligations, the Khedive was forced to sell these shares to the British Government for 100 million francs (approximately 20 million dollars). The deal gave Britain 44% of the company's shares, which she still retains. Actually, the number of shares the Khedive sold to Britain was 176,602, out of Egypt's original total shares of 177,642.

Since the Khedive had turned over the coupons on these shares to the company for 25 years in payment for the 30 million franc compensation awarded to it for relinquishing its claim to free custom duties on all machinery and materials imported from abroad, the Khedive agreed to pay to Britain about 5 million francs annually for 19 years as compensation for her loss of dividends on these shares. A total of 95 million francs was paid to Britain, which had thus received nearly all the money she paid Egypt for the shares. It may be of interest to add that the market value of these shares purchased by Britain was estimated at 800 million francs (160 million dollars) in 1910, and $360 million in 1929. This in a nutshell, is the story of the British canal shares deal.

The sale of Egypt's shares, however, was a loss without returning rewards. The proceeds went mostly to satisfy the Khedive's extravagant tastes and whims, instead of relieving Egypt's financial crisis. By now Ismail was head over heels in debt. He had already mortgaged Egypt's 15% royalties from the canal against a small loan.

In 1880, his successor, the Khedive Tewfik sold these royalties (15% of the company's profits) for 22 million francs to a French bank, which promptly formed a company to operate and exploit these Egyptian assets in other investments. In 1928 the income of this company from these royalties was 110 million francs and in 1932 it was 91 million francs.

The loss by Egypt of all these valuable assets which were dissipated by the Khedive Ismail on his pleasure had, in the end, its own retribution. The Khedive was later ousted by the Sultan, at the behest of foreign powers, in a proclamation which urged that he was of 'unsound mind.' The charge was not without justification, for only a maniac could have behaved as the Khedive did in throwing away his country's assets.

By affirming this charge officially, the proclamation would have provided Egypt with strong grounds for nullifying all the Khedive's canal deals, if she had decided to take the case before a court of justice. As it happened, Egypt was never able to take such action because she was under British occupation.

FINANCIAL STATUS OF THE SUEZ CANAL COMPANY

Ever since 1880, the canal company has been rearranging its finances to suit the interests of the big foreign shareholders, particularly when the time should arrive for the company to deliver its concession to the Egyptian authorities in 1968.

It has been preparing for that in two ways. The company has used its excess earnings to repurchase its ordinary and regular capital shares by paying holders of such shares the par value and giving them, in addition, new certificates of beneficial interest in lieu of there shares.

The company has also been putting its accumulated earnings in a new investment company that has produced large blocks of securities in France, England and elsewhere.

The original capital of the company was 400,000 shares of francs par value. In the 1924 capital reorganization of the company, the original capital was split, two for one, and the par value of the shares was reduced simultaneously to 250 gold francs, which amounts to about $81.67 U.S. per share, based on present gold prices.

Of the 800,000 split shares, more than half have been repurchased. It was reported that in January, 1956, the capital shares of the company were represented in 378,768 of the original shares outstanding, and 421,232 of the certificates of beneficial interest.

Holders of the regular shares receive an interest payment of 5% annually, or about $4.00 a share, plus a dividend paid out of earnings. Holders of the certificates are not entitled to the regular 5%, but they have the same claim on the dividend payable from earnings as regular shares. Based on 1955 profits, the 1956 dividend is expected to be about $27.00 a share.

The British government holds 353,504 shares of the two types of stock, which is equal to 44%. It is also estimated that France has about 348,200 shares, and the balance is scattered around the world.

The total assets of the company appeared on the balance sheet of Dec. 1955 at 240 million dollars; cash, securities, investments and real estate holdings amounted to about 131 million dollars.

THE CANAL—BRITISH OCCUPATION

Great Britain had its designs on Egypt long before the Suez Canal came into being. The assured success of this important waterway only stimulated British interest in Egypt—a much coveted prize during the last century.

To achieve their object, the British resorted to all kinds of intrigues, instigations and various incidents which they used as a pretext for their military intervention and subsequent occupation of Egypt in 1882.

It is of high interest to note in this connection that the British were the first to violate the neutrality of the canal which, up to then, had been respected. The canal was used by the British as a base for their operations against Orabi's troops, and later as a permanent British military base. This was in contrast with the action of Orabi, who, out of respect for the neutrality of the canal, had already turned down his generals' advice to destroy the waterway as a precautionary defensive measure against the British invader. He was led by the self-centered de Lesseps to believe that the British would likewise respect the neutrality of the canal. As subsequent events proved, he was grossly misled by that belief.

NEUTRALITY OF THE CANAL AND FREEDOM OF NAVIGATION

The idea of the neutrality of the Suez Canal has always been deeply rooted in the minds of Egyptians. The act of concession of 1856 stipulated that "...the Grand Maritime Canal from Suez to Pelusium and the parts appertaining thereto, shall always remain open as a neutral passage to every merchant ship crossing from one sea to another, without any distinction, exclusion or preference of persons or nationalities..."

Navigation through the canal continued without any complication or interruption from its inception until the occupation of Egypt by the British, and their use of the canal as a military base.

It should be pointed out here that the question of the canal's neutrality and navigation is a different subject from the question of its administration and maintenance.

The canal is and will always be an integral part of Egypt. This has been clearly affirmed in all international treaties, the last being the 1954 Anglo-Egyptian Treaty. Article 8 of this treaty recognizes the canal as an integral part of Egypt and reiterates the freedom of navigation in the canal as enunciated in the 1888 Convention. The article reads: "The two contracting Governments recognize that the Suez Maritime Canal, which is an integral part of Egypt, is a waterway economically, commercially and strategically of international importance and express their determination to uphold the Convention guaranteeing the freedom of navigation of the Canal signed at Constantinople on 29th of October, 1888."

It is relevant in this connection to state that the neutrality of the canal has never been infringed upon when it was in Egyptian custody. As to the Canal Company, it has always been an Egyptian joint stock company, operating under an Egyptian act of concession.

In nationalizing the company on July 26, 1956, the Egyptian Government was exercising a sovereign and legal right, a right upheld by the International Court of Justice. The same right has been exercised by many other nations, including Britain and France.

The Egyptian Government, instead of following the example of other nations, by confiscating the assets of the company, has decided to compensate the stockholders by paying them the full value of their shares according to the closing prices of the Paris Bourse for the date preceding that on which the law of nationalization came into force.

The contention that in nationalizing the Suez Canal Company, the Egyptian Government nationalized or seized the canal itself is utterly wrong. The canal has never been international; it is and has always been Egyptian property.

Egypt's decision to nationalize the canal was mainly actuated by the desire to improve and expand the canal while keeping its operations at maximum efficiency. This desire was particularly felt as a result of the policy of pure exploitation pursued by the company in recent years without due regard to the future welfare of the canal, when it realized that its franchise, which would expire in 1968, was drawing to a close. It confined itself to routine maintenance and minor improvements, to the neglect of major works

JEWS USE SOUTHERN GOVERNOR

We attended the Democratic National Convention in Chicago and wondered why Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee was selected as the keynote speaker. We did not quite understand how he gained such popularity so quickly. However, after reading an article in the Houston, Texas, Chronicle of Sept. 12th, 1956, we can understand.

This article, along with a photograph of Gov. Clement, states he was to be the guest speaker on Oct. 2, at a Testimonial Dinner honoring Marcus Levinson of Houston, for his work in behalf of the State of Israel and Zionism. The article stated that Dr. Levinson had recently returned as a delegate to the World Zionist Congress.

When the Zionists in Houston invite the Gov. from Tenn. to make an address in Houston, it is evident the Jews have put the brand on Frank Clement and he now belongs to them. Just as with Gov. McKeldin of Maryland, they'll push him to the top. Also, as they advanced James Forrestal from a position as attorney in N. Y. to President of Dillon Reed Corporation, controlled by Bernard Baruch, up to the position of First Secretary of Defense, and used Forrestal to carry out the Zionist program until he became aware he was part of the plan to sell his country down the river. When Forrestal refused to go along with the Zionist plan to set up Israel, the political Jews gave the word to destroy him.

This will be the same story with Gov. Frank Clement, who is working with the Jews to break down SEGREGATION and the same with Gov. McKeldin and all other Marxist stooges when they are of no further use to the Zionist conspiracy.

Now there is a move on in Tennessee to impeach Gov. Clement. Why not? He no longer can serve the people who elected him. He now belongs to the Marxist-Zionists.

IKE APPOINTS NEW DEALER TO U.N.

Edward S. Greenbaum has been named an alternate delegate to the U. N. by President Eisenhower. He has already been confirmed by the Senate, and it is a safe bet he will carry influence far out of proportion to an alternate. Why? Because he will be a direct spokesman for world Jewry. Hence, it is interesting to know something of Greenbaum. He is a law partner of Greenbaum, Wolf and Ernst, N. Y. Lawyers. Morris Ernst, often called "The Eel," is the author of two dirty books on sex. It was Morris Ernst who was sent by F. D. Roosevelt to England to study Fabian Communism and return with his findings, then setting up the frame-work for the NEW DEAL.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., the rabid Zionist, with headquarters in Greenbaum's office, as secretary of the Treasury under Roosevelt, allowed the Treasury to be run by Communist Jews. Harry Dexter White, the Jew Communist, was the most important in the Communist-infested Treasury Dept.

It was Henry Morgenthau Jr. who turned the plates for printing our money over to the Communists in East Germany.

Edgar Greenbaum was a General under the NEW DEAL, with an office in the Pentagon, when F. D. R. issued orders that all appointments in the Armed Forces must be cleared through Greenbaum. Greenbaum and Sam Rosenman are an inseparable team. It was Rosenman who wrote speeches for F. D. R. and now writes speeches for Adlai Stevenson.

badly needed to cope with the ever growing traffic in the canal.

Instead of using the canal revenue in its development and improvement, the company elected to channel part of the profits into investment enterprises which had no relation to the canal. Another portion of the profits was utilized in repurchasing its shares from the stockholders so that it will become by 1968 the major owner of these shares, in anticipation of enterprises other than the canal.

This attitude on the part of the company contrasts with the Egyptian Government's recent decision to utilize a large portion of the canal revenue in widening and deepening the canal.

"This failure on the part of the company to improve the canal," declared the Egyptian Minister of Commerce at a press conference, "was one of the main reasons that prompted the Government to nationalize the canal now, for fear its continued neglect by the company might reduce it to such a state, when its concession expired, as to make it exceedingly difficult for the Government to operate it successfully."

Those who question the ability of Egypt to operate the canal overlook the following pertinent facts: 1- the operation of the canal is not as difficult as it is being falsely represented to be; 2- 85% of employees of the old canal company were Egyptians; 3- the Egyptian Government intends to retain the present staff and fill all vacancies in the administration of the canal with the best available talent.

On the question of tolls, the Egyptian Government made it clear that it has no intention of increasing current rates on shipping, since its policy is to stimulate rather than restrict the canal traffic.

Egypt has always respected the neutrality of the canal, and never interfered with its freedom of navigation. She has always honored her international obligations as embodied in the 1888 Constantinople Convention, and the 1954 Anglo-Egyptian Agreement on the Suez Canal. This attitude of the part of Egypt was confirmed recently by the official Egyptian notes dispatched to all countries concerned.

Finally, it has been charged that Egypt is already interfering with the freedom of traffic in the canal by refusing the passage of Israeli ships. This is a false charge. In the first place, all Israeli non-strategic goods are allowed to proceed in the canal to their destinations without interference, and the volume of such goods has been on the increase. Only Israeli-bound strategic materials and Israeli ships are barred from the canal, because it should be remembered that Israel is still technically at war with Egypt and Article 10 of the 1888 Convention regarding the neutrality of the canal upholds Egypt's action in this respect.

The Egyptian Government's policy is to develop the canal and increase its traffic, for only in this way can the canal serve its purpose and yield adequate revenue to meet the cost of its maintenance and operation, and leave a reasonable surplus, which, under the old system, went to the company.

Such are the real facts, and such are Egypt's objectives in nationalizing the canal. If, in achieving these objectives, her interests coincide with the progressive development of this canal, this should assure, rather than alarm the users of this important waterway.

Will Our Sons Die In Another War To Help The Zionists?

By Charles B. Hudson

Documentation proving the build-up bringing about World War II, wherein is pointed out the same pattern which is followed by the same Zionist Organizations leading to World War III. Quoting leading Jewish publications, such as "The American Hebrew" and "Emanu-El & The Jewish Journal" of Sept. 1, 8, and 15, 1939 proves that at the Zionist Cong. (held at Geneva, closing date Aug. 24, 1939), World War II (which officially did not start until Sept. 3, 1939) was discussed as if it were already in existence, and Pres. Weizmann instructed Jewish leaders from all over the world to go home and "stand by the side of Great Britain and her Allies in a struggle upon which the fate of Jewry and democracy depended."

Even before World War II started, "The American Hebrew" correspondent attending the Zionist Congress, referred to it as "The Second World War."

Since sentiment in the USA was overwhelmingly against our participating in any war, the Zionists must have been confident the USA would be dragged into that forthcoming World War II, or they would not have openly called it "The Second World War", which actually started on the closing date—Aug. 24, 1939—of that Zionist Congress, when France mobilized her war machine, with the return of Zionist leaders, who arrived in Paris on Aug. 24, 1939.

In the special Jewish New Year edition of Sept. 8, 1939, "Emanu-El & The Jewish Journal", Rabbi David Cohen's gloating (observe date, which means Rabbi Cohen must have written his editorial even before the official start of World War II—i.e., Sept. 3, 1939): "... A war in Europe will be of some good if the reactionary (Christian) elements in all countries kill each other off or wear each other out. This is a gruesome hope. But what other alternative is there?." The rest of Rabbi Cohen's editorial was to the effect that "we must adopt a more aggressive attitude in fighting our enemies." He referred especially to Father Coughlin's followers as being "our enemies," and urged Jewry to "rise in their might and stamp the vermin out." i.e. Christians in the USA are "vermin" and should be liquidated! That this is not the isolated opinion of one leading San Francisco Rabbi, a reading of Jewish publications constantly finds the same sentiments more or less veiled. The Sept. 15, 1939 "Emanu-El & The Jewish Journal" quoted President Weismann telling that 21st World Zionist Congress, inter alia, "Zionists expect a 'New Deal' for Palestine as a result of the war—and the emergence of a Jewish State. The United States will be more than ever a center of Zionist activities. . .", and Dr. Goldman of Chicago, then president of Zionist Organization of America: "The British and French people are fighting for all of us (Jews)." "The American Hebrew" of July 24, 1942 (after the USA had been dragged against its will into World War II) editorially confirmed Dr. Goldman's Aug. 1939 brag, by boasting: "Whenever an American or a Philippino fell at Bataan or

AT TIMES HE DOES SHOW SUICIDAL TENDENCIES

Corregidor or at any other of the new historic spots where MacArthur's men put up their remarkable fight, their survivors could have said with truth: the real reason why that boy went to his death was because Hitler's anti-Semitic movement succeeded in Germany."

In other words, even a casual reading of the Jewish press proves that Jewry is the war-maker, and that it is the Christians who kill each other off, not to mention the unpayable debts that are piled upon the survivors to keep them forever in slavery. That history is repeating itself today, with World War III in the making and soon to explode, I refer to the almost full-page ad in June 22, 1956: "The California Jewish Voice" captioned:

"Whom Are We Appeasing — and Why?"

A careful reading reminds you of the propaganda that filled the press prior to the USA openly entering into World War II. This ad even had the brass to open with: "World War II was the result of appeasement. The millions of American dead and wounded and the billions of American dollars lost in that struggle were the casualties of appeasement, which let the dictators of Germany, Italy and Japan encroach upon the Free World until they threatened to destroy it. . . Once again the pattern is repeated. . ." This ad now holds forth that Egyptian dictator Nasser is the Mussolini-Hitler of today. That he is turning "Israel into another Korea as a means of establishing a beachhead in the Middle East." That "Egypt has a large force of Nazis panting for revenge against the democratic Allies who defeated Hitler. These men are pledged to carry out Hitler's aim of completely annihilating the Jews. So long as they can kill Jews, these Nazis will fight for anybody, including Communists—and against anybody, especially the Western democracies." This ad claims that the American Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean is in danger. Is it another Pearl Harbor?

This ad, signed by Committee to save the Middle East from Communism, care of "California Jewish Voice", with a partial list of "Committee in Formation" signers, demands that the USA "must sell" arms to Israel, and "must cut off all financial, technical and military aid to Egypt and every Arab State that has joined the Kremlin-Cairo Pact." This ad has the nerve to repeat the bait used prior to World War II: "If the USA provides Israel with arms now, they shall not have to send American Armies there later." Reminds one how the USA shipped war materiel to Japan, without which Japan could never have achieved "Pearl Harbor." Nor, could the Soviet Union be a threat to the USA today, had we refrained from sending billions of war materiel there. Just as is known today that the so-called Hitler anti-Semitic movement (for which the USA fought World War II, according to Jewry's own boasts) was a fraud,

The State Of Our Union

An address by Aaron M. Sargent, of San Francisco

Delivered at the Annual Meeting of the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Chicago, Ill., May 24, 1955

We know from bitter practical experience that our position on the anti-subversive front has steadily deteriorated. In our preoccupation with the Communist menace we have made the dangerous mistake of overlooking the activities of another group—the so-called "Internationalists." They must be held responsible for helping to create some of the conditions facing us today.

An Intellectual Elite

Alger Hiss is an "Internationalist." He is closely identified with the intellectual elite which played such an important part in controlling the destiny of our country over the last quarter century. He was convicted of a crime which is the practical equivalent of treason. He was actively defended and supported by prominent intellectuals and "Internationalists." The character witnesses at his trials included two justices of the United States Supreme Court, two judges of lower federal courts, three trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Counsel for International General Electric Co., an American Delegate to the Dumbarton Oaks Conference, a professor of International Law, a Director of the American Association for the United Nations, and the secretary of the American Friends Service Committee. Philip Jessup was one of the Carnegie trustees who testified for Hiss. At the time of his indictment, Alger Hiss was president of the Endowment! None of these character witnesses appeared in response to subpoena. They were all volunteers. The most important character witness was the Carnegie Endowment. It allowed its name and prestige to be used by defense counsel to influence the jury. In testifying at the second trial Hiss said that he was still a trustee of this tax-exempt organization.

The Guilt of Alger Hiss

In spite of these activities Hiss was found guilty. There was never a reasonable doubt. The court record includes memoranda in his own handwriting copied from confidential and restricted State Department files. The pumpkin papers were micro-film copies of several hundred highly confidential documents. These included dispatches between our State Department and American diplomatic representatives all over the world. With the aid of these micro-film copies the American code may have been broken. This is the damning evidence of guilt—the treason of Alger Hiss.

Disloyalty in the State Department

Now let us consider another case—the so-called "investigation" of State Dept. disloyalty by the Tydings Committee. That committee made an attack on the Senator who had preferred charges, instead of making the kind of inquiry called for by the Senate resolution. Having suppressed the investigation it "found" that Philip Jessup had no unusual affinity for Communist causes; that his connections with the Institute of Pacific Relations did not reflect unfavorably upon him; that Owen Lattimore was not the architect of our Far Eastern Policy; that he had no controlling or effective influence on that policy; that John Stewart Service was neither pro-Communist, disloyal, or a security risk; that the charges of Communist infiltration and influence on the State Dept. were false. It required a second investigation by the Senate Internal Security Committee to expose the subversive and dangerous character of the Institute of Pacific Relations.

The Institute of Pacific Relations

The IPR has been actively supported by three tax-exempt foundations—Carnegie Corporation of N. Y., Rockefeller Foundation, and the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The Internal Security Committee determined:

NOTED GENERAL SPEAKS

Historians of the future will marvel most of all at the non-resistance of those who had the most to lose.

General George Van Horn Moseley
(Commenting on the decline of the Republic of the United States)

"...that the IPR has been in general, neither objective nor non-partisan;... that the net effect of IPR activities on U. S. public opinion has been pro-Communist and pro-Soviet, and has frequently and repeatedly been such as to serve the international Communist, and Soviet interests, and to subvert the interests of the U. S." (Report, p. 84.)

The foundations contributed two million five hundred thousand dollars to this subversive activity. (Reece Committee Hearings, Vol. 1, p. 894.) The Institute of Pacific Relations is still a tax-exempt organization.

Carnegie Endowment

Millions have been spent by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace to build and develop an international propaganda machine, to produce masses of material for distribution, to create and support large numbers of international policy clubs at colleges and elsewhere, to disseminate books through "international mind alcoves," to collaborate with publicity agents such as newspaper editors, to prepare slanted material for school textbooks, to establish professorships at colleges and train and indoctrinate teachers, and to finance lecturers and import foreign lecturers and exchange professors. (Reece Report, p. 171.) The Reece Committee took note of the dangerous lobby power of this tax-exempt trust and said:

"It is not beyond possibility that The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace might have followed the same course as did the Institute of Pacific Relations. After all, Alger Hiss was made President of the Endowment. He was probably not in office long enough to do irreparable damage, but it is always possible that a great propaganda machine could get into the hands of another traitor, with tragic results to our country. When it is easy for a Hiss to become a trustee of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, a director of the Executive Committee of the American Association for United Nations, a director of the American Peace Society, a trustee of the World Peace Foundation, a director of the American Institute of Pacific Relations, and the President of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, it is highly doubtful that propaganda machines should be operated by foundations." (Report, p. 172.)

An International Confidence Game

The foundations are using their power to prevent the people from adopting a pro-American point of view toward the United Nations and they are falsely educating the public into the idea that the UNO is our light and savior; the hope of humanity.

"It may be granted that it has some usefulness as a place to exchange ideas with other nations and to reach some common understandings on lower levels of interest and importance, but to play it up as the magnificent instrument for peace which it so clearly is not, does our people a distinct disservice by obstructing that realism without which we cannot hope to solve our international problems." (Reece Report, p. 183.)

This is the greatest confidence game and the biggest lobby in American history. It is suppressing the truth about this organization responsible for our defeat in the Korean war where we sustained 150,000 casualties and squandered billions of American dollars.

Influence on the State Department

The Reece Committee determined that tax-exempt foundations have exerted a powerful, if not decisive influence on American foreign policy. The reports of the Carnegie Endowment show that it has undertaken vital research projects for the State Department, created groups within the department, supplied advisers and executives and furnished a constant stream of Carnegie indoctrinated personnel. The report states: "...that a majority of the 'experts' in the international field are on the side of globalism. It would be amazing if this were otherwise, after so many years of gigantic expenditure by foundations in virtually sole support of the globalist point of view. Professors and researchers have to eat and raise their families. They cannot themselves spend the money to finance research and publications. The road to eminence in international areas, therefore, just as in the case of the social sciences generally, is by way of foundation grants or support." (Report, p. 182.)

Patronage, Discrimination and Thought Control

The committee found that the power of the individual large foundation is enormous. It can exercise various forms of patronage which carry with them elements of thought control. It can exert immense influence on educational institutions, educational processes, and educators.

"It is capable of invisible coercion through the power of its purse. It can materially determine the development of social and political concepts and courses of action through the process of granting and withholding foundation awards upon a selective basis, and by resigning and promulgating projects which propel researchers in selected directions. It can play a powerful part in the determination of academic opinion, and, through this thought leadership, materially influence public opinion." (Report, p. 17)

Congressional Investigations

The 82nd Congress created the first committee to study the foundation problem. It was set up under the chairmanship of the late Eugene Cox of Georgia, who died while the inquiry was pending. Some strange and very unusual things happened. Most of the "witnesses" were not put under oath. Foundation presidents, trustees and other spokesman appeared and made long speeches for the record. The Ford Foundation provided four of these unsworn witnesses; there were three from Carnegie Corporation, three from Rockefeller Foundation, and two from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace! It was a love feast—"Kings X" for everyone except some former Communists and a few others accused by them. No foundation or foundation representative was ever required to give a shred of evidence under the legal sanction of the oath. Even the foundations' answers to the committee's questionnaire were unsworn. In some cases they were not even signed! No adverse witness was heard until two weeks before the committee was required to report to the House of Representatives. After the "investigation," many of the Cox Committee files disappeared. No one seems to know what became of them. The report, as you would expect, was a white-wash—another performance like the circus before the Tydings Committee!

The Reece Committee was established by the 83rd Congress. The opposition sought to load that committee. The work was crippled for lack of funds. The ranking minority member, a Congressman from Ohio, was guilty of such misconduct that public hearings had to be discontinued. He attacked and interrupted witnesses beyond all reason. There was bitter criticism in the press and on the radio—a barrage of propaganda to suppress the investigation. The foundations complained that they had been denied the hearing which their spokesman had made it

Arab Young Vow Revenge

Can Anyone Blame Them? How Would We Feel If California Were Taken Over By An Alien Group And Its Citizens Driven Out Into The Desert.

Gaza, Egypt,—

Along the Gaza strip today are 215,000 obstacles to any peace settlement attempted between Israel and Egypt. They're Egypt's share of the Palestine refugees—a human sea of hatred that lives for revenge on the Jews that took their homes.

Since the end of fighting in 1949 they've increased their ranks about 20,000, and each new life is poisoned with the same hatred that festers the souls of their elders.

Take Omar Allie Goub, 10. He has red, bristly hair and a taut freckled face. I asked him what he'll be when he grows up.

Learned Bloodlust

"Soldier," he said, through an interpreter. "I'm going to fight Jews and kill 'em."

Omar said he learned his bloodlust in school from a refugee teacher, and that all boys want to be soldiers and kill Jews. Omar says he hates Jews very much because they threw him out of his country. He was 2 yrs. old when his family fled their Palestine home.

Mohamed Joseph, 11, also wants to be a soldier and kill Jews. And Mahbouba, a girl of 7, wants to be a nurse and care for soldiers injured killing Jews.

Disciples of Hatred

All the youngsters said the same thing. Their little faces were contorted with ugliness as they recited the lessons taught them by their parents and teachers.

In this camp of 17,800—one of eight in the strip—almost half the refugees are under 15. The same proportion holds for all camps. The total number under 15 is 98,000—all disciples of hatred.

Refugee Arabs now existing in the desert while Jews occupy their homes. Israel should never have come into existence.

Issa Mohamed shouted that he fled his village when the Jews occupied it in 1949. He said he had 12 acres and two children; now he has four children and nothing else. He wants work but there is none. He said he wants only to go home and will gladly fight and die if given the chance.

Few Have Jobs

His family of six lives in one small room in the rows of shed-like dwellings built by UN reliefs and works agency (UNRWA). Each person is fed by UNRWA on about two bucks a month. Only a few have part-time jobs; the rest do nothing but sit day after dreary day and drink coffee, play games, talk about homes they left behind and what they'll do to the Jews.

Most claim they do not get enough to eat. They despise the camp, but like all of the 900,000 Palestine refugees, they have refused resettlement.

From this camp, at the north end of the strip adjacent to the Mediterranean Sea, many can see their former homes now occupied by Jews. They stand on the bluff for hours at a time staring at their old homes and fields.

Middle East Oil & Land Real Reason For Attack On Egypt!

There was peace in the Middle East until the Jews smuggled arms into Palestine and suddenly opened fire on surprised Arabs and Egyptians, driving a million men, women and children into the desert where they barely exist today on $2.00 each per month supplied by the U.N.

The Zionists pressured Pres. Truman into acknowledging Israel as a nation on May 15, 1948. For 8 years the Jews have occupied the homes and farms of these people bringing in Jews from all over the world, while they continually harass the Egyptians and are now engaged in stealing more land to settle eleven million Jews.

To help the reader to understand the motives behind this ruthless, lawless move by the Jews, we republish here part of a speech made in May 31, 1947 before the Canadian Jewish Congress by Dr. Nahum Goldmann, Pres. of the World Jewish Congress. (The Vice Pres. of the World Jewish Congress, Rabbi Joachim Prinz, engaged the Editor of Common Sense in Court, and through Jewish political pressure secured a judgment of $30,000.) This is the Zionist group which set up Israel.

This speech was published in the Congress Bulletin, a Zionist publication. The Pres. of the Canadian Jewish Congress, is Samuel Braufman who practically controls the liquor industry of Canada and the U. S.

Editor

Says Mr. Goldmann:

"Twenty five years ago Palestine didn't have a tenth the importance in world political action it has today. This world has become one global world and there are a great many strategists who believe that the most important strategic area in the world is the Middle East. There are great historians of the Second World War who believe that the decisive battle of the Second World War was the battle of El Alamein, because if the Nazis had broken into

Gamal Nasser, President of Egypt

After Egypt the Jews, using their puppets, England and France will attack each Arab nation one by one until they control all the Middle East.

Two thirds of the oil supply of the World is located within 500 miles of Israel.

What do human rights and innocent lives mean when these Godless gangsters are after such a rich prize.

the Middle East they would have won the war. This may be exaggeration or it may not be. But they are convinced that if there are any future wars that they will be global wars and they will concentrate in this part of the world. The Middle East, between the three continents, the link between Europe and Asia and Africa, is perhaps the most strategic area in the world.

"In one of the talks I had last summer with Mr. Bevin where he spoke up very frankly, he said to me, 'You know, doctor, what you want me to do by establishing a Jewish State? You want me to deliver into your hands the keys to the most important strategic area in the world. You will allow me to think once and twice before I give you this key.' There was something in this remark.

"In addition to this, oil has been found in the Middle East. I remember Mr. Ickes, who was in charge of oil administration in America during the war, told me that experts report that there is more oil in the Middle East than in all of North and Central America together, ten to twenty times as much. And you know what oil means in this world. Once we have established a Jewish State in Palestine all this will be in our favor. But until we do establish it this is an obstacle, because people are very reluctant to allow Jews, with their zeal and intelligence, to establish themselves in an area of such importance.

"If we would have wanted to establish Jews on Madagascar we could have done so already. Nobody cares what is being done on Madagascar. It is outside of world politics. But Palestine is today the center of strategy and of world power politics, and statesmen who approach Zionism today think in those terms. I would like Zionists to understand it. It is not always the things that appeal to justice and fairness that count in the world. The countries and the governments of the world will determine their positions from the viewpoint of their realistic interests. These will be the decisive considerations. All the humanitarian aspects of the problem, which may play a certain role, will not be decisive and we have to adjust our policies to such a realistic approach to the problem."

impossible to conduct.

Vilification and Smear

Our major broadcasting system allowed its radio and television network to be used to attack this committee. The broadcast occurred in Aug. 1954 several months before the filing of the Reece Committee report. On that program the minority member falsely claimed that he was defending the honor and dignity of Congress. He attacked the majority members, the staff and committee witnesses. The obvious purpose was to discredit the investigation before the committee could file its report. The program was taken on film and sound recording; released three days later without editing. This attack was not the result of negligence. It was a deliberate assault on the integrity of a Congressional Committee.

Censorship in Favor of the United Nations

About a month later, a member of this Society was summarily taken off the air by the same broadcasting company. That occurred because of his opposition to policies and practices of the United Nations. This man was a commentator on a television program at Los Angeles—a patriot who believed in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, and resented UN encroachment on American rights. He had been on the air for about a year prior to the incident to which I refer. His freedom on the air had included the opportunity to denounce the communists. That was alright. No difficulty was experienced until he challenged the "Internationalists." Then the reaction was immediate! His station arrangement was cancelled almost without notice. He was deprived of his right to a two weeks notice of cancellation—prevented from going on the air to explain his position to the members of the television audience. One would expect this sort of conduct in Soviet Russia. It is strange—very strange—to have it occur in the United States of America. The chairman of the corporation controlling this network is an "Internationalist" who stands high in the councils of the present administration.

The Monopoly in Communications

We are in dangerous shape when these things are possible. Effective censorship now exists in favor of the United Nations lobby and the "Internationalists." Only a limited number of television channels are available. There is a practical condition which amounts to monopoly. Three broadcasting companies occupy the entire field. One of them is dominated by a giant holding company headed by a prominent "Internationalist." Control of the entire television industry is in the hands of three men who head these broadcasting systems. Television has enormous power for good or evil. It can lift a man from obscurity to national prominence. It may destroy the reputations of some while assisting in a build up for the benefit of others. Its power is too dangerous to be allowed to rest exclusively in the hands of three men. It is time to inquire whether the policies of these networks are directly or indirectly influenced by tax exempt foundations; to what extent control may be exercised by the "Internationalist" clique responsible for betraying of American interests. Fortunately, there is a safe and constitutional way to deal with this problem. It involves an extension of public utility law in the field of television and radio.

Arrogance and Defiance

These giant foundations have continued their arrogant disregard of the public interest. There is no evidence that they intend to reform. They have challenged the power and authority of Congress and the American people. Your affairs are now controlled by a movement which relies on propaganda, infiltration and smear. The Reece Committee found that

"The far reaching power of the large foundations... has so influenced the press, the radio, and even the government that it has become extremely difficult for objective criticism of foundation practices to get into news channels... Nothing short of an un-hampered Congressional investigation could hope to bring out the vital facts... As indicated by their arrogance in dealing with this committee, the major foundations and their associated intermediary organizations have entrenched themselves behind a totality of power which presumes to place them beyond serious criticism and attack." (Report, p. 17-18)

A Boston Tea Party

There is only one power fully adequate in this emergency—the power of the people. Basically, they have three weapons available for their defense; (1) the ballot, (2) the right of petition, and (3) the right of boycott. Two of these have been tried and failed. It remains for us to consider an effective use of the third remedy.

We have the right to discriminate in favor of patriotic pro-American business men. We can buy and recommend the products of those willing to help us in resisting subversion. An American resistance movement can be established. We are under no obligation to use the products of those who knowingly employ left-wing artists or commentators on the radio or television, or who deliberately slant the news. Labor has the right of boycott and the right to strike. As consumers and patriotic citizens we have the same right. An intelligent use of this remedy could provide the force needed to head us in the right direction. The patriotic boycott is an unalienable right as old as the Boston Tea Party. In my judgment it can be legally established.

A Questionnaire For The Foundations

Have they ever supported research or education designed to expose the conduct, propaganda, or activities of the Communist or Socialist movements in this country?

Have they supported the work of active anti-communists, anti-communist organizations, or repentant Communists who have since demonstrated their loyalty and rendered valuable service to the cause of freedom by combating and exposing subversion?

The American people are patriotic. They pay heavy taxes. They carry their full share of responsibility in supporting and defending the Government and Constitution of the United States. Many of them have rendered military service. Some have made the supreme sacrifice.

Are the foundations patriotic or unpatriotic?

What is the attitude of the business and financial leaders who sit as trustees on the boards of these great tax-exempt corporations?

WE APOLOGIZE

With reference to the article "Christians Beware" by Benjamin H. Freedman in our issue No. 262, October 15, 1956.

The Editor of Common Sense is not an authority on the Bible and certainly would not have approved something about which he personally knows so little, and the Christian Educational Association would not have published that portion of the article dealing with the Bible, had the Editor seen it beforehand.

Mr. Freedman had this article set up in type outside and it was printed and mailed while the Editor was out of the State for three weeks on urgent matters.

Unfortunately the fact that we do not carry advertising prevents us from having the finance to function as efficiently as we would like to, and we have to depend to a good extent on volunteers. The few and loyal volunteers we do have are well overworked.

During the eleven years publication of Common Sense, this is the first time we have found it necessary to apologize for any portion of an article.

Letter To The Editor:

To the Editor,
Common Sense.

Oct. 15, 1956

Dear Sir:

I was told by one of my friends that of all innumerable American newspapers only your Common Sense might dare to publish the following lines,—and that is why I am addressing this letter directly to you.

In September of this year the people of the so-called "Freedom House" of N. Y. issued a booklet "Soviet Crimes and Khrushchev's Confessions" which was also published in the magazine U. S. News & World Report, Sept. 7, 1956, where we have read it. Their "Chronological Catalogue of Crimes" of the Communist regime, which is rather detailed and mentions, for instance, the murders of Shingarev, Kokoshkin, Pylniak, etc., whom, most probably, nobody knows in America, has, however, a very strange "omission":

Just nothing is listed under July 17, 1918!

It is, of course, impossible to imagine, that Mr. Chester S. Williams, who prepared this booklet, did not know that the last Russian Emperor, his wife, five children and four other persons were brutally murdered on July 17th, in the city of Ekaterinburg, (now Sverdlovsk), by order of Jacob Sverdlov, then Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of the Soviets. Therefore only two logical explanations of this "omission" might be presumed:

1- either Mr. Williams & Co. do NOT consider that this assassination WAS A CRIME, and thus tacitly endorse it;

2- or they assume, that NOT THE COMMUNISTS but some other FORCE was behind this heinous deed, and, consequently, the "Freedom House" people did not wish to list this murder under "Communist Crimes" in their "Catalogue".

Maybe Mr. Williams himself, Dr. Harry D. Gideonse, Mr. Leo Cherne or some other members of the "Freedom House" Committee will be kind enough to enlighten us upon the reasons of this "omission".

Sincerely yours,

A.M.

WILL OUR SONS DIE IN ANOTHER WAR

and that there never were more than 600,000 Jews in pre-Hitler Germany (so obviously could not have killed 6,000,000 Jews). The reason for World War III is again the killing off of Christians, so that Jewry's "gruesome hope" of enslaving the "survivors" can be realized, and with all resistance liquidated. That ad is but the beginning of a build-up to achieve World War III.

In writing this article, Mr. Freedman had only the best of intentions. Mr. Freedman is a distinguished scholar and we have never known him to be wrong in previous articles. We have known him for many years and he has suffered tremendously at the hands of anti-Christians. We have always found him to be pro-Christian and pro-American. He has done much good in combatting Communism and spent much time in actively exposing the enemies of Christianity, and had no intention of offending any Christian.

Christians Awake-Take Your Heads Out Of The Sand!

By refusing to recognize the fact that Communism is only a front for Judaism, you enable the International Jews to work undisturbed so that they can foment revolution in the U. S., just as they have in Europe and Asia. You are allowing them time to complete their plans whereby, as soon as they obtain complete control, American patriots will be "traitors".

In our small four-page paper, published twice a month, it is not possible in one issue to take each Country and show step by step, how the International Jews have set up Communism in the Soviet Union and ruled in each Communist Satellite Country. Those who have read Common Sense for part of the eleven years it has been published know we have proved this over and over. To others who realize it is more important to know the CAUSE than the EFFECT, we urge them to do as your editor did years ago.

Because the Jews I came in contact with appeared O. K., I thought the charges against them were ridiculous. I defended them. From years of study of the question I learned that all Jews are not active in the world wide anti-Christian conspiracy—they only support the aggressive, anti-Christian groups like the American Jewish Congress and American Jewish Committee, Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, etc., which employs thousands and spends millions to water down Christianity, control governments and foment wars between non-Jewish people.

Because we have published these facts which they cannot deny, the American Jewish Congress are again using ruthless methods to destroy our paper. They are now engaged in trying to secure title to COMMON SENSE. We will need the help of red-blooded Christians if we are to survive against this Zionist group. We need money for legal defense, so we can continue to fight as do the patriots in Hungary.

Communism was set up in Hungary and ruled by Jews. It is reported that during the past weeks, thousands of Hungarian

Cardinal Mindszenty

Cardinal Mindszenty,—Christian leader and loyal citizen of Hungary until the Jew-Communists gained control of his country. Then, he was arrested, tortured, drugged and forced to confess as a traitor. Of nine million people in Hungary, seven million were Catholics, the majority of the remaining two million were good Protestant Christians who did not want Communism. But a Marxist minority forced it on them, just as this minority will force it upon the U. S. if we Christians allow them; today's American patriots will be the "traitors." Gerson, a Zionist Jew, directed the team which tortured the Cardinal.

patriots have been slaughtered, and thousands deported to Siberia by the Soviet Communist forces, but during the past years many thousands more, Hungarians were shipped out to the Soviet Union in sealed freight cars.

Keep in mind that it was Gerson, a Russian, Jew, who directed the team of 16 torturers from the Soviet Union that administered mental torture to Cardinal Mindszenty; it was another Jew Emil Weil who administered the drugs to the Cardinal. Weil was later Minister to the U. S. Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig) was the power in Hungary from 1946 to July 18, 1956 when he resigned. He was a close friend of Stalin and one of six top Communist leaders of Eastern Europe, also Secretary General of the Hungarian Communist Party. All this, and only 2% of the Hungarian population were Jews—the U. S. has about 6%—it doesn't take many.

The Entire World Knows The Story
But Does It Know The TRUTH?

Cardinal Mindszenty's real "crime" was anti-Semitism.

No less an authority than the Zionist author, Peter Furst, says so in his article "Anti-Semitism is Outlawed, Offenders Are Sent to Prison," which appeared in the Feb. 4, 1951, Communistic Sunday Compass of New York. Stating that there "is no truth in reports that anti-Semitism is practiced in Eastern Europe today," Furst outlines articles of the Czechoslovakian, Bulgarian, and Hungarian constitutions which make "religious hatred" a crime "punishable by law."

"It was well known in Budapest that Cardinal Mindszenty was anti-Semitic," Furst continues. "I was shown anti-Semitic statements signed by him and printed in pre-war publications which are now in the possession of the Jewish Center in Budapest. During the Mindszenty trial I was asked by several Jewish leaders how it was possible that some Jewish organizations in the West came to the Cardinal's defense as a 'friend of the Jews.'"

"One of my colleagues, Bertha Gaster of the London News Chronicle, had her own experience with Cardinal Mindszenty along these lines. During an interview at his palace, she was amazed to hear the Cardinal suddenly launch into a long attack on Hungarian Jews in terms reminiscent of the former days.

"At the end of the interview, Miss Gaster rose and thanked the Cardinal for his statements, at the same time informing him that she herself was Jewish and her father a well-known religious figure in London. From then on the Cardinal insisted on British American Legation clearance on any correspondent asking for interviews with him."

Further proof of Cardinal Mindszenty's "current offences," has recently been revealed in a booklet compiled by Lt. Hilary Cotter, R. N., in which he mentions the following:

The "British" JEWISH CLARION of Feb. 1949, stated:

"Which part of the world has been

MORE CHRISTIANS TO DIE

FOR ISRAEL?

The New York Times of Nov. 6th, quotes Robert Briscoe as saying to a meeting in Dublin Nov. 5th, "we must prepare our boys and girls to go to Israel and be ready to die in battle if necessary."

Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig)

On March 2, 1950 he was re-elected as Secretary-General of Hungary's Communist Party. Rakosi was trained in Moscow. The people of Hungary were at the mercy of this murderer just as the citizens of the U. S. will be at the mercy of international revolutionists if we do not put an end to Marxism in the U. S. while we still have time to do so.

Lord Mayor Of Dublin Is A Jew!

WAKE UP IRISHMEN!

By Elizabeth Kirkpatrick Dilling
Box 659, Chicago 90, Illinois

Elizabeth Dilling

The "patrick" in my maiden name, Kirkpatrick, has been squirming, recently. Since June, the Talmudic press has been full of eulogies of the Zionist "Jew", Robert Briscoe, who made some 600 speeches for the Irgun terrorists of anti-Christ "Israel"; who deals in Kosher products in Ireland; and has been outstanding in his efforts to legalize the cruel pagan slaughter of animals by torment, known as "kosher" or "ritual slaughter", denounced by humane societies of the whole world as senseless brutality. The laws of many countries, moreover, forbid it.

The Talmudists are exultant over the fact that this "Orthodox Jew" was elected the mayor of the Christian city of Dublin. Now, the Irish of the USA are being cleverly pressured to invite Briscoe to be heaped with Christian honors in this country.

No Wonder They Exult!

The anti-Christ, pro-Red, Jewish Sentinel of Chicago (who had to settle their libels of me with cash!) elated thus:

"It was estimated that if Mr. Briscoe were to accept all the invitations sent—he would spend his one-year term in office in the United States rather than in his native Dublin" (7/5/56 issue). It has been just too, too, easy to fool the Irish, seemingly!

The authorities of New York, Cleveland, etc., are vying with each other to get Briscoe to lead the St. Patrick's parade in 1957. The Midwest Jewish Irish Club is petitioning him. The Irish, like the rest of the Christian world, are, for the most part, sound—but sound asleep.

Sleeping Christians

Picture yourself going, proof in hand, to any of the enthusiastic Irish Christians who are now elbowing each other to honor Briscoe, and asking this:

"How about having a friend of mine lead your St. Patrick's Day parade this next March? He is very much devoted to his religion which teaches that Mary was a Whore and prostitute; that Jesus was a fool, a bastard, who committed bestiality and black magic, who deserved the five sadistic deaths they give him in every Talmud-Torah and synagogue where the so-called 'Jewish' religion is taught." (Actually it is a ragbag collection of all the ancient paganism denounced by the Old Testament. It is the Tradition of the Pharisees in written form, or Babylonian Talmud, which is their one and only authority.) You might add:

"You can't blame him for sponsoring the ruthless brutality of the Palestine Irgun fighters because all Talmudists, according to the basic doctrine of the religion, regard all non-Talmudists as 'the people who are like an ass—slaves who are considered the property of the master'. (That is Kethuboth Illa, but every book of the 63 volumes of the Talmud takes the same over-all view: all non-Jews have no property rights: their possessions 'are like unclaimed land in the desert'.)

Communism is only a cowbarn state run by the "Humans" or Talmudists. The non-Humans or "cows" are lured in by clover, the Iron Curtain dropped on them, then they are milked or beefed for the benefit of the "Humans". But go on and say:

"But you ought to love him he is so devoted to his religion, which teaches that all Christians are in perpetual hell where 'boiling excrement' is poured on them and Jesus is also there where His punishment is 'boiling semen'. Talmudic law teaches that a grown man is blameless if he rapes a baby girl under three, commits sodomy with baby boys, dead bodies, neighbors' wives, or in general. Oh, there is much, much more. But, don't you think he is an ideal representative of this lovely religion and as such you ought to honor him?"

What Would Patrick Say?

Supposing that you know your facts as well as I do, and that you said this to Prominent Irishmen, what would he SAY?

Or would he SAY? Might he not rather take after the Caseys in the little story about the man who said: "Do you mean to tell me, Mrs. Casey, that you don't know what evolution means? Why, it means that your ancestors sprung from the apes!"

"Faith, and no Casey never sprung from NOBODY! They always sprung AT 'em!", replied Mrs. Casey promptly.

Try showing Patrick how the Talmud teaches that Jesus deserves being sunken "in dung to the armpits" and strangled to death; sunken in "dung to the armpits" and boiling lead poured down His pried-open mouth; how He is stoned to death, decapitated, then Crucified as a "blasphemer" of this Pharisee religion which holds that one may always kill, cheat, or lie to a non-Jew as the Kol Nidre yearly sanctions a year in advance. The absolute proof of all of the above is in the photostatic compilation, THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY, and my commentary upon it.

In The McGinley Case

The Newark papers commented that although Elizabeth Dilling had written five books on the subject, she was not allowed to answer a single question in her three hours on the witness stand in the libel action of Rabbi Prinz against the Christian anti-Communist Conde McGinley. It was true.

When my attorney son asked me: "Can you define Communism?", the Jewish attorney for Prinz objected and the co-operative judge promptly sustained the objection, adding that they didn't need my definition; he had a dictionary and they could use that instead.

Had I been permitted to answer, I would have replied that Communism is only the political carrying out of the basic doctrine of the Talmudic religion which is that all non-Talmudists rank as animals created to be milked or beefed by the Talmudists; but that only behind the Iron Curtain could this doctrine be carried out. The origin, principles and leadership of Communism from its inception have been Talmudic. Every Communist country is run by Talmudists and always has been; every Marxian party likewise.

The Talmudic prosecutors sensed what I would do. I had suitcases full of the only two English translations of the Babylonian Talmud: the Rodkinson (M. Levi Frumkin, New Talmud Pub. Co., Boston, 1903), and the Soncino (London, 1934-48) which was authenticated by the Rabbi himself as the only complete English translation of the same.

The Rabbi Goes On Record

The Rabbi refused, on advice of his attorney, to answer over a hundred questions on the Talmud asked in the pre-trial depositions by my attorney son, Kirkpatrick Dilling. It was like taking recourse in the Fifth Amendment. Had the Rabbi denied that these illegal obscene criminal teachings were NOT in the Talmud, we could have prosecuted him for perjury. Had he admitted they WERE, he would be admitting that, if known, the doctrines of Talmudic Judaism would bar its followers from citizenship in any civilized country, classifying them as a gangster conspiracy against the human race. Had the questions been untrue, the Rabbi would have denied them promptly. He DARED not. Talmudism is "the synagogue of Satan", as Christ warned at the end of the first century (Rev. 2:9; 3:9). The only people then, or since, who have called themselves "Jews" are Pharisaic Babylonian Talmudists of all colors, nations, races and breeds. Half of all the "Jews" in Israel, today, are colored. Meantime the FOUNTAINHEAD of unjust "discrimination", the Talmudists, lead the chorus against "discrimination" while they practice savage-discrimination even against their own Talmudic "religious" groups. Only Christians believe the "race" myth about "Jews" which has been swallowed hook line and sinker by the Christians, as intended. To hear Christians talk about "Jews", as though they were some sort of sacred cousins of the Prophets and the Savior, is to lead one to believe only one thing in the Talmud. That is, that we Christians sometimes act like "the people who are like an ass". Thus, nearly half the world has become "the property of the MASTER"—the Talmudist.

The TRUTH Necessary

The truth is nauseating—just as an operation on ulcers is nauseating. But, if we are to bring "light to them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death" (Luke 1:79), we must know and make known the TRUTH which alone can make us free (John 8:32).

"The Jewish religion as it is today traces its descent, without a break, through all the centuries, from the Pharisees... The TALMUD is the largest and most important single member of (their) literature—and the study of it is essential for any real understanding of Pharisaism", states the 1943 Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, under "Pharisees". Thus, today, the anti-Pharisaism of Jesus is called "anti-Semitism".

That "Race" Myth

It is on the myth of some sort of holy "race" that the Christian bases his superstition. WHAT RACE?—Look in the Jewish Encyclopedia (1905) under "India":

"The Jews of India comprise both Whites and Blacks". The ruin of their Indian Jewish state: "after its existence for a thousand years, was brought about by strife between the White and the Black Jews". This occurred, we are told, when the Portugese took Cranganore in 1523.

The Cochins, Beni Israel, Indian Jews, we are told, are "good Talmudists". The account of the Jewish traveler, Benjamin of Tudela, between 1160 and 1174, "contains one of the earliest descriptions of the Black Jews of India".

Under "Cochin", the 1943 Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, features pictures of Indian Jews who are indistinguishable from the Indians of the Hindu faith. We read: "the White Jews continue to regard the Black Jews as an inferior—and refuse to contract marriages with them, nor do they dine with them at the same table... The Jews of Cochins up to modern times, practiced slavery—making men and women slaves for debt... Both groups observe the same Sephardic ritual". Sephardic means Spanish.

Under "China", both of the above Jewish Encyclopedias carry pictures of typical Chinese, as representative of Chinese Jews. An "Account Written by Two Mohammedan Travelers—in 851" is quoted thus: "the Jews have been settled in that empire (China) from time immemorial". Their high posts in China are covered. It is thought that various inroads were made by them in Biblical as well as in Talmudic times. (From the first century BC to 500 AD the Babylonian Talmud was compiled from Pharisaic teachings.)

Desegregation

When the Talmudic "synagogue of Satan" is not prompting the Christian "asses" to echo their cries against "racism", "discrimination" and "anti-Semitism", the 'shocked'—Mr. Herbert Morrison's expression—by the arrest of Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary? Cardinal Mindszenty, who is being hailed by 'Western democracy' as a champion of liberty and a fighter against oppression is a notorious anti-Semite. After the anti-Jewish riot at Kunmadaras in 1946, Mindszenty refused to condemn the rioters. He did, however, suggest amnesty for fascist war criminals."

The "British" JEWISH CHRONICLE of Feb. 4th, 1949, stated:

"Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary, who was arrested on December 27th, has been accused by four leading Jewish organizations in Hungary of being an anti-Semite. They allege that he supported the Nazi persecutions of the Jews and planned to restore war-time anti-Jewish laws in Hungary. This charge was contained in a message sent to Jewish communities and organizations abroad by the Hungarian Section of the World Jewish Congress, the Hungarian Zionist organization, the Central Council of Jews in Hungary, and the managing Committee of the autonomous Orthodox religious bodies in Hungary. The message said that Hungarian Jews had learned "with great dismay" that some Jewish organizations abroad had come to the defense of Cardinal Mindszenty, whom the message described as 'the arch-enemy of Jews in Hungary and Eastern Europe'. It urged Jewish organizations abroad not to 'mistakenly accept any solidarity with the enemies of our people'."

The official Communist HUNGARIAN BULLETIN of Jan. 24th, 1949, gives the above message, but with the following addition:

"We are convinced that these organizations and their leaders are not sufficiently aware of Mindszenty's activities in the last four years, his anti-Semitic past, his anti-Jewish plots and also of the fact that among the documents seized were his projects to restore anti-Jewish laws in Hungary."

We have listed below only the leading Jewish Communists that controlled Hungary in 1955. Due to lack of space, we had to omit many others that we know of. The reader can obtain them by writing to Christian Educational Assn., Union, N. J.

Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig)—Deputy Prime Minister (Jew)

Peter Gabor (Benó Auspitz)—Chief of Political Police (Jew)

Erno Gero (Singer)—Minister of Finance (Jew)

Zoltan Vas (Weinberger)—Chief of Planning (Jew)

Joseph Revai (Roth)—Minister of Education (Jew)

Milholly Farkas (real name unknown)—Minister of Defense (Jew)

The only non-Jew in the Hungarian "Communist" government, at the time Cardinal Mindszenty was persecuted, was Lasio Rajk. Rajk when his work as dupe was finished, was also charged with "anti-Semitism." He was hung. His wife, according to last report, was sentenced to a term in Siberia. (Ed. note: This is also death).

This is what the Morning Freiheit (the United States' largest Communist daily, printed in Yiddish) said in its issue of January 10, 1937:

"According to the Jewish religion, the Pope is an enemy of the Jewish people by the very fact that he is the head of the Catholic Church. Jewish religion, let it be remembered, is opposed to Christianity in general, to the Catholic Church in particular."

The Jew, Bernard Lazare, on p. 350 of his book L'Anti-Semitisme stated:

"The Jew is not satisfied with de-Christianising; he Judaizes, he destroys Catholic or Protestant faith, he provokes indifference, but he imposes his idea of the world, of morals and of life upon those whose faith he ruins; he works at his age-old task, the annihilation of the religion of Christ."

Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig) between two guards in a Budapest court room during his trial, Jan. 23, 1935, as a "Mass Murderer." He was accused of 21 murders and more than 500 other crimes, the torture and death of nuns and priests, some of which were committed while he was Commissar under Hungary's short Communist Regime under Bela Kun, March 22nd to July 31, 1919. He escaped to Soviet Russia in 1940 and returned to Hungary in 1945 with the Red Army. Appointed Vice Pres. of the Communist Regime in 1946 and in 1950 this Jew became Dictator of Hungary. He resigned as recently as July 18, 1956.

On p. 10 of "The Republic of Israel," (published in 1950) the Zionist, Joseph Dunner has written:

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

POLAND

A few words about Poland and more in our future issues. Because the regular press dare not offend their Jewish advertisers by telling you the bare facts, we inform you that the basic reason for the uprising in Poland were demands that all Jews be removed from government positions in that country. Jakub Berman, the Jew Dictator of Poland and others were forced out. The new Party Chief, Wladyslaw Gomulka has issued proclamations trying to diminish anti-Jewish movements. Jews are the authority for the statement that Cardinal Mindszenty was imprisoned for promoting anti-Jewish publications.

During the eleven years COMMON SENSE has been published the Zionist Jews have tried to imprison the editor, attempted to kill him, had him taken out twice in handcuffs, set off four bombs and smashed in the plate glass front twice. They stopped eleven printers in eight years from printing COMMON SENSE and now that we can print our own paper, they are forcing us into court in an effort to grab this press and all the equipment.

Cong. Walters--- On Guard!

HUNGARIAN REFUGEES

Eight organizations in N. Y. have volunteered to assist the Hungarian people.

Certainly they need help. It is of course a little late to be of help to these brave people after so many have been slaughtered and others deported to be worked to death in wet mines and on the roads.

The time to have helped them was to have kept our nose out of Europe, and to have let Germany and these Godless Communists fight it out. Then there would be no Communism in Hungary, Poland, Russia or any other place in the world.

We helped to destroy the only people, the only country (Germany), efficient enough and strong enough to keep Communism down in Europe!

In bringing the 5,000 Hungarian refugees to Camp Kilmer, N. J. the U. S. makes a well intentioned move. Let's hope it results well. We hope that not too many Communist Jew spies come through with these and are fed, and given jobs in our Defense Dept. to report back to Moscow—the Commies always do.

When thousands of sincere Russian civilians were coming to German lines to ask for refuge during World War II, many Communist spies were mixed in with them to help overthrow Germany from the inside.

The Newark Star Ledger of 11/11/56, carries an article where Sen. Clifford Case of N. J. is red hot to use this Hungarian crisis to break down the McCarran Walters Immigration Law and bring in large groups from all the Iron Curtain countries. (The Jews have been trying to break down this law which safeguards America for a long time.)

Sen. Case says he will make several proposals in the U. S. Senate to soften some of the provisions of the McCarran Walters Act. He says it is unjust to require refugees to show they have not been active Communists for two years.

During Sen. Case's campaign for election Fulton Lewis, Jr. produced evidence to show that Case's sister was a Communist. Then too Sen. Case is in close harmony with that Red outfit, Americans for Democratic Action!

Congressman Francis Walters is in Austria in connection with the Hungarian refugees. We can certainly trust him to do his level best, but these Jewish revolutionaries are daring!

Israel To Touch Off World War Three?

The State of Israel has been a trouble-maker ever since the partition of Palestine under Harry Solomon Truman. He was pressured by the Jews in America and abroad to force the smaller countries in the United Nations to vote in favor of partition. The partition of Palestine won by one vote and ever since, the Middle East has been a tinder-box!

The Israeli have committed, and are still committing heinous crimes against the Arabs and Christianity, of which you the public are not informed, because newspapers dare not print unfavorable reports against Israel for fear of offending their Jewish advertisers.

ELIMINATE ISRAEL AND THERE WILL BE PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST AS WELL AS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD!

same Talmudists are getting FEPC laws passed, fraternities banned, in the interest of their brethren, and now lead the pack for DESEGREGATION in the South.

"NEGRO STATUS AFFECTS JEWS—NCRAC Resolution for Desegregation", heads a Jewish Telegraph Agency report of the four day Atlantic City conference "of the Community Relations Advisory Council... The Jewish leaders, representing the American Jewish Congress, Jewish Labor Committee, all national Jewish religious organizations, Jewish War Veterans and many Jewish community councils, were told..." The article goes on to report that support of the Jewish-run, Red-backed NAACP must be pushed and all laws rescinded which interfere with full integration of Negroes and Whites in education, etc., etc. It is a blanket resolution. "Dr. Arnold Rose, Prof. of Sociology at the U. of Minnesota... told the conference... In a minority strategy, some (Jews) may have to play the collaborationist role..." Jews have, as we learn elsewhere, penetrated the White Citizens' Councils fighting integration!

But, In Palestine!

But, not content with discrimination against the whole human race as "animals", the Talmudists do the same thing in their own ranks. "SHAMIR: DISCRIMINATION AGAINST COLORED JEWS", heads an article in the National Jewish Post for Sept. 14, 1956. Shamir is called "Israel's most popular young author and playwright". He scoffs at the boast that there is no discrimination in Israel because there is legislation against it, or that it "will disappear within a few generations. He points out that white newcomers show little discrimination when they first arrive. They treat there colored brethren, who now number half the Jewish population, as equals. It is only after they become veterans of the country that they adopt the universal attitude toward the colored Jews".

"It is the sabra (born in Israel) white children who refuse to sit together with colored kids at school... Shamir asserted that special schools had to be established for colored children in the immigrant slums where most of the colored Jews live because the white mothers in the neighboring streets refused to send their children to the same schools".

The Irgun Terrorists

When the Jewish Pres. extolls Briscoe as having been a "Revisionist from the beginning", this means no more to the average Christian than the word "Schechita" or protective Kashruth laws. That Briscoe made some 600 speeches for the Revisionists' Irgun crew in Israel, again means nothing, generally, to Christians.

The Jabotinsky mentioned in connection with Briscoe was Vladimir Jabotinsky, who organized a militant group within the Zionist Organization of the world. Their strong points were: "political action in London and elsewhere"; To achieve "large immigration" into Palestine... proclaiming the Jewish State to be the aim of Zionism... The Revisionists were accused of militarism". They organized military groups in the USA and elsewhere, B'rith Trumpedor, etc. (Univ. Jewish Ency. "Zionism"). The regular Zionists played the collaborationist role of legality and pretended to be horrified at the sadistic stunts of the Irgunists. But, the Israel State once achieved, they promptly took in the Irgun terrorists in the Israel Knesset, or parliament. The Irgun crew, calling themselves the Herut party, have been the second largest in Israel, the first being Mapai, affiliate of the Socialist International, with other Marxist parties like Mapan, Stalinist, Achdut Avoda, etc., following.

Briscoe's Revisionists first organized the Committee for a Jewish Army in this country, then the American Committee for a Free Palestine ("free" to exile nearly a million Arabs from their homes to starve in tents).

Ben Hecht, the co-chairman, put out some blood-curdling ads for this outfit. As an Associated Press report (Boston Herald 5/31/47) put it:

Much quoted and bitterly assailed was his (Hecht's) statement in a 'Palestine resistance fund' advertisement addressed to 'the TERRORISTS of PALESTINE' as published in the N.Y. Herald-Tribune of May 15:

"Every time you blow up a British arsenal or wreck a British jail, or send a British railroad sky high or let go with guns and bombs... the Jews of America make holiday in their hearts'. Calling Hecht a 'penthouse warrior', the Standard accused him of 'gross chauvinism... the stoking up of hatred between nations, indifference to the sanctity of human life'".

It was Ben Hecht in his "Jew in Love" who Talmudically said "they muddled when they Crucified Jesus, they should have fed him to the lions. Then they couldn't have made a God out of excreta." (Covici Friede 1931, page 121)

Irgun Stunts

One of the little Talmudic stunts of Briscoe's Irgun crew in Palestine was to string up an Arab they had killed with a bomb inside placed so that the person who cut him down would be blown up by the bomb.

Who Made Them Love Briscoe?

The Jewish Sentinel relates that: "John J. Sheehan, chairman of the annual St. Patrick's Day parade in N. Y., has despatched an invitation to Mr. Briscoe"—to be the Big-Shot at their coming parade; "James O'Brien, Commissioner of the N. Y. City Dept. of Commerce and Public Events urged Mr. Briscoe 'to be sure and leave St. Patrick's Day open to us'. Paul O'Dwyer Pres. of the Irish Institute—"has invited Briscoe to be their honor guest in Jan.". The N.Y. Fire Dept. Emerald Society cabled Briscoe an invitation—and so it goes. Who brainwashed them?

A BISHOP COMMENTS ONFILTHY TALMUD

The Bishop of Dijon, Monseigneur Landrieux writes in "Le Fasciste Canadien", issue of December, 1937:

"When we talk about the Jewish religion, we think only of the Bible and the religion of Moses. This is a deception. The Talmud, which according to the Jewish periodical 'L'UNIVERS ISRAELITE' is the Jewish religious Law Book for the past 2,000 years represents a systematic, false and misleading interpretation of the Bible. PRIDE OF RACE and the idea of WORLD DOMINATION, glorified therein to the point of madness. For to the adherent of the TALMUD only the Jewish Race represents mankind. All non-Jews are not human beings, but belong to the purely animal class."

Crossroads

By John Beaty

A Novel Of The Twentieth Century South

In this book a love story is evolved in the shadow of oncoming war. The plot is a masterpiece of foreshadowing and fulfillment. The style is smooth-flowing and at times deeply moving. The background is meticulously accurate, and the pages abound in homely speech and in the rich humor of character.

John Beaty's books include literary criticism, historical fiction, and the current world scene. More than 300,000 copies have been sold. THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA is in its fifteenth printing. A novel, SWORDS IN THE DAWN, had New York, London, and Australian editions; was praised in a hundred reviews and articles; and was on several lists of the best books of its year, including the famous annual list of William Lyon Phelps. CROSSROADS is easier to read and should have a more universal appeal than any of the previous books by Colonel Beaty.

THE SOUTH?WHAT IS IT LIKE? WHAT SORT OF PEOPLE LIVE THERE?

The current conflict between powerful New York and Washington forces bent on destroying, and determined Southern people bent on preserving, a deeply entrenched tradition, is fraught with ominous possibilities—not only for the South, but for the entire nation.

No American can fairly take sides in this conflict, or even have a fact-based opinion about it, unless he is familiar with the pattern of Southern life and thus knows what it is that is being attacked and defended.

CROSSROADS is not propaganda. It is as objective as wind or weather. When you have read this important book, you will know the South as thoroughly as if you had lived there a long, long time with free access to the doors of the homes, and to the hearts and souls of the people.

Secret AJC Document Proves Plan To Wipe Out Christmas

By Robert H. Williams—Republished from Williams Intelligence Summary, of November 1956

Once again the season approaches when some ministers and school teachers will help mortal enemies of Christianity destroy the traditions of Christmas.

I am reminded of a warning issued by the Brooklyn Tablet, one of the foremost Catholic weeklies of America, Jan. 21, 1956:

"The drive to abolish the observance of Christmas in public schools across the nation, after having achieved only scattered successes in the past, will be more closely organized during 1956 to attain greater effectiveness.

"This was revealed in 'Committee Reporter', publication of the American Jewish Committee, with headquarters at 384 4th Ave., N. Y. C. in an article titled 'Christmas in July'.

"The AJC blames the lack of greater success in the anti-Christmas movement partly on the delay in raising the issue until Christmas is approaching and recommends that discussion of it be started in July...

"The AJC...recommends a 'quiet reconnaissance...before any forays are launched' on what schools observe Christmas and how they observe it.

"And it should never be a one-man foray,' the AJC warns.

"Once the reconnaissance has been made, the necessary information obtained, the time is right for intensive discussions among representative local Jewish leaders and rabbis..

"For schools where 'the existing situation needs remedying' (that is, where Christmas is observed by Christian pupils—RHW), the AJC says the most effective way is 'to undertake a sober year-round program designed to acquaint Christian clergy, school personnel and others with the views held by Jewish organizations on the broader question of religion in the public schools.

"Like all education techniques,' it continues, 'this calls for patience, a great deal of patience, but it has proved its worth in many communities.'

Bear in mind that Jewish pupils can always be excused from Christmas celebrations. Obviously then the aim is to destroy the Christmas custom.

Infiltrating The Christians

Analyze this document. Here is a coldly calculated, long-term strategy mapped by one of the richest and most powerful organizations in world history, to wipe out ever vestige of Christian custom, every evidence of Christianity, in the public schools. And the master strategists boast that already this master plan "has proved its worth in many communities."

Now lets look at another document published by the same American Jewish Committee, a document published only for its fellow Jews. This is the 280-page AMERI-

CHILD BLESS YOUR CHRISTMAS DAY WITH HAPPINESS

CAN JEWISH COMMITTEE BUDGET, for 1953. I am typing from a complete photostatic reproduction of it.

This report reveals that the same American Jewish Committee (affiliate of the ADL), which is working so dilligently behind the scenes to guide its people in wiping out Christianity in the schools, at the same time has infiltrated the biggest organization of Christian ministers in our country, the National Council of Churches (formerly Federal Council of Churches), and the content of the report shows not only the intent, but actual details of how it is warping and "rewriting", using and destroying Christianity from within.

I cannot think of any more worthwhile way to impress you with the magnitude of this dastardly undertaking than to quote whole pages from the 'AJC Report. The audacity of this group of alien minded, fabulously rich, politically organized and boundlessly ambitious group of international gangsters is all but incredible.

The quotes begin on page 96:

"Christian religious education, a subject of major concern to the American Jewish Committee within the past few years, has likewise enjoyed a phenomenal development ...As the Church gains strength, new responsibilities obviously devolve upon our Division if we are to help influence the attitudes of Americans through their church experience. The religious school, which now embraces a substantial segment of American youth, bears even more careful examination than in the past. As a result of our closer associations with religious educators, we are in a better position to encourage them to assume greater responsibility, both for eliminating prejudicial material and for making constructive intergroup education a part of their programs.

AJC Sponsors Social Action Groups

"In many of our approaches to the Christian churches, we enlist the active support of the Jewish religious bodies. On occasion, we find it desirable, particularly in the social action field, to call upon the Synagogue Council of America and its constituents for representation. On the other hand, our Christian educators (sic.) have come to regard our agency as having special competence in intergroup education and

Peace On Earth To Men Of Good-Will

By
Marilyn R. Allen

Much as we might like to think otherwise, there is ONLY ONE WAY to bring true Peace in the WORLD, and that is by each individual, as well as the sum-total of individuals in nations, LIVING a life of peace and good-will. No one person can achieve inner peace for another: nor can any nation compel either inner or outer peace for another. The Creator is not mocked: HE knows when individuals or nations honestly seek true, just and lasting Peace.

Evil, scheming men who talk peace, but desire war for their own enrichment and profit, must disappear from the scene. (See Isaiah 48:22, "There is no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked.") They must be taken OUT of the seats of power and policy-making and replaced by genuinely CHRISTIAN men whose clean lives and deeds prove that they are men of good-will and peace. Wars must cease and America has got to quit sending her youth to fight foreign wars. Our false leaders have squandered BILLIONS of America's wealth, unconstitutionally, fighting wars in the Name of Peace and in aiding the direst enemies of Peace—the haters of Christianity—when they should have sense enough to know better and to mind their own business. They are still doing it. To quote from a speech made by Mr. Avery Brundage (President of International Olympic Assn., who has traveled widely in foreign countries in recent years) to the Economic Club of Detroit.

"After three weeks in the Soviet Union, I did a lot of thinking, and at this point, speaking as a plain ordinary citizen of the United States and a taxpayer, I will make

Warning

General Moseley Patriots will recall that a few years ago the UNION NOW forces went quietly to the several state legislatures and succeeded in getting approximately thirty to pass a resolution for a national convention to consider a plan for World Government. Slowly the truth leaked out and the real purposes of the plan became apparent. The legislature of Georgia was the first to revoke this action. Some 20-odd States followed the example set by Georgia, revoked their action, and the plan was killed—for the time being, at least.

The same ugly monster is still in being, supported by an organization called FEDERAL UNION. This time NATO is to be the stepping stone to World Government. The President of FEDERAL UNION is none other than Clarence K. Streit, the author of UNION NOW—a Rhodes Scholar.

In this connection, it is important to remember the plan Cecil Rhodes had in mind originally when he organized the scholarships. It was to assemble selected lads from all over the world, under the spires of Oxford, and there indoctrinate them with the British point of view. Upon their return home, it was hoped that they would work for the interest of the Empire. Up to his dying day, Cecil Rhodes always labored in the hope that the United States would be brought back into the Empire. Fortunately, Nationalism has completely disintegrated the dear old Empire.

It is hoped that patriots and patriotic organizations from coast to coast will be on the lookout for this monster and will do all in their power to expose and destroy the activities of the FEDERAL UNION.

When we were fighting for our independence, Tories in our midst aided and abetted the enemy. There are many such along the Atlantic coast today; feeling as they do, they should pack up, bag and baggage, and move over bodily to dear old England.

General George Van Horn Moseley

a brief report on my reflections. In the last 40 years we have fought in two World Wars: one to make the world safe for democracy, and one to end all wars. (Mr. Brundage apparently omitted mention of the Korean war.) According to an estimate prepared recently by the Library of Congress, the cost to us since 1917 of these two wars is $677 BILLIONS, and that figure is still increasing. Our national debt in 1917 was $1,282,000,000. Last year it was $286 BILLIONS, and an increase in the legal debt limit has been discussed because our disbursements still exceed our income...Yet the condition of the world today politically is far worse than it ever has been....Alas, we seem bent on committing national suicide, as gradually we abandon all the fundamental principles that have led to our success. Stop and THINK a minute about what that $677 BILLION....would have done to strengthen our own country and its people....If we lose out, it will be from weakness within." But, despite this appalling waste of our resources, Mr. Brundage said that foreigners still have no confidence in us, and consider us almost as dangerous as the Reds "because we are quixotic, unrealistic and inconsistent,"—which is quite a reward for all our foolish altruism. Mr. Brundage might also have said that our own Country is now in such a complete MESS, due to all this Foreignism, that no one man can possibly comprehend it, nor straighten it out easily either. But it is past time somebody was trying.

Our people are going to have to come out of their swaddling clothes, politically, and learn to study the issues, so that they may then exercise good judgment and discrimination: they will have to face up to Truth, and cease running away from vital issues. As our Christian Leader, Jesus, said, "Only the TRUTH will make you free." These are days of heart-searching, as well as days of JUDGMENT upon the earth. The Peace that passes understanding is no MAN-made thing: it buds and stems from the Christ Spirit, and is given unto His own. He waits for individuals and nations to truly follow after Him: to demonstrate in their individual and national lives that they desire to emulate HIS way and His principles. There is no other way. "Blessed are the Peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." (Matthew 5:9).

Incessant TALKING about Peace, together with hypocritical action, will get us exactly nowhere. Neither will aligning ourselves with the forbidden anti-Christ in the UN, in the Soviet Union, in Israeli. As Gen. Douglas MacArthur said: "Peace at any price, peace with appeasement, peace which passes a dreadful finality to future generations, is a peace of sham and shame which can only end in war and slavery." Christ was never an appeaser or compromiser: HE never retreated from principle—for expediency! The admonition for this Christian founded Republic and for all Truth-seekers is: "Take up your cross and follow ME," not my Enemies or the fence-straddlers. Too long have we followed a crooked path. Now we have reached the fork in the road: the point of no return. THIS IS IT. This is the testing time for humanity and the earth. Mankind has devised fabulous weapons for its own destruction. The immediate pressing question is: can mankind match in constructive spiritual progress, development and achievement, a counter-balance for his negative, destructive achievements? Materiality has long run rampant in America, as elsewhere, while spiritual values have been pushed aside. It has been an era of unassimilated prosperity. NOW the pendulum must swing to the spiritual. Mankind has exhausted his own feeble devices in the search for Peace: now he has nowhere to look but UP. He has now to make his choice.

Every man and woman of good-will should WORK for the success of the GOOD: for the Forces of Peace and Righteousness in America. You cannot "sit this one out" without danger to your own immortal soul. You owe a debt to your Creator and to your Country. Good deeds were never so desirable as NOW. Let's be up and doing, awake and aware of both the dangers and the good that befall us.

May the Christ Light of Peace burn in your heart this Christmas Season, and all through the coming year!

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DIE

THE AMAZING STORY OF THE HOXSEY CANCER TREATMENT

HARRY M. HOXSEY, N.D.

The function of a newspaper is to publish items of interest, even though they are sometimes of a controversial nature. Many readers like to have information from both sides of a question and then make their own decision.

The cancer problem has caused quite a controversy. One side says cancer can be cured only by surgery, x-ray and radium; the other side says it cannot be cured by these methods. On one side, powerful interests say Dr. Hoxsey is a quack. That may be, and if so, he has been "quacking" for 25 years and has apparently deceived many people. If you spend a few hours going through the 50 rooms at the Hoxsey Clinic in Dallas, and end up in the record room which is filled with steel files containing thousands of case histories, it strikes you that many have been fooled. As you examine the case histories, you cannot help but agree the clinic has done good in bringing happiness to thousands who think they have been cured, some of them under this illusion for 20 years.

According to statistics, forty million people are ailing from cancer in the U. S. It is likely a few of these would like to read how many of the 85% given up to die have been mesmerized into believing they are cured.

It is with an open mind we offer this book to our readers to decide for themselves what treatment they wish to use if this dread disease strikes their families.

NO ENEMIES?

You have no enemies, you say?
My friend, your boast is poor;
He who hath mingled in the fray
Of duty, that the brave endure,
Must have made foes. If he has none
Small is the work that he hath done.
He has called no traitor to a stand;
Cast no cup from tempted hand;
He has never turned the wrong to right;
He has been a coward in the fight.

SECRET DOCUMENTS PLAN TO WIPE OUT CHRISTIANITY AND CHRISTMAS

have no hesitation in calling upon us for counsel."

Notice that, whereas for centuries it was the rabbis who kept alive the hatred for Christianity, and who exercised nearly all the leadership over the Jewish flocks, now it is the AJC, dominated by the international Jewish bankers who seem so determined to run all the governments and peoples of the world. (Herbert Lehman of Lehman & Co., for many years has been a Vice Pres. and policy maker of the AJC. This is the same Sen. Lehman who was revealed during the war, by an emissary from Moscow, to be "the very big boss" of the revolution in America, as disclosed in Major Jordan's Diaries.) The AJC now is organizing and using the rabbis in its program of power politics, the objectives of which you will see as we continue to quote:

"OBJECTIVES: The objectives of our Division in the light of the foregoing are:

"1—To effect favorable changes in the attitudes of Christians towards Jews and Judaism by encouraging and assisting educational and social action programs within the Protestant and Catholic churches.

(Note: The social action programs of the churches all are socialistic, internationalist and integrationist, making the white race forget its own welfare and future welfare of its children and favor mass immigration of all the motley races of the world.)

"2—To enlist the support of church and church-related bodies in mutually agreed-upon projects of social action, such as combatting discrimination, improving immigration legislation, etc.

"3—To establish lines of communication with these bodies and with Jewish religious agencies, both national and local, in order to deal with specific community relations problems...

"III. Resources Within The Agency

"In carrying out our program, the resources of our agency are, of course, indispensable. The following facilities are utilized:

"1—The Library of Information provides us with a daily report on religious activities affecting our work, alerting us to new needs and indicating where we may find support for our program. This information also supplies the basis of our own materials, such as news items concerning intergroup cooperation which we have occasion to publicize.

"2—The Production and Magazine Divisions frequently supply us with materials for use in Protestant and Catholic press; stories and illustrations for curricular materials, etc.

"3—The Community Services Dept. enables us to make available to church groups publications of the American Jewish Committee as well as materials published elsewhere which are recommended by the Community Service Dept.

"4—The Community Activities Dept. has assisted, during the past three years, in developing within a considerable number of chapters, a group of lay people to carry out our educational program on a local level and furnish us with guidance for program development. From these chapters we have developed a national lay committee which meets at frequent intervals to provide us with guidance and support for our program.

"5—The Civil Rights Division furnishes information and advice concerning tension areas where community relations problems involve the religious groups.

"6—The Radio and Television Division furnishes guidance in religious programs and alerts us to objectionable material used by these media in programs having religious content, particularly during Christmas and Easter.

"7—The Film Division renders similar services in its field, particularly with reference to biblical films.

"8—The Youth Division's staff serves as resource people for religious youth conferences. Materials of this Division are utilized in servicing religious youth agencies.

"9—The Intergroup Education Division is consulted frequently in helping us suggest intercultural programs for religious groups. We have developed many contacts between the staff of religious groups and our intergroup consultant.

"10—The Legal and Investigative Dept. from time to time furnishes us with information sought by church groups, particularly those confronted with the problem of reactionary opposition to social action programs."

I am sure you have not overlooked the scope and organization of this machine, its thoroughness in spying on American religious and social life, and its strange zeal for changing us to suit its wishes.

"IV. Resources Outside The Agency

"Our primary resource group within Protestantism is the National Council of Churches of Christ's two major divisions—Christian Life and Work; and the Division of Christian Education. In the former, the following four departments cooperate closely with us: Racial and Cultural Relations; International Justice and Goodwill; Research; and, most frequently, Central Administration. Within the Division of Christian Education, our major contacts are with the Dept of Intergroup Education, established cooperatively by the American Jewish Committee, the ADL and the National Council of Churches; and the Departments of Leadership Education, Curriculum, Audio-Visual Aids, and Publications.

"Our primary Catholic contact is with the National Catholic Welfare Conference, particularly the departments of Education and Press. We also work with the National Catholic Biblical Association, Catholic University of America, other Catholic universities, and individual chanceries.

"Other sources include the World Council of Churches, in connection with such issues as Israel, DP legislation, immigration; State and City Church Councils and Ministerial Associations, in dealing with local problems; the Religious Education Association; the Catholic and Protestant press; the Protestant Film and Radio Commission; National Conference of Christians and Jews...

"V. Methods And Materials

"We are concerned, therefore, not only with what is taught in Christian education, but with the attitudes of the educator who trains the teachers, and of the teachers themselves. The environment surrounding the learning process also concerns us.

"The attitudes of the individual child in the Sunday School class are influenced by the group itself as much as by what his teachers seek to impart...Thus, what we are concerned with is not simply changing what is said about Jews and Judaism in the literature of Christian education, but introducing a new and positive view of Jews and Judaism into the dynamics of Christian education. Our approach seeks to take advantage of the group life fostered by church organizations...

"In education...our aid is given on many levels and in a variety of ways: calling attention to objectionable educational material; helping to produce positive material; helping to train teachers, ministers and teacher-trainers; providing audio-visual aids and similar services."

Unfortunately, our space is limited. But I must add one statement made at the bottom of page 99:

"The growth of fundamentalism, referred to above, presents us with severe handicaps in the social action field."

And I must also add two or three paragraphs beginning at the bottom of page 100:

"1—The establishment of a Dept. of Intergroup Education within the National Council of Churches, beginning July 1, 1951, represents a firm commitment on the part of Protestant educators to intergroup education in religious training. In the first nine months of its existence the Dept. has gained status and recognition. It has now reached the point where it is called upon regularly to provide materials to hundreds of organizations. Almost every branch of Protestantism is beginning to turn to this office for intergroup and interfaith materials. It has been invited to create manuals for study groups in interfaith problems.

"2—Meetings with top Protestant leadership have now been established on a regular basis...

"5—Our Division has now achieved sufficient recognition in the interreligious field so that outside agencies and mass media turn to us for guidance. For example, a national network preparing an Easter script, Pontius Pilate, was referred to us by the NCCJ (National Conference of Christians and Jews) for guidance."

Obviously the literature your children are reading in Sunday School and the "educational" and "religious" films they are shown under church auspices, are of doubtful origin if your church is affiliated with the National Council. We must no longer expect the literature to be Christian or American. The program of the AJC as above revealed is political and entirely pro-Jewish, not pro-Christian. How could it be pro-Christian when it is the AJC which takes the lead in driving out the last suggestion of Christmas and Christian traditions from the schools?

Do you suppose your minister knows about the working arrangements "established cooperatively by the American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League and the National Council of Churches" with the departments of the National Council of Churches? Why not take this and have a talk with him about it to see if he can find some other source of Sunday School and church literature and films?

Herman Goering's Letter To Winston Churchill Before His Death

Mr. Churchill:

You will have the satisfaction to survive me and my comrades in misfortune. I do not hesitate to congratulate you on this personal triumph and the finesse with which you have accomplished it. You have gone to great expense in order to secure this success, for yourself and Great Britain. Should I believe you sufficiently naive as to consider this success anything more than a show, detrimental to the Great German Empire—a performance for the peoples and their Jewish and bolshevist confederates, which were maneuvered by you into the war—then my statement to you during this last hour of my life would, also in the eyes of posterity, be squandered upon an underserving one.

My pride as a German and as one of the foremost responsible German leaders forbids me to lose even a single word in a dispute of world-historical importance on the disgraceful lowness of the methods employed by the victors as far as these proceedings concern my own person. However, as it is the obvious and announced intention of their administration of the law to throw the very German people into the abyss of illegality and to rob them once and for all of a future possibility to defend themselves by the removal of the responsible men of the national socialistic state, I have to add a few words to the historic subject of the verdict, premeditated by you and your allies.

I direct these remarks to you, since you are one of the best informed ones regarding the true underlying reasons for this war and on the possibility of avoiding the same; or to end it at least in a manner bearable to the European future; and yet refused your testimony and your oath to your own high court of justice. Therefore I shall not fail, while there is still time, to call you before the tribunal of history and direct my statements to you, because I know that this tribunal shall expose you some day as that man, who, with ambition, intelligence and energy has thrown the fate of the European nations under the wheels of foreign world powers.

In you I identify before history the man who had the ability to bring to fall Adolph Hitler and his political accomplishments; the man, who will, however, be unable to raise the shield protectingly against the invasion of Europe by the Asiatics.

It was your ambition to justify the Versailles Treaty regarding Germany. It will prove fatal to you that you succeeded. You personified the hardened obstinacy of your old gentry; and you also personified the stubbornness of its old age, opposing the last gigantic effort of the rejuvenated German power to decide the fate of Europe in the steppes of Asia in order to safeguard the same in the future. Long after my responsibility in the future development of events has found its objective judge, it will be put to your account that the past bloody war has not been the final one which had to be fought on the continent for the very possibility of existence of its nations.

You will have to answer for the fact that the bloody war of yesterday will be followed by a still greater one and that the European nations will not rule at the Volga, but at the Pyrenees mountains. It is my fervent wish that you may at least live to see the day on which the world, and the western nations in particular, will become aware of the bitter truth that it was you and your friend Roosevelt who sold their future to Bolshevism for a cheap personal triumph over nationalistic Germany. This day may come sooner than you like, and you, in spite of your advanced age, will still be vigorous enough to see it dawn bloody red over the British Isle.

I am convinced that it will bring you all those unimaginable terrors which you escaped this time through the good luck of war; or through the abhorrence of the German conduct of war to a complete degeneration of the methods of fighting between peoples of the same race. My knowledge regarding the kind and amount of arms and of the projects from us, which—thanks to your military assistance to the Red Army—have fallen into their hands, enable me to form this supposition.

There is no doubt that you—according to your habit—soon will write good memoirs and you will write them the better, as there is nobody to hinder you, to tell and suppress whatever you like.

You believe it very clever to have submitted this historic truth to the craftiness of a handful of ambitious junior lawyers in order to have it changed into an expedient dialectic treatise, in spite of your awareness as a Briton as well as a statesman, that with such means the problems of existence of peoples could not be solved and judged; neither in the past nor in the future.

I have an only too grounded opinion of your power and the cunning of your intelligence as to credit you with believing the vulgar propaganda with which you motivated the war against us and with which you had your victory over us glorified in a phantastic show.

I state here with great emphasis as one of the highest military, political and economic leaders of the Great German Empire the following: This war could not be avoided, because the politics of Great Britain—under the influence of your person and of your friends of the like opinions in all fields—persisted constantly to hinder the life-interests and the most natural development of the German people; and—filled with the senile ambition to uphold the British hegemony—preferred the second world war to an understanding, as we on our side had tried time and again to bring about, beneficial to both of the most prominent nations of Europe.

I declare herewith once more most emphatically that the guilt of the German people in this war—into which they were forced by you—consists solely in trying to end the eternal difficulties to their national existence, which you artfully instigated and continued.

It would be useless to go with you into a dispute over the causes, the conditions of constraint and the motives which led during the course of the war to political and military complications and which your lawyers knew so well to use in a one-sided manner at the cost of the national socialistic regime. The devastated European regions of culture and rubbled treasures give still today testimony of the embittered despair with which a great and proud people yesterday, with unparalleled readiness to make sacrifices, fought for its existence. Tomorrow they will testify that alone the overpowering might, led by you in the field, was able to cause the subjection and deprivation of their rights. The day after tomorrow the Russians will bear witness of the betrayal which surrendered Europe to the Red Asiatics.

The Germany which you conquered will take revenge on you through its downfall. You have neither produced a better politics nor shown a greater courage than we. You have not won the victory due to better qualities or superiority of your strength and strategy, but merely after 6 years with the predominance of your allies. Do not believe your victory to be all that which you tell the world. You and your land soon will harvest the fruits of your political art. What you as an experienced Cynic would not admit toward us—namely that our fight in the East was an act of urgent self defense, and not alone for Germany but for all Europe; and that the German fighting this war, which you constantly condemned, therefore was justified. This, your ally and friends of today, Stalin, soon will prove to you and to the British Empire.

Then you will experience what it means to fight this enemy and you also will learn that necessity knows no law; Also that you can neither fight him successfully with treaties of law nor with the weight of Great Britain and her European dwarfs.

You have stated to the German people that you were primarily concerned with the restoration of their democratic mode of life. But have not said a single word that you want to restore to them the sensible foundations for living, which have been denied them these past 25 years. Your name stands under all essential documents of this epoch of British want of comprehension and jealousy towards Germany. Your name also will stand under the result with which this epoch of Germany's liquidation has challenged history in re of Europe's existence.

My belief in the vitality of my people cannot be shaken. They will be stronger and live longer than you. However, it distresses me to know them defenseless in your power and that they now also belong to the luckless victims, who, thanks to your success, do not approach a future of progressive work for the realization of their common aim, set forth by intelligence for the western peoples, but are driven towards the greatest catastrophe in their common history.

I do not wish to argue about outrages, which you—rightly or wrongly—ascribe to us and which neither agree with my nor with the German peoples comprehension; neither do I wish to talk about those atrocities which have been committed on your part and on the part of your allies toward millions of Germans; for I know that you have made under this pretend the entire German people the object of a collective outrage of a proportion never known in history. I also know that you would not have acted differently regarding your treatment of Germany without this pretention, because since 1914 you have striven for nothing less than the destruction of the German Empire. Thus, your historic goal denies you the office of a judge over the avoidable and unavoidable consequences caused by your unremitting intentions and which were welcome to you as subsequent proof for the justification of your actions. Today I regret my and the national-socialistic government's greatest mistake, the fateful error to believe in your discernment as a statesman. I regret to have trusted you with justiciously recognizing the world-political necessity of a peaceful and progressive (prosperous) Germany for the existence of a flourishing England. I regret that our means did not suffice to convince you at the last moment that the liquidation of Germany would also be the beginning of the liquidation of Britain's world power. We began to act—each one according to his own law. I in line with the new one, for which this Europe was already too old—you holding on to the old one, for which this Europe is not anymore important enough in the world.

I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you. I leave the judgment of this with an easy mind to posterity. I hope sincerely that you will belong to this world for a long time to come as fate might grant you—as it has to me—when you decline to leave to posterity also a truth.
